JAGUARS 2012 MEDIA GUIDE: The Jaguars' 2012 media guide and season in review is online. Media can access the media guide and season in review at <http://mediaguide.jaguars.com>.

SOCIAL MEDIA: The Jaguars utilize Twitter (@jaguars) and Facebook to provide fans with timely information, an exclusive behind the scenes look at the organization and the opportunity to engage in conversations with players and coaches. Visit jaguars.com/connect for access. Jaguars.com senior writer John Oehser provides a blog throughout each game with updates and his analysis. Oehser can also be found on Twitter at @JohnOehser.

FAN SUPPORT: The Jaguars did not have a home game blacked out in 2012 for the third consecutive season. The Jaguars have a current streak of 25 straight regular season games not blacked out dating back to the 2009 season finale. The Jaguars had the highest attendance since 2004 in the home finale against New England as they distributed 70,251 tickets.

BACK IN BLACK: The Jaguars unveiled black jerseys for the first time in 2012 for week five's game against Chicago. The Jaguars will no longer wear teal as their primary home jersey. The teal jerseys will be reserved for special occasions as the club's alternate jersey. The Jaguars have worn black as a third 'alternate' jersey in the past for up to two games per season, but they had not worn black since 2009.

A NEW BEGINNING CLUB FINISHES 2-14 IN 2012

The Jacksonville Jaguars finished the 2012 season with a 2-14 record, the fewest wins in franchise history. Both of the Jaguars' wins came in the AFC South with a road win at Indianapolis and a home victory against Tennessee.

Jaguars owner Shahid Khan parted ways with General Manager Gene Smith on December 31 and hired David Caldwell on January 8 to the same position. A veteran of 17 years in the NFL, the 38-year-old Caldwell spent the past five seasons (2008-12) with the Atlanta Falcons. Prior to joining the Falcons, Caldwell spent 10 seasons (1998-2007) with the Indianapolis Colts. Caldwell dismissed Head Coach Mike Mularkey on January 10 after one season with the club and named Gus Bradley the fifth head coach in franchise history on January 17. Bradley spent the last four seasons (2009-12) with the Seattle Seahawks as defensive coordinator.

WIDE RECEIVERS SHOW PROMISE: The receiving duo of second-year pro Cecil Shorts (55-979, 7 TDs) and 2012 first-round pick Justin Blackmon (64-865, 5 TDs) led the Jaguars offense. They became the first Jaguars receiver duo since 2001 to have 800-plus receiving yards. Blackmon led all NFL rookies in receiving yards and tied for most receptions while setting franchise single-season rookie records for catches, yards, average per reception and touchdowns. Shorts, who missed two games with a concussion, led the team in receiving yards while posting four 100-yard receiving games and a franchise-record four catches of 50-plus yards.

POSŁUSZNY LEADS DEFENSE: LB Paul Posluszny established a franchise single-season record with 231 tackles in 2012 along with two sacks, three interceptions and eight tackles for loss. 2010 first-round pick Tyson Alualu led the team with 3.5 sacks and CB Derek Cox had a team-best four interceptions.

INJURIES PLAY A ROLE: The Jaguars finished the season with 21 players on injured reserve including six starters led by three-time Pro Bowl running back Maurice Jones-Drew. QB Blaine Gabbert (right forearm/left shoulder), G/C Will Rackley (ankle), WR Laurent Robinson (concussion), S Dwight Lowery (foot) and WR Cecil Shorts (concussion) also suffered season-ending injuries. Jones-Drew, who led the NFL in rushing in 2011, missed the final 10 games after injuring his foot at Oakland on Oct. 21. LB Daryl Smith, the franchise's all-time leading tackler, missed the first 14 games with a groin injury.

Of the 22 projected starters heading into the season, 11 of those players missed a combined 82 games due to injuries. Injuries forced the Jaguars to start five different running backs and four different left guards in 2012. The Jaguars finished the season with 16 players on their roster who were not with the team for the season-opener including six who started the season-finale.

HEAD COACH GUS BRADLEY

GUS BRADLEY NAMED HEAD COACH

Gus Bradley was named the fifth head coach in Jacksonville Jaguars history on January 17, 2013. Bradley has 23 years of coaching experience including seven seasons in the NFL.

Bradley, 46, spent the last four seasons (2009-12) with the Seattle Seahawks as defensive coordinator and played an important role in the club advancing to the postseason twice. The Seahawks posted an 11-5 mark in 2012, the third-best in franchise history, and advanced to the divisional round.

Bradley developed the Seahawks into one of the NFL's top units during his tenure. The Seahawks ranked sixth in the NFL in total defense (319.2) since 2011, third in points per game (17.5), fifth in takeaways (62), first in opponents passer rating (73.2) and fifth in interceptions (40).

Under Bradley's direction in 2012, the Seahawks led the NFL by allowing a franchise-record low 15.3 points per game despite playing with the third-youngest (25 years, 195 days) defensive starting unit in the league. The Seahawks allowed a franchise-low 306.2 yards per game which ranked fourth in the NFL, finishing 10th against the run (103.1) and sixth against the pass (203.1). In addition, the unit was sixth in yards per play (5.06), fifth in takeaways (31), sixth in plays of 20-plus yards allowed (50), third in passer rating (71.8) and fifth in yards per pass play (6.20). The Seahawks finished with a plus-13 turnover differential thanks in part to 14 takeaways in the last four games.

Safety Earl Thomas was voted to his second consecutive Pro Bowl in 2012. Second-year cornerback Richard Sherman earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the team and tying for second in the NFL with eight interceptions.

In 2011, Bradley's defensive unit ranked ninth in the NFL, allowing 332.2 yards per game, and ranked in the top-10 for only the sixth time in the club's 36-year history, and for the first time since 1997. Seattle ranked in the top-10 in multiple categories. The Seahawks ranked fourth in opponent yards per rush attempt (3.79), fifth in turnover differential (+8), fifth in most takeaways (31) and seventh in points allowed per game (19.7). In his first year as coordinator, the Seahawks posted two shutouts at home, the first time since 1986 they accomplished that feat.

Bradley joined Seattle after spending three years (2006-08) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, serving the last two as linebackers coach after joining the Bucs in 2006 as their defensive quality control coach.

Prior to Tampa Bay, he spent 10 seasons (1996-2005) as an assistant coach at his alma mater, North Dakota State, including six as the assistant head coach (2000-05). He also served as defensive coordinator for the Bison from 1997-2002, and again in 2005. Under Bradley's guidance, North Dakota State's defense led the Great West Football Conference in scoring defense (13.7 ppg), pass defense (150.3 ypg), total defense (272.4 ypg) and turnover margin (+1) in 2005.

Bradley was the head coach at Fort Lewis College for four months (December 1995 - March 1996) and was defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Fort Lewis for four seasons (1992-1995). Prior to Fort Lewis, he was a graduate assistant coach at NDSU for two seasons (1990-1991).

Bradley played collegiately at North Dakota State (1984-1988), where he was a free safety and punter, a four-time academic All-North Central Conference selection and a valuable member of the 1988 national championship football team. He earned his bachelor's degrees in business administration (1989) and physical education (1990) from North Dakota State as well as a master's degree in athletic administration from NDSU in 1992.

BRADLEY'S TIMELINE

2013	Jacksonville Jaguars	Head Coach

TIDBITS ON BRADLEY

Under the direction of Gus Bradley, the Seattle Seahawks ranked among the NFL's best the last two years (2011-12). Here's a look at where the Seahawks ranked in the NFC and the NFL from 2011-12:

	NFC	NFL
Yards per game (319.2)	2nd	6th
Rushing yards per game (107.7)	5th	9th
Passing yards per game (211.5)	1st	5th
Points per game (17.5)	2nd	3rd
Third down conversions (36.5 pct.)	6th	12th
Most sacks (69)	13th	22nd
Takeaways (62)	4th	5th
Fewest touchdowns (58)	2nd	3rd
Fewest rushing touchdowns (18)	3rd	T-6th
Fewest passing touchdowns (33)	1st	2nd
Completion percentage (58.8)	4th	9th
Interceptions (40)	4th	5th
Yards per attempt (6.55)	3rd	5th
Passer rating (73.2)	1st	1st
Passes of 25-plus yards (51)	4th	T-7th
Average per rush (4.1)	3rd	11th
Rushes of 10-plus yards (88)	4th	8th

■ Seahawks head coach Pete Carroll was quoted by the Associated Press last week about Bradley: "He's got a brilliant football mind. He's got a way of reaching people and touching people and getting the best out of them, coaches and players alike. He's got everything that you're looking for."

■ Bradley has coached four different players who have made a total of six Pro Bowl appearances during his stint as a position coach and coordinator. Linebacker Derrick Brooks (2007-08), safety Earl Thomas (2011-12), safety Kam Chancellor (2011), cornerback Brandon Browner (2011) all earned Pro Bowl honors under Bradley. Despite not being voted to the Pro Bowl in 2012, Seahawks cornerback Richard Sherman was named to the Associated Press All-Pro first-team along with Thomas.

■ Was head coach at Fort Lewis College from December 1995 to March 1996 before he returned to his alma mater, North Dakota State, as linebackers coach.

■ Bradley's defensive unit at Seattle held opponents to 20 or fewer points in a NFL-best 13 of 16 games in 2012 and in 21 of the last 32 games including one shutout.

■ Seahawks linebacker Bobby Wagner and defensive end Bruce Irvin were named to the 2012 Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie Team. Wagner ranked second in the NFL among rookies with 140 tackles and his three interceptions were the fourth-most among rookies. Irvin led all rookies with eight sacks. Rookies combined for 12 of the club's 36 sacks.

■ Eighth-year DE Chris Clemons registered the three highest sack totals of his career under Bradley the last three seasons. Clemons posted a career-best 11.5 sacks in 2012 and ranks sixth in the NFL with 33.5 sacks since 2010.

2013 NFL DRAFT

The Jaguars have the 2nd pick in the 2013 NFL Draft. The NFL Draft will be a three-day event with the first round on Thursday, April 25 at 7:30 p.m. EST. Rounds 2-3 are scheduled for Friday, April 26 at 6:30 p.m. EST, and rounds 4-7 will be held on Saturday, April 27 at 10:00 a.m. EST.

The winner of the Super Bowl will select last and the other Super Bowl participant next-to-last. The Jaguars currently hold one pick in each of the seven rounds including the second overall selection in the first round. Additionally, the Jaguars could be granted more picks in Rounds 3-7 as compensatory selections, based on net unrestricted free agency losses in 2012.

- Here's the breakdown by position of the team's 328 receptions for 3,746 yards: wide receivers (206-2,690), running backs (64-499), tight ends (57-563), quarterbacks (1-(-6)).
- The Jaguars scored 20 or more points in six games with five of the six on the road. In eight home games, the Jaguars averaged 272.6 yards and 11.8 points. In eight road games, the club averaged 325.8 yards and 20.1 points.
- The Jaguars concluded the season with 10 players on their roster who spent time on a team's practice squad in 2012: WR Mike Brown, WR Toney Clemons, RB Jonathan Grimes, WR Jerrell Jackson, DT Jerome Long, LB Brandon Marshall, RB Richard Murphy, G Austin Pasztor, TE Allen Reisner, and TE Isaiah Stanback.
- The Jaguars finished the season with 16 players on their current roster who were not with the team for the season-opener: G Mark Asper, DE Jason Babin, WR Mike Brown, WR Toney Clemons, RB Jonathan Grimes, WR Jerrell Jackson, DT Jerome Long, CB Antwaun Molden, RB Richard Murphy, QB Jordan Palmer, G Austin Pasztor, TE Allen Reisner, WR Jordan Shipley, TE Isaiah Stanback, RB Keith Toston and C/G Steve Vallos.
- The Jaguars led at halftime in four of 16 games and were tied in three games. The Jaguars led after three quarters in three of 16 games.
- Only two opposing quarterbacks threw for 300 yards against the Jaguars. Indianapolis' Andrew Luck threw for 313 yards on 9/23 and Houston's Matt Schaub had 527 yards through the air on 11/18. Three opposing quarterbacks (Christian Ponder, 105.5; Matt Schaub, 121.7; Ryan Tannehill, 123.2) posted a 100-plus passer rating against the Jaguars.
- Four opposing players rushed for 100-plus yards (Arian Foster, 110; Matt Forte, 107; Fred Jackson, 109; Reggie Bush, 104) and five players had 100-plus receiving yards (T.Y. Hilton, 113; A.J. Green, 117; Brandon Marshall, 144; Calvin Johnson, 129; Andre Johnson, 273).
- The Jaguars challenged three plays with one play overturned, tied for the fewest challenges in the NFL.
- The Jaguars finished with one non-offensive touchdown, a 19-yard blocked punt return by Mike Harris in the season finale at Tennessee.
- The Jaguars had 20 plays of 30-plus yards including eight of 50-plus yards which ranked as the third-most in team history (11, 1998; 10, 2007). The 20 plays of 30-plus yards were the most since 2009 (21). In 2011 the club recorded 10 plays of 30 plus-yards including three of 50-plus yards.
- The Jaguars tripled their 2011 total (6) for completions of 30-plus yards with 18.
- The Jaguars allowed a score in 31 of the last 33 quarters including 14 straight.
- The Jaguars had 40-plus passing attempts in six games including four of the last five games, the most in team history.

JAGUARS PERFORMANCES

- The Jaguars produced six individual 100-yard receiving games in 2012 with a team-high four by WR Cecil Shorts and one each by WR Justin Blackmon and TE Marcedes Lewis. The six games were the most since 2008 (6).
- All seven of Justin Blackmon's receptions of 25-plus yards came on the road. In eight road games, he had 29 receptions for 522 yards (18.0 avg.) and two touchdowns.
- Four of Blackmon's five touchdown catches were from Chad Henne and four of his touchdowns were on passes between 1-10 yards.
- In six division games, Blackmon recorded 22 receptions for 409 yards (18.6 avg.) with three touchdowns.
- Blackmon ranked fifth in the NFL with 226 yards (11 rec.) on third-and-long (8-plus yards). He led the Jaguars with 115 receiving yards after contact.
- In five division games, WR Cecil Shorts finished with 14 receptions for 371 yards (26.5 avg.) and four touchdowns.
- Shorts ranked sixth in the NFL with 384 yards on 23 receptions in the fourth quarter. His four touchdowns in the fourth quarter were the fourth-most in the NFL. Shorts led the Jaguars with 379 yards after the catch.
- In six road games, QB Chad Henne completed 87 of 170 passes for 1,146 yards with seven touchdowns and four interceptions for a 76.7 passer rating. He had 11 of his 16 completions of 25-plus yards on the road.
- Henne threw 10 of his 11 touchdowns from the shotgun formation.
- In five road games, QB Blaine Gabbert did not throw an interception and threw for five touchdowns. He had a 91.9 passer rating on the road.
- C Brad Meester and OT Eugene Monroe were the only offensive players to play every snap in all 16 games.
- Monroe has had seven different starting guards play beside him in four seasons including four this season. Will Rackley, Eben Britton, Justin Smiley, Vince Manuwai, Herb Taylor, Mike Brewster and Austin Pasztor have started at left guard alongside Monroe.
- Three of TE Marcedes Lewis's four touchdowns in 2012 came on the road.
- 2010 first-round pick Tyson Alualu was the only Jaguars defensive player to start all 16 games the last three seasons and joined center Brad Meester as the only players overall. Alualu's 48 consecutive starts are third-most in the NFL among defensive tackles. Alualu, Dawan Landry, Jeremy Mincey and Paul Posluszny were the only defensive players to start every game the last two seasons.
- Sixteen of the club's 20 sacks came from defensive linemen. Eleven different players were credited with at least one sack. DT Tyson Alualu finished the season with a team-high 3.5 sacks.
- Both of Paul Posluszny's sacks and all three of his interceptions came in road games.
- CB Derek Cox, a third-round draft pick in 2009, led the team with four interceptions and 16 passes defended in only 12 games played. He has at least four interceptions in three of his four seasons.

