TITANS SET TO BEGIN TRAINING CAMP UNDER HEAD COACH MIKE VRABEL

Titans will conduct 15 practices that will be free and open to the public

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The Tennessee Titans will hold their first practice of 2018 training camp on Thursday, July 26. It will mark the first of the team's 15 total training camp practices that will be free and open to the general public.

Titans quarterbacks, rookies and injured players reported to camp on July 22, and veterans will join them on July 25, with the first practice scheduled for the following morning at 9:50 a.m.

The 15 open camp practices are the most scheduled by the team since 2011, when 17 dates were open.

All but two of the open practices will take place at Saint Thomas Sports Park, the team's home training facility located at 460 Great Circle Road in MetroCenter, Nashville. The exceptions are Pinnacle Friday Night Lights on Aug. 3 at Centennial High School in Franklin, Tenn., and the Aug. 4 intra-squad scrimmage at Nissan Stadium.

From Aug. 15-16, the Titans will host the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for a pair of joint practices leading up to their preseason matchup on Aug. 18. Normal procedures and accommodations, including free admission, will apply.

Training camp is the only time of the year in which practices are open to the general public. All sessions are subject to change and will be closed to the public upon severe weather.

FAN EXPERIENCE AT TRAINING CAMP

Spectators who attended training camp in 2017 noticed significant changes and upgrades in the club's camp operations, implemented for the safety and comfort of everyone in attendance. Most of those same modifications will be in place for 2018.

Bleachers surround the practice field to provide ample seating and a limited amount of shade. A cold, filtered water station and two misting areas to help keep fans cool are available free of charge.

As always, select players will sign autographs after every practice that is open to the general public. The sessions will take place in the south, middle end zone area. Generally, around 15 players per day participate in the autograph session.

A limited number of free parking spaces are available across the street from Saint Thomas Sports Park at 445 Great Circle Road. Additionally, free parking is available at Nashville Metro Parks and Recreation's Ted Rhodes Multipurpose Fields (720 Mainstream Drive), where courtesy shuttles run continuously starting one hour before practice until one hour after practice concludes.

Security measures will be in place for all fans attending Titans training camp. To enter the grounds, fans must pass through a metal detector, and the same clear bag policy used at Nissan Stadium applies at training camp. Other items not allowed include food and beverage, tobacco products, coolers, liquids, umbrellas, chairs and strollers. Empty water bottles are allowed and can be filled at the free water station.

VRABEL'S FIRST CAMP AS HEAD COACH

Titans fans attending training camp will get their first look at the team under Mike Vrabel, who was named the 19th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 20 by Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk.

Vrabel and his staff, which includes new coordinators Dean Pees (defense) and Matt LaFleur (offense), put the players through a voluntary nine-week offseason program from April through June. The team then scheduled a six-week break before the start of camp.

Once in training camp, the Titans coaches will have their first opportunity to evaluate the players in pads going through contact drills, which is prohibited during the offseason. It all leads to the first preseason game against the Packers on Aug. 9 in Green Bay and the first regular season game against the Dolphins exactly one month later (Sept. 9) in Miami.

While it might be his first camp experience in Nashville, this will be Vrabel's 19th NFL training camp. He played 14 total seasons as a linebacker with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1997-2000), New England Patriots (2001-08) and Kansas City Chiefs (2009-10). Then, after three years as an assistant coach at Ohio State (2011-13), he spent the next four years on the Houston Texans staff (2014-17), culminating in 2017 with his role as defensive coordinator.

Pees' extensive résumé includes 14 years as an NFL coach and 10 total years as a defensive coordinator with the Baltimore Ravens and the Patriots, where he first coached Vrabel in 2004.

LaFleur arrived in Tennessee after two seasons as the quarterbacks coach of the Atlanta Falcons and one year as the offensive coordinator of the Los Angeles Rams. He helped the Rams become the first team in the Super Bowl era (1966-present) to go from last place in the NFL in scoring one season to first place in scoring the following season.

ROBINSON'S ROSTER TAKES SHAPE

General manager Jon Robinson has had three offseasons to mold the roster to his liking and can point to tangible evidence of progress. After being named to his current post in January 2016, the team tripled its win total from 2015, going from three wins to nine wins and earning him the additional title from Strunk of executive vice president. Her confidence was rewarded in 2017, when the Titans earned their first postseason berth since the 2008 season and won their first postseason game since the 2003 campaign.

The Titans enter training camp with a 90-man roster, the maximum allowed by the NFL. Of those 90 players, all but 14 have been added since Robinson took the reins of the team's football operations in 2016. Robinson has selected 23 total players in the last three drafts, and 20 of those picks remain with the club heading into training camp. During the same period, he has engineered 13 trades and made eight waiver claims.

Robinson's 2018 draft class was limited to four players due to multiple trades to go up and get his targets. But the class possesses the potential to make a significant impact. It includes first-round linebacker Rashaan Evans from Alabama (22nd overall pick), second-round outside linebacker Harold Landry from Boston College (41st overall), fifth-round defensive back Dane Cruikshank from Arizona (152nd overall) and sixth-round quarterback Luke Falk from Washington State (199th overall).

