UNITED IN THE COMMUNITY

The Jacksonville Jaguars are committed to giving back and serving the city that has shown incredible support over the years. The Jaguars Foundation develops and implements resourceful and valuable programs that contribute directly to the Jacksonville area. Below is an explanation of a few of the initiatives that the Jaguars have successfully executed in the past year.

LONDON NFL PLAY 60

In addition to the NFL Play 60 programs that the Jaguars Foundation implements in Jacksonville, the Jaguars took Play 60 to London. Jaguar players, members of the ROAR of the Jaguars, team staff members and Jaxson de Ville all participated in an NFL Play 60 event at Westway Sports Centre in West London promoting youth football and fitness.

JAGUARS 50/50 FAN RAFFLE FOR CHARITY

Each game, fans have the opportunity to purchase raffle tickets, with a chance to be the big winner. Half of the net proceeds go to one winner, with the other half benefiting the Jaguars Foundation and a co-recipient charity. The raffle raised over $130,000 last season. Benefiting charities from the 2013 season include No More Homeless Pets, Family Promise, J.T. Townsend Foundation, Second Harvest, Baptist Health's Hill Breast Center, K9s for Warriors, Dignity U Wear, American Red Cross, and Boys & Girls Clubs of Northeast Florida.

HOSPITAL VISITS

Jaguars players regularly make visits to Wolfson Children's Hospital to meet with kids, sign autographs and lift spirits. In 2008, the Jaguars Den was established at Wolfson Children's Hospital. The Jaguars Den is a one-of-a-kind, state-of-the-art room for children at the hospital where areas are designated for group games, pods for semi-private conversations, and individual computer stations. Stations are equipped with a keyboard and other input devices such as drawing tablets, touch pads and joysticks, all on flexible supports that children can easily adjust for their comfort.

7-ON-7 PASSING CHALLENGE

The Jacksonville Jaguars introduced the first annual Jaguars 7-on-7 Passing Challenge in June 2014. As a part of the Jaguars Youth Football initiative, the Jaguars 7-on-7 Passing Challenge is designed to sharpen the skills of young athletes while giving them an early dose of competition as they prepare for the high school football season.

HOMETOWN HUDDLE

For more than 30 years the NFL and the United Way have partnered to help build stronger, healthier communities. Whether it's reaching out to disadvantaged youth or feeding the hungry, both are committed to raising public awareness of important social service issues. Each fall, the Jaguars partner with the United Way of Northeast Florida for a hands-on community service project called Hometown Huddle. Children from United Way programs in the Jacksonville area have a chance to spend time with their favorite NFL players as they participate in a few outdoor physical activities as well as participate in one community activity to show the children the importance of giving back.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS

MILITARY VISITS

Jaguars players make visits to the local military bases including the Air National Guard 125th Fighter Wing (Air Force National Guard), Mayport Naval Station and NAS JAX. On these visits players sign autographs and are given behind-the-scenes tours to help them gain an appreciation for the service men and women returning or preparing to deploy overseas. Players also make trips to military facilities such as the Bethesda National Naval Medical Center where men and women who are wounded overseas fighting for our country come for rehab and treatment of wounds caused in battle.

GIVE & GO 100 PROGRAM

In a partnership with the Nonprofit Center of Northeast Florida, the Jaguars Foundation and the DuBow Family Foundation, the Jaguars offer the opportunity to northeast Florida nonprofits to earn dollars through the sale of exclusive, discounted Jaguars tickets. Give and Go 100 allows Jacksonville nonprofits to offer the lowest-priced Jaguar tickets in town for single ticket sales. Each participating organization that sells 100 or more tickets can earn $3,000 or more for their organization. This program raised over $23,000 last year for local nonprofits, and this year the program is back with some BIG ideas to help raise even more money!

JAGUARS ROOKIE CLUB

In June of 2003 the Jaguars established the Rookie Club for all incoming rookies. Its purpose is to assist in the transition from college to the NFL, and to introduce and involve first-year players, as a group, in charitable and civic activities in the Jacksonville community. As a group the rookies make a number of appearances to different types of community outreaches so that each player has a chance to decide the type of outreach he has a passion for as an individual.

COACHING CLINIC

The Jacksonville Jaguars hosted a coaching clinic in June 2014. The clinic was designed with an emphasis on the core fundamentals to the game. There were six fundamental sessions that Jaguars position coaches instructed on the latest teachings that the staff has incorporated. All high school coaches from Duval and the four surrounding counties were invited to participate. Head Coach Gus Bradley and the assistant coaches enjoyed meeting local football coaches throughout the Jacksonville area.

SHOPPING WITH THE JAGS

Each year over 100 children from different agencies have the opportunity to go shopping with their favorite Jaguars players. The children have time to talk to their favorite players about football, family and some of the players' favorite activities they did growing up. All of this conversation is taking place while the players and children are trying to budget out what gifts they will buy for themselves and their family members.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS FOUNDATION

Believing that youth represent the community's future, the Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation is committed to support programs benefiting economically and socially disadvantaged youth, families and other NFL and team charitable initiatives.

FOUNDATION'S GRANT AWARDS TOP $18 MILLION

Under the leadership of Jaguars owner Shad Khan and his family, the Jaguars Foundation continues to be a national leader in professional sports philanthropy, providing more than $1.6 million in grants to local youth, military/veterans and other charitable organizations.

The Jaguars Foundation awarded its first grants in March of 1995, well before the team played its first game. Total grant making since 1995 is more than $18 million. This level of giving is among the top few in professional sports.

IMPACT ON EDUCATION

The Jaguars Foundation has adopted Andrew Jackson High School as a corporate partner, making a significant investment in the students and staff at the school. Support from the Jaguars Foundation includes an Honor Rows program, pep rallies, faculty and staff functions, prom night, scholarships and the Jaguars Reading Den. The Jaguars Foundation has also embarked on a three year commitment with City Year to provide supportive services at Matthew Gilbert Middle School, a feeder school to Andrew Jackson, to help students be high school ready.

HONOR ROWS

Florida Blue is proud to present the Jaguars Foundation's Honor Rows. This unique program uses seats at Jaguars home games as incentives for youth ages 9 to 17 to set and achieve ambitious but realistic goals in the areas of academic improvement, personal behavior, volunteer community service, nutrition and physical fitness. Honor Rows youth also pledge to remain free from illegal drugs, alcohol and tobacco.

At the games, participants receive a meal, hat, Honor Rows T-shirt and special recognition by the team owners and fans. Nearly 5,000 seats will be awarded in 2014 in partnership with 42 nonprofit agencies. Since, 1995, more than 50,000 youth have earned their seat. The United Way of Northeast Florida mobilizes game-day volunteers who ensure the overall safety and enjoyment of the participants.

In addition to the Honor Rows, the Jaguars Foundation awards seats to other charitable organizations. In total, nearly 11,800 seats are allocated each season for charitable purposes with an in-kind value exceeding $430,000.

SUPPORT FOR OUR MILITARY

The NFL and the Jaguars have had a long history of strong support for our troops and their families. Since the inaugural season in 1995, the Jaguars, in partnership with the Greater Jacksonville USO, have made available more than 1,000 tickets to active military at a reduced price for every home game.

HONORING OUR TROOPS

The largest block of donated tickets for active military families is in the Foundation's "HONORING OUR TROOPS" section. In partnership with UPS, Greater Jacksonville USO, area US Navy bases, and other military branches and Guard/Reserve units, the Foundation provides more than 100 tickets each home game to local families with children who have a parent on deployment. Complimentary bus transportation, T-shirts and Jag Dollars for meals or souvenirs for the kids are provided.

HONORING OUR TROOPS

SUPPORT FOR VETERANS RETURNING HOME

The Khan family and the Jaguars have made a $1 million commitment over five years to the City of Jacksonville to support transition services for veterans returning to civilian life at the Jacksonville Veterans Resource and Reintegration Center.

OWNER

SHAHID KHAN

OWNER

On January 4, 2012, Shahid Khan became the owner of the Jacksonville Jaguars. His dream of owning an NFL team had become reality on December 14, 2011, in a unanimous 32-0 vote by NFL owners in support of his purchase of the franchise.

A magnate in the automotive parts industry, Khan was familiar with Jacksonville long before purchasing the team. Jacksonville's port at one time was the United States' largest for automobile shipments, and Khan's fledgling business brought him to Jacksonville's Blount Island terminal to install his patented bumpers on the import vehicles.

Khan's passion for the National Football League also took root long before his entry into the league. His dream of one day owning an NFL team began while watching games with his fraternity brothers in the basement of the Beta Theta Pi house as a student at the University of Illinois. Through the success of his own business, his dream came true 40 years later.

Khan is president and owner of Flex-N-Gate Corporation, the 14th-largest North American automotive supplier, employing more than 16,000 people at 52 manufacturing and nine product development and engineering facilities throughout Canada, the United States, Mexico, Argentina, Brazil and Spain. Flex-N-Gate's major product lines include complete bumper assemblies, mechanical assemblies, exterior plastic trim, and complex welded structural assemblies for the light vehicle market.

Khan's history with Flex-N-Gate started in 1970, when he began working at the company while he was an engineering student at the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign. A naturalized U.S. citizen, Mr. Khan came from his native Pakistan in 1967 at the age of 16 to attend college. When he graduated in 1971, with a B.S. in industrial engineering, he became Flex-N-Gate's engineering manager. In 1978, Khan left Flex-N-Gate and with $13,000 in savings and a $50,000 loan from the Small Business Loan Corporation, he created the start-up Bumper Works, which revolutionized the industry through an innovative one-piece bumper design—a lightweight, continuous piece of metal with no seams to rust or corrode. His innovative design is still considered the industry standard for all seamless steel bumpers worldwide.

Bumper Works embodied two of Mr. Khan's many strengths—a deep understanding of design and a strong entrepreneurial streak. When Flex-N-Gate came on the market two short years later, Khan purchased his former employer and brought Bumper Works into the fold. During the decade that followed, Flex-N-Gate transitioned from an aftermarket parts producer to an Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM). Needing to expand his client base, Khan made sales calls for over five years to all the Japanese auto manufacturers, who, at the time, were more open to new ideas and working with smaller suppliers. This dogged determination resulted in Flex-N-Gate acquiring contracts for all the Japanese-produced trucks imported into the U.S. By the late 1980s Toyota had selected the Bumper Works facility to be the first American parts supplier to receive Toyota's lean manufacturing training—an event Khan identifies as having a profound effect on Flex-N-Gate's ability to grow and prosper.

Widely recognized for his vision, acumen and leadership, Khan has grown Flex-N-Gate both horizontally and vertically through integration of processes and commodities. From the company's modest beginning with only the ability to stamp and weld the bumper shell, Flex-N-Gate has continually expanded to bring all the necessary processes in-house. This carefully planned expansion reduced costs and improved control, consistently making Flex-N-Gate more competitive in the industry. By leveraging what he learned working directly with automotive customers, Khan grew the company by purchasing other OEM facilities, expanding into different commodity types and broadening his client base.