INJURIES TAKE TOLL

The Jaguars were forced to shuffle their starting lineup throughout the season due to injuries with 21 players concluding the season on injured reserve. Six starters finished the season on injured reserve in RB Maurice Jones-Drew (foot), QB Blaine Gabbert (right forearm/left shoulder), G/C Will Rackley (ankle), WR Cecil Shorts (concussion), S Dwight Lowery (foot) and WR Laurent Robinson (concussion).

Of the 22 projected starters heading into the season, 11 of those players missed a combined 82 games due to injuries.

Here's the list of key injuries:

■ WR Cecil Shorts - Was inactive on 12/9 against the Jets with a concussion and missed the season-finale at Tennessee after he was placed on injured reserve.

■ RB Maurice Jones-Drew, a three-time Pro Bowler, suffered a left foot injury at Oakland on Oct. 21 and missed the final 10 games. Prior to the Packers game on 10/28, he ranked second in the NFL by accounting for 35.3 percent of the Jaguars offense with 500 of the club's 1,415 total yards. He has missed 13 games in his career due to injury with 10 coming this season.

■ FB Greg Jones missed four games with a thigh injury, snapping a streak of 39 consecutive games played.

■ LB Daryl Smith was placed on injured reserve with a groin injury on Oct. 25 with a designation to return. He returned for the final two games after not playing in the preseason or the first 14 regular season games. Each team can activate one player per season from the injured reserve list if the player sustained a major injury.

■ S Dwight Lowery injured his ankle in week five against Chicago and missed five games. Returned to the starting lineup for four games before suffering a foot injury on 12/16 at Miami. Was placed on injured reserve on Dec. 22.

■ WR Laurent Robinson was placed on injured reserve on Nov. 21 with a concussion after playing in seven games. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent in 2012.

■ CB Rashean Mathis injured his groin at Oakland and missed four straight games. He missed the final seven games of the 2011 season after suffering a knee injury on Nov. 13.

■ CB Derek Cox was inactive at Green Bay with a back injury but returned to the lineup against Detroit. He missed the first two games with a hamstring injury. He led the team with four interceptions in 12 games played. He injured his leg on 11/25 against Tennessee and was inactive on 12/2 at Buffalo.

■ QB Blaine Gabbert was placed on injured reserve on Nov. 21 with a right forearm/left shoulder injury. Injured his left shoulder in the second quarter on Oct. 21 at Oakland and did not return. Started the next four games before suffering a right forearm injury at Houston on Nov. 18.

■ DE Austen Lane was hampered by a foot injury in the preseason and missed the first three regular season games. He started seven straight games before injuring his foot against Tennessee on 11/25. He was inactive on 12/2 at Buffalo and 12/23 against New England.

■ OL Cameron Bradfield was inactive for weeks two and three after suffering an ankle injury in the season-opener.

■ G/C Will Rackley was placed on injured reserve on Aug. 31 after suffering an ankle injury during training camp.

RUNNING BACK SHUFFLE

The Jaguars started five different starting running backs in 2012 due to injuries and eight different running backs had at least one carry. Four of the eight backs with carries finished the season on injured reserve in Maurice Jones-Drew, Rashad Jennings, Jalen Parmele and Jordan Todman.

Here's the list of players that started at running back in 2012:

■ Maurice Jones-Drew missed the final 10 games with a left foot injury he suffered on 10/21 at Oakland. The three-time Pro Bowl selection led the team with 414 yards on 86 carries. He led the NFL in 2011 with a franchise-record 1,606 yards.

■ Jalen Parmele made two starts before suffering a season-ending groin injury on 11/25 vs. Tennessee and was placed on injured reserve. He finished the season with 143 yards on 40 carries.

■ Rashad Jennings opened the 2012 season as a starter but injured his knee in the opener and missed two games. He suffered a concussion on 12/2 at Buffalo and was inactive for two weeks before he was placed on injured reserve on Dec. 24. The 2009 seventh-round pick had 101 carries for 283 yards and two touchdowns in 2012. He became the first player other than Maurice Jones-Drew to have 100 carries in a season for the Jaguars since 2008.

■ Montell Owens started three games and posted a career-high 42 carries for 209 yards with one touchdown. He was inactive for the season-finale with a foot injury. He finished with a career-high 14 carries for 91 yards (6.5 avg.) on 12/9 against the Jets including a 32-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. His rushing touchdown was his first since Dec. 18, 2008 against Indianapolis.

■ Keith Toston made his first career start in the season-finale at Tennessee and registered a career-high 74 yards on 17 carries. He entered the Titans game with only 19 career rushes for 54 yards in 20 games and had not rushed the ball in a regular season game since Dec. 22, 2010 at New Orleans as a member of the St. Louis Rams.

DYNAMIC DUO FORMED

The Jaguars developed a young receiving duo in 2012 that bodes well for the future. Cecil Shorts (979) and Justin Blackmon (865) became the first Jaguars receiver duo since 2001 to have 800-plus receiving yards in a season and marked only seventh time overall in 18 seasons. Jimmy Smith and Keenan McCardell accomplished the feat in six different seasons.

JAGUARS INVOLVED IN 3 OVERTIME GAMES

The Jaguars played in a franchise-record three overtime games in 2012, all resulting in losses on the road. The Jaguars have played in 14 overtime games in franchise history and own a 7-7 record.

In the season-opener, the Jaguars and Vikings played the first overtime game with the new overtime rules instituted for regular season games in 2012. For the 2010 postseason, the NFL installed a modified sudden death system and the system was expanded to cover all NFL games in 2012 including preseason and regular season.

Both teams have the opportunity to possess the ball at least once in the extra period unless the team that receives the overtime kickoff scores a touchdown on its first possession.

In the three overtime games, the Jaguars won the coin toss at Oakland lost the coin toss at Minnesota and at Houston. In all three games there were multiple possessions, with two at Minnesota, two at Oakland and five at Houston.

WEST COAST

The Jaguars' only game on the west coast in 2012 was at Oakland on Oct. 21, a 26-23 overtime loss. The Raiders game was one of five games outside the Eastern time zone (at Green Bay, at Minnesota, at Houston, at Tennessee) in 2012. The Jaguars did not have a game on the west coast in 2011. The Jaguars own a 2-7 mark in west coast games (at Oakland, Seattle, San Diego and San Francisco).

In 18 seasons, the Jaguars have had at least one game on the west coast in eight seasons (1996, 1997, 2001, 2004, 2005, 2009, 2010, 2012). The longest trip for the Jaguars was to Oakland (2,765) followed by Minnesota (1,461) and Green Bay (1,267).

WELCOME TO THE NFL

The Jaguars had 21 players make their NFL debut in 2012 including 16 rookies. At least five first or second year players were in the starting lineup the last three games.

Rookie WR Toney Clemens, rookie DT Jeris Pendleton and first-year RB Jordan Todman all played in their first NFL game against the New York Jets on 12/9. Clemens and Todman were signed to the club's 53-man roster on Nov. 27 from the practice squads of Minnesota and Pittsburgh, respectively. Pendleton was the club's seventh-round draft pick in the 2012 draft.

Rookie guard Austin Pasztor made his NFL debut on 12/16 at Miami and started at left guard. Pasztor spent 12 weeks on the Jaguars practice squad before he was signed to the 53-man roster on Dec. 14. He was originally signed by Minnesota as a rookie free agent. Rookie WR Mike Brown saw his first NFL action on 12/23 against New England after spending the first 15 weeks on the club's practice squad. Rookie WR Jerrell Jackson and G Mark Asper played in their first NFL regular season games in the season-finale at Tennessee.

HOT START AT HOME

The Jaguars registered a franchise-record 202 yards in the first quarter on 12/23 at New England, the sixth-most in team history for any quarter. The previous high in the first quarter was 191 against Miami in 1998. The Jaguars controlled the ball for 10:48 and picked up 10 first downs.

The Jaguars used a nine-play, 78-yard drive on the opening possession to score a touchdown on the opening drive for the first time since October 9, 2011 against Cincinnati. Chad Henne found Justin Blackmon for a three-yard touchdown. The club's 16 opening possessions in 2012 resulted in two touchdowns, three field goals, eight punts, two interceptions and a fumble lost. The Jaguars scored on their first two drives against the Patriots as Josh Scobee hit a 41-yard field goal on the ensuing drive.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN...

The Jaguars had five games outside the Eastern time zone including one west coast game (at Oakland). The Jaguars traveled 15,296 miles to their eight regular season road games, more than 5,000 more than the 2011 season (9,944)

The 15,296 miles were the 13th-most in the NFL. Oakland traveled an NFL-high 28,692 miles to their eight regular season road games.

RECORD-BREAKING DAY

The Jaguars and Texans combined for numerous milestones on 11/18 at Reliant Stadium. Here's the list:

- The Jaguars set a franchise record by playing in their third overtime game of the season, all on the road.
- Most combined points (80), plays (158), yards (1,111) and first downs (56) in Jaguars history.
- Texans QB Matt Schaub threw for 527 yards, tied for the second-most in a game in NFL history. Schaub's yards, completions (43) and attempts (55) were the most by an opposing player in Jaguars history. He became the third different quarterback to throw for five touchdowns against the Jaguars, joining Steve McNair (12/26/99 for Tennessee) and Tony Banks (9/10/00 for Baltimore).
- Texans WR Andre Johnson (14-273) and Jaguars WR Justin Blackmon (7-236) both eclipsed 200-plus receiving yards. It marked the first game in NFL history in which two players each had 235-plus receiving yards. Johnson's 273 yards were the most by an opposing player in Jaguars history.
- The Jaguars allowed a franchise-record 653 yards, 504 net yards passing, 92 plays and 39 first downs.
- The Jaguars produced a season-high 458 total yards, 37 points and four touchdowns. The 458 total yards were the most since Nov. 14, 2010 against Houston (491 yards). The Jaguars had four plays of 30-plus yards,

JAGUARS HONOR FRED TAYLOR

Former Jaguars running back Fred Taylor was inducted into the 'Pride of the Jaguars' at halftime of the week four game against Cincinnati as part of the first Alumni Weekend. Taylor joined former offensive tackle Tony Boselli (2006) and owners Wayne and Delores Weaver (2011) in the 'Pride of the Jaguars.'

Taylor, the club's first-round draft pick in 1998, started 136 of 140 games in 11 seasons with the Jaguars and led the team in rushing in eight of 11 seasons. He ranks 15th in NFL history with 11,695 yards on 2,534 carries along with 66 rushing touchdowns.

100-YARD RECEIVERS IN 3 STRAIGHT

The Jaguars had a receiver eclipse 100 receiving yards in three straight games, tied for the second-longest streak in team history (5 games, 2000).

Cecil Shorts produced a game-high 105 yards on four receptions on 11/25 vs. Tennessee. Shorts also had 105 yards on 11/8 against Indianapolis and rookie Justin Blackmon totaled 236 yards on 11/18 at Houston.

CECIL SHORTS NOTES

SHORTS LEADS RECEIVING CORPS

After finishing with only two receptions for 30 yards as a rookie in 2011, WR Cecil Shorts showed dramatic improvement in his second season by leading the team in receiving yards (979), touchdowns (7), receptions of 20-plus yards (17) and average per reception (17.8). He ranked second with 55 receptions.

Additional Notes on Shorts:

- Eclipsed 100 receiving yards in a team-high four games, his first career 100-yard receiving games, and most by a Jaguar receiver since 2004 (Jimmy Smith, 4).
- Shorts' 979 receiving yards were more than 519 yards than the club's 2011 leader in receiving yards (Marcedes Lewis, 460).
- Missed two games with a concussion and ended the season on injured reserve.
- Finished with a career-high eight receptions for 116 yards (14.5 avg.) on 10/28 at Green Bay. He totaled 105 yards on six receptions on 11/8 against Indianapolis, 105 yards on 11/25 against Tennessee on four receptions and 101 yards on six catches on 12/16 at Miami.
- Scored five of his seven touchdowns in road games and finished with 33 receptions for 608 yards (18.4 avg.).
- Averaged 26.5-yards per reception in five division games with 14 catches for 371 yards and four touchdowns. Had a touchdown and a reception of 25-plus yards in four of five games.

ON THE BRINK OF 1,000

Cecil Shorts was 21 receiving yards shy of reaching 1,000 for the season before he was placed on injured reserve on Dec. 24 with a concussion. Shorts was looking to become the first Jaguar since 2005 to reach 1,000 receiving yards and join Jimmy Smith (9 seasons) and Keenan McCardell (4 seasons) as the only players in franchise history to accomplish the feat. Shorts missed two games with a concussion in 2012.

In the six previous seasons (2006-11), only two players have recorded more than 800 yards receiving (Mike Sims-Walker, 869, 2009; Mike Thomas, 820, 2010).

NOTHING SHORT ABOUT THESE TOUCHDOWNS

Cecil Shorts tied for second in the NFL with four receptions of 50-plus yards, the most in franchise history for a season, and tied for first with three touchdown receptions of 50 yards. Three of his team-high seven touchdowns were over 50 yards.

Here's the list:

■ (Sept. 23 at Indianapolis) - Took a short pass from Blaine Gabbert and raced 80 yards for the game-winning score with 45 seconds remaining. It was the third-longest touchdown reception in team history.

■ (Nov. 8 vs. Indianapolis) - Hooked up with Blaine Gabbert for a 52-yard reception in the third quarter.

■ (Nov. 18 at Houston) - Caught a short pass from Chad Henne in the second quarter and went 67 yards for a touchdown.

■ (Nov. 25 vs. Tennessee) - Connected with Chad Henne on an intermediate pass across the middle, split the defenders and outran the defense for a 59-yard touchdown. Finished the game with a team-high three receptions of 20-plus yards.

CHAD HENNE NOTES

HENNE UNDER CENTER

Chad Henne was under center for all but four offensive plays the last seven games (six starts) as he replaced injured Blaine Gabbert on the club's second series on 11/18 at Houston. Here's a look at his game-by-game totals in 2012:

- Sept. 16 vs. Houston (2-2-23, 114.6 rating) - Saw action for one series in the fourth quarter.
- Oct. 21 at Oakland (9-20-71, 54.4 rating) - Entered game midway through the second quarter after Blaine Gabbert left the game with a shoulder injury. Directed the club on 11 drives including one in overtime.
- Nov. 8 vs. Indianapolis (10-16-121, 1 TD, 1 INT, 80.5 rating) - Entered the game early in the fourth quarter in relief of injured Blaine Gabbert. Hooked up with Cecil Shorts for a four-yard TD. Had a 26-yard completion to RB Jalen Parmele.
- Nov. 18 at Houston (16-33-354, 4 TDs, 126.8 rating) - Entered the game on the club's second offensive series. Became only second QB in franchise history to throw for 350 yards with fewer than 20 completions. Hooked up with Justin Blackmon for an 81-yard touchdown, the second-longest in team history. Had four completions of 30-plus yards including 81 yards (TD, Blackmon), 67 yards (TD, Cecil Shorts), 63 yards (Blackmon) and 39 yards (Blackmon).
- Nov. 25 vs. Tennessee (17-26-261, 2 TDs, 1 INT, 108.0 rating) - Made his first start for the Jaguars and had multiple touchdown passes in second straight game. His 108.0 rating was his fourth career game with a 100-plus rating and first as a starter since Nov. 28, 2010 at Oakland (100.3). Had eight completions of 20-plus yards.
- Dec. 2 at Buffalo (18-41-208, 1 TD, 1 INT, 57.8 rating) - Accounted for both of the club's touchdowns with a one-yard run in the second quarter and a five-yard touchdown pass to Cecil Shorts in the fourth quarter. Finished with three completions of 20-plus yards.
- Dec. 9 vs. New York Jets (21-43-185, 2 INTs, 41.3 rating) - Had 40-plus passing attempts for the second straight game. Was intercepted by LB Bart Scott on the club's opening drive and by Ellis Lankster with 22 seconds remaining in the game.
- Dec. 16 at Miami (18-34-221, 73.3 rating) - Returned to Miami where he spent four seasons. Had six completions of 17-plus yards including two for 30-plus yards to Justin Blackmon (38) and Cecil Shorts (30).
- Dec. 23 vs. New England (29-51-348, 1 TD, 3 INTs, 59.9 rating) - Threw for 348 yards, the fifth-most in his career including 162 in the first quarter. Had two completions of 30-plus yards, hitting Montell Owens for 53 yards and hooking up with Jordan Shipley for 36 yards.
- Dec. 30 at Tennessee (25-41-298, 2 TDs, 3 INTs, 69.0 rating) - Had two interceptions returned for touchdowns. Had touchdown passes to Justin Blackmon (30 yards) and Jordan Shipley (5 yards).