The Titans' 2018 free agent acquisitions were highlighted by a pair of former Patriots: cornerback Malcolm Butler and running back Dion Lewis. Butler was named to the Pro Bowl in 2015 and earned second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors in 2016. Lewis led the Patriots with 896 rushing yards in 2017, and his 4.98-yard rushing average ranked second among all running backs.

Quarterback Blaine Gabbert, (Arizona Cardinals), guard Kevin Pamphile (Tampa Bay Buccaneers), linebacker Will Compton (Washington Redskins) and defensive lineman Bennie Logan (Kansas City Chiefs) are among the additional veteran free agent acquisitions entering their first Titans training camp.

Training camp also provides an opportunity for diamonds in the rough to shine and earn a roster spot—perhaps more so in 2018 than at any other time in the last decade. The 2018 Titans enter training camp with 23 rookie free agents on the roster (as of July 20), their highest number since 2005, when they had 25 rookie free agents report to camp. They have not had more than 15 undrafted rookies on the camp roster since 2006 (17).

Rookies and veterans alike will have all of training camp and four preseason contests to earn a spot on the team, but roster cuts loom. The NFL mandates that teams go from a limit of 90 players to a maximum of 53 on Saturday, Sept. 1. Clubs are allowed to form a practice squad of up to 10 players the following day.

MARIOTA LEADS OFFENSE AFTER HEALTHY OFFSEASON

In his fourth NFL season, quarterback Marcus Mariota is charged with picking up LaFleur's playbook and guiding the offense. He will do so with the benefit of a complete, healthy offseason, a luxury he did without the previous year due to injury.

The former No. 2 overall draft pick won 20 games as a starter from 2015 through 2017. It was the most by any quarterback in his first three seasons with the franchise since George Blanda joined the Oilers as a 10-year veteran in 1960 and earned 28 wins through 1962.

Mariota became the fifth quarterback in NFL history with at least 9,000 passing yards (9,476) and 900 rushing yards (913) in his first three seasons.

In 2017, Mariota led the team to the postseason and became the youngest quarterback in franchise history to win a playoff game. His statistics in the regular season included 281 completions, 3,232 yards and 13 touchdowns on 453 attempts (79.3 passer rating).

20TH SEASON FOR THE TITANS

A period of only six weeks separates the Titans' first practice of training camp with the start of the NFL regular season. It will mark the Titans' 20th season since changing their name from the Oilers and opening Nissan Stadium in downtown Nashville.

The Titans will commemorate the last 20 years with a special logo that they will use as a helmet sticker for the duration of the campaign.

The team will also don new uniforms for 2018, marking the first time the club has significantly altered its look in the Titans era. Among the many new design features are a navy helmet (formerly white); a sword motif in the center of the helmet, on the shoulder pads and on the pants; new numbers borrowing from Greek and Roman lettering; red Nike swooshes; and three stars sewn into the inside back jersey collar as a nod to the stars on the Tennessee state flag that symbolize West Tennessee, Middle Tennessee and East Tennessee.

ESSENTIAL FAN INFORMATION

Training camp is the best time for fans to get an up-close look at the current Tennessee Titans. It is the only time of the year when practice is open to the public. A total of 15 practices are scheduled for fans to watch from July 26 through Aug. 16. For more information on Titans training camp, fans can visit the team's official website, TitansOnline.com.

DIRECTIONS AND PARKING: Admission to practice and parking for fans is free at training camp. Fans attending training camp may park directly across the street from Saint Thomas Sports Park at 445 Great Circle Road. Once those spaces are filled, fans are directed to Ted Rhodes Park Multipurpose Fields at 720 Mainstream Drive, where a complimentary shuttle runs continuously to and from practice. Parking on the property of other area businesses could result in the vehicle being towed.

Directions to Saint Thomas Sports Park/Parking at 445 Great Circle Road:

- From Interstate 65 in downtown Nashville, take Exit 85 (Rosa Parks Boulevard) North.
- Proceed on Rosa Parks Boulevard and turn right on Athens Way.
- Turn left on Great Circle Road.
- Security officials will direct fans to the parking lot on the right and assist crossing the street into Saint Thomas Sports Park.

Directions to Ted Rhodes Park Multipurpose Fields (720 Mainstream Dr.) from I-65:

- From Interstate 65 in downtown Nashville, take Exit 85 (Rosa Parks Boulevard) North.
- Continue for approximately 1.5 miles.
- Turn right on Mainstream Drive.
- Parking is immediately to the right.
- Shuttles between Rhodes Park and Saint Thomas Sports Park will operate continuously from one hour before practice until one hour after practice.