Today, Flex-N-Gate has a global footprint reaching from Canada to Argentina and from the United States into Europe and Asia. The company's clients include all of the major automotive manufacturers in North America, Japan and Europe. In 2007 Mr. Khan received the Minority Business Leadership Award from the National Minority Supplier Development Council, and Automotive News ranked Flex-N-Gate the 14th largest North American automotive supplier for 2010. When asked about Flex-N-Gate's remarkable success, Khan is quick to humbly note that he is proof that the American dream is still alive and attainable.

In addition to success in the automotive arena, Khan has expanded on his interests in biofuels and structural engineering. With Bio-Alternative, LLC, Khan has brought together a team of industry leaders around the philosophy of biodiesel being an efficient, affordable, and sustainable energy alternative that should be widely and easily accessible. From refinery construction and catalyst sales, to site planning and business consultation, Bio-Alternative continually engages in extensive and ongoing research and development initiatives that ensure the company is always taking the next step in energy to provide customers with the tools necessary to maximize the benefits and values of biodiesel.

Shad Khan's deep interest in developing engineering solutions to global infrastructure problems led him to start Smart Structures, which advances the technology of bridge monitoring, also known as structural health monitoring (SHM). The primary objective of a successful SHM program is to save or defer money for a bridge owner by using technology to assist in their bridge maintenance programs. Smart Structures has emerged as a technical leader in providing cost-effective bridge management packages.

In 2013, Khan complemented his sports club portfolio with his purchase of the London-based Fulham Football Club. As chairman of Fulham, Khan became the only person in the world to own 100 percent of both an NFL club and a Barclays Premier League team. Fulham will play in the Sky Bet Championship division of The Football League in 2014-2015.

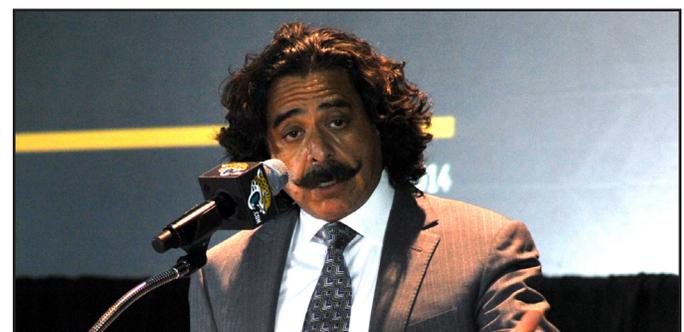

Since early 2012 Shad and Ann Khan have focused their philanthropic giving in the Jacksonville community through the Jaguars Foundation. Through the Foundation they provided more than $1 million in grants in 2012 and $1.6 million in 2013 to children's and family programs, as well as other NFL and team-related initiatives. The Foundation also donates more than 11,000 charitable tickets with an in-kind value of nearly $500,000 annually. The Khans' charitable initiatives include a $1 million commitment to the City of Jacksonville's Veterans Resource and Reintegration Center, as a partner in the mayor's initiative to military service members transitioning back to civilian life. The Khans also made a six-figure challenge matching grant to the North Florida Boy Scouts, contributions to fund the NFL/Jaguars Play 60 program in partnership with Baptist Health, and grants to support community improvements. Khan also supported the One Spark event in Jacksonville in April 2014 with his second consecutive $1 million pledge to support creativity and innovation.

Mr. Khan has served as an active member on many University of Illinois boards, including the Engineering Board of Visitors; Department of Mechanical and Industrial Engineering Alumni Board; MechSE Extern Program; University of Illinois Foundation Board of Directors; and the Presidents Council, and was inducted into the Engineering at Illinois Hall of Fame in 2010. Mr. Khan is the current president of the Chief Executives Organization, a global community of the top 2,000 leaders in the business, government, and non-profit sectors. He also currently serves on three NFL committees: the Finance Committee, Investment Committee and the NFL Foundation.

Along with his wife, fellow University of Illinois alum Ann Carlson Khan, the Khans' gifts to the University of Illinois have enriched the university and community through donations to the Krannert Center for the Performing Arts, the University Library; the College of Business; and the College of Applied Health Sciences, where they have funded five endowed Khan Professorships and the Khan Annex—a 24,000 square foot facility with state-of-the-art laboratories, instructional, and professional collaboration spaces. The Khan Outdoor Tennis Complex on the University of Illinois campus hosted the 2013 NCAA Men's and Women's Tennis Championships.

In 2007 the Khan Foundation was formed to expand research in the Applied Health Sciences, with Mrs. Khan serving as the foundation's president. Since its inception, the Foundation has given out more than $5 million in grants nationwide—to libraries; organizations such as Crisis Nursery and the YMCA; and to UCLA for pediatric non-embryonic stem cell research. In 2011 Mr. Khan became a Lincoln Laureate, the state's highest award for achievement given by the Lincoln Academy of Illinois, for his philanthropic work in the state.

Mr. Khan shares his passion for the American dream with his family. The Khans have passed on their commitment to work and service to their two grown children, Shanna and Tony Khan. Tony is the Jaguars' senior vice president, football technology and analytics.

MANAGEMENT

MARK LAMPING

PRESIDENT

Mark Lamping was named president of the Jacksonville Jaguars on February 13, 2012. A veteran of more than 20 years as an executive in professional sports, Lamping became the Jaguars' first president since the end of the 1996 season. His career highlights include 13 years as a marketing executive with Anheuser-Busch, 14 seasons as president of Major League Baseball's St. Louis Cardinals and four years as CEO of New Meadowlands Stadium Company where he oversaw the construction and operation of MetLife Stadium. The New York Giants' 2012 Super Bowl victory enabled Lamping to become one of the few sports executives to have received both a Super Bowl ring and World Series Championship ring. Lamping earned his World Series ring as president of the St. Louis Cardinals following their 2006 championship season.

As president, Lamping oversees all business operations for the Jaguars. Since arriving in Jacksonville he has directed a restructuring of the Jaguars front office, along with multiple initiatives designed to engage with fans, improve the in-stadium experience, increase ticket sales, strengthen relationships with governmental and civic interests, and grow business opportunities locally, regionally and internationally. 2014 will mark the completion of major fan-friendly enhancements to EverBank Field including the installation of the world's largest video boards. Again this fall and continuing through the 2016 season, the Jaguars will play one regular season home game each year at London's Wembley Stadium. Lamping currently serves on the NFL Stadium Security and Fan Behavior Committees.

Lamping previously served as president and CEO of the New Meadowlands Stadium Company, LLC beginning on April 1, 2008. The New Meadowlands Stadium Company was the joint venture formed between the New York Giants and the New York Jets to develop the $1.6 billion stadium in East Rutherford, N.J. Lamping was responsible for managing the construction and operation of MetLife Stadium, which opened in April 2010 and is the only NFL stadium which is the home of two NFL teams. In addition to the minimum of 20 NFL games that are played each season, the stadium hosts events ranging from college football to international soccer tournaments to major concerts and more. In addition to numerous awards, in both 2010 and 2011 Billboard magazine named MetLife Stadium as the highest grossing stadium in North America. Lamping also helped lead the successful bid to host the 2014 Super Bowl. The 2014 Super Bowl was the first Super Bowl played in an open air stadium in a cold weather city.

Prior to joining the New Meadowlands Stadium Company, Lamping was the president of the St. Louis Cardinals from September 1, 1994 until March 31, 2008. In addition to the club's 1996, 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2005 Central Division titles and 2004 National League Championship, the Cardinals earned their 10th World Championship in 2006. In 1999 and again in 2003, the Cardinals were honored by United Sports Fans of America as Major League Baseball's Fan Friendly Team for their superior efforts to make a day at the ballpark more affordable and enjoyable. In addition to managing the club's business and facility operations, Lamping led the Cardinals' new ballpark initiative. On April 10, 2006, Opening Day, the Cardinals officially dedicated the new privately financed ballpark, Busch Stadium. The perfect ending to the inaugural season at the new Busch Stadium was the Cardinals winning their 10th World Championship.

From 1989 to 1994 Lamping served as Anheuser-Busch's group director of sports marketing. In that position, he managed the company's TV and radio sports production division and all domestic and international sports marketing activities for Anheuser-Busch's beer brands, including sponsorship agreements with the Olympics, FIFA World Cup and all major professional sports, including Major League Baseball, the National Football League, the National Hockey League and the National Basketball Association.

Lamping joined Anheuser-Busch in 1981 in the company's Corporate Planning Executive Development Program. He then served in a variety of positions including district sales manager in Southern Illinois and Central Iowa, senior brand manager for new products and director of sales operations before being named group director of sports marketing in 1989.

Lamping was named in 2013 as a non-executive board member of Fulham Football Club in London while, closer to home, he serves on the boards of directors of the JAXUSA Chamber of Commerce, chair of the JAXUSA Chamber of Commerce Business Development, JAXUSA Policy Council, Jacksonville Sports Alliance, Jacksonville Civic Council, the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Jacksonville, Inc., Jacksonville University Public Policy Institute, and the American Heart Association. While in St. Louis, Lamping was involved in a variety of charitable organizations, including board of directors, Habitat for Humanity and St. Louis Cardinals Community Fund; chairperson of the Make-A-Wish Foundation Golf Classic in 1997, 1998, and 1999; chairman of the St. Louis Archdiocese Catholic Charities 2000 and 2001 Christmas Appeal, and he also served as a chairperson for Pope John Paul's 1999 visit to St. Louis.

In 1998, Lamping was honored as Man of the Year by the St. Louis chapter of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Resources and received the James O'Flynn Award from St. Patrick's Center in recognition of his work to help the homeless in the St. Louis area. In addition Lamping was the recipient of the Catholic Youth Council 2000 Community Achievement Award and the 2001 Marianist Youth Medal in recognition of his support of youth throughout the St. Louis area. Big Brothers and Big Sisters of St. Louis honored Lamping with its 2001 Legacy Award. In 2006 Lamping was presented the Gateway Leadership Award from the International Leadership Network. David Caldwell is in his second year as the general manager of the Jaguars after being named to the post on January 8, 2013. A veteran of 18 years in the NFL, Caldwell spent five seasons (2008-12) with the Atlanta Falcons before joining the Jaguars. Previously with the Carolina Panthers and Indianapolis Colts, Caldwell was with teams that went to the playoffs in 13 of his first 17 NFL seasons in Carolina, Indianapolis and Atlanta.

Caldwell reshaped the roster in his first season with the Jaguars with 68 different players appearing on the active roster during the regular season, the third-most in the NFL, and 31 players finishing the season with the club that were not on the roster in 2012. Caldwell and his staff made 151 transactions from the preseason to the conclusion of the regular season. His first draft class included eight players who combined to play in 92 games as rookies with 44 starts, and 20 of the 53 players on the final roster were rookies or first-year players. Five of the eight draft picks saw action in at least 15 games. The group was led by offensive tackle Luke Joeckel who was selected with the second overall pick. Second-round pick Johnathan Cyprien started 15 games at safety and ranked second on the team with 92 tackles, the highest total among rookie defensive backs in the NFL. The Jaguars signed five unrestricted free agents in 2013 with four playing prominent roles in linebacker Geno Hayes (14 starts), cornerback Alan Ball (15 starts), defensive tackle Sen'Derrick Marks (16 starts) and defensive tackle Roy Miller (14 starts).