HENNE GIVEN SUNDAY

Fifth-year pro Chad Henne saw action for the fourth time this season as a Jaguar on 11/18 at Houston and became first quarterback since Hall of Famer Steve Young in 1987 to come off the bench and throw for four touchdowns and no interceptions.

Henne completed 16 of 33 passes for 354 yards and four touchdowns for a 126.8 passer rating. It marked his eighth career 300-yard passing game and second-highest passer rating of his career. He replaced injured Blaine Gabbert (right forearm/elbow) on the club's second offensive possession. He was inserted into the game on 10/21 at Oakland after Gabbert departed with a left shoulder injury in the second quarter.

Henne's 354 yards tied for the seventh-most in franchise history and he became the second quarterback to post 350-plus passing yards with fewer than 20 completions. He joined Mark Brunell (11/29/98 at Cincinnati), Quinn Gray (12/30/07 at Houston) and David Garrard (10/31/10 at Dallas) as the only Jaguars quarterbacks to throw for four touchdowns in a game.

PLAYER NOTES

THE "POZ" LEADS JAGUARS DEFENSE

It's fair to say the signing of LB Paul Posluszny as an unrestricted free agent in 2011 has proved to be a positive for the Jaguars. In two seasons, Posluszny has averaged 211.5 tackles with 423 total stops along with four sacks, five interceptions and three forced fumbles. He led the Jaguars with a single-season franchise record 231 tackles in 2012 with double-digit tackles in 13 of 16 games. He has registered 100-plus tackles in five straight seasons. He registered a career-high two sacks in the season finale at Tennessee.

Posluszny accumulated a then career-high 192 tackles in his first season with the Jaguars in 2011. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent after spending four years with Buffalo.

INSTANT UPGRADE

The Jaguars claimed ninth-year DE Jason Babin off waivers from Philadelphia on Nov. 28 and he was in the starting lineup the last five games, producing 1.5 sacks, two forced fumbles, four tackles for loss and eight quarterback pressures.

Babin had a trifecta on 12/9 against the Jets with a sack/forced fumble/fumble recovery on Mark Sanchez, his first sack as a Jaguar. He followed with a half of a sack/forced fumble of Ryan Tannehill on 12/16 at Miami.

The two-time (2010-11) Pro Bowl selection has played in 114 games with 74 starts over his nine seasons and has spent time with Houston (2004-06), Seattle (2007-08), Kansas City (2008), Tennessee (2010) and Philadelphia (2009, 2011-12). He was a first-round draft pick of the Texans in 2004, the 27th pick overall. His career totals include 55.0 sacks, 11 forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

Babin started the first 11 games of the 2012 season for the Eagles and totaled 32 tackles (24 solo), 5.5 sacks, 30 quarterback pressures and two forced fumbles. His 5.5 sacks led the Eagles and he had a sack in three of his last four games played.

BABIN'S HIT LIST

NOSE FOR THE BALL

Eighth-year DT C.J. Mosley was the most productive defensive lineman in 2012, leading the team with three fumble recoveries and adding two sacks. Mosley ranked second among defensive linemen with a career-high 80 tackles. He entered the 2012 season without a fumble recovery in 83 career games.

The three fumble recoveries tied for the sixth-most in the NFL. Bryan Schwartz (1998) and Donovan Darius (2004) hold the single-season franchise record for fumble recoveries with four.

Mosley, who started a career-high 12 games in 2012, was originally a sixth-round draft pick of Minnesota in 2005 and also spent time with the New York Jets and Cleveland.

Mosley recorded a sack/forced fumble of Matt Schaub on 11/18 at Houston in the first quarter and Schaub recovered the ball. He sacked Schaub again in the third quarter. He has 11 career sacks including three with the Jaguars.

SMITH BACK IN ACTION

LB Daryl Smith made his 2012 debut in the final two games after missing the first 14 games with a groin injury. He was placed on injured reserve on Oct. 25 with a designation to return.

Smith, a second-round pick in 2004, has started 124 of 126 games and missed only three games due to injuries before 2012.

Smith owns the Jaguars record with 1,096 tackles including 166 in 2011, the second-most of his career. He led the team in 2011 with a franchise-record 15 tackles for loss and added 3.5 sacks, one interception, two forced fumbles and 11 quarterback pressures. He surpassed 100 tackles in seven straight seasons and was the only player in team history to do it in five straight seasons. Here's the Jaguars all-time list for most tackles:

GAME 1 JAGUARS 23, VIKINGS 26 (OT)

SEPTEMBER 9, 2012
MALL OF AMERICA FIELD - MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

	1	2	3	4	OT
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-1)	3	6	3	11	0	- 23
MINNESOTA VIKINGS (1-0)	0	7	7	9	3	- 26

In the first game under head coach Mike Mularkey the Jaguars started strong, came from behind to take the lead in the final minute, then lost in overtime to the Vikings. On its first possession of the new season the Jaguars offense marched 77 yards in 17 plays, consuming more than half of the first quarter, but was forced to settle for a field goal after reaching the Minnesota one. The Jacksonville defense started equally well, forcing four punts on the Vikings' first four possessions, but Minnesota scored on an Adrian Peterson run with 41 seconds left in the half to narrow the Jaguars' lead to 9-7. The Minnesota momentum continued in the third quarter when the Vikings recovered a muffed snap and then moved 44 yards in four plays to take a 14-9 lead on Peterson's second touchdown run. The Jaguars got a turnover on the next Minnesota possession when Terrance Knighton forced a Christian Ponder fumble and C.J. Mosley recovered, setting up a 26-yard Josh Scobee field goal which made it 14-12. A wild fourth quarter included five scores, with three consecutive possessions ending in field goals - two by the Vikings' rookie Blair Walsh and a 47-yarder by Scobee. Trailing 20-15 with 1:18 remaining and no time outs, the Jaguars marched 76 yards in six plays with Blaine Gabbert completing four passes including a 39-yard touchdown strike to Cecil Shorts. The touchdown and a two-point conversion pass from Gabbert to rookie Justin Blackmon gave the Jaguars a 23-20 lead with 20 seconds left. Minnesota took advantage of a short kickoff to start at its 31-yard line with 14 seconds remaining. Ponder completed passes for 26 and 6 yards to reach the Jacksonville 37, from where Walsh booted a 55-yard field goal to tie it at 23-23 as time expired in regulation. In overtime the Vikings used eight plays to go 55 yards, setting up Walsh's fourth field goal from 38 yards. The Vikings defense then held as the Jaguars failed to convert a first down.

GAME 2 JAGUARS 7, TEXANS 27

SEPTEMBER 16, 2012
EVERBANK FIELD - JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

	1	2	3	4
HOUSTON TEXANS (2-0)	10	7	7	3	- 27
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-2)	0	0	7	0	- 7

The Houston Texans dominated from start to finish in a convincing 27-7 win in Jacksonville. The statistical domination included Houston's 411 total yards to the Jaguars' 117, 216 rushing yards to 65, a 43:17-to-16:43 possession time advantage, and 28 first downs to nine. Jacksonville failed to convert a third down on nine attempts while completing nine passes and making nine first downs on the day. Houston set the tone on the first possession, marching 66 yards in 13 plays to set up Shayne Graham's 31-yard field goal. While the Jaguars punted on their first six possessions, Houston added touchdown runs by Arian Foster and Ben Tate to build a 17-0 halftime lead. At that point Jacksonville had four first downs, 43 total yards compared to the Texans' 242, -4 passing yards, and had not crossed the Houston 44-yard line. In the second half Jacksonville got a spark with an 18-yard punt return by Mike Thomas to the Houston 37. Blaine Gabbert threw 32 yards to Laurent Robinson on first down and five yards to Maurice Jones-Drew for a touchdown that narrowed the score to 17-7 and gave the home crowd life. But the Texans responded with a 17-play drive, kept alive by an offside call on a third-and-long which the Texans converted before Tate capped the 80-yard drive with his second touchdown run from the two. Graham's second field goal from 37 yards in the fourth quarter made it 27-7. On the Jaguars' final possession Chad Henne replaced Gabbert, who had suffered a leg injury, but an aborted snap and fumble ended the drive. The Houston defense sacked Gabbert three times on the day, led by J.J. Watt who finished with 1.5 sacks, 2 batted passes, a fumble recovery and a team-leading five tackles. Josh Scobee broke the Jaguars' all-time record for points with his 765th, topping Mike Hollis' 10-yard-old mark of 764. Jones-Drew's touchdown was the 75th of his career, but the Jaguars set franchise records for fewest total yards and lowest time of possession.

JAGUARS 22, COLTS 17

SEPTEMBER 23, 2012
LUCAS OIL STADIUM - INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

	1	2	3	4
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-2)	3	0	10	9	-	22
INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (1-2)	7	7	0	3	-	17

In a game that featured five lead changes including two in the final minute, the Jaguars claimed their first win under Mike Mularkey and owner Shad Khan with a 22-17 victory in Indianapolis. Maurice Jones-Drew paced the offense with 177 rushing yards including a 59-yard touchdown run on the team's first play of the third quarter, but it was Cecil Shorts' 80-yard catch-and-run touchdown with 45 seconds remaining that erased the Colts' final lead. The Jaguars outscored the Colts 19 to 3 in the second half after trailing 14-3. Jacksonville scored on its initial possession with a 14-play drive setting up the first of Josh Scobee's three field goals, but the Colts scored touchdowns on their first and last possessions of the first half. Indianapolis marched 74 yards in six plays to take a 7-3 lead on a 40-yard pass from Andrew Luck to T.Y. Hilton, then moved 80 yards in 14 plays to set up Luck's four-yard scoring strike to Mewelde Moore. The Jaguars' 10 third-quarter points came on Jones-Drew's 59-yard run and Scobee's 47-yard field goal, which was set up by a Paul Posluszny interception, to narrow the Colts' lead to 14-13 entering the fourth quarter. Scobee tacked on a 26-yarder on the Jaguars' first series of the quarter to take a 16-14 lead. Indianapolis' Adam Vinatieri missed a 36-yard field goal try with 4:45 left before nailing a 37-yarder with 56 seconds remaining for a 17-16 Colts lead. With no timeouts remaining the Jaguars took possession at their own 20-yard line after a touchback. On the first play Gabbert hit Shorts in stride over the middle and Shorts split the Indianapolis secondary for an 80-yard touchdown. A two-point conversion attempt failed but the Jaguars held a 22-17 lead with 45 seconds remaining. A 40-yard kick return to the Indianapolis 38 put Luck and the Colts in scoring position with no timeouts. On third down Luck hit Hilton with a 36-yard completion to the Jacksonville 26, but the Colts had time for just two final plays which were incomplete passes. The win marked Gabbert's first 4th-quarter comeback victory, and Jones-Drew's touchdown was the 63rd rushing touchdown of his career which broke Fred Taylor's franchise record.

JAGUARS 10, BENGALS 27

SEPTEMBER 30, 2012
EVERBANK FIELD, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

	1	2	3	4
CINCINNATI BENGALS (3-1)	3	14	0	10	-	27
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-3)	0	7	3	0	-	10

The Jaguars were held to 69 rushing yards, including 38 by Maurice Jones-Drew, and a -6 sack differential in falling at home to the Bengals, 27-10. The Jaguars moved inside the Cincinnati five-yard line twice and came away with a touchdown and a field goal, but they failed to cross their own 40-yard line on any of their other eight possessions. The Bengals, meanwhile, had seven drives inside the Jacksonville 20 that resulted in 27 points. A golden opportunity presented itself on Cincinnati's second play of the game when Kyle Bosworth intercepted Andy Dalton's first pass, but Bosworth fumbled the ball back to the Bengals at their own nine-yard line. Cincinnati capitalized on the second chance, marching 74 yards in seven plays to set up Mike Nugent's 35-yard field goal. On their ensuing possession the Jaguars used 13 plays to cover 77 yards without facing a third down, and Mercedes Lewis capped the drive by catching Blaine Gabbert's two-yard touchdown pass for a 7-3 lead. That would be the Jaguars' only lead of the day as Cincinnati scored from a yard out on back-to-back possessions on a Dalton pass and a Dalton run in the second quarter to make it 17-7 at the half. In the third quarter the Bengals drove to the Jacksonville one again, but this time Jeremy Mincey forced a BenJarvus Green-Ellis fumble which C.J. Mosley recovered in the end zone. With new life the Jaguars offense picked up 77 yards in 14 plays but had to settle for Josh Scobee's 21-yard field goal after being stopped at the three. The Bengals onslaught continued, however, with a Dalton touchdown pass to A.J. Green and a Nugent field goal on their next two possessions to push the lead to 27-10 early in the final quarter. Green finished with six receptions for 117 yards and Dalton was not sacked on the day while Gabbert was sacked six times. The Jaguars entered the game their healthiest to date, with 21 of 22 starters in the lineup for the first time. Former Jaguars running back Fred Taylor was honored at halftime by becoming the second player inducted into the Pride of the Jaguars.

JAGUARS 3, BEARS 41

OCTOBER 7, 2012
EVERBANK FIELD - JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

	1	2	3	4
CHICAGO BEARS (4-1)	3	0	10	28	-	41
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-4)	0	3	0	0	-	3

The Bears scored on all four of their second-half possessions in addition to two of the Jaguars' possessions, turning a 3-3 halftime score into a 41-3 rout. It was the Jaguars' worst-ever loss at home. The first half was evenly played, with each team running 33 plays and producing three punts, a field goal and a turnover. The Jaguars' highlights were an interception by Derek Cox on Jay Cutler's first pass attempt, and a 31-yard Josh Scobee field goal which was the 175th of his career, tying the franchise record set by Mike Hollis. Chicago opened the second half with a 17-play, 76-yard drive that stalled at the Jacksonville 13 and ended with Robbie Gould's 31-yard field goal. At that point the Bears had a 6-3 lead with 5:42 remaining in the third quarter, but it was all Bears from there. Blaine Gabbert's ensuing first-down pass was intercepted by Charles Tillman and returned 36 yards for a touchdown. After a Jaguars punt Chicago scored again, with a 10-yard pass from Cutler to Alshon Jeffery on the first play of the fourth quarter that made it 20-3. Following another Jacksonville punt Cutler threw a 24-yard scoring pass to Brandon Marshall, who finished with 12 receptions for 144 yards. On the ensuing Jaguars series Gabbert was intercepted by Lance Briggs for another 36-yard interception-return touchdown, making the score 34-3. Just after the two-minute warning Chicago tacked on a 46-yard touchdown run by Armando Allen to make it 41-3. Chicago finished with 501 yards of total offense, including 214 rushing, to the Jaguars' 189 total yards. Matt Forte ran for 107 yards while Maurice Jones-Drew was held to 56, although he topped 12,000 all-purpose yards for his career. Austen Lane got the Jaguars' first sack since opening day, snapping a streak of three games without a sack by the Jacksonville defense.

JAGUARS 23, RAIDERS 26 (OT)

OCTOBER 21, 2012
O.CO COLISEUM - OAKLAND, CALIF.