Caldwell, 40, served the 2012 season as the Falcons director of player personnel where he was responsible for both college and pro scouting efforts under Falcons General Manager Thomas Dimitroff. Caldwell spent his first four seasons with the Falcons as the director of college scouting overseeing Atlanta's college area and regional scouts. His primary role was evaluating the hundreds of draft-eligible college players on an annual basis.

In Caldwell's five seasons in Atlanta, the Falcons advanced to the postseason four times and were the only NFC team to post five consecutive winning seasons. The Falcons had a 56-24 regular season record in Caldwell's tenure. Several of the players responsible for the Falcons' success were drafted during Caldwell's time including wide receiver Harry Douglas (3rd round, 2008), DE Kroy Biermann (5th round, 2008), linebacker Sean Weatherspoon (1st round, 2010), wide receiver Julio Jones (1st round, 2011) and running back Jacquizz Rogers (5th round, 2011). Eight rookies from the five draft classes started on opening day in 2012.

Prior to joining the Falcons, Caldwell spent 10 seasons (1998-2007) with the Indianapolis Colts under General Manager Bill Polian, helping to build a roster that claimed a victory in Super Bowl XLI and consisted of multiple Pro Bowl players drafted by the club. Caldwell was the western regional scout in his final two seasons with the Colts where he covered major college football conferences, including the Pac-10, Big 10 and Big 12. BOB BABICH

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Bob Babich was named defensive coordinator for the Jaguars on January 19, 2013. Babich has 31 years of coaching experience, including 11 seasons in the NFL as an assistant and six as a head coach on the collegiate level.

In his first season with the Jaguars, Babich directed a unit that improved throughout the season. The defense improved from 11 sacks in the first eight games to 20 in the second half of the season, 26th in the NFL in takeaways to 13th, 31st to 4th in average per rush and 32nd to 11th in rushing yards per game. Linebacker Paul Posluszny led the team with 161 tackles and was named to his first career Pro Bowl.

Babich spent nine seasons (2004-12) with the Chicago Bears where he served six years as linebackers coach and three as defensive coordinator under Head Coach Lovie Smith. He was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2007, a title he held for three seasons. He served as the club's linebackers coach for his final three seasons.

In Babich's nine years with Chicago, the Bears linebacker corps was arguably the most productive in the NFL with Lance Briggs (7) and Brian Urlacher (4) combining to make 11 Pro Bowls. Prior to entering the NFL coaching ranks, Babich spent 19 years as a college coach of which the final six were as a head coach. Babich served six seasons as head coach at North Dakota State University (1997-2002) where Jaguars Head Coach Gus Bradley served as assistant under him. Babich earned a 46-22 career mark by posting five winning seasons with two NCAA Division II playoff appearances. The Bison were 9-2 in the regular season in his first year in 1997 and 12-1 in 2000, reaching the national semifinals before losing to the eventual national champion, Delta State. Babich's son, Bobby, played for his dad as a freshman at NDSU.

A native of Aliquippa, Pa., Babich began his career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Tulsa, from 1984-87 and later returned in 1991 for one season as a volunteer assistant coach/offensive line. He spent two seasons as an assistant at Wisconsin, one as an assistant offensive line coach (1988) and one as tight ends coach (1989). He coached linebackers at Bowling Green (1991) and East Carolina (1992-93) before spending three seasons at Pittsburgh in the same capacity from 1994-96.

During his tenure at Tulane, Scelfo tutored four quarterbacks that went on to the NFL in Patrick Ramsey, J.P. Losman, Lester Ricard and Shaun King. Each of the players finished their careers ranked in the top five in school history in career passing yards. The Abbeville, La. native produced Tulane's all-time passing leader (Ramsey), all-time rushing and all-purpose yardage leader (Mewelde Moore), all-time touchdown receptions leader (Roydell Williams) and all-time scoring leader (Seth Marler). DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

DeWayne Walker is in his second season with the club after being named defensive backs coach for the Jaguars on January 24, 2013. Walker has 26 years of coaching experience, including eight in the NFL, and spent four seasons as head coach at New Mexico State before joining the Jaguars.

Walker, 53, oversaw the development of a young secondary that featured three rookie starters in 2013: Johnathan Cyprien (strong safety), Josh Evans (free safety) and Dwayne Gratz (cornerback). Cyprien finished second on the team and first among NFL rookie defensive backs with 98 tackles (82 solo) and added two forced fumbles and one interception. Evans ranked fifth on the team with 54 tackles (43 solo) and Gratz added 32 tackles (26 solo) and two interceptions. Sixth-year pro Alan Ball started 15 games at cornerback and had the most productive season of his career, finishing with 47 tackles, two interceptions and 14 passes defended.

Walker compiled a 10-40 record during his tenure at New Mexico State. In 2011, the Aggies finished with a 4-9 mark with wins over Big Ten opponent Minnesota, the first in school history, a third straight win against in-state rival New Mexico, a home win over Idaho and a program first victory against Fresno State.

The Aggies had five players earn All-Western Athletic Conference honors in 2011, the most since joining the WAC and since the 2002 season. Kick returner/wide receiver Taveon Rogers was named to five All-America teams as he led the team with 1,318 kickoff return yards and three touchdowns. He ranked second in the nation in all-purpose yards per game with 196.3 and had a team-high 59 catches for 1,048 yards and nine touchdowns. Running back Kenny Turner, who rushed for 1,074 yards and 10 touchdowns, was named a second team All-WAC selection. Turner became just the second 1,000-yard rusher for the Aggies since the 2000 season. Donyae Coleman also thrived under Walker's system, leading the Aggies in tackles with 133 and interceptions with six. He led the WAC interceptions and ranked seventh in the country. The 2010 season was a turning point for the Aggie football team regardless of the 2-10 overall record. Walker helped the Aggies to their second win over in-state rival New Mexico in as many years, making it the first time since the 1998 and 1999 seasons that New Mexico State put together two straight wins against the Lobos. Walker tutored defensive back Davon House to first team all-WAC honors as he finished his career with 11 interceptions, while leading the team with three INTs in 2010. House was a fourth-round draft pick of the Green Bay Packers in the 2011 NFL Draft.

Despite a 3-10 overall record and a 1-7 mark in WAC play in 2009, the Aggies finished the year in the top six in the conference in pass defense, total defense and scoring defense. New Mexico State was ranked 36th in the nation in pass defense and 54th in pass defense efficiency. The Aggies also beat in-state rival New Mexico in Albuquerque for the first time since the 1999 season. House was named a first team All-WAC selection, after leading the league in passes defended and interceptions. House also broke the school record for most interception return yards for a career.

Prior to joining New Mexico State, Walker spent three seasons (2006-08) as UCLA's defensive coordinator. He served as UCLA's interim head coach for the 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl game. In 2008, Walker's unit finished 48th in the nation in total defense, allowing 337 yards a game. UCLA's passing defense was atop the nation's leaders ranking 11th overall and second in the Pac-10, holding its opponents to just 167.6 yards per game through the air. In 2007, the Bruin defense once again found itself listed among the national leaders in several categories. UCLA ranked 14th in rushing defense (109.2 yards per game), 29th in total defense (343.23 yards), 29th in scoring defense (22.3 points) and 32nd in pass efficiency defense (115.26). The Bruins also ranked second nationally in tackles for loss per game (8.77), third in third-down conversion defense (29.1%), tied for 15th in sacks per game average (3.0) and tied for 17th in fumbles caused (14). Defensive backs Trey Brown (tied for first, 1.77/pg) and Alterraun Verner (tied for 11th, 1.46/pg) ranked among the nation's best in the passes defended category, while defensive end Bruce Davis ranked tied for ninth in the nation in sacks per game (.92).

In 2006, the Bruins were among the national leaders in rushing defense (tied for ninth in the NCAA and tied for first in the Pac-10 with 91.08 yards per game) and total defense (33rd nationally at 304.83) and allowed almost half as many touchdowns (27) as the previous year (48). UCLA allowed 91.1 yards per game, 2.83 yards per rush and just nine touchdowns on the ground, the first time since 1985 that the Bruins had allowed fewer yards per game on the ground. The Bruin defense also ranked fifth nationally in third-down conversion defense (28.4%, 50 of 176).

Walker spent two seasons (2004-05) with the Washington Redskins as secondary coach under head coach Joe Gibbs. In 2005, the Redskins finished 10-6 and won a postseason game. The Redskins led the NFL in lowest opponent completion percentage (54.4) and ranked tied for second in fewest touchdown passes allowed (15), 10th in pass defense (192.6 yards) and 14th (tied) in interceptions (16). Walker played a key role in the development of rookie cornerback Carlos Rogers and the continued fine play of Shawn Springs. In 2004, Walker's first season in Washington, Springs became the first cornerback in NFL history to lead his team in sacks (five) and interceptions (six) in the same season.

Walker served as secondary coach of the New York Giants from 2002-03 and was associate head coach/secondary coach at Southern California under Pete Carroll in 2001. The Trojans ranked seventh in the nation with 19 interceptions and were 16th in pass defense (179.2) and fewest touchdown passes allowed (11). He was secondary coach with the New England Patriots for three seasons (1998-2000), the first two under Carroll and his final season under Bill Belichick. During Walker's tenure with the Patriots, defensive backs Ty Law and Lawyer Milloy each earned trips to the Pro Bowl.

Walker began his coaching career at Mt. San Antonio College (1988-1992) and also had stints at Utah State (1993), Brigham Young (1994), Oklahoma State (1995) and California (1996-97). He participated in the NFL's minority coaching internship program, working with the San Francisco 49ers in 1996 and the Patriots in 1997.

A former cornerback, Walker played three seasons professionally, one in the CFL with the Edmonton Eskimos in 1982 and two in the USFL with the Arizona Outlaws in 1983 and Oakland Invaders in 1984. He was a two-year starter at Minnesota from 1980-81 after spending his first two years at Pasadena City College. Walker earned his bachelor's degree in liberal arts from Regents College in 1992. SCOTT TRULOCK

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Scott Trulock was hired as the Jaguars head athletic trainer on February 10, 2014. Trulock, who spent the past seven seasons as the head athletic trainer for the University of North Carolina's football program, joined the Jaguars with 11 years of NFL experience. As the head athletic trainer for UNC's football program since 2007, Trulock oversaw a staff of two full-time assistants and two graduate assistants. Trulock was tasked with maintaining the health of Carolina's football student-athletes and rehabilitating injuries quickly and successfully.

Trulock began his career in the NFL as an assistant athletic trainer with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1996-98. Trulock then worked for the San Diego Chargers from 1999-2001 before joining the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as the director of rehabilitation from 2002-03. Trulock won a Super Bowl ring in 2002 when the Buccaneers defeated the Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII. Trulock spent three seasons (2004-06) as an assistant athletic trainer with the Denver Broncos. During his tenure in the NFL, Trulock was a member of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers' Society (PFATS). In the PFATS, Trulock served as the director of research for the research and education foundation. In this role, Trulock was responsible for spearheading the surveillance of injury data in order to establish trends in injury patterns to NFL players. Additionally, Trulock presented this information at many local, state and national meetings.