	1	2	3	4	OT
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-5)	7	10	3	3	0	- 23
OAKLAND RAIDERS (2-4)	3	3	7	10	3	- 26

For the second time in six games the Jaguars suffered a heart-breaking overtime loss on the road. Despite losing Maurice Jones-Drew to a foot injury on the first series and Blaine Gabbert in the second quarter, the Jaguars built a 20-6 lead early in the second half but were unable to hold on. After the Raiders took a 3-0 lead on Sebastian Janikowski's first of four field goals, Gabbert hit Cecil Shorts with a 42-yard scoring pass to make it 7-3. The Jaguars were forced to punt on their next possession, but Phillip Adams muffed the punt and the Jaguars recovered at the Oakland 16, setting up Rashad Jennings' five-yard scoring run which made it 14-3 early in the second quarter. Chad Henne took over for Gabbert on the next possession, which ended with Josh Scobee's 50-yard field goal for a 17-3 lead, but Janikowski's 33-yard field goal at the end of the second quarter narrowed the score to 17-6 at halftime. The Jaguars took a 20-6 lead in the third quarter on Scobee's 40-yard field goal, which was set up by a 28-yard punt return by Micheal Spurlock to the Oakland 39. Oakland responded with an 85-yard drive culminating in Carson Palmer's eight-yard touchdown pass to Denarius Moore to get the Raiders within a touchdown at 20-13. Early in the fourth quarter Terrance Knighton sacked Palmer and forced a fumble, which C.J. Mosley recovered at the Oakland 24, setting up Scobee's 45-yard field goal, but that would be the end of the Jaguars scoring. Oakland put together a 12-play, 79-yard drive resulting in a 31-yard Janikowski field goal, followed by a 10-play possession capped by Palmer's one-yard touchdown run which tied the game at 23-23 with 3:34 remaining in the fourth quarter. On the final play of regulation Janikowski attempted a 64-yard field goal which fell short. In overtime The Jaguars had the first possession, and on third down Henne completed a pass to Cecil Shorts who fumbled and the Raiders recovered at the Jacksonville 21. From there Janikowski kicked a 40-yard field goal to win the game.

JAGUARS 15, PACKERS 24

OCTOBER 28, 2012
LAMBEAU FIELD - GREEN BAY, WIS.

	1	2	3	4
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-6)	3	9	0	3	-	15
GREEN BAY PACKERS (5-3)	7	7	0	10	-	24

Blaine Gabbert turned in career highs in several passing categories and the Jacksonville defense held Aaron Rodgers and Green Bay's explosive offense to 238 total yards, but a blocked punt for a touchdown and dropped passes doomed the Jaguars in a 24-15 loss at Lambeau Field. On a sunny 44-degree day the Jaguars scored first with their second possession ending on Josh Scobee's 38-yard field goal, the first of three he would kick on the day. The Packers responded with a nine-play drive with Rodgers hitting Randall Cobb with a five-yard touchdown pass, and Green Bay never trailed again. In the second quarter the Packers blocked a Bryan Anger punt and recovered the bouncing ball in the end zone to take a 14-3 lead. Jacksonville scored twice in the final two minutes of the first half, getting a 22-yard Scobee field goal before Andre Branch made a sack/forced fumble/fumble recovery of Rodgers at the Green Bay 13. Five plays later Gabbert threw to eligible offensive tackle Guy Whimper for a one-yard touchdown to get within two at 14-12 with 17 seconds left in the half. A two-point conversion try failed, so the score stood through the third quarter, during which Jacksonville went three-and-out on all three possessions. Early in the fourth quarter Rodgers added a four-yard touchdown pass to Donald Driver to make it 21-12. After that the teams exchanged field goals for a 24-15 final score as the Jaguars failed to convert on fourth down on each of their last two possessions. Gabbert finished 27 of 49 for 303 yards, all personal bests in his first 300-yard game. Cecil Shorts turned in his first 100-yard game with eight receptions for 116 yards, while Justin Blackmon had a personal-best 67 yards on four catches. Scobee extended his streak to 20 consecutive field goals made, including his first 14 of the season, to tie Mike Hollis' franchise record. The Jaguars were without six starters, including four on defense and both cornerbacks, due to injury.

JAGUARS 14, LIONS 31

NOVEMBER 4, 2012
EVERBANK FIELD - JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

	1	2	3	4
DETROIT LIONS (4-4)	0	21	0	10	-	31
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-7)	0	0	0	14	-	14

Playing at home for the first time in four weeks, the Jaguars hoped to get their first home win in four tries but Detroit pounded out 434 total yards and four rushing touchdowns en route to a 31-14 win. The Jaguars were forced to punt on their first four possessions while Detroit turned in three touchdown drives in the second quarter for a 21-0 halftime lead. By halftime the Lions' domination included a 22:05 to 7:55 margin in time of possession, as well as 18 first downs to three by Jacksonville, 285 total yards to 57, and 216 passing yards to 36. The Lions' Mikel Leshoure tallied the first three Detroit touchdowns on runs of seven, one and eight yards. In the second half the Jaguars had just four possessions, with both in the third quarter ending on Blaine Gabbert interceptions and both in the fourth quarter on Gabbert touchdown passes. A Jason Hanson 42-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter made it 24-0 before the Jaguars put together an 11-play, 80-yard drive which Gabbert capped with a five-yard touchdown pass to Micheal Spurlock. He then threw to Rashad Jennings for the two-point conversion to make it 24-8. Detroit countered with an 80-yard drive of its own, with Joique Bell running in from 10 yards out for a 31-8 lead. On the Jaguars' final possession Gabbert completed nine of 12 passes including a six-yarder to Justin Blackmon in the back of the end zone for Blackmon's first NFL touchdown. Gabbert finished with a career-best 71.0 completion percentage, completing 27 of 38 passes. Mercedes Lewis caught four passes to eclipse Kyle Brady's franchise record for career receptions by a tight end, finishing with 243. The Jaguars fell to 1-7 at mid-season for just the second time in franchise history and the first time since 2003.

JAGUARS 10, COLTS 27

NOVEMBER 8, 2012
EVERBANK FIELD - JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

	1	2	3	4
INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (6-3)	3	14	7	3	-	27
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-8)	0	3	0	7	-	10

The Colts scored on three consecutive first-half possessions including two rushing touchdowns by rookie quarterback Andrew Luck, and added a defensive touchdown and a field goal in the second half to post a dominant 27-10 win on a Thursday night in Jacksonville. A 31-yard field goal by Adam Vinatieri was the only first-quarter scoring, but Indianapolis followed that with 66- and 61-yard drives ending in Luck's touchdowns for a 17-0 lead. The Jaguars got on the scoreboard with 17 seconds left in the first half on Josh Scobee's 40-yard field goal, which followed an earlier miss from 44 yards that ended his team record-tying streak of 20 consecutive. The Colts scored quickly in the second half when Darius Butler intercepted a Blaine Gabbert pass at the Jacksonville 11 and sprinted into the end zone to extend the lead to 24-3. Jacksonville's best drive of the night came at the beginning of the fourth quarter after Austen Lane sacked Luck and forced a fumbled which Jeremy Mincey recovered at the Jacksonville 19-yard line. The ensuing touchdown drive covered 81 yards in 14 plays, but Gabbert ran only the first five before aggravating his left shoulder injury when sacked by Antoine Bethea. Chad Henne came on in relief to finish the game, running the final 9 plays and 50 yards of that series and capping it with a four-yard touchdown pass to Cecil Shorts. A Vinatieri field goal on the next possession closed out the scoring with 3:23 remaining. Laurent Robinson led the Jaguars with a career-high nine receptions for 77 yards, while Shorts posted his second 100-yard game with six catches for 105 yards and a touchdown. Micheal Spurlock also had a career-best with six receptions for 61 yards.

JAGUARS 37, TEXANS 43 (OT)

NOVEMBER 18, 2012
RELIANT STADIUM - HOUSTON, TEXAS

	1	2	3	4	OT
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-9)	7	10	10	7	3	- 37
HOUSTON TEXANS (9-1)	7	10	3	14	9	- 43

In a record-setting game that featured 80 points scored, the 1-8 Jaguars took the 8-1 Houston Texans to overtime before falling 43-37 in a game that lasted three hours and 49 minutes, handing the Jaguars their third road overtime loss of the season. The teams combined for 1,111 total yards, 56 first downs, 876 passing yards, 158 plays and nine touchdowns. Houston started strong, moving 84 yards in five plays on the first series, capped by Matt Schaub's touchdown pass to Keshawn Martin. Five plays into the Jaguars' first possession Blaine Gabbert was hit while throwing and the resulting fumble was recovered by Houston, ending Gabbert's day as he was sidelined by a contusion to his throwing arm. Chad Henne replaced Gabbert and directed back-to-back four-play, 81-yard touchdown drives to give Jacksonville a 14-7 lead on touchdown passes to Mercedes Lewis and Cecil Shorts. Each of the game's next three possessions resulted in scores, with Houston tying it on Schaub's second touchdown pass and Josh Scobee and Shayne Graham exchanging field goals to knot the score at 17-17 at the half. The scoring binge continued in the third quarter and the Jaguars built a 10-point lead on Scobee's second field goal from 40 yards and Lewis' second scoring catch, which was set up by Paul Posluszny's forced fumble that John Chick recovered at the Houston 11. Graham's second field goal narrowed the Jacksonville lead to 27-20, but the Jaguars extended it to 14 points on Henne's 81-yard touchdown pass to Justin Blackmon early in the fourth quarter. The Texans responded with a 14-play, 80-yard drive and scored on Garrett Graham's short catch. The Jaguars were then forced to punt with four minutes remaining in regulation, and the Texans marched 90 yards in eight plays, tying the score at 34-34 with 1:34 left on Graham's second touchdown catch. Another three-and-out by Jacksonville was followed by Shayne Graham's missed field goal try from 47 yards on the final play of the fourth quarter. In overtime Houston won the coin toss and took 14 plays to set up Graham's third field goal, from 25 yards. The Jaguars responded with an 11-play, 53-yard drive capped by Scobee's third field goal that followed a 4th-and-10 conversion and a 28-yard run by Jalen Parmele to the Houston six. With the score tied at 37-37 Derek Cox intercepted Schaub on the next series to set the Jaguars up at the Houston 47, but this time the Jaguars' 4th-and-10 conversion failed. Two plays later Schaub hit Andre Johnson with a short pass that he took 48 yards for the game-winner 12:59 into the overtime period.

JAGUARS 24, TITANS 19

NOVEMBER 25, 2012
 EVERBANK FIELD - JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

	1	2	3	4
TENNESSEE TITANS (4-7)	3	3	3	10	-	19
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-9)	7	0	7	10	-	25

The Jaguars got their first home win under Mike Mularkey and snapped a seven-game losing streak in downing the Tennessee Titans 24-19. Chad Henne made his first start as a Jaguar, becoming the 15th starting quarterback in team history, and endured seven sacks while throwing two touchdown passes. The game had an ominous start when Henne's pass on the first play was deflected and intercepted at the Jacksonville 28-yard line. The defense held, as it did on the Titans' first nine possessions, and Tennessee had to settle for Rob Bironas' 38-yard field goal. Rashad Jennings got the Jaguars their first lead on a one-yard scoring run late in the first quarter, capping a 12-play, 75-yard drive. Bironas missed his second field goal attempt from 42 yards in the second quarter before closing out the half with a 40-yarder to make it 7-6 at half-time. On the Jaguars' first possession of the third quarter Henne hit Cecil Shorts on a third-and-seven and Shorts scored on the 59-yard play for a 14-6 lead. Tennessee narrowed the score to 14-12 on Bironas field goals of 39 and 33 yards, but the Jaguars responded in the fourth quarter with Justin Blackmon scoring on a seven-yard pass from Henne, capping an 80-play drive and giving Jacksonville a 21-12 lead with 6:50 remaining. Jake Locker then completed all five passes on the next series, hitting Kenny Britt for a touchdown that made it a two-point game at 21-19. After forcing a Jaguars three-and-out Tennessee had the ball at its own 37-yard line with 3:28 left, but on second down Locker's pass over the middle was deflected by Russell Allen and intercepted by Dwight Lowery, who returned 21 yards to the Tennessee 36. Six plays later Scobee hit a 41-yard field goal for a 24-19 lead with just 24 seconds remaining. Rookie Mike Harris, who had the Jaguars' only sack, intercepted Locker on the final play to end the game. The Jaguars finished with 100 rushing yards for the first time in eight games, while Shorts had his third 100-yard receiving game and Blackmon broke the franchise record for receiving yards by a rookie.

JAGUARS 18, BILLS 34

DECEMBER 2, 2012
 RALPH WILSON STADIUM - ORCHARD PARK, N.Y.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-10)	0	10	0	8	-	18
BUFFALO BILLS (5-7)	7	10	10	7	-	34

The Jaguars built a 10-7 second-quarter lead but Buffalo changed the momentum of the game with 27 points on five consecutive possessions en route to a 34-17 victory played in a constant rain. After the Bill's opening touchdown the Jaguars scored on their fourth and fifth possessions, using a Paul Posluszny interception to set up Josh Scobee's 36-yard field goal and Chad Henne completions to Cecil Shorts and Mercedes Lewis to set up Henne's one-yard bootleg run for a touchdown and a 10-7 lead. The ensuing kickoff was returned 55 yards by Marcus Easley to the Jacksonville 41, and a 15-yard penalty moved the Bills to the Jaguars' 26-yard line. Ryan Fitzpatrick capped the four-play drive with an 11-yard scoring pass to tight end Scott Chandler. On the Jaguars' very next play Henne was sacked by Mario Williams, who forced and recovered a fumble at the 14 setting up Rian Lindell's 29-yard field goal for a 17-10 Buffalo lead at the half. The Bills kept it going in the third quarter, scoring on their first three possessions to make it five in a row overall. They marched 61 yards in eight plays on the opening series for a 14-point lead at 24-10. After the Jaguars failed to convert a fourth-down play at the Buffalo 39 the Bills drove 29 yards in eight plays with Lindell hitting a 50-yard field goal. The Bills' next possession covered 62 yards in just four plays as C.J. Spiller broke free for a 44-yard touchdown run which made it 34-10 early in the fourth quarter. The Jaguars' final touchdown was set up by a muffed punt at the Buffalo five-yard line, as Henne hit Shorts in the end zone to close out the scoring. The Jaguars were stopped on fourth down on their final two possessions, and finished the day just one of 10 on third down and 0 for three on fourth down. The Bills rushed 46 times for 232 yards - the most allowed by the Jaguars all season - led by Fred Jackson's 109, while the Jaguars had just 18 runs for 50 yards. Henne threw 41 passes, completing 17, and Fitzpatrick attempted just 17 passes and completed nine for 112 yards, with all three figures being the lowest by a Jaguars opponent all season.

JAGUARS 10, JETS 17

DECEMBER 9, 2012
EVERBANK FIELD - JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

	1	2	3	4
NEW YORK JETS (6-7)	0	0	10	7	-	17
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-11)	0	3	0	7	-	10

In a tale of two halves, the Jaguars held a 3-0 halftime lead before the Jets' rushing attack took over in the third quarter, leading the way to a 17-10 Jets win. In the final minutes the Jaguars were driving for a possible game-tying score when Chad Henne was intercepted at the Jets' four-yard line to end the game. The Jaguars' first possession of the day was a productive one, covering 56 yards in 14 plays to the New York 11-yard line before a Henne pass was tipped at the line of scrimmage and intercepted by Bart Scott. In the second quarter the Jacksonville defense forced two turnovers, the first of which was a strip sack by Jason Babin which he recovered at the Jaguars' 43. Four runs and two passes moved the ball to the Jets 13-yard line and Josh Scobee finished the drive with a 31-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead. The Jets ensuing possession ended on another fumble, forced by Derek Cox and recovered by Dwight Lowery, but the Jaguars were unable to capitalize. On the final play of the first half Scobee attempted a 55-yard field goal which was wide left. The Jets had just 50 yards rushing in the first half, but 116 in the second as Shonn Greene and Bilal Powell finished with 77 and 78 rushing yards, respectively. All four of the Jaguars' third-quarter possessions were three-and-outs, while three of the Jets' four possessions that began in the third quarter resulted in scores for 17 points. Greene scored on a one-yard run on New York's first drive, and Nick Folk kicked a 44-yard field goal to cap another. In the fourth quarter Powell scored on a four-yard run to make it 17-3 before Henne directed an 11-play, 86-yard drive that resulted in Montell Owens' 32-yard run around left end for a touchdown. That narrowed the score to 17-10 with 7:06 remaining. The Jaguars defense forced two more punts, giving the offense the ball at the Jaguars' 20 with 1:43 left and no timeouts. Henne threw 11 consecutive passes to move to the New York 28, but his final throw of the day was intercepted by Ellis Lankster with 15 second remaining in the game.

JAGUARS 3, DOLPHINS 24

DECEMBER 16, 2012
SUN LIFE STADIUM - MIAMI, FLA.

	1	2	3	4
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-12)	3	0	0	0	-	3
MIAMI DOLPHINS (6-8)	3	7	6	8	-	24

For the second week in a row the Jaguars followed an evenly-played first half with a third quarter in which the game got away from them, falling 24-3 to the Dolphins in South Florida. Miami rushed for 180 yards led by Reggie Bush's 104, and Ryan Tannehill completed 22 of 28 passes including two for touchdowns. The Jaguars scored first on a 37-yard Josh Scobee field goal to cap the first drive, and Miami answered with a 53-yard field goal by Dan Carpenter on the ensuing possession. In the second quarter it appeared the Jaguars would seize momentum when Jason Babin had a sack/fumble for the second straight week, giving the Jaguars possession at the Miami 20-yard line. On the first play Chad Henne hit Justin Blackmon at the goal line for a touchdown, but the score was nullified by a penalty for Guy Whimper failing to report as an eligible player. The drive then moved to the 11-yard line where the Jaguars failed to convert on 4th-and-one. The Dolphins seized the opportunity by marching 89 yards in 14 plays, scoring on Tannehill's short pass to Jorvorskie Lane to claim a lead they would not relinquish. The Jaguars had just four possessions in the second half, resulting in two punts and two 4th-down conversion failures. The Dolphins, meanwhile, advanced inside the red zone on four consecutive possessions and scored on the last three after failing on a fake field goal on the first. Carpenter hit field goals from 30 and 31 yards in the third period before a 14-play, 85-yard series on which Tannehill hit Anthony Fasano with a two-yard scoring pass in the final four minutes. The Dolphins' second-half domination included a time of possession advantage of 21:33 to 8:27 and 15 first downs to six. The Jaguars' four red zone opportunities resulted in a field goal and three fourth-down conversion failures.

JAGUARS 16, PATRIOTS 23

DECEMBER 23, 2012
EVERBANK FIELD - JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

	1	2	3	4
NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (11-4)	3	10	3	7	-	23
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-13)	10	3	0	3	-	16

The Jaguars scored first and led early but were unable to reach the end zone on their final two possessions of the game before falling to the New England Patriots 23-16 in their home finale. The game went down to the final play, with the Jaguars trailing by seven and set up at the New England 12-yard line, but Chad Henne's throw into the end zone was intercepted by Patrick Chung. The game opened with Jacksonville marching 78 yards in nine plays, and Henne hit Justin Blackmon in the back of the end zone with a three-yard scoring pass. On the Patriots' second play Tom Brady was intercepted by Chris Prosinski, and the Jaguars kept the momentum going with Josh Scobee's 41-yard field goal capping the eight-play drive which gave Jacksonville a 10-0 lead. New England countered with a 25-yard Stephen Gostkowski field goal before Brady was intercepted again in the first quarter, this time by Derek Cox. A 53-yard catch-and-run completion from Henne to Montell Owens got the Jaguars into field goal range, and Scobee's 35-yarder made it 13-3. But the Patriots scored on their next two possessions with a 49-yard field goal capping an 11-play drive and Brady's 14-yard touchdown pass to Danny Woodhead finish a 10-play drive which tied the score at 13-13 with 18 seconds remaining in the first half. New England opened the third quarter with another 10-play drive, resulting in a 38-yard field goal for their first lead at 16-13. Wes Welker's one-yard touchdown catch at the start of the fourth quarter gave the Patriots a 10-point lead at 23-13, and the Jaguars responded with a 42-yard Scobee field goal to remain within a touchdown. The Jaguars defense forced the Patriots to punt on each of their last two possessions, giving the offense the ball at the Jacksonville 34 and 38 yard lines. On the first Jaguars possession they advanced to a first-and-goal at the New England one-yard line, but a false start penalty and a sack backed them up before Henne was intercepted by Patrick Chung at the one. On the final series of the game the Jaguars marched to the Patriots 12-yard line with eight seconds remaining. Under pressure, Henne lofted a pass into the end zone where Chung made his second interception. In addition to the two interceptions, the Jaguars defense sacked Brady a season-high three times with one each by Russell Allen, Jeremy Mincey and Tyson Alualu.

JAGUARS 20, TITANS 38

DECEMBER 30, 2012
LP FIELD - NASHVILLE, TENN.

	1	2	3	4
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-14)	7	7	0	6	-	20
TENNESSEE TITANS (6-10)	7	14	14	3	-	38

Closing out the worst season in franchise history, the Jaguars allowed four return-touchdowns – two on punts and two on interceptions – to lose 38-20 to the Tennessee Titans and finish 2-14. The day began with the Titans scoring first with their only offensive touchdown of the day on a Chris Johnson two-yard run, but the Jaguars responded. Marching for touchdowns on their first two possessions for the first time since Oct. 3, 2010, Jacksonville took a 14-7 lead on Chad Henne's scoring passes of five yards to Jordan Shipley and 30 yards to Justin Blackmon. Those scores capped drives of 76 yards in 10 plays and 61 yards in nine to mark the team's best start of the season. Momentum changed, however, late in the second quarter when Titans linebacker Zach Brown intercepted Henne and ran 79 yards for a touchdown to tie the score at 14-14. The Jaguars were forced to punt on their next possession and Darius Reynaud returned the kick 69 yards for another score and a lead Tennessee would never relinquish. By that time the Jaguars dominated in most statistical categories, but the Titans held a 21-14 halftime lead. Jacksonville got the ball to start the third quarter and Reynaud struck again, returning Bryan Anger's punt 81 yards for a score. Two plays later Henne was picked off again by Brown, who this time raced 30 yards for another touchdown and a 35-14 lead just three minutes into the second half. In all, Tennessee scored 28 points in a span of 4:45 without its offense taking the field. In the fourth quarter Rob Bironas added a 48-yard field goal for a 38-14 lead, and the Jaguars' final touchdown of the season was scored on a blocked punt and return by rookie Mike Harris. Paul Posluszny turned in the Jaguars' only two sacks of the game, and Mercedes Lewis had a career-high 103 receiving yards on seven catches. Justin Blackmon set franchise rookie records with 64 receptions for 865 yards and five touchdowns, while Anger broke NFL rookie records with a 47.8-yard gross average and 40.8 net for the season, also topping Bryan Barker's Jaguars records in both categories.

OWNER SHAD KHAN, GENERAL MANAGER DAVID CALDWELL & PRESIDENT MARK LAMPING
PRESS CONFERENCE
THURSDAY, JANUARY 10, 2013

(Shad Khan opening statement) "Thank you everybody for coming. Let me start off by wishing all of you and all the Jaguar fans a happy new year. I do happen to believe it's going to be a happy new year in Jacksonville and a large part due to the man I am about to introduce. I do want to take this opportunity to thank Mike Mularkey who as you know will not be returning as our head coach. The season was a major disappointment for all of us, but Mike gave the Jaguars and the community everything he had and I am absolutely deeply grateful for that. I think his efforts were second to none, and I know he will be back in the NFL soon. I wish Mike and his family well in the future. This is also my first chance to publicly thank Gene Smith for his loyalty and service to the Jaguars. I think as all of you know I informed Gene Smith on Monday the 31st of December that we would be making a change at that position and Gene was dedicated along with everybody on really bringing championships to Jacksonville and he was just as disappointed with the results as I was. It was hard for both of us, but regrettably a change I felt we had to make. One of the highlights of the Jaguars year is the reinvigoration on the business side under Team President Mark Lamping. Thanks to his leadership we've reengaged with the fans and that's resulted in sold out games and absolutely a great game day experience. Having said that I think now for the highlight of the afternoon. I spent considerable effort identifying absolutely the top football talent, front office talent, and I can share with you the person who can help bring championships to Jacksonville, David Caldwell was on the top of my list. Ladies and gentleman I am absolutely proud and delighted to introduce the new general manager of the Jacksonville Jaguars, David Caldwell."

(David Caldwell opening statement) "Thank you, Shad. This is a great place. I know this is a great place and importantly this is a great opportunity for me and my football career. I am thoroughly looking forward to starting here and hit the ground running. First off, I need to thank a lot of people that have had vested interest in getting me to this spot. It certainly hasn't been all me, there have been people all along the way to help me to get to where I need to be and that is right here today in Jacksonville. Shad (Khan) and Mark (Lamping) did a great thorough, detailed search for the next general manager of the Jacksonville Jaguars. It was a pleasure meeting Shad. I knew within two seconds I wanted to be part of him and his vision here in Jacksonville. My career started in 1996. Bill Polian was a tremendous mentor for myself. He started me out as a season long scouting intern. I owe him great debt of gratitude for allowing me to be in this profession and it's truly an honor. Along the way, John (inaudible) and John Becker who have taught me the essence of scouting, how to scout, and the details of scouting that are thoroughly important. To my Falcons family, Arthur Blank, owner of the Falcons, Thomas Dimitroff, the general manager who has been a tremendous mentor and brother to me in the last five years and since our relationship started in 1998, my support staff in Atlanta. It was great team effort to get me to where I am at today. I thoroughly appreciate their effort in helping me succeed there. To my family, my parents, my wife and my son, my wife Joelle and my son David, they allow me to do what I love to do, and that is to build football teams and evaluate staff. It takes a lot of time away from them, but it allows me to be very good at what I do here today. This has obviously been quite a ride. The last ten days have been very surreal and very overwhelming, but it kicked off last Monday with Shad. I was sitting in Atlanta and Thomas Dimitroff came to me and said are you ready to interview? I think you have an opportunity with the Jacksonville Jaguars. At the time I was working on an evaluation for Arthur Blank. I said yeah I will be ready just let me know when. He said Shad will be here at four. I am like today? He's said yes. So I appreciate Shad's urgency and his decisiveness to come to Atlanta. Since then we were able to meet again on Wednesday he brought me down. Through that process Shad was able to make me go pursue other opportunities. He knew I had potential opportunities and he encouraged me to pursue those opportunities and to come back to Jacksonville where he thought was the ultimate place for me. And he was right. Since then I came back on Monday. I had another opportunity to pursue and he encouraged me to go and make sure this was where I wanted to be. This is where I want to be. I know we can be successful here."

(On his first day here) "Today was obviously a difficult day. We kicked it off with Mike (Mularkey) and we had a difficult conversation with Mike. I appreciate Mike's efforts here the last year. I have had a personal relationship over the last five years with Mike. I know he will do well and will be great in the future. The biggest thing for us here in Jacksonville and what we're looking for is we're looking for positive, passionate people and players. We have a great opportunity and a great obligation here to be a first. To be the first to bring a Super Bowl Championship to Jacksonville, to be the first General Manager to help Shad bring a Super Bowl Championship to Jacksonville, to be the first head coach, to be the first set of players to bring a Super Bowl Championship to Jacksonville. I believe we can do this. I promise moving forward we will do this. We will get better day by day and give the Jacksonville fans everything that they deserve. And that is the best."

(On first GM job in NFL. People said going to Jacksonville was a bad job.) "No I think everybody has their own perspective in terms of what's a good job and what's a bad job. And Shad asked me in the interview in terms of what I thought were good jobs and bad jobs and I just said 'To be a General Manager of an NFL franchise does not sound like a bad job to me no matter where it's at or who I'm working for.' So we are very truly blessed to do this, and I believe this is a great job."

(What disqualified Mike Mularkey) "You know I felt like we needed a fresh start here. Me coming in here as a first time General Manager and I'm looking for a co-builder of our team. When I talked to Shad in terms of a culture change along the football side I felt like it was more of that. I felt like it was an atmosphere of change. I felt like that to do that, you've got to have a fresh start the board."

(Do you have a new coach in mind?) "We have a potential list of candidates for sure and we've already started. The wheels have started turning on that."

Shad Khan: (Why did you decide on a fresh start? The record?) "There are a number of things. I think if you look at the team over the last several years the team has really gotten worse over the last three years. 8-8, 5-11 and now 2-14. So a year ago when I came here the organizational judgment was we were a pretty good team just a few players and a draft away from really competing for a playoff spot. As the year progressed it was pretty obvious that was not the case and we would need a fresh start and rebuilt from the ground up."

Caldwell: (On Jacksonville being very different that there is only one major team in this city. The last couple general managers were invisible. They could walk into a place and Jaguar fans wouldn't know who they are. What's your approach going to be as far as being seen and being heard?) "I'll let the head coach be the voice of the team, I believe the head coach should be the one voice and singular voice. I obviously will be involved in situations like this and where I need to be. Moving forward during the season the head coach will be the one voice, when it comes to the draft and personnel issues I will speak."

(Week-to-week) "We will definitely inform, I don't see a week-to-week scenario. But I do see during transactions, when we hire our new head coach coming up shortly."

(on coming up through the scouting ranks, what will you bring different from what the Jaguars already had?) "It's funny. I learned about Shad's automobile history here. I know one thing out of 1,000 parts he makes, he doesn't make rear view mirrors. We're not looking in the past, we're only looking forward. In terms of what's happened here in the past. I have a ton of respect for Gene (Smith). He's a hard-working man. I'm not qualified to talk about what they did here in the past."

(What will you bring?) "I'll bring a track record of success from my time at high school, college, my time at Indianapolis, my time in Atlanta. I've always been a part of a winner, I've never been a part of a losing team."

(Is David or Dave ok?) "Dave is fine."

(Reports of a financial gap between you and Shad. Was the trip to New York to get leverage here?) "As Shad would tell you, Shad made me go to New York to talk to the Jets. I wanted to make sure, when I interviewed with Shad, I told him that my next move is my last move. He wanted to make sure for me and my family. And to be quite honest with you, that had a major role in me selecting the Jacksonville Jaguars."

(How important is head coaching experience or is being a part of a winning program better?) "Good question. It's not a prerequisite. You guys are all familiar with Mike Smith, who is our current head coach in Atlanta. Did not have head coaching experience and is the all-time leading winner in Atlanta. I'm looking for the right person, he obviously has to have certain qualifications. In terms of previous... Previous head coaching experience, not necessary."

(Timetable) "We're not going to set a timetable. We're going to do our thorough research and detailed research to find the right person."

(Peyton Manning and Matt Ryan in places you've been, what's your plan for the quarterback situation and any plan to bring in Tim Tebow?) "We plan to address the quarterback situation obviously. Blaine (Gabbert) is the second-youngest quarterback in the NFL, but we're going to have open competition. We'll bring in, whether it's the draft or through free agency, we'll bring in some more people to compete at the quarterback position. I know we have Chad (Henne) here still for another year. So it's going to be an open competition there. We're going to let the best player win that position. As far as Tim (Tebow) goes, he is a member of the New York Jets, so I can't imagine a scenario where he would be a Jacksonville Jaguar."

(Can you say that again?) "I can't imagine a scenario where he would be a Jacksonville Jaguar."

(Even if he's released from the Jets?) "Even if he's released."

(Was there a moment during interview process that you knew this was the place you wanted to be?) "I think the first time he was just so down to earth and we had such a good talk the first time there. I wasn't overly prepared because I had zoom focus with the Atlanta Falcons. I knew pretty much right away that he was the man that I wanted to be working for."

(With so much to rebuild, where do you begin and do you put a timetable on that?) "I don't put a timetable on that. What I'm looking for is just continued improvement from today to when we get our head coach, time we get our coaching staff in place. To our first game, to the end of the season next year and year after year. Even when excellence is evident, I still want us to continue to improve."