Trulock received his master's degree in athletic training from UNC in 1996. Returning to Carolina as the football program's head athletic trainer in 2007 presented Trulock with the opportunity to re-join one of the top sports medicine programs in the country. As an advocate for research dating back to his days in the master's program, Trulock utilized the full complement of physicians, faculty and researchers in the sports medicine department to provide cutting edge healthcare for UNC's football student-athletes.

Trulock, a native of Orlando, Fla., earned his undergraduate degree in sports medicine from Valdosta State in 1994. Scott and his wife Jamie, have two daughters, Corinne and Riley.

GAME ONE VS. KANSAS CITY

September 8, 2013 at EverBank Field

	1	2	3	4
KANSAS CITY CHIEFS (1-0)	14	7	0	7	-	28
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-1)	2	0	0	0	-	2

The Jaguars opened the season by scoring first in their initial game under Gus Bradley, but Kansas City quickly built momentum to claim a 28-2 opening day win. In a game that featured 21 punts, the Jaguars special teams accounted for the first points when J.T. Thomas blocked Dustin Colquitt's first punt through the back of the end zone. The Chiefs scored touchdowns on three of their next five possessions, with the first two set up by a 36-yard punt return to the Jacksonville 24-yard line and a 32-yard interception return to the Jaguars' 21. The Chiefs' longest drive of the day covered 57 yards in eight plays and ended with Jamaal Charles' two-yard scoring run for a 21-2 halftime lead. The Jacksonville offense was forced to punt six times in the first half, at which point the Chiefs held a total yardage advantage of 170 to 49, 11 first downs to three, and a rushing advantage of 92 yards to 29. In all, the Jaguars punted a team-record 11 times in 15 possessions and Kansas City punted 10 times in 14 series. The lone second-half points came on a Tamba Hali interception which he returned 10 yards for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter. Until their final two possessions the Jaguars failed to move the ball beyond their own 36-yard line. Maurice Jones-Drew, playing in the 100th game of his career, was held to 45 yards on 15 carries with his longest run of the day being 10 yards. The Chiefs sacked Blaine Gabbert six times and allowed him to complete just 16 of 35 passes before he injured his throwing hand on the final series.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-2)	0	3	0	6	-	9
OAKLAND RAIDERS (1-1)	7	3	3	6	-	19

Chad Henne started for the injured Blaine Gabbert and completed 25 of 38 passes, but the Raiders rushed for 226 yards in pounding out a 19-9 victory. Darren McFadden led the way for Oakland with 129 rushing yards and a 6.9-yard rushing average in addition to a team-leading four receptions for 28 yards, and Terrelle Pryor added 50 rushing yards and 129 passing. After a Jacksonville three-and-out, the first of six on the day, the Raiders scored on their first possession on a Marcel Reece 11-yard run. After both teams exchanged punts twice, the Jaguars put together their best drive of the day, marching 78 yards in 15 plays to set up Josh Scobee's 27-yard field goal in the second quarter. Sebastian Janikowski then missed his first field goal try from 35 yards but made the first of his four field goals on the final play of the first half for a 10-3 halftime lead. The Raiders opened the third quarter with a 12-play, 69-yard drive capped by a 30-yard Janikowski field goal. After three more Jacksonville punts Janikowski hit two 29-yard field goals for a 19-3 advantage midway through the fourth quarter. The lone turnover of the day - a McFadden fumble recovered by Dwight Lowery - set up the Jaguars' first touchdown of the season, a 13-yard Henne pass to Clay Harbor with 2:53 remaining to create the final score of 19-9. The Jaguars had two red zone possessions resulting in a field goal and a touchdown, while Oakland had five red zone drives with a touchdown, a missed field goal and three field goals. Maurice Jones-Drew suffered a sprained ankle midway through the second quarter and was unable to return.

GAME THREE AT SEATTLE

September 22, 2013 at CenturyLink Field

	1	2	3	4
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-3)	0	0	10	7	-	17
SEATTLE SEAHAWKS (3-0)	7	17	14	7	-	45

Playing their second straight game on the west coast, the Jaguars struggled early before scoring 17 second-half points in a lopsided 45-17 loss in Seattle. The Seahawks dominated from the start, scoring on four of their six first-half possessions while holding the Jaguars to five punts and an interception in their first six. Russell Wilson, who completed 14 of his first 18 pass attempts including four touchdowns, connected with tight end Zach Miller for the first two scores on passes of one and four yards. Steven Hauschka's 21-yard field goal and Wilson's 11-yard touchdown pass to Sidney Rice gave Seattle a 24-0 lead at halftime, at which time Seattle led in total yards 275 to 52 and in first downs 16 to four. Jacksonville took advantage of Wilson's lone interception in the third quarter when Paul Posluszny picked off the deflection and returned it 10 yards to the Seattle two-yard line. Maurice Jones-Drew pounded it in from there to make it 31-7. Tarvaris Jackson replaced Wilson with 3:54 remaining in the third quarter and he completed all three passes on his first series including a 35-yard touchdown pass to a diving Doug Baldwin at the goal line. Josh Scobee's 33-yard field goal made it 38-10 at the end of the period and each team tacked on a fourth-quarter touchdown - Jordan Todman on a three-yard run for Jacksonville and Jackson on a five-yard run for Seattle. Cecil Shorts III was a bright spot for the Jaguars with eight receptions for 143 yards, including a 59-yarder from Chad Henne, while Johnathan Cyprien had a sack and a forced fumble and Jason Babin got his second sack of the season.

GAME FOUR VS. INDIANAPOLIS

September 29, 2013 at EverBank Field

	1	2	3	4
INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (3-1)	0	20	14	3	-	37
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-4)	3	0	0	0	-	3

The Jaguars got off to a promising start, taking an early 3-0 lead on Josh Scobee's 58-yard field goal to cap their second possession after their first series ended in an interception. The Jacksonville defense started strong, holding the Colts to two punts and an interception by Will Blackmon on their first three drives, but after that Indianapolis scored three offensive touchdowns and three field goals and held the Jaguars to five straight three-and-outs for a 37-3 win. The Colts tied the score at 3-3 at the beginning of the second quarter on Adam Vinatieri's 22-yard field goal, and five plays later Darius Butler gave Indianapolis its first lead at 10-3 with his 41-yard interception return for a touchdown. Trent Richardson capped the Colts' next series, which featured a 50-yard run by Donald Brown, with a one-yard scoring run for a 17-3 lead. A 46-yard field goal by Vinatieri made it 20-3 at the half, and as had been the case in earlier games the Jaguars trailed in many halftime statistics, including three first downs to the Colts' 13, and 69 total yards to 238 with 30 rushing yards and 39 passing yards. In the third quarter Andrew Luck threw a 31-yard touchdown pass to Coby Fleener, followed by a 12-play, 72-yard scoring drive on which Reggie Wayne caught a five-yard pass from Luck that made it 34-3 at the end of the period. Vinatieri tacked on a 28-yard field goal in the final two minutes of the game to end the scoring. Blaine Gabbert played for the first time since opening day and completed 17 of 32 passes for 179 yards, while Maurice Jones-Drew was held to 23 yards on 13 carries. Mercedes Lewis saw his first action of the season but re-injured his calf in the first quarter and did not return.

GAME FIVE AT ST. LOUIS

October 6, 2013 at Edward Jones Dome

	1	2	3	4
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-5)	10	0	3	7	-	20
ST. LOUIS RAMS (2-3)	7	17	0	10	-	34

For the second week in a row the Jaguars scored first and showed promise early, but turnovers proved costly in a 34-20 loss to the Rams on the road. Injuries also took a toll as Luke Joeckel suffered a broken ankle and Blaine Gabbert left the game with a hamstring injury. Justin Blackmon made his season debut after serving a four-game suspension, and his impact was immediate as he took his first pass from Gabbert 67 yards for the game's first touchdown. St. Louis evened the score two series later when Matt Giordano intercepted Gabbert and returned the pick 82 yards for a touchdown. The Jaguars closed out the first quarter with a 48-yard Josh Scobee field goal but the Rams then answered with a 32-yarder by Greg Zuerlein. Two plays later a fumble by Clay Harbor was recovered and returned by Darian Stewart to the Jacksonville 16, and it took just one play for Sam Bradford to find Lance Kendricks with a 16-yard touchdown pass, giving the Rams their first lead of the day which they would not relinquish. At the end of the first half St. Louis increased the lead to 14 points on a Bradford-to-Austin Pettis scoring pass for a 24-10 halftime lead. On the first series of the second half the Rams went three-and-out and Chris Pronski partially blocked Johnny Hekker's punt, giving the Jaguars the ball at the St. Louis 25. The Jaguars advanced to the five and settled for a 23-yard field goal by Scobee, but on the play they accepted an offsides penalty against the Rams which gave them a fourth-and-goal at the two-yard line. Gabbert threw incomplete into the end zone, but offsetting penalties gave the Jaguars one more play and Gabbert was then intercepted by James Laurinaitis to end the scoring threat. A 34-yard Scobee field goal in the third quarter and a 37-yarder by Zuerlein made it 27-13 early in the fourth period. Jacksonville got within a touchdown of the lead when Chad Henne threw four yards to Cecil Shorts to make the score 27-20 with 10:22 left. A 31-yard Bradford touchdown pass to Pettis on the Rams' next possession capped the scoring.

GAME SIX AT DENVER

October 13, 2013 at Sports Authority Field at Mile High

	1	2	3	4
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-5)	0	12	7	0	-	19
DENVER BRONCOS (5-0)	14	0	14	7	-	35

In their best outing to date, the Jaguars challenged the undefeated Broncos and stayed within two points of the lead midway through the third quarter before falling 35-19. Justin Blackmon sparked the Jacksonville offense with 14 receptions for 190 yards, making up for the loss of Cecil Shorts to a shoulder injury on the third play of the game. But the Broncos were led by Knowshon Moreno's three rushing touchdowns and his seven receptions for 62 yards. Denver took a 14-0 lead in the first quarter on Peyton Manning touchdown passes to Julius Thomas and Wes Welker, but the Jaguars did all of the scoring in the second period with two Josh Scobee field goals from 50 and 30 yards and a 59-yard interception return for a touchdown by Paul Posluszny in the final minute of the half. A failed two-point conversion kept the Jaguars from evening the score and left it at 14-12 at halftime. The Broncos opened the second half with an 80-yard drive capped by Moreno's first scoring run, but the Jaguars answered with an 80-yard drive of their own, highlighted by a Maurice Jones-Drew 28-yard run and three Chad Henne completions, and Jones-Drew's five-yard touchdown run made it 21-19. Denver responded on the next series with another 80-yard touchdown drive for Moreno's second score, and on their next possession they drove to the Jacksonville four-yard line where a fumbled snap was recovered by Mike Harris. But the Jaguars failed to take advantage when Henne was intercepted five plays later, leading to Moreno's third touchdown of the day for a 35-19 lead. The Jaguars' final two possessions ended in a failed fourth down and an interception. The two quarterbacks had similar completion percentages and yards, with Henne completing 27 of 42 for 303 yards and two interceptions, and Manning completing 28 of 42 for 295 yards with two touchdowns and one interception.