(Was looking at the roster part of the process?) "To be honest with you, it was a little bit of the process. But like I said anybody who knows me I felt like the best way to prepare myself for this job was to devote all my time to my job in Atlanta. Up until a day ago, that was my number one priority. I need to do a more thorough process of our roster here moving forward."

(Talk about your relationship with Greg Roman, and how tight are you two?) "Greg and I went to college together, we worked together in Carolina. He's a good friend of mine. We have a good friendship."

(Would he make a good head coach?) "I don't want to comment on that right now. Greg is with the 49ers. He's still working there. I think Greg is a heck of a coach."

Khan: (What did you learn from last year's search that you applied this time around and what's your response to people that say Mularkey had too many injuries and didn't get a fair shot, what's response?) "Mike is a great coach, and I think he'll have great success. Our record was still 2-14 and regrettably this is a league that demands winning. What we have to do is win, obviously. About the coach, we went through a coaching search which was led by Gene (Smith) at that point, and this time will be led by David (Caldwell). Circumstances are a little bit different. How we view the team, what stage we're at and so, it's a different day, a new start."

Caldwell: (Did you discuss Tony Khan's role with the team and do you believe in analytics?) "We did discuss Tony's role with the team, and I am a believer of analytics. I'm familiar with analytics. We use a lot of the data in Atlanta. We have a great IT guy in Atlanta and he does a lot of studies for us. I believe it is part of the process. Drafting players and signing players, there's so much information to be gathered and any way for us to get better and to improve our process, I'm for that. It's not the whole part of the process."

(Can you explain how?) "I believe just looking for trends and different, anything, a system of checks and balances. I think we may have missed any kind of flaw."

(on Mike Smith and what has made him successful in Atlanta?) "Absolutely. Mike's a great football man. He's a leader of men. He has a terrific pulse of the team. He's attentive to detail and tough-minded and everybody on the team can really respect him and he's very genuine and very transparent."

(Is that what you're looking for?) "It is. Not necessarily a clone, but somebody that has those traits."

(Surprised that this has happened so quickly?) "I'm very humbled to be honest with you. Through this whole process it's been a very humbling experience. Like I said at the beginning of the press conference there's a lot of people that have a vested interest in me getting here. I've been fortunate enough to have tremendous opportunities to work for great people. That's probably the thing I take the most pride in."

GENERAL MANAGER DAVID CALDWELL PRESS CONFERENCE
THURSDAY, JANUARY 10, 2013

(on the possibility of Chris Polian joining the staff) "Chris is a good friend of mine and is currently working for the Falcons. I need to evaluate everybody here first to give everyone an equal opportunity to get on board."

(on the status of the scouting department) "Right now I know we have a good scouting department. I'm very familiar from my time on the road with the scouts. I want to give everybody a fair share of getting on board with our system and winning their job."

(on his plans to get fans back in the stands after the 2-14 season) "Win. I think that is the number one criteria for doing that."

(on if he has ever been involved with the financial part) "I've never really been overly involved with the financials. I have a great understanding of it. I will be involved in it here."

(on how much time he had to prepare for his first interview with Shad Khan) "Thomas (Dimitroff) walked into my office at 10:00 in the morning so I had about five hours to prepare. I had some materials prepared but nothing where I needed to be. I think that worked in my favor. I think Shad was more looking at the person. He had done thorough research on me and had talked to multiple NFL executives."

(on his second interview with the Jaguars) "I came down to Jacksonville for the second interview. I met with a group of people including Mark (Lamping), Shad and a handful of people here in the organization."

(on if the second interview took on more of a tone of a possible hire) "Everybody here has been great. I knew this was a great place for me to be."

(on if he had been to Jacksonville before) "We (Falcons) scrimmaged here last year and also during my scouting visits I had to come through Jacksonville a few times. I'm not overly familiar with it but I know it's a great city. The people here are the best part of it so I look forward to being a part of the community with my wife and family."

(on what he hopes to see in 2013) "I'm looking for continuous improvement from day one. I know that's not a hard fact or hard numbers but we're looking to get better every day from game one to the end of the season."

(on what he personally wants to see out of himself) "It's the same with me. I want to get better day by day. I was told I am the second-youngest GM in the NFL so I still have a lot of growing and developing to do myself."

(on his reputation as a hard worker) "Honestly I take pride in working smarter than harder. I think we were very efficient in Atlanta. Everybody in the NFL works hard. You don't get to be a scout without being a hard worker."

(on why he said Tim Tebow would not be a part of the Jaguars) "I have others in mind and I'm comfortable with what's here. Tim is with the New York Jets."

(on his role with the Falcons during the draft) "I would hope so as the college director and the player personnel director. Thomas (Dimitroff) and I worked hand in hand and it wasn't just about my input. It's a group effort to have great drafts."

(on looking at the draft) "We have a lot of work to do. We have to get a head coach in here first and then decide what kind of offense we have and then go from there."

(on how long he has had the teal tie) "My wife bought this for me before my first interview. When Thomas told me the time (of the interview) I told my wife to go get my clothes, please, and go pick up a teal tie."

(on if it's been a whirlwind) "It's been a whirlwind. It's hard. I feel like I have been holding down four jobs between my Falcons job, my interviews and obviously my responsibilities at home. It's been quite the 10 days."

(on the importance of getting a franchise quarterback and if you can win without one) "It's hard. It makes it a lot more difficult. Everything else has to be perfect. I don't necessarily know that you have to have a franchise quarterback but you have to have one that can win games for you."

(on Mike Mularkey saying this team was close and if he sees that) "It's too early. I just got here and up until a day ago my focus was really on the Atlanta Falcons. There's a lot of work to be done. I want to go through a whole process before I answer that question."

(on if he has an aversion to the SEC) "I do not have an aversion to the SEC. I do not."

(on not shutting the door on any coach) "Absolutely not. I think you can look at our motto from Atlanta and go from there."

(on if this being a new process) "My approach is I've done a lot of research for here and I've been around a lot of coaches. I have a lot of people I respect. Start with the research aspect and then start the interview process."

(on the network of guys at John Carroll getting general manager jobs) "It's been a good week for the John Carroll guys. We are very close. Tom Telesco in San Diego and I have been texting back and forth. I am thrilled for him and his family. Brian Polian just became the head coach at Nevada and we have been texting back and forth. I got a text from Nick Cesario today. We are all thrilled for each other. Obviously we have to compete with each other on the field but it's a great story. It's great for the university."

(on if the coaches on staff have to run it through him if they have an opportunity) "Yes they do."

(on the firing of Mike Mularkey) "It was tough. I have a ton of respect for Mike. He's a great man. He's a good football coach. It's never easy and that's probably the worst part of the business. It's a big part of the business as you all know but it's very difficult."

(on if it was special circumstances with the firing of Mike Mularkey) "Special circumstances. We are looking for an attitude change here. I just felt to have a clean slate and a restart here."

(on Mike Mularkey's reaction) "He was very grateful. He did wish me well. Mike and I have always had a very good positive relationship."

(on his timetable for making a coaching hire) "I don't have any kind of timetable. There are teams that are still playing right now. There are teams that aren't playing right now and we will start interviewing coaches from their staffs right away. When we find the right person we will know."

(on if he has anyone scheduled to meet with right now) "No schedule as of right now. There will be probably in a couple hours."

(on the common thread between his time in Atlanta and Indianapolis) "The common thread is the relationship between the head coach and the general manager and obviously the quarterback. The type of people we bring in as players. They have to be good football players but they have to be positive, passionate, physical and I think you see that."

OWNER SHAHID KHAN
MEDIA AVAILABILITY
THURSDAY, JANUARY 10, 2013

(on the hiring of David Caldwell) "Well to me I think this is obviously the most important football decision I've made as the owner of the franchise, and I really wanted to make sure we got the right person. Somebody who is energetic, committed to winning. And he gets up in the morning the most important thing is how to make the Jacksonville Jaguars a winner."

(on what he liked about Caldwell when he was going through the interview process) "What I really like about him is his whole life he has been a winner at whatever he has done. He's got a great attitude. He's a hard worker and yearly has a proven winning judgment. He has worked with people that have been very, very successful. So I went through this process, I talked to a lot of people because until the 31st (of December) really you couldn't talk to people under the league rules. So I had to have the background and a lot of the work at hand and know really where to start, and David was someone I had identified as the best person for us."

(on how disappointing the 2012 season was for him) "I was hoping for better. And when I came here a year ago everything I thought how we looked at ourselves as the Jacksonville Jaguars was a lot better than we looked, and then the rest is history. I think it happens and then I think it's time for me really to set us on a different course."

(on who he went to for advice during his search for the next general manager) "There are people in the league, people who are retired from the league, people who were never in the league. So there's a whole group of people, and I think frankly one of the things I tapped on that has really helped me over a lifetime, forget about football anything else, is listening to people and really getting opinions and getting all the homework done before you have to make a decision. So it's not something impulsive. When I met David he was the first guy I called. I just went right over there and my tendency was to hire him right on the spot, Monday [December] the 31st, but I felt really that'd be impulsive for him and I think he would have signed up. He said this is going to be my last job and I said, 'You really need to go out.' I have a good sense because I've been in football now for a year and I've talked about it before. I told him, 'You need to go out. You need to really talk to some of the other teams.' I believe this was close to a record year of GM openings. 'Go interview, go find out and I want you to be just as positive about Jacksonville as I am about you.'"

(on how long he has been familiar about Caldwell) "I've heard his name for a while Vito."

(on when he started talking to people about Caldwell) "You always want to really start identifying talent in different positions. The first thing for me when I came here a year ago was the business side. We know we needed to do something there, and that's where we're very fortunate to have Mark Lamping and work on that side. On the football side I was really observing, listening and talking to people."

(on when he decided he needed to hire a new general manager) "To me I think towards the end of the season I thought it could be a very serious possibility, and I didn't want to set the team back frankly. I think when we have a history of what the record has been here, I want to act decisively and do the right thing for the team."

(on what all he talked to Caldwell about when interviewing him) "Sam you talk to general managers about a lot of things because I believe in empowering people, giving them resources and then holding them accountable. That's what I did here last year. We gave all the resources, empowered all the people, looked at the result and decided what we had to do. So the same thing with everybody I talked to. It was listening to them on how they make decisions, of what they might need, etc. Then when they come in with a recommendation, which David has today, really accepting that and empowering them to carry."

(on what all he discussed with Caldwell and what will be Caldwell's call) "That and a number of other things. Not only his call, other calls because I'm not the general manager of the team."

(on who decides the roster) "It's not my decision. I want to do whatever to help this team win. Who the players are is really the general manager, coaches it's a football side operation decision. It's really not my decision."

(on if he told Caldwell to consider going after Tim Tebow) "I'm telling him to take a look at Tebow and they're saying 'we're going to go in a different direction.' That's the difference."

(on how much he's learned in the last year about the NFL and how that's helped him make his recent decisions) "Life is a learning experience Brent, so I've talked to a lot of people obviously and not just potential general managers but really the dynamics of the game and what are some of the new trends and we're going to have to do a lot of things to really leap frog. There's a huge amount of competitive balance in this sport and we have to be different, more progressive, embrace ideas other teams maybe haven't. Find younger, more innovative talent especially in the front office. I believe David is a great example of that."

(on if he leaned too much on former Jaguars owner Wayne Weaver and former Jaguars GM Gene Smith when he first took over) "Mark it's not a question about leaning. It's a question about you come here and this is, as I said earlier, what their evaluation of the team is and that's wonderful. So I come in, I embrace it, I empower it, I support it, give them all the resources and then you have all the results and now I think I've had a year and I don't want to set the team back."

(on how many people he consulted while looking for the new general manager) "Maybe 100."

(on how influential Bill Polian was in leading him in the right direction) "The guy is a winner. He's an institution, a Hall of Famer. I spent quite a bit of time talking to him."

(on if Caldwell and the new head coach will have the same contract duration) "I'm not sure at this time."

(on how the length of Caldwell's contract) "Five years."

(on why he gave Caldwell a five-year contract) "I think the stage we're at this is going to be a rebuilding process. And I think we have to really to me we've got to get everybody in here who's committed to winning is aligned. They've got to have one goal which is alignment to win here, and if they don't have it then this is not the right place for them. We're in a very, very different position."

(on what the fans expectations should be) "Well the fans I think we have to absolutely balance hope and expectation. I think we definitely want to be better, but it's going to take a little bit of time."

(on when exactly he decided he needed to make) "I really didn't decide until just later towards the end [of the 2012 season] Vito."

(on if he started consulting people about general manager candidates while the season was still going) "Absolutely. By the time you decide it's like trying to train for the Olympics when the starting gun is going off. It's a little too late. So there's only two outcomes. You're going to retain or you're going to make a change, and you have to be ready for both."

(on the importance of having Caldwell dismiss Mike Mularkey) "To me it's very important because our structure now. That's one of the things I've learned what's important for the Jacksonville Jaguars is what's our structure going to be? Our structure is going to be football side, business side. One lead by David on football, Mark [Lamping] by business. And the coach is reporting to the general manager, so the general manager has to have the long term vision of thinking about the team. The head coach is really the spokesperson concerned about winning now and you have to have a symbiotic relationship. That's a structure, the Jaguars structure, that we have to really embrace and encourage."

(on if Mike Mularkey reported to him and how the new structure differs) "Correct. I think Gene led the search and Mike and Gene were both reporting to me and that structure didn't work."

(on why the old structure didn't work) "It just didn't work Mark. To me one side decided what the structure was that the general manager has to hire the coach, which happened here, and he has to report to the general manager. That's our Jaguars structure moving forward."

(on what made David Caldwell the top candidate) "A number of people you talk to kept coming back to him. Who are some of the raising stars in the NFL, and we want to identify them obviously before they're recognized as stars. I think David is a star today but there were a number of different metrics that kept coming back to him."

(on if the glowing recommendations about Caldwell were why he was hired) "Well it's not just because somebody mentioned him that you go do it. It's just a data point that you have to investigate and then you have all the background on them and you want to meet them and you want to see if there's a connection. If they have a commitment to come over here and help Jacksonville win."

(on if there was an urgency to get Caldwell since there's a number of GM openings) "Sam obviously there's urgency. We have a lot of decisions to make, but I don't want to have a sense of urgency and make the wrong decision quicker. You want to make the right decision faster. That's the key point. The first thing is you want to get the right decision. The second point is to get it as soon as possible."

(on if other teams were pursuing Caldwell as soon as he was) "Well frankly with all due modesty I think I did my homework better. People came to that conclusion a week later after they had talked to a lot of people."

(on if Caldwell was identified as the guy he wanted once the Jaguars and Gene Smith parted ways) "If I went this direction I had a game plan on what to do. Like what was I going to do at seven o'clock, eight o'clock, eight-thirty, nine and you plan. That's how I plan every day, and I had it planned."

(on if he thinks the head coach will be young like Caldwell) "Mark what I believe that's very, very important is the relationship between the general manager and the coach is vital. As I said it has to be a symbiotic relationship and they have to grow together and the coach has to be somebody that it's very, very important to win and very, very important for Jacksonville. So they have to come in and their relationship is vital. They're going to grow together. And I felt that way about David that I wanted to have a relationship connection with him where he's going to be part of the franchise for a long time."

(on who he thinks Caldwell will hire to be head coach) "I think you'll have to talk to him, and I think he'll have a list. Frankly I haven't even seen the list, and then he will narrow it down and then like we did with Gene a year ago probably the final two, three candidates I'll kind of sit in because I think they're going to be the face of the Jacksonville Jaguars. I think I want to render an opinion on it, but he will lead the search."

(on why last year's structure was the head coach reporting to him) "If you remember last year this time the general manager and the coach reported to Paul Vance, and obviously we didn't replace Paul. So we kept the structure they had here a year ago, so they ended up reporting to me."

(on who he bounces ideas off of when making big decisions) "Joe I think you bounce ideas with a lot of people who've been in the league. I knew a lot of the people who had been in the league obviously before a year ago, and one of the things I've learned in life is the only way you're going to have success is to really collect the information, have an open mind and then make a decision."

(on if it's tough to bounce ideas off the other owners and league peers because he's competing against them) "Yes and no. Some of the information comes from people who don't have a horse in the race, okay, so some might. But for me it's you see who you're getting it from, what they say and then the whole idea is really to identify people before you need to do it, and when you need to do it you have to have it in some kind of an order where you can do it."

(on if he talked to Wayne Weaver before making his recent decisions) "I haven't spoken to Wayne about this."

(on who traveled with him to Atlanta for the first interview with Caldwell) "I interviewed most of the people alone. There were some I did with Tony because that was an issue. Tony is here. I wanted them to meet him and wanted him to feel comfortable with that. And then we had several candidates where Mark [Lamping] and several of the other people were involved, because when we were serious about somebody we brought them here and exposed all the people, especially Mark, to them because they're going to be working together day-to-day. They need to have the right chemistry. They need to feel comfortable."

(More than four candidates?) "There were more than four. I'm biased. There are no bad GM jobs. I think that's an absolute truth. I think this was a very, very good job."

(on why he thinks this is a very, very good job) "First of all the structure we have adopted where the general manager is responsible for all of football. So this is not a GM-lite position. This is a real GM position. The GM really gets to lead the team and so this is a great community. The weather, the business climate, whatever great people. We haven't won here a lot, so the expectations are really tempered but yet very, very enthusiastic fans. I mean I met them, so I think this is a great job."

(on what the analytics department does) "Let me just say. Another ingredient that could be a part of the secret sauce. It's a data point. These are metrics that might or might not be helpful. It's simple as that."

(on using analytics) "Somebody talked about Bill Polian. Bill Polian is a huge analytics guy. That's the whole thing except today it gets tied to computers and what have you. Bill Polian did it on notepad with long hand way and spreadsheets and what have you. The reason he has been so successful is because he can recognize patterns. That's what it is. So I found that very amusing. I think he was on a show and he said he doesn't do it. 'Moneyball' is another thing which kind of screws things up. A lot of these labels are out there. I think you have to disregard them. It's a metric that can be valuable."

(on if analytics can help the team win) "Absolutely. We're looking for anything that helps us win. This could be one. There's no guarantee."

OWNER SHAHID KHAN, GENERAL MANAGER DAVID CALDWELL & HEAD COACH GUS BRADLEY
PRESS CONFERENCE
FRIDAY, JANUARY 18, 2013

(Khan Opening statement) "Good morning everybody. This is a great day for the Jacksonville Jaguars and a milestone event for our General Manager, Dave Caldwell. Over the past week Dave has conducted the search for a new head coach, and I've got to share with you it's been a very impressive experience for me. It should be clear to everyone today that Dave's search was not influenced by his relationships, his comfort zone, or any other criteria. His one and only objective was to find the right man, the right person for the Jacksonville Jaguars. I believe he has done so by finding us our head coach, Gus Bradley. With that Dave if you could please do the honors and introduce Gus."

(Caldwell Opening statement) "Thanks Shad. I'd like to thank Mark Lamping the President here for assisting me in this process. It was truly a very great learning experience for me. Obviously the first time going through it but it was a great experience. What a difference a week makes from last Friday to this Friday. My number one goal to get back to this place with the head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars as soon as possible, but I wanted it to be the right person and the right man and I know I've found the right man in Gus Bradley. His passion, his energy, his attention to detail, everything that makes him up as a true football coach is what we have today. Gus is a leader of men and he will bring a positive, passionate energy to this city, to this team and to this organization. I am proud to announce Gus Bradley as our new head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars."

(Bradley opening statement) "First of all I want to thank Shad, Dave and Mark, the President. It's been a tremendous opportunity. I know that's probably an overly used phrase the last couple of weeks especially, but it has been. It's been dream-like. What an opportunity to go interview at the places that I've had the opportunity to visit with people and to eventually come back to Jacksonville where it feels like home. I am really excited about it. When you talk about people that have great impact in your life, there's been college coaches, there's been high school coaches. I know in the NFL the John Gruden's, the Monte Kiffin's, the Jim Mora's, but back in Seattle there's been some very influential people in my life. Pete Carroll has had a great impact on my life and on my coaching style. John Schnieder, the GM, I cannot thank him enough those two guys for giving me the opportunity to coach in Seattle and to work with the players that we did. I think most importantly I'd like to thank the players from Seattle. If it wasn't for them, I'm humble enough to know that I wouldn't be in this situation. I think many thanks got out to them for those guys accomplishing a lot that they've done, the great effort that they've put on the field, and I'm very thankful to them. This is a great opportunity. I am really excited. I think what sold me on this opportunity was the passion. I am a defensive coach, I have great passion, great excitement, I am trying to hold it back a little bit right here, but I think with Shad and Dave and getting a chance to visit with them I could just feel the passion coming from them what they really wanted to accomplish here. I knew our philosophies meshed together and it became very exciting, very fast in the interview process. It's real exciting, like I said before. I look forward to the challenge to do great things. We have a plan in place. Dave has set up the criteria, the plan that we're looking for and we're in the process now trying to fill some assistant coaches and evaluate some of the players. We're looking forward to the opportunity to work together."

(When did you know you were going to be a head coach in the NFL? What about hiring assistant coaches?) "My philosophy was... I'm not very goal oriented, and I know that sounds funny because here in the coaching business if you're not goal oriented, I guess it's professional goal. I never thought about when do I want to become a Defensive Coordinator? When do I want to become a Head Coach? I've never been like that. I've always been I'm a Linebacker's Coach in Tampa Bay I want to be the best Linebacker Coach I can be and all of that other stuff will take care of itself. I guess as far as when did I see myself as head coach? I really never thought about it. Pete and John in Seattle approached me and said things might be happening for you, you might be prepared for it, but it was during our stretch run and we were in the playoffs. In my mind that was the most important thing was trying to bring a championship to Seattle, so even in that time period I didn't think much about it. As far as assistant coaches we're in the process of doing that right now. Ultimately it's my responsibility, but I really have worked closely with Dave. We share ideas together and we're trying to bring in people that have the same philosophy as Shad. The passion for the game, the excitement, let's bring some enthusiasm to Jacksonville like the city deserves, and we're trying to find coaches that have that same type of demeanor."

(On assistant coaching hiring process) "It's the best. We're trying to find the best. I know in the process of looking for assistant coaches, some of the mistakes in my conversation with some young coaches that went into it for the first time was they made decisions too quickly. That's been a mistake, and it's important to find out about people because it is a people business. There's going to be some really good times and there's going to be some tough times. During those tough times you want to really have quality people with you and that's what we're going to do. We're going to dig and find them, and I think in our mindset it doesn't matter, NFL, college, it doesn't matter. We're going to find the best. If it takes some time to do that. We're starting to put it together now and we're on the right track. Somewhere down the line we will announce those candidates and who's going to be part of this staff, but we'll take that time to do it."

(On personality) "Those words were probably used. My whole hope is to be genuine. That's it. I think the players they see through. They know who you are. To me, I just want to be me. We talked about during the whole head coach search. I love coaching football, I love helping players get better, coaches getting better, and I think for my role right now I had a great opportunity to lead 30 guys up in Seattle. What I am mostly excited about is to lead 80 guys. I love that opportunity to be a part of leading this team and try to maximize everybody. Not only the players but the coaches, and let's do it better than it's ever been done before. That's really how I've always approached things, and that fit right into the philosophy that both Dave and Shad want."

(On moving from defensive coordinator to the head coach) "Maybe I should say this first. I don't want all games to be 10-7. I think that was the number one question I got asked on the interview is 'You're a defensive coordinator, you're a defensive coach, you probably want 3-0 games or 6-3.' We need to be explosive. I think on the opposite side probably one of the things that I understand is what hurts defense? What causes those problems? Multiple personnel groupings, multiple formations, diversity, with the quarterback run game, with the spreading out, the two-back run games and so on. All things are issues. I have great faith in an offensive coordinator we're going to hire, but we will work together now on some issues that cause defense great difficulties."

(On when you were in Philadelphia interviewing) "Great question. I was supposed to fly in there and fly out the same day. I guess when they asked me to stay overnight, there was thought that it could be a possibility."

(On the current roster) "We haven't had a chance to really go through it. I met Poz (Paul Posluszny) this morning. I talked to Mo (Maurice Jones-Drew) on the phone. Just their initial reaction, their excitement to bring a championship here to Jacksonville, I could feel their passion. It's been great. I know the evaluation process, that's one of the next steps that we'll take right after getting our assistant coaches in place and we'll be able to tell you that in the next few weeks."

(On current assistant coaches statuses) "We are in that process now so I want to get a chance to visit with everybody and Dave and I visit with those guys. We will know more in the next couple of days."

(On quarterback in Seattle) "He's part of the Seattle roster right now, so he's a Seahawk."

(On his last week overall) "I only have two suits in Jacksonville, I know that. I was scrambling a little bit there. It has been a whirlwind but it's been a really high energy. You can imagine playing in the game against Atlanta, to go through it, and the unfortunate part of losing in the last second and to get on a plane and ride to Philly and come down here but it's been a great experience. What I found out I truly believe in the NFL there's a lot of really good people. There's a lot of really good people and coaches in the League that have really stepped up and really helped me with this decision process. I think coming back to Jacksonville there's a high regard for this franchise. A really high regard for the people in place here, the leadership, from Shad to Dave to Mark, the President. I think when I talk to people around the League and they say there's something special going on down there, Gus. There's a lot of good things. The community wants a winner. They're starving for a championship, and you've got to have great passion and it really got my passion going. That's exactly what I'm all about as a person, and I think it's going to be a great fit."

Dave Caldwell

(On going for a defensive coordinator by following the motto from Indy and Atlanta) "No I think last week we talked about the process of whether it being head coaching experience, offense, defense, and from the get go I was looking for the right person. A leader of the team, a leader of men, a leader of this franchise. Whether it's offense, defense, they're all good coaches, but I was looking for the right leader of this team."

Dave Caldwell

(When did you know Gus Bradley was your guy?) "It took me about two seconds to know that I wanted to be with Shad and it took me about two point one to know I wanted to be with Gus."

Gus Bradley

"It did. I think it was just the energy that I felt and the passion. If it didn't work out I was going back to a great place too. I had a great situation so it had to be something that I think in my mind and my heart that it was a good match. Once I was in the building and went through the whole process and understood the vision that we want to take this it was a no brainer. I am telling you it was that easy. Then it was back to trying to sell myself and say I would love to be here."

Dave Caldwell

"It was quite an easy process. We started at ten o'clock in the morning on Wednesday and we finished about two or one o'clock in the morning when we finally got done talking about the team and the vision of this franchise. It was good."

Gus Bradley

(The last two head coaches who have stood where you are right now have talked about having an explosive offense. What do you feel are the steps to be able to do that?) "Well I think that the running game if you talk about establishing the run. If you can run the ball in the NFL it gives you the opportunity to be more explosive. I think that's around the league we saw. I think one of the first things that we need to do is establish the run and that will allow us to be more of an attacking offense. Establishing the run can be through the quarterback it could be through the running backs, it could be through some of the quick passing game, anything that puts a strain on it that way. But I think the number one thing is we have to evaluate talent. One of the things we did in Seattle on the defensive side. We first got hired we took a look at all the talent and we maybe had some personnel placement, we moved some guys from different positions, and we said here's who we've got, let's put them in the best position to make plays and give us the best opportunity to be successful. I don't think it's any different here. I think that we've got to look at personnel and place them in a position where they have the best opportunity to succeed, and hopefully in doing that we become more explosive.”

(You mentioned a plan and vision that’s all the same. Is there a timetable on that plan and vision?) “I’m sure there are. The whole focus with the team is just going to be to get better. I think that’s what this city of Jacksonville and the fans of Jacksonville have got to understand. Everybody has just got to play to their capabilities, and when they get to that point we’ve got to maximize it. Everybody’s got to do that and if we can do that and our whole focus is on getting better we’re going to win a lot of games. It will just take care of itself. I promise you on that. If we do those things we have the opportunity to win a lot of games. How about that? It just happens. I saw that. In Seattle now we had the second or the third youngest defense in the League, and we had a vision to say nothing is going to jeopardize us from playing fast. Nothing. We’re not going to get things overly complicated but our full objective and our whole focus was on just getting better. It wasn’t on winning this or winning that, or this was a big game, it was just every opportunity was a chance to get better. It just took care of itself. It was great. Really I have been looking for that vision for 23 years, and I think I finally understood it in Seattle that the players really responded to it and that same philosophy is going to be here. Get better. Everything we do to compete and do it better than it’s ever been done before and let’s see where it takes us now. If we do that I like our chances.”

Dave Caldwell

(Speculation on 49er’s coach coming in. Did you not want to wait a couple weeks to talk to him?) “I don’t know where the speculation came from just because of the ties that Greg and I had. Like I said, Greg is a heck of a football coach and he’s going to be a great Head Coach in this League and I believe that. As far as the time table goes, there was a little bit of a factor but I knew right away that when I found the right person I was going to know. The right person to lead this franchise is Gus. I had a very good friend of mine tell me when you interview the right Head Coach for you you’re going to know right away. I knew right away that Gus was the guy for this franchise.”

Gus Bradley

(On bringing the weather from Seattle) “I know, I know. Our whole family we were talking about it before is that we are pretty pale because we haven’t seen the sun for a while. I hope we didn’t bring this.”

(On turnover with head coaching position. How do you plan on staying here in Jacksonville and being permanent?) “Just like I said before our whole mindset is to be better every day and to really compete in everything that we do. Not only just compete on the field, on our coaching staff, but throughout the whole building and we’re really asking Jacksonville to take on that same mentality. Let’s take great pride as an organization in the team, great pride in the community, we have an unbelievable community and a city and let’s take it and run with it and let’s see where we can take this. If we have that mentality then time is not a factor.”

Shad Khan

(On hiring a first time General Manager and first time Head Coach. How different is the energy with these two guys versus the previous?) “I think the fans have really supported us. I think you saw that last season and I think for me that’s why we have to do the right thing which is to be candid, do a self-assessment where we are and the changes we need to make moving forward. Dave and Gus are two examples of where I think the franchise needs to be. The quality of people, the commitment, the passion, and the energy to win to make a difference and get better.”

Gus Bradley

(On defense 3-4, 4-3) “After I reevaluated the tape I know they did a lot of 4-3 and that’s primarily what they are. I’ve had experience in Seattle. We were 4-3 with a mix of 3-4. It was a good change up because I think difficulties for some offenses to prepare against. There’s no base on the personnel that we have and what we want to go over to and it’s no different offensively.”

(How long is your contract?) “I believe four.”

(What is a realistic view of when this can be a playoff team?) “That’s a good question. I don’t know if I have an answer for that. I’m going to stick to that philosophy. Just get better every day and those things will take care of themselves. I just truly believe that, and I think we need that. Our players need to hear that. It’s not about we’re winning right now. Obviously that’s important, but that is not our hope is to get better in everything we do, compete in every drill, every activity, and the offseason and everything that we do and just trust that those things will take care of themselves.”

(On your real name) “That might be a five minute discussion. My birth certificate is Paul. We are a Catholic family and my great, great, great Grandmother wanted me to be born with a Saint’s name. My mom and dad loved the name Casey so they said on the birth certificate it’s Paul but we’ll call him Casey. By the time I was one I had a nickname of Gus and that’s the one that stuck. That in itself is a story.”

(How did you get the nickname Gus?) “My brother gave it to me when I was little and it just stuck through elementary school, college, and in the NFL.”

Shad Khan

(How much have you learned in the NFL from a year ago until now?) “I’m still learning and I hope to be smarter maybe next year, but life is a learning experience. It’s about getting better and continuous improvement. Hopefully I will be a little bit better next year, but I think with these two gentleman sitting on my side I think the Jaguars are going to be a much better team.”