San Diego's Philip Rivers completed 22 of 26 passes for 285 yards and a touchdown while Ryan Mathews ran for 110 yards and a touchdown to pace the Chargers to a 24-6 win in Jacksonville. The Chargers dominated from the beginning, scoring on four of their first five drives which lasted 13, 10, 13, 10 and 10 plays and all covered 79 yards or more. San Diego built a 14-0 lead on a Danny Woodhead two-yard run and a 27-yard pass from Rivers to Eddie Royal, and Josh Scobee's 30-yard field goal made it 14-3 at halftime, at which point the Chargers had just three possessions and the Jaguars two. The first half ended with San Diego stopped on first down at the Jacksonville one-yard line as time expired. In the third quarter each team added a field goal before Mathews' three-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter capped the scoring. Chad Henne completed 23 of 36 passes for 318 yards and Cecil Shorts caught eight passes for 80 yards, while Justin Blackmon added six catches for 58 yards and Mike Brown turned in 120 receiving yards on five receptions. GAME EIGHT VS. SAN FRANCISCO

October 27, 2013 at Wembley Stadium (London)

	1	2	3	4
SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS (6-2)	14	14	7	7	42
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-8)	0	3	7	0	10

Playing in London's Wembley Stadium for the first time, the Jaguars struggled through a lopsided first half en route to a 42-10 loss to the 49ers. Jacksonville was forced to punt on each of its first four possessions and ran 18 plays, while San Francisco used 32 plays to score four touchdowns on its first four drives of the day. Frank Gore began the scoring with the first of his two touchdown runs, a 19-yard dash up the middle on the opening eight-play, 76-yard series. Colin Kaepernick got the first of his two scoring runs next, capping another eight-play, 80-yard drive. Kaepernick threw a two-yard touchdown pass to Vernon Davis to finish off the third possession after 10 plays and 72 yards, and his second rushing score, from nine yards out, came in the middle of the second quarter and boosted the 49ers' lead to 28-0. The Jaguars finally scored with 10 seconds remaining in the first half on a 38-yard Josh Scobee field goal to finish a 12-play, 60-yard series. By that time the 49ers had several statistical advantages, including first downs (17 to seven), total yards (262 to 106) rushing yards (115 to 30) and plays in opponent territory (25 to seven). In the third quarter the Jaguars got rolling with a 15-play march, highlighted by a 30-yard Maurice Jones-Drew run, to the San Francisco six-yard line, but the drive stalled there when Chad Henne threw incomplete on third and fourth down. On the ensuing possession Gore fumbled when hit by Jason Babin and Russell Allen recovered the loose ball at the San Francisco 28. Three plays later Henne hit Mike Brown with a 29-yard touchdown pass to make it 28-10. Gore scored his second touchdown on the next series after a 47-yard kickoff return by Anthony Dixon and a 41-yard run by Kendall Hunter on first down. The Jaguars' next series ended when Mercedes Lewis caught a six-yard pass from Henne but then fumbled, with Dan Skuda returning the fumble 47 yards for a 49ers touchdown to end the scoring at 42-10 early in the final period. San Francisco's four touchdowns on its first four possessions marked the first time in Jaguars history an opponent did so. The Jaguars rushed for less than 100 yards for the eighth straight game.

GAME NINE AT TENNESSEE

November 10, 2013 at LP Field

	1	2	3	4
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-8)	10	3	7	9	29
TENNESSEE TITANS (4-5)	0	7	3	17	27

Claiming their first victory under Head Coach Gus Bradley and General Manager Dave Caldwell, the Jaguars played their best game to date to claim a 29-27 win in Nashville. A wild fourth quarter featured five scoring plays, with three by the Titans offense and two by the Jaguars defense. On the day the Jacksonville defense had four takeaways and a safety, setting up 19 points, and the unit set the tone on Tennessee's first play when Paul Posluszny forced and recovered a Chris Johnson fumble at the Titans' 19-yard line. Maurice Jones-Drew's six-yard blast into the end zone gave the Jaguars an early 7-0 lead, and two Josh Scobee field goals from 32 and 44 yards made it 13-0 early in the second quarter. Titans quarterback Jake Locker left the game midway through the second quarter with a foot injury, and Ryan Fitzpatrick directed a touchdown drive on his first series, hitting Taylor Thompson on Tennessee's final play of the first half to narrow the lead to 13-7. Both teams scored on their first possession of the second half, with the Jaguars marching 79 yards in eight plays to set up Jordan Todman's five-yard touchdown run, followed by Tennessee's 11-play series ending in a 39-yard Rob Bironas field goal to make it a ten-point game at 20-10. Bironas' second field goal, which made it 20-13, was set up by a Chad Henne interception at the Jacksonville 32. After Jacksonville downed a Bryan Anger punt at the Tennessee one-yard line the Titans were penalized for holding in their end zone, resulting in a safety and a nine-point Jaguars lead at 22-13. On their next possession the Titans drove 72 yards in just five plays, with Fitzpatrick running in from the four to narrow the score to 22-20 with 4:15 left in the game. The next Titans possession resulted in another score from the Jaguars defense as Will Blackmon stripped Fitzpatrick and ran 21 yards for a touchdown and a 29-20 lead. Tennessee responded again, this time covering 82 yards in 12 plays with Fitzpatrick hitting Delanie Walker with a 14-yard touchdown pass with 40 seconds remaining to make it a two-point game again, 29-27. Jacksonville then recovered the Titans' onside kick and ran out the clock. The win snapped a 13-game losing streak for the Jaguars.

GAME 10 VS. ARIZONA

November 17, 2013 at EverBank Field

	1	2	3	4
ARIZONA CARDINALS (6-4)	7	7	10	3	27
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-9)	14	0	0	0	14

A fast start gave the Jaguars an early 14-0 lead after their first two possessions, but Arizona tied the game in the second quarter before taking over in the second half en route to a 27-14 win. Each team punted eight times as they combined for just 46 rushing yards on the day, with 32 by Jacksonville and 14 by Arizona, but Carson Palmer threw for 419 yards despite three sacks. On the first series of the game the Jaguars were faced with a fourth-and-one at their own 38-yard line, and their aggressiveness was rewarded when Chad Henne hit Danny Noble with a short pass that Noble took the distance for a 62-yard scoring play. The Cardinals answered with a touchdown drive of their own, marching 80 yards in 10 plays with Palmer throwing 14 yards to Larry Fitzgerald to cap it. The Jacksonville special teams made the next big play, a 59-yard return of the ensuing kickoff by Jordan Todman that set the offense up at the Arizona 46. Seven plays later Maurice Jones-Drew pounded in from one yard out for his 80th career touchdown and a 14-7 lead. From there the teams took turns punting until 1:55 remained in the first half when Rashard Mendenhall ran five yards for a touchdown to knot the score at 14-14. On the final play of the half Josh Scobee attempted a 60-yard field goal, which would have been a franchise record, but the kick missed wide left. The Cardinals wasted no time in taking control of the game after halftime, scoring on their first two possessions to take a 24-14 lead. First, a good goal line stand by the Jaguars defense forced a 21-yard Jay Feely field goal, and on the Cardinals' next series Palmer connected with Michael Floyd on a 91-yard touchdown pass. After both teams punted several more times Henne was intercepted and the Cardinals took over at the Jacksonville 22, setting up Feely's 32-yard field goal which made it 27-14 midway through the fourth quarter. The Jaguars failed on a fourth-down play on their next drive, and then Henne was intercepted to end the Jaguars' final possession of the afternoon. Noble's 62-yard touchdown was the first reception of his career. Bryan Anger dropped a career-best six of his eight punts inside the Arizona 20.

GAME 11 AT HOUSTON

November 24, 2013 at Reliant Stadium

	1	2	3	4
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-9)	7	3	0	3	-	13
HOUSTON TEXANS (2-9)	0	3	3	0	-	6

The Jaguars started strong and turned in season-highs in rushing yards and possession time while not allowing a touchdown to claim their second intradivision road win in three weeks, 13-6 in Houston. On the game's opening drive the Jaguars marched 75 yards in 10 plays with Maurice Jones-Drew slicing in from the one for a 7-0 lead. The Texans were forced to punt on each of their first five possessions, including four consecutive three-and-outs. The only scoring in the second quarter was a 30-yard Josh Scobee field goal and a 49-yarder by Randy Bullock, which made it 10-3 at the half. Houston threatened when the third quarter began, driving from their own 15 to a first-and-goal at the Jacksonville eight-yard line, but the Jaguars defense stiffened at the two and Houston had to settle for a 20-yard field goal. The Jaguars answered with a 13-play drive to set up a 49-yard field goal try by Scobee, but the kick was blocked by J.J. Watt and Houston took over at midfield. Advancing to the Jacksonville 40, the Texans were stopped on fourth-and-one at the start of the fourth quarter. Scobee booted a 53-yard field goal midway through the period for a 13-6 lead. Both teams punted on their next possession before Houston's final series began at their own 20 with no time outs and 1:50 remaining in the game. They advanced to Jacksonville's 41, and with 45 second left Case Keenum was intercepted by Ryan Davis to seal the Jaguars victory. The Jaguars' 118 rushing yards and 33:41 possession time were their best of the season, and Houston's 11 first downs and 218 total yards were the fewest by a Jaguars opponent. The game marked the Jaguars' first back-to-back road wins since 2008, and for the third consecutive week they scored a touchdown on their first possession. Maurice Jones-Drew scored for the third straight week and finished with a season-best 84 rushing yards. Chad Henne completed 23 of his 32 passes including eight to Cecil Shorts and six to Jones-Drew.

GAME 12 AT CLEVELAND

December 1, 2013 at FirstEnergy Stadium

	1	2	3	4
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-9)	7	13	0	12	-	32
CLEVELAND BROWNS (4-8)	7	7	7	7	-	28

In a game that saw five lead changes and two thrilling touchdown passes in the closing minutes, the Jaguars fought back to claim their second straight win and third consecutive on the road, 32-28 in Cleveland. A turning point in the game was the second quarter, in which Jacksonville forced three straight turnovers and scored three straight times, turning a 14-7 deficit into a 20-14 halftime lead. Cleveland scored first on Willis McGahee's one-yard run on the Browns' first drive, and the Jaguars answered with an eight-play, 80-yard series capped by a Chad Henne-to-Clay Harbor 18-yard touchdown pass. A 21-yard pass from Brandon Weeden to Josh Gordon made it 14-7 Cleveland early in the second quarter, and after both teams punted twice the quarter got interesting. Johnathan Cyrien intercepted Weeden at the Cleveland 44 and returned it to the 17, setting up the first touchdown pass of Maurice Jones-Drew's career, covering eight yards to Mercedes Lewis and tying the score at 14-14. On Cleveland's next play Weeden was picked off again, this time by Dwayne Gratz. That set up a 44-yard field goal by Josh Scobee to give Jacksonville its first lead at 17-14. On the ensuing possession Cleveland turned the ball over again when Jason Babin sacked Weeden and forced a fumble which Sen'Derrick Marks returned to the Browns' 18-yard line with five seconds left in the half, setting up Scobee's 36-yard field goal that made it 20-14. When the second half began Cleveland regained the lead at 21-20 with a 10-play, 80-yard drive. That one-point margin was later erased when a high snap over Weeden's head, which he kicked out of the end zone, resulted in a safety and a 22-21 Jacksonville lead. Scobee's 25-yard field goal gave the Jaguars a 25-21 advantage with 4:14 remaining, but it was short-lived when on the next play Weeden hit Gordon with a 95-yard catch-and-run touchdown to put Cleveland ahead 28-25 with 3:54 left in the game. Henne methodically directed a nine-play, 80-yard series and capped with a 20-yard pass to Cecil Shorts in the corner of the end zone for a 32-28 lead with 40 seconds remaining. The Browns were unable to score before running out of time. Gordon finished with 10 receptions for 261 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Browns, but the Jaguars threw for three touchdowns and capitalized with 13 points on three turnovers in addition to the safety and three sacks.

GAME 13 VS. HOUSTON

December 5, 2013 at EverBank Field

	1	2	3	4
HOUSTON TEXANS (2-10)	0	7	10	3	-	20
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (4-9)	7	10	7	3	-	27

Claiming their third consecutive victory and first home win of the season, the Jaguars downed Houston 27-20 for their third division win in four weeks and first sweep of the Texans since 2009. In their only prime time game the Jaguars relied on a fast start for a 14-0 lead, their largest of the season. Maurice Jones-Drew turned in his first 100-yard rushing game of the year and the defense got three sacks and two interceptions to improve to 4-9 with four wins in five weeks. For the fourth time in those five weeks the Jaguars scored a touchdown on their opening possession, with Chad Henne driving the offense 80 yards in 13 plays and hitting Marcedes Lewis with a one-yard scoring pass. While the defense forced Houston to punt on its first three possessions, the Jaguars scored again to make it 14-0 on their third series, which covered 86 yards in just four plays including two Houston penalties, ending with a six-yard catch by Cecil Shorts in the end zone. The Texans scored in the final two minutes of the first half on a Case Keenum-to-Keshawn Martin pass, but on their next possession Keenum was intercepted by Alan Ball. That turnover led to a Josh Scobee 40-yard field goal to give Jacksonville a 17-7 halftime lead. A Texans field goal in the third period was followed by an Ace Sanders touchdown pass to Jordan Todman, giving Jacksonville a two-touchdown lead at 24-10. Late in the third quarter Matt Schaub replaced Keenum and he promptly marched the Texans 76 yards in seven plays, with his five-yard touchdown pass to Garrett Graham narrowing the lead to seven at 24-17. Randy Bullock's second field goal got Houston closer early in the fourth period and on their next series the Texans threatened, using 14 plays to move 67 yards to the Jacksonville 12-yard line, but a failed fourth-down play ended the possession. Houston got the ball back with 2:21 remaining and no timeouts, but Schaub was intercepted by Geno Hayes to set up Scobee's 39-yard field goal for a 27-20 lead with 20 seconds left. Ryan Davis sacked Schaub on Houston's next play to end the game. The Jaguars rushed for a season-high 149 yards, including Jones-Drew's 103 with a 48-yard run. Andre Johnson, who was held to two catches earlier by the Jaguars defense, finished with 13 receptions for 154 yards but no touchdowns. Houston was penalized 14 times for 177 yards including 10 for 115 in the first half.

GAME 14 VS. BUFFALO

December 15, 2013 at EverBank Field

	1	2	3	4
BUFFALO BILLS (5-9)	3	17	0	7	-	27
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (4-10)	3	7	3	7	-	20

An ominous beginning portended a loss in which the Jaguars committed a season-high four turnovers, falling at home to the Bills 27-20. On the third play of the game Chad Henne was intercepted by Aaron Williams, and the 34-yard return set up Buffalo at the Jacksonville 25. The defense held the Bills to a field goal, which is what the Jaguars got after their first takeaway two series later following Geno Hayes' interception and 28-yard return to the Buffalo 33. The second quarter saw four scores with Henne throwing to Ace Sanders for a 12-yard touchdown, matched by EJ Manuel's seven-yard scoring pass to Robert Woods, capping a 94-yard drive, to make it 10-10 midway through the period. Buffalo took a 17-10 lead on its next possession on a Manuel eight-yard run, and after a Mike Brown fumble the Bills added a 40-yard field goal for a 20-10 halftime lead after scoring on three consecutive possessions to end the half. The second half began like the first for Jacksonville, with a turnover, when Denard Robinson ran 24 yards to the Buffalo one-yard line before fumbling into the end zone for a touchback. After forcing a Buffalo punt the Jaguars got within seven points on Josh Scobee's 55-yard field goal, his longest of the season. The Jaguars defense got its second takeaway on the Bills' next series when Winston Guy sacked Manuel and forced a fumble, which Sen'Derrick Marks recovered. The 55-yard drive capped by a 13-yard catch by Marcedes Lewis tied the score at 20-20 a minute into the fourth quarter. But the Bills quickly answered, marching 80 yards in nine plays to take a 27-20 lead on Manuel's one-yard toss to Frank Summers with 9:35 remaining in the game. The Jaguars responded, driving 75 yards in 15 plays to the Buffalo five-yard line. On third-and-goal Henne threw into the end zone but was picked off by Stephon Gilmore with 3:15 left. The Bills stopped the Jaguars on four downs on their final possession to seal the win. Jordan Todman, replacing the injured Maurice Jones-Drew, made his first career start and recorded his first 100-yard game with 109 yards on 25 carries and 44 yards on four receptions. Henne turned in his third straight game with multiple touchdown passes, and Marcedes Lewis had his third straight game with a touchdown catch. The Jaguars were without four starters, with Cecil Shorts III, Will Rackley and Johnathan Cyprien joining Jones-Drew on the sidelines.

GAME 15 VS. TENNESSEE

December 22, 2013 at EverBank Field

	1	2	3	4
TENNESSEE TITANS (6-9)	3	3	7	7	-	20
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (4-11)	7	6	3	0	-	16

Closing out the home portion of their schedule in what would be the final home game of veteran center Brad Meester's 14-year career, the Jaguars built a 16-6 lead before consecutive touchdown drives by Tennessee in the second half led to a 20-16 loss to the Titans. Tennessee ran for 182 yards, with Shonn Greene pounding out 91 and Chris Johnson 90, and Ryan Fitzpatrick threw for 181. The Titans scored on their second possession, a 64-yard drive that set up Rob Bironas' 45-yard field goal, but the Jaguars answered on the ensuing series going 80 yards in nine plays to take a 7-3 lead on Mercedes Lewis' four-yard catch. Tennessee got within 7-6 on Bironas' 52-yard field goal with 1:55 left in the second quarter, and once again the Jaguars responded on their next drive when Chad Henne's second touchdown pass was complete for seven yards to Mike Brown. The Titans' Bernard Pollard blocked the extra point try, costing the Jaguars a valuable point and leaving them with a 13-6 halftime lead. Josh Scobee capped their first possession of the second half with a 36-yard field goal to give the Jaguars their largest lead of the day at 16-6. Tennessee, however, then took control of the game with back-to-back touchdowns drives. An 11-play, 80-yard series was capped by Green's one-yard plunge, and after forcing a Jaguars punt the Titans drove 73 yards and took a 20-16 lead on Nate Washington's 30-yard scoring reception. The Jaguars' remaining possessions ended in a punt, a failed fourth-down attempt and an interception. They began their final series with 1:08 remaining and no timeouts and needing to drive 80 yards because of the four-point deficit. The teams combined for a total of just seven punts along with seven fourth-down conversion attempts, with Tennessee converting three of four and the Jaguars making one of three, and each team converted only three third-down plays on the day. Lewis posted his fourth straight game with a TD reception to tie the franchise record, while Henne turned in his fourth consecutive game with multiple touchdown passes. Andre Branch got one of the Jaguars' three sacks, marking his third straight game with a sack. Maurice Jones-Drew ran for 45 yards and became the 46th player in NFL history to rush for 8,000 yards.

GAME 16 AT INDIANAPOLIS

December 29, 2013 at Lucas Oil Stadium

	1	2	3	4
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (4-12)	0	3	0	7	-	10
INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (11-5)	17	3	7	3	-	30

Closing the season on the road against the AFC South Champion Colts, the Jaguars fell behind quickly and were unable to find the end zone until their final play of the game in a 30-10 loss. A rare Maurice Jones-Drew lost fumble, his first in 525 carries dating to 2011, on the third play of the game set up the Colts at the Jacksonville 42-yard line and led to a Donald Brown one-yard scoring run. After forcing a three-and-out the Colts marched again, going 54 yards for a two-yard touchdown run by Trent Richardson which made it 14-0 just 7:30 into the game. Another Jacksonville three-and-out gave the Colts the ball at their own 22, from where they drove 74 yards to the Jacksonville four-yard line before having to settle for an Adam Vinatieri field goal for a 17-0 lead late in the first quarter. The Jaguars finally scored three minutes into the second period on Josh Scobee's 37-yard field goal. Near the end of the first half Chad Henne was intercepted by Antoine Bethea at the Colts' 15 and his 46-yard return set up the Colts at the Jacksonville 39. On the final play of the half Indianapolis took a 20-3 lead on Vinatieri's 26-yard field goal. The Colts extended their lead to 27-3 on their first possession of the second half on Andrew Luck's seven-yard pass to Griff Whalen, capping an 80-yard drive. Midway through the fourth quarter Vinatieri kicked his third field goal of the day for a 30-3 advantage. The Jaguars' final possession of the season began at their own nine-yard line with 1:52 remaining in the game, and Henne marched the offense 91 yards in nine plays, connecting with Kerry Taylor for a 14-yard touchdown on the final snap. T.Y. Hilton finished with 11 receptions for 155 yards for the Colts, while Vinatieri became the fifth-leading scorer in NFL history and Robert Mathis took over the NFL lead with his two sacks giving him a league-best 19.5 for the year. The Jaguars finished at 4-12, turning in a 4-4 second half after an 0-8 start.

BUFFALO BILLS (10-7)	14	3	3	7	—	27

The Jaguars won their first-ever playoff game with a come-from-behind victory over Buffalo and became the first road team to win a postseason game at Rich Stadium. Natrone Means rushed for 175 yards and a touchdown, and Mike Hollis kicked three field goals, the game-winner with 3:07 to play. Buffalo jumped out to a 7-0 lead, but Clyde Simmons intercepted Jim Kelly and ran 20 yards for a score to tie the game. Simmons also had two sacks. Buffalo took a 27-20 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Mark Brunell found Jimmy Smith for a 2-yard TD pass to tie the score, and Aaron Beasley recovered a fumble prior to Hollis' field goal.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (11-8)	0	3	3	0	—	6
NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (13-5)	7	6	0	7	—	20

In just their second season, the Jaguars' saw their hopes of reaching the Super Bowl end in the AFC Championship game on a cold night in New England. The game began ominously for Jacksonville on its first series, when punter Bryan Barker fielded a high snap and was tackled at the Jaguars' four-yard line. The Patriots scored a touchdown two plays later. Mistakes haunted the Jaguars throughout the game, with a total of four turnovers - three on their last four possessions - including an end zone interception and a fumble that was returned for a touchdown.