JAGUARS HEAD COACH GUS BRADLEY
MEDIA AVAILABILITY
FRIDAY, JANUARY 18, 2013

(on what he wants his quarterback to be like) "Someone that really is a great leader. Obviously a great leader has to be very talented as well, but someone that can lead our team and take over our team. That's what we are looking for."

(on his familiarity with the current Jaguar quarterbacks) "A little bit, but not based on this year. We (Seahawks) didn't play them (Jaguars) and there weren't any crossover games, but I'm really looking forward to the opportunity to really sit down and watch them and build my own opinion on it rather than hearing views from others."

(on having an open competition to decide who will be the quarterback) "I think that's the exactly the view that I'm talking about. Rather than hearing what people have to say, I would like to make my own evaluation and then come to a conclusion. But I think as a general philosophy you know there's going to be strong competition at every position, and quarterback is not safe either. We are going to have competition and again it helps us to get better at that position and then we'll see how it shakes out."

(on if it's possible to win in the NFL without an elite quarterback) "I think it's proven that there have been some franchises that have done that. Not in a while, but there have been some teams that have done very well, and I'm not saying that those quarterbacks aren't elite. They had great leadership, but I think that you've got to find out what's the personality of your team by watching on tape and say, 'Okay who are we?' and now let's develop around that and then speed the other areas up."

(on why young quarterbacks recently seem so ready to play) "It's amazing now. I saw firsthand especially in the Seattle situation where we signed Matt [Flynn]. It's a classic example of competition. Not being set on saying, 'Okay this guy is a veteran. He has been in the league. Let's go with the safe pick. Let's go with him.' It's not like that. I think what you'll find out here is our first opportunity to go out there and practice the rookies that we draft might be in the starting lineup and we'll put them in there and say, 'Let's go. Let's see what you can do.' We're not in college where you say, 'Go ahead and redshirt and let's see what we've got.' and I think that's a proven history in Seattle where we'll play young players, and we'll bring that same philosophy here."

(on if he think he'll have to tone down now that he's a head coach) "I don't know. I know offensively I think it's important to hire the coaches and allow them to do their job. Help them grow in their position. Help them be the best they can be. But I think the overall team needs to feel me, and that's why I say you can't be phony because the players read right through it. So that's really what I was in the interview process, and it was easy for me just because I thought well I can go back to Seattle which is not a bad place. So I'm just going to be me. If you think it's a good fit then let's go, and if you don't I understand. That's really how I'll approach the team too saying 'I'm just going to be me. I can't wait to work with you guys.' When I visited with Poz [linebacker Paul Posluszny] and Mo [offensive tackle Eugene Monroe] on the phone and talked to them I was like 'This is going to be great. These guys love it man. Are you kidding me?' So I'm excited about the opportunity, and let's see where it goes. Let's see where it goes."

(on if he will be going to the Senior Bowl) "Yeah, I'm not sure when we're but we're going over there."

(on if he hopes to have some of his staff filled before he leaves for the Senior Bowl) "I hope to have some done."

(on the notion that defensive coaches don't know offense) "Right, I can see that. You hear a lot of things probably. I don't care. I know what we're looking for and the vision we're trying to do and the style of offense that we want, and it's my job and our job along with Dave [Caldwell] to hire an offensive coordinator that has the same vision as us and then say, 'Okay let's go. Let's do it.'"

(on if he knows a good offense when he sees it) "Oh yeah man, when you face them. You want me to name them? We faced some good ones this year now up in Seattle. We had Green Bay and New England. There's some really good offenses, so yeah I know the things that cause issues to us as a defensive coach and as defensive players. Those will be great discussions won't they in a room? And that's what I think to take this thing to the next level we've got to have coaches that aren't sensitive, because we're going to challenge each other now. There's going to be a lot of challenges, but you have to do that to try to be the best you can be. It's not going to be where everybody says, 'Oh he knows the stuff and let's just go.' Come on every day let's try to be the best we can be, and let's really push this thing to the highest level. And to do that there's going to be some challenging times but that's okay as long as at the end of the day everybody knows what we're really trying to accomplish."

(on if he will call the defensive plays) "It could happen. It could happen. I'm going to see how we progress, and I'll be heavily involved in the defensive side."

(on the competition between Russell Wilson and Matt Flynn) "Can I comment on that? It was a strong competition, and I'd rather just talk about the Jaguars."

(on the challenges that lie ahead) "I know, but you know what let's see, let's see. It kind of is exciting. You've got to admit right? We're trying to develop this team. Let's see what we've got. I know we've got draft picks and there's an owner that's saying, 'Let's go and you know what let's do it right. Let's do it right, Gus. It's not a quick fix we know, but let's not win the AFC South, let's own it.' I'm going, 'Own it? Okay that's great.' This is long term, so let's put it together right and I said, 'I'm all for that, man. Let's do it.'"

(on if he ever envisioned he'd be an NFL head coach) "No, no I didn't. Like I said earlier up there, it doesn't matter where I coach I just love to coach and be a part of it. It just happens to be the NFL. My college football coach when I left to go join Tampa Bay said, 'My hope is that the NFL doesn't change you as a person and what you're all about.' And I said, 'It won't. It won't.' And now I'm looking it might have changed me a little bit, but you hope you stay to your principles and I think it's important. You know humility and things like that. Let's just work. Let's go all together. We're not going to hire coaches that are loyal to me. I don't want that. I want loyal to Jacksonville. I want them loyal to the Jaguars. That's who you need to be loyal to and let's go. That's what our whole purpose is. I know it sounds like, 'What is this guy about?' I just believe it. I just believe that. That's how we've done it. For 23 years I've been searching to be a part of a place where you can win consistently. I've seen the half time speeches where you go out before the game and people play really at a high level before the game and then the next game they drop. It drove me crazy to be honest with you. I want to be a part of something where week after week after week they always played at a high level, and that really drives me. I think it's a mindset, and I think that we were on to something up in Seattle. I think we really were. One of the compliments about the our (Seahawks) defense was we really played with great toughness and great poise every week, really give credit to the assistant coaches and the players. I thought that's what we're striving to do now. We're trying to be consistent week in and week out and play at a high level, and if you can do that you've got a great opportunity now. A great chance."

(on his focus of getting his players better) "I'm just trying to get the guys that we have and get them to be the best they can be and then I don't know. That's what makes it easy for me to go out there and go, 'Well you're losing.' That's not my objective. I'm trying to get him better. So we've got to get coaches that are not only good coaches, but are developers. We won't have guys on the practice squad just to fill out the practice squad. We've got to develop those guys and give us a chance to be successful. So again, my mindset is these are the guys we've got. Let's get them to be the best they can be and every day that's our only objective. I don't know where that's going to take us. I don't know all that. But I do know if we have that mindset those things somehow take care of themselves. So it's easy to go out there and coach every day with passion. I'm just trying to help you get better today. Someone might say, 'Well what about all this stuff?' I don't know. I'm just trying to help you get better and it's really a disciplined vision I think to have that but that's what we're going to try to do."

(on what happened at the end of last week's NFC Divisional Playoff game at Atlanta) "We went for it, and I think in that situation I said, 'Okay we can sit back. We can play loose cover-two, rush three and see what happens.' And I think that time I said, 'That's not what we're going to do. We're going to go after them. We're going to attack him (Falcons quarterback Matt Ryan) and that's how we were going to go. As I look back at it do I have any regrets? No, I'd do the same thing. That's Matt Ryan back there, and I know if he has time he has a great chance to be successful. So if we had that chance again we're going to do it again now."

(on what he saw from the Jaguars that made him want to be the head coach) "I just think our views were really similar. I saw him and he said, 'Okay, Gus here's what I envision.' And I was like, 'That's exactly what I'm thinking.' And it's great. How about this some might say, 'He's a young GM. Let's give him a chance.' And then you say, 'Well here's Gus. He's a defensive coach. He's young. Let's give him a chance. Let's take this and run with it and see what happens.' So we're kind of in the same boat that way, and that's really going to be our mindset with the guys, 'You're from here. You're a fourth round draft pick. Just give me a chance man. Give me a chance. Get in there with the first group. Let's see what we've got. And I think that mindset throughout is going to be I don't want to say a chip on their shoulder, but it's a little bit of that mindset and let's go. Let's go man."

(on if he can turn this franchise around quickly) "Yeah you can do some good things in a hurry in the NFL, but again our mindset is not quick fix right now. It's saying let's do this thing right for the long term and make good decisions based on that and really get this franchise off and running."

GENERAL MANAGER DAVID CALDWELL
MEDIA AVAILABILITY
FRIDAY, JANUARY 18, 2013

(on the length of the interview) "Yeah, it started at ten o'clock in the morning. It wasn't even supposed to start to 11, but we had an hour to catch up, before we got to meet with Shad and Mark. We spent an hour just talking about the game. I was at the game on Sunday. We may have met somewhere along the line when he was at North Dakota State, and I was a scout for the Colts at the time."

(on the slew of NFL head coaching hires in recent days speeding up the process) "No, there was no sense of urgency to get it done. We had some really good candidates, who were here, that will be really good head coaches at some point in time. There were some really good coaches that we didn't get to that will be really good head coaches at some point in time. After the day with Gus, I knew vision aligned with what we wanted to do here and it was an easy decision."

(on head coach Bradley's passion being important) "It's extremely important. What's more important than that is that it's genuine, as you guys can see. He is truly a leader of men. On top of everything else, he is a brilliant football mind. He has got a high football IQ, and what he has done with young players at Seattle. They were the second third youngest team in the NFL the last two years and still being a top tier defense that is pretty impressive. They have done it without necessarily high draft picks or high-priced free agents. That was very appealing to me."

(on going against the grain with a defensive hire is a bad thing) "No, I don't think so. I think you have to be a good coach and I think you have to be a great leader, and the rest will take care of itself. You have to put the right people in place to fit the offensive and defensive scheme. I think he will be able to put it all together."

(on if anything about head coach Bradley surprised him) "Nothing he really said surprised me. We had a lot of the similar vision on how we wanted this team to be built, and there was nothing really surprising to me. I think we have had the philosophy throughout our careers on what our focus was. Our focus was the job we had at hand, it was never to be a GM or a head coach. It was let's do the best we can and that what we will do here: the best we can."

(on hiring a defensive coach gives the team the best chance to succeed) "I wouldn't say that. I do know that we have to play good defense in the division. Andrew Luck's in Indianapolis and they are an up-and-coming team. Houston has a very impressive offense. They can score a lot of points. Tennessee is an up-and-coming team with a young quarterback. So to get out of our division, we are going to have play good defense, not only next year, but in years to come."

(on what he likes about partnering with Gus to build the organization) "I just think his ability to be genuine, speak honestly, be candid and for us we have instant chemistry."

(on timetable for success on the field) "Well you always hope for the best, but I think he hit the nail on the head. Like I said in the first presser: continuous improvement. That is what he is all about. Just keep getting better and those things will fall into place."

(on if he would've waited to interview head coach Bradley if Seattle was still in playoffs) "He was a guy that I was always interested in because I did a lot of work with Atlanta, thinking we were going to play them. I saw their defense and seeing how fast they played and how aggressive they played with young guys and knowing that over the last few years, he has had such a track record of success there in that system with the young guys. Then, I started doing some research and his name kept popping up and I thought this is an interesting guy. I had never met him and had no relationship whatsoever with him. So if I didn't find the right guy, he would have been a guy we would have waited for."

(on if he would have talked to Greg Roman if the 49ers lost) "I probably would have, yeah."

(on if Greg Roman is happy where he is) "Greg is very happy and he is very positive. He is focused on where they are. We haven't really talked in probably a couple of months. It's not like we text or email a lot."

(on why Greg Roman did not reach out to him) "That is not Greg's mindset. He has a very similar mindset to Gus and will just do the best job he can."

(on when during the interview did he make the offer) "We knew about half way through the day that it was going to happen. So we started to talk about the future of the team. The job was actually offered to him before the end of the day. We went through it and then we had dinner that night."

(on if there was a gradual vibe that this would happen) "It was a gradual vibe. He approached like you have the next three and a half hours from and I'm the biggest Jacksonville Jaguars fans. If you don't think I'm the right man, then that is great, but as of right now, I'm the biggest fan. Even if you don't choose me, I'll still be a big fan."

(on if he thought head coach Bradley was going to the Eagles) "I didn't really have a preconceived notion on whether he was or was not. I never talked him. I knew he had a second interview and usually when someone has a second interview, you think maybe they won't get to us. But he did and then when he left there, I was like okay good, I look forward to meeting him. Like I said, we have never really talked before. So I didn't know him as a person. It was great going through the whole process. Then later that night when the Eagles got wind that he might be our guy, they called and said we were really impressed with him too."

(on if the Eagles called to recommend him) "No, they didn't go that far."

(on if the passion sold him on head coach Bradley) "It wasn't just the passion, it was everything. It was passion, attention to detail, high football IQ, his vision and it was everything that really sold me. I think the energy and the passion, that stuff is great. I think he will do a great job in Jacksonville."

(on if there will be an emphasis on defensive line) "I think looking at defensive line, we are going to have a good defensive line. I think you put some emphasis on keeping it simple and letting the players play fast. I think ideally in anything, if you could just rush with four and cover with seven that's your best bet to have success. If you don't have the ability to do that, then you have to blitz and be creative. I think we have the ability to do both. They had the ability in Seattle to rush with four and cover with seven, which is great. We did a lot of that in Indianapolis."

(on if he ever got to interview Darrell Bevell) "No, and I didn't want to cast a wide net. I knew pretty much what I was looking for. All three of the candidates (Mel Tucker, Brian Schottenheimer and Gus Bradley) were excellent. They were really good and I was impressed."

(on if defensive coordinator Mel Tucker will stay) "I think he (Bradley) is still evaluating that. Mel is a heck of a coach and he did a really nice job in the interview."

(on if head coach Bradley has watched Jaguars film) "Probably not. No. We want to get the staff in place. We have some time. I think it is important to get our staff in place and then figure out our schemes and what fits where. Then we will go through every play of every game, he and I, and just say hey, where do we take this from here. We don't want to do some tearing down. We want to do some building. We want to build onto the talent we have here."

(on evaluating the roster) "To be honest with you, I wanted to do this in phases. When I got the job here, my sole focus was on getting the head coach. I haven't done any more since then. This has been so time consuming in doing the research and the background, the candidates and the travel and this and that. The main thing was for us to get that (a head coach)."

OWNER SHAHID KHAN
MEDIA AVAILABILITY
FRIDAY, JANUARY 18, 2012

(On Gus Bradley being a likeable guy) "Yes. I think how people handle adversity is probably more important to me than how they handle success. Some of the experience he's had, what he's gone through, I think are vital."

(How comfortable are you empowering Caldwell and Bradley) "Well I think you have to give them all the resources, frankly. Last year did the same thing. You empowered people; give them all the resources and then you evaluate at the end of the year. I think you empower but then you hold them accountable."

(What stuck out with Gus in interview?) "He's a high energy guy. He's a guy that if you look at his life experiences, the arc of life where he's been, where he's come from, and handling adversity. I think that's very important. I think certainly the self-assessment I've done, where we are as a team, which is starting from the bottom up, I think we'll go through some challenging times and you've got to be able to handle it."

(Surprised that he was available? A lot of people thought he would go to Philadelphia?) "Well Brent, I think this is a great town, this is a great organization. We deserve the best people. With all candor and modesty, I think Dave (Caldwell) is the best general manager who was out there. I think we deserve him, we got him. I think Gus (Bradley) is a great coach, and we deserve him."

(How patient do you have to be now, does it test your patience a little bit?) "No, because I think the most important thing is we have to get better. For me, when I'm looking at this year, we have to get better. Then the year after that we have to get better. I think that improvement really is the most important thing."

(Impressed by Dave when you hired him? What impressed you about his search for a head coach?) "I think not really being tied down to his history, personal preferences, who he knew, but really looking at who would be the best person out there."