The Jaguars won their seventh straight game as they shocked the football world with their upset victory over the 13-3 Broncos. After falling behind 12-0, the Jaguars scored on their next six possessions, all on drives of 50 yards and longer, taking a 30-20 lead. Denver had not lost at home all season and had not lost a playoff game at Mile High Stadium since 1984. Natrone Means rushed for 140 yards, and Mark Brunell threw TD passes to Keenan McCardell and Jimmy Smith. The Jaguars dominated in yards, first downs and time of possession.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (11-6)	0	7	10	0	—	17
DENVER BRONCOS (13-4)	14	7	0	21	—	42

The Jaguars returned to the site of their historic playoff upset over Denver a year earlier, but the outcome was not to be the same. The Broncos took a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter, however the Jaguars closed the gap to 21-17 in the third quarter with a blocked punt returned for a touchdown and looked to make a rally. On the next series the defense forced a fumble, but the Jaguars could not capitalize as a fumbled snap at the Denver 16-yard line ended the Jaguars' momentum. The Broncos rolled up 511 yards on offense, 310 of them on the ground, and scored five rushing touchdowns in the game. The Jaguars held the ball for just 19:01, their lowest time of possession ever.

JAGUARS 25, PATRIOTS 10

JANUARY 3, 1999 • ALLTEL STADIUM

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (9-8)	0	0	7	3	—	10
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (12-5)	6	6	0	13	—	25

The Jaguars hosted their first-ever home playoff game and defeated the Patriots to advance to the divisional playoffs. Mark Brunell returned as the starter after missing nearly three games with a high-ankle sprain. For the Patriots, Scott Zolak started for the injured Drew Bledsoe. The Patriots did not score on their eight first-half possessions. The Jaguars took advantage and scored on two Mike Hollis field goals and a 13-yard run by Fred Taylor. New England scored 10 points before the Jaguars bounced back with 13 in the fourth quarter. Taylor's 162 yards rushing were the second-most in a postseason game in Jaguars' history, and his 33 attempts were the most. Hollis' four field goals without a miss extended his streak of consecutive field goals in the postseason to 12 and broke his postseason single-game record.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (12-6)	0	7	7	10	—	24
NEW YORK JETS (13-4)	7	10	14	3	—	34

The Jaguars' season ended in 26 degree temperatures in New York, with the Jets jumping out to a 17-0 lead and coasting to the win. Jacksonville's only first-half score was a 52-yard pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the final play. The Jaguars couldn't stop New York's Keyshawn Johnson, who scored both rushing and receiving and also intercepted a pass. With the score 31-24 late in the fourth quarter, Brunell, who threw three TDs and three interceptions, had a chance to tie the game late after a Donovan Darius interception of Vinny Testaverde in the end zone. But the Jaguars went 3-and-out and the Jets added a field goal for their final points. Smith caught two TD passes and became the first Jaguar to have 100 receiving yards in a playoff game.

The second half was all Tennessee, as the Titans scored 23 unanswered points and shut out the Jaguars. The Titans got a one-yard touchdown run by Steve McNair. Then came a safety of Mark Brunell, and on the free kick Derrick Mason returned the ball 80 yards for a touchdown. The Jaguars could not recover, as they had three turnovers in the last 16 minutes of the game. Tennessee scored once in the fourth quarter for the 33-14 final score.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (12-5)	0	3	0	0	—	3
NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (11-6)	0	7	14	7	—	28

The Jaguars returned to the postseason for the first time since 1999 but saw their season end at New England with a 28-3 loss to the Patriots. The first quarter ended scoreless as both teams punted on their first two possessions. The Jaguars stopped the Patriots on downs on fourth-and-10 to end the quarter. The Patriots began the scoring with a six-play, 37-yard drive that was capped off with an 11-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Troy Brown. The Jaguars next drive was thwarted after 33 yards when Alvin Pearman lost a fumble at the Patriots' 44-yard line. After two punts, the Jaguars scored their only points on a Josh Scobee 36-yard field goal with 1:05 remaining in the half. The Patriots erupted with back-to-back touchdown drives to start the second half. Each drive ended with Brady touchdown passes, the first to David Givens for three yards and the second for 63 yards to Benjamin Watson. On the Jaguars ensuing drive, Byron Leftwich was intercepted on fourth-and-five by Asante Samuel, who returned the pick 73 yards for a touchdown. David Garrard replaced Leftwich for the final three drives which ended with a 41-yard missed field goal and two turnovers on downs.

MEDIA INFORMATION

RADIO BROADCASTERS

For the first time, Jaguars games and official team radio programming will be heard in 2014 on 1010 XL AM and 92.5 FM, the team's flagship radio partner. In addition, the games will be simulcast on 99.9 Gator Country. Also new to Jaguars broadcasts are play-by-play announcer Frank Frangie, who joins Jeff Lageman and Tony Boselli in the booth, and field reporter Rick Ballou.

A veteran broadcaster, Frangie has been and will continue to be an on-air talk show host at 1010 XL. He has called a full schedule of college football games for the past seven seasons for Touchdown Radio. Frangie is in his 26th consecutive year as a talk show host in Jacksonville, almost all of them in afternoon drive time. He is a Jacksonville native and a 1980 graduate of the University of Florida.

Lageman is in his 12th year as the Jaguars' radio analyst. Prior to that, he served four seasons as the analyst for Jaguars preseason TV broadcasts. Lageman is also co-host of "Jaguars Monday" on WJXT-TV in addition to co-hosting "The Gus Bradley Show" on radio and TV and "Jaguars Thursday" on 1010 XL. Lageman played defensive end for the Jaguars from 1995-98 and 10 seasons in the NFL after being drafted 14th overall in the 1989 draft.

Boselli served as color analyst for the Jaguars' preseason TV broadcasts for seven years prior to joining the radio broadcast booth in 2013. He has also been a regular analyst for NFL games broadcast nationally on Westwood One the past four seasons. Boselli is a co-host of "Jaguars Monday" and "Jaguars Thursday" on 1010 XL. He was the second overall selection in the 1995 draft - the first in Jaguars history - and was a five-time Pro Bowl selection.

Ballou has been paired with Frangie for their afternoon talk show for the past five and-a-half years on 1010 XL. Ballou is a Florida State graduate and has been in sports radio for 20 years, including seven at Sporting News Radio in Chicago. He also previously worked for PGA Tour Communications.

99.9 Gator Country serves as a promotional partner for the Jaguars and simulcasts Jaguars game broadcasts as part of a six-hour window on every Jaguars game day. The six-hour window accommodates pregame and postgame shows in addition to the game broadcast.

J.P. Shadrick co-hosts game day studio coverage along with Mike Dempsey for the Jaguars Radio Network. The game day coverage includes the Publix Tailgate Show, Countdown to Kickoff, Jaguars Postgame and the Scoreboard Show. Shadrick also hosts "Jaguars Monday" and "Jaguars Thursday" on 1010 XL.

Jaguars TV programming, which includes preseason game broadcasts and ancillary programs, returns in 2014 to WJXT-TV Channel 4. WJXT was previously the Jaguars' local television partner in 2001-02.

Veteran sports personality Sam Kouvaris of Channel 4 calls the play-by-play for the preseason games alongside former Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunell. Rounding out the broadcast team is Nikki Kimbleton serving as field reporter for the preseason games.

Kouvaris, who called Jaguars preseason games in 2001 and 2002, also serves as co-host of "Jaguars Monday" and "The Gus Bradley Show" each week during the season on WJXT. He has play-by-play experience and has called events for CBS, NBC, ABC and ESPN. Kouvaris has been at WJXT since 1981 and has been sports director/managing editor since 2000.

THE PRIDE OF THE JAGUARS

TONY BOSELLI (1995-2001)

Tony Boselli, the Jacksonville Jaguars' first-ever college draft choice, was the first member of the Jaguars franchise to be honored in The Pride of the Jaguars on October 8, 2006.

"Tony Boselli was the original Jaguar, and we are excited to recognize him," said Jaguars former owner Wayne Weaver. "We are proud of Tony's contributions on the field for this organization, and we're proud of his contributions off the field for this community. We welcome the opportunity to have Jaguars fans thank Tony for what he has meant to Jacksonville and the Jaguars."

"The seven years I spent in Jacksonville as a member of the Jaguars team were truly memorable. I also would like to thank all the Jaguars fans who made us feel so welcome when we first arrived in Jacksonville, and now that we have returned," Boselli said.

Boselli was the second player drafted overall in the 1995 college draft following an All-America career at Southern California. He started a then-team-record 90 of the 91 Jaguars games in which he played from 1995-2001 and was named to the Pro Bowl five times.

Widely considered the best offensive tackle in the game, Boselli allowed only 15.5 sacks in seven seasons and was named second team on the NFL All-Decade Team for the 1990s.

FRED TAYLOR (1998-2008)

Fred Taylor became the fourth inductee into the Pride of the Jaguars on September 30, 2012. Taylor was the second player, joining teammate Tony Boselli, whom he played with for his first four seasons with the Jaguars. Taylor, who started 136 of 140 games, is one of three players along with Brad Meester and Jimmy Smith to play for 11 or more seasons with the Jaguars.

Taylor ranks fourth in franchise history in scoring with 424 points (70 TDs, two 2-point conversions) and broke the rookie scoring record with 102 points (17 TDs) during the 1998 season. He is the only Jaguars rookie to rush for 1,000 yards (1,223). His 17 TDs (14 rushing and three receiving) as a rookie still sit atop the Jaguars single-season TD mark. Taylor, the Jaguars career-rushing leader with 11,271 yards, leads second-ranked Maurice Jones-Drew (8,071 career rushing yards) by 3,200 yards. Taylor holds five of the top eight single-season rushing totals in team history, with a team-record 1,572 yards on 345 carries (4.56 yards per rush avg.) in the 2003 season. Taylor's 234 rushing yards against Pittsburgh on November 19, 2000 are a Jaguars single-game high. Taylor rushed for 100+ yards on 48 occasions for the Jaguars, yet another team record.

While Taylor ranks among the best in nearly every Jaguars rushing statistic, he also sits at fifth in career receptions (286) and sixth in receiving yards (2,361). Taylor played for 11 seasons as a Jaguar, after being drafted ninth overall in the 1998 NFL Draft. After two seasons with New England, Taylor returned to Jacksonville to retire in a ceremony at EverBank Field on September 2, 2011.

Jaguars Owner Shad Khan acknowledged Taylor's place amongst elite company, stating, "Fred has earned his place in the Pride of the Jaguars, both with his record-setting performances on the field as well as with his involvement in the Jacksonville community throughout his career."

WAYNE & DELORES WEAVER (1993-2011)

Wayne and Delores Weaver were inducted into the Pride of the Jaguars at halftime of their final game as owners of the team on January 1, 2012, becoming only the second and third inductees.

Three days later their ownership of the Jaguars was transferred to Shahid Khan, ending an ownership run that began when the franchise was awarded on November 30, 1993.

During the 17 seasons of the Weavers' ownership the Jaguars were 138-134 in the regular season and 142-140 including postseason, with six playoff berths and two division titles. The Weavers were on hand for every game during that span - 352 total including 69 preseason, 272 regular season and 11 postseason games - and twenty Jaguars players were named to the Pro Bowl.

From 1995-2011 the Weavers, through the Weaver Family Foundation, contributed more than $22.6 million to Jacksonville agencies and organizations. The Jaguars Foundation also awarded more than $14.8 million in grants to area non-profit agencies during that time.

Wayne Weaver served on four NFL committees: Business Ventures, Investment, Finance and Compensation. Delores Weaver also served on two committees: NFL Charities and NFL Giving.

MARK BRUNELL (1995-2003)

Former quarterback Mark Brunell became the fifth member inducted into the Pride of the Jaguars on Dec. 15, 2013. Owner of nearly every Jaguars passing record, Brunell is one of 13 players in Jaguars history to play nine seasons or more. He started 117 of his 120 games played and completed 2,184 of 3,616 passes for 25,698 yards with 144 touchdowns and 86 interceptions - all still ranking as Jaguars career records. Brunell's 4,367 passing yards in 1996 led the NFL, he was voted to the AFC Pro Bowl squad three times and was named the game's MVP in 1997.

"I am truly honored and grateful for this recognition," Brunell said. "I cherish my memories of playing here in Jacksonville because in many ways those were the best years of my career. My family and I have returned to make Jacksonville our home, and we will continue to be part of this community and part of the Jaguars organization. I'm thrilled to join my teammates, Tony and Fred, and the Weavers in the Pride of the Jaguars."

"Mark Brunell epitomized the Jaguars in their early years, and he was one of the main reasons for their success during that time," Jaguars owner Shahid Khan said. "I personally recall how the Jaguars captured the imagination of NFL fans throughout the nation in those days and Mark Brunell was always in the highlights. Now that I have been here, I have gotten to see that this great quarterback is also a great person. Mark is a big part of the Jaguars family and the Jacksonville community, and it gives me great pride to join our fans in recognizing Mark and honoring him for his contributions to Jaguars history."

Brunell was the first player acquired by the Jaguars in a trade, joining the team on April 22, 1995 from the Green Bay Packers. He was the Jaguars' starting quarterback from 1995 through 2003, posting a winning record as a starter and leading the team to four playoff berths, eight postseason games and two AFC Championship games.

JAGUARS FACILITIES

EVERBANK FIELD STADIUM RENOVATIONS

"As the construction takes shape we can all envision what an impact this will have on EverBank Field and the game day experience," said Jaguars Owner Shahid Khan, "and that was one of the reasons from the beginning for embarking on this ambitious project. We want EverBank Field to be a world-class destination, and we want to bring energy and attention to Downtown Jacksonville. Our goal is to offer best-in-class amenities and the best in-stadium experience for our fans and for everyone who visits Jacksonville and EverBank Field."

With these video enhancements, EverBank Field will now display approximately 55,000 feet of video boards, a 660% increase over last season's 7,200 square feet and the most offered by any NFL stadium. "We owe our fans and this community nothing less than the best, and these enhancements will be the best," said Jaguars President Mark Lamping. "These stadium upgrades will drastically change the in-stadium experience and create a truly unique environment that you cannot get at home. This will be an eye-opener and an attention-getter for Jacksonville."

Hunt + Elkins, a joint venture, was the construction manager for the stadium project. Hunt Construction Group had previously built several sports facilities including Lucas Oil Stadium and University of Phoenix Stadium for football, and Marlins Park, Nationals Park, Busch Stadium and Citi Field for baseball.

Elkins Constructors is a Jacksonville-based construction company, as is Haskell Architects and Engineers, P.A. which was the designer for the scoreboard construction. The Haskell Company provided structural steel and steel installation services for the scoreboard and north end zone improvements. "Our company built the stadium for the City of Jacksonville at the inception of the Jaguars, opening in 1995," said Sid Perkins, Vice President of Field Operations for Hunt Construction Group. "We look forward to another successful opening day and showcasing the skills of our very talented staff."

Daktronics created the video boards, and Haskell was responsible for the project design. Each display boasts more than 21,700 square feet of active display area – almost enough to cover the entire field of play when combined. "We are honored to continue our long-standing relationship with the Jacksonville Jaguars and the City of Jacksonville," said Mike Kempny, Daktronics sales representative on the project. "Their new game-day experience will be unrivaled as the Jaguars unveil new LED fascia displays throughout the stadium and two of the world's largest high definition video displays. The Jaguars are proving their commitment to be on the leading edge of video technology and to the fans of Jacksonville. Daktronics is extremely proud of our ability to offer these high end systems which will set a new benchmark in professional sports." "These new cutting-edge video displays and related technological improvements will greatly elevate the fans' visual immersion and will set the standard for in-venue experience," said Christopher Holmes, AIA, LEED AP, Haskell's Project Design Principal.

NORTH END ZONE INTERACTIVE FAN AREA

At the north end of the stadium is a large two-level deck featuring cabana-style seating areas, video screens, bars and two large spa-type wading pools and other water features. There are sections dedicated to private functions as well as areas open to all fans in the seating bowl. Populous was responsible for the design of the north end zone area. "As the designers of the original stadium and planned improvements over the years, our focus at Populous has always been on keeping EverBank Field looking to the future by creating an experience that will evolve with Jaguars fans. The north deck expansion is an important step in accomplishing this goal and will enhance game day for everyone from general fans to premium patrons," said Dennis Wellner, Populous Senior Principal. "The experience for fans using the deck will be incomparable; they will have a variety of new offerings on game day that simply don't exist in other NFL venues. As a firm, we're appreciative of having a continued role, spanning more than two decades, in creating and exploring future fan amenities at EverBank Field."

Permanent facilities in the deck area include men's and women's restrooms, food service space and utility boxes for connection to portable amenities. The connections will provide power, data, water and drains for portable bars and food service for fans. In addition, sun shades, seating and other amenities will be provided. These provisions are portable and removable for the installation of temporary seating for special events like the Florida-Georgia game, the Gator Bowl and concerts.

VIDEO BOARDS

The two massive end zone displays each measure 60 feet high by 362 feet wide and feature 13mm HD pixel spacing. The video boards will be capable of showing any combination of live action, instant replays, vivid graphics, colorful animations, up-to-the-minute statistics, scoring information and sponsor advertisements. Below the north end zone display is a display measuring nearly 10 feet high by 320 feet wide featuring the same 13mm HD pixel layout. At the opposite end of the stadium are two ribbon displays on both levels of fascia in the seating bowl below the south end zone main display. Each ribbon display features 15mm HD pixel spacing. The top display, measuring more than 3 feet high by 365 feet wide, is curved to appear the same length as the bottom display, which measure more than 3 feet high by 295 feet wide.

Each side of the field features a ribbon display along the seating fascia, each measuring more than 3 feet high by 573 feet wide and featuring a 15mm HD pixel layout. Four new displays replace the previous displays in each corner of the stadium. These new displays each measure approximately 18 feet high by 32 feet wide and feature a 15mm HD pixel spacing. Two additional displays were installed above each tunnel at opposite corners of the stadium.

These displays each measure 6 feet high by 24 feet wide and feature a 15mm HD pixel layout. All of these video and ribbon displays provide the opportunity to present up-to-the-minute statistics, fantasy football updates, out of town scores and other game day information. All displays incorporate excellent image clarity and contrast, and provide multiple levels of protection from the elements. The wide angle viewing capability provides fans with a clear view of the displays from any seat in the stadium.

Daktronics also included its powerful Show Control System with this installation. This industry-leading system provides a combination of display control software, world-class video processing, data integration and playback hardware that forms a user-friendly production solution.

STEEL STRUCTURE

The new scoreboards are constructed of structural steel framing with ribbed metal siding and a single ply roof over rigid insulation on metal roof deck. The bowl side of each structure will be the electronic video board. Each new section of scoreboard is supported by triangular structural steel towers similar to the existing supports. The design includes the electrical service for the video board operation, lighting of the interior spaces and lighting for the signage to be provided on the back side of the scoreboards. The installation includes power, cabling, sound and a new expanded state of the art scoreboard control room on the west side suite level of the stadium.

FLORIDA BLUE HEALTH & WELLNESS PRACTICE FIELDS

In July 2010, Florida Blue became the official sponsor of the Jaguars practice facility, formally known as the Florida Blue Health & Wellness Practice Fields.

The facility, located directly adjacent to EverBank Field, features three outdoor grass-practice fields. The complex is used for Jaguars practices, OTAs, training camp as well as a variety of community and youth initiatives. Florida Blue will maintain naming rights, including nearly 100 signs located around the facility, through the 2015 NFL season.

Florida Blue, based in Jacksonville, is the official health care partner of the Jaguars and will continue to feature public service announcements during Jaguars home games promoting an array of health and wellness initiatives.

2014 JAGUARS CARAVANS

During the 2014 offseason, the Jacksonville Jaguars continued to deliver one of their most fan-centric initiatives by hosting their annual Jaguars Caravan. The public was encouraged to come out in preparation for the upcoming season with appearances by Jaguars players, ROAR cheerleaders and College Football Hall of Fame inductee Tony Boselli as the emcee for the event. Fans were invited to get autographs, take pictures and win prizes and giveaways in a rally-like atmosphere that featured music, food and interactive games.

"One of our goals is to provide an unrivaled fan experience, unlike anything offered elsewhere in sports," said Jaguars President Mark Lamping prior to the caravans. "We're looking forward to engaging with our fans throughout the region and showing our appreciation for our fans both in the stadium and in local communities. We hope to have a great response and lots of fun for everyone."

JAXSON DE VILLE

NFL EXPERIENCE: 19th season

HEIGHT: 8.5 paws (about 7 feet)

WEIGHT: 403 pounds

BIRTH DATE: Not sure, but he celebrates each day as if it's EVERYONE'S birthday. His birthplace is Jacksonville (where else would a cat have teal spots?)

HOW ACQUIRED: Was a stray cat found by Wayne Weaver during the construction of EverBank Field and has never left, despite being asked multiple times.

FIRST APPEARANCE: August 18, 1996, Jaguars vs. 49ers preseason game

COLLEGE: Denied admission due to size, but got his MBA from an online college, which he uses quite often when he wants to sound important.

SEASON: Has never seen action in an NFL-sanctioned game ... Has played in several halftime games against some very tough Pop Warner teams (9- and 10-year olds) and has done quite well ... Head coach Gus Bradley said he looks forward to "watching Jaxson get better every-day and do his job." ... The league still refuses to make bigger helmets so he can play ... Due to that he remains a starter at his All-Pro position, "Left Out!"

STATS: IN 2013, completed in his 18th straight season as "The Self-Proclaimed GREATEST MASCOT TO EVER LIVE!" ...does any other stat matter?