Directions to Ted Rhodes Park Multipurpose Fields (720 Mainstream Dr.) from Saint Thomas Sports Park:

- Proceed west on Great Circle Road for a quarter mile.
- Turn right on Mainstream Drive
- Continue approximately 0.8 miles before turning left into the parking lot. The turn is before the intersection of Mainstream Drive and Rosa Parks Blvd.
- Shuttles between Rhodes Park and Saint Thomas Sports Park will operate continuously from one hour before practice until one hour after practice.

FAN ENTRY/CLEAR BAG POLICY AT SAINT THOMAS SPORTS PARK:

For the safety of fans, security measures are in place at training camp. Before entering the premises, fans must go through a metal detector. Spectators must adhere to the same clear bag policy that is in place for all NFL games, including Titans games at Nissan Stadium. Backpacks, purses, large duffel bags and suitcases are not allowed. More information on the NFL's clear bag policy is available at www.NFL.com/allclear.

Other Items not allowed on the grounds include food and beverages brought from the outside, tobacco products, liquids, coolers, umbrellas, chairs and strollers.

Gates to the practice field generally open 15-30 minutes prior to the scheduled practice.

FAN ENTRY AT NISSAN STADIUM: Standard, gameday security, including the NFL's clear bag policy, is in effect for the practice at Nissan Stadium on Aug. 4. For additional information, including visuals of allowed and prohibited items, fans should visit www.NFL.com/allclear.

COLD, FILTERED WATER STATION PROVIDED: Fans are permitted to bring empty water bottles to practice at Saint Thomas Sports Park. A cold, filtered water station is available on the grounds for use free of charge. Cold, non-alcoholic beverages also are available for purchase.

BLEACHER SEATING: Several sets of temporary bleachers surround the fields of Saint Thomas Sports Park. The top portion of some of the bleachers have awnings to provide shade. Standing along the sideline fence is discouraged in order to ease traffic flow for fans.

PRACTICE LENGTH: Practices typically last two hours but can run shorter or longer.

DRESS APPROPRIATELY: Fans should dress appropriately for the heat of Middle Tennessee. Training camp practices often take place during the hottest portions of the day, and many bleacher seats are not shaded. Two misting areas will be available for fans to cool down.

WEATHER POLICY: For the safety of fans, players, media and staff members, practice will be postponed, canceled or moved indoors if stormy weather threatens Saint Thomas Sports Park. For safety reasons, fans will not be allowed to wait at the practice field and will be asked to return to their vehicles. In some cases, practice also could be moved indoors due to extreme heat. All indoor ("bubble") practices are closed to the general public.

AUTOGRAPHS: Every player on the Titans roster takes part in a free autograph session after practice at least once during training camp. Generally, a different group of players are assigned each day, including several recognizable members of the roster, and additional players may choose to sign autographs at their discretion. The players signing autographs on a particular day are not announced in advance. Autographs take place in the south (far) end zone, near the area of the field where the offensive and defensive lines work. The players' time is limited, however, and fans are not guaranteed to receive autographs from specific players. Autograph sessions are canceled upon inclement weather.

MERCHANDISE AND CONCESSIONS: A Titans Locker Room merchandise trailer is open before, during and after all practices, selling a variety of Titans goods and apparel. The merchandise tent is located at the entrance to the practice field. Additionally, a concession stand selling ice cold Coca-Cola products is open during all practices.

ACCESS TO PRACTICE IS ON A FIRST-COME, FIRST-SERVED BASIS:

Although over-crowding is rare at training camp practices, there is a limit to the number of fans who can safely attend practices. Fans arriving first will be given first priority.

ROSTER REDUCTIONS/PRACTICE SQUAD

The Titans may carry 90 players on their roster at the start of training camp. Clubs are allowed to carry a 90-man roster until the final 53-man deadline at 3 p.m. CT on Saturday, Sept. 1, two days after the final preseason contest against the Minnesota Vikings (Aug. 30).

Players placed on reserve lists such as Injured Reserve, Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform and Reserve/Suspended do not count towards the 53-man active roster limit.

After the final cutdown, a 10-player practice squad may be established as early as noon CT on Sunday, Sept. 2.

MEDIA INFORMATION FOR TRAINING CAMP

CREDENTIALS: Media credentials for training camp are required for access to interview areas and the non-public areas of the field. All credential requests must be submitted through an online application process at <http://titanup.co/creds>. Call the media relations department at (615) 565-4100 if you need a username and password.

Approved credentials may be picked up at the pre-camp press conference that will be held on Wednesday, July 25 at Saint Thomas Sports Park. Credentials may also be picked up upon arrival at training camp in the Titans Media Relations office.

Separate credentials are issued for training camp and Titans games. Anyone applying for both training camp and game credentials must indicate so on their applications.

TRAINING CAMP CREDENTIAL APPLICATIONS MUST BE SUBMITTED PRIOR TO A MEDIA OUTLET'S ARRIVAL AT CAMP. SAME-DAY REQUESTS WILL NOT BE HONORED.

MEDIA PARKING AT SAINT THOMAS SPORTS PARK: An extremely limited number of parking passes for Saint Thomas Sports Park are available to the regular beat media members. All others should proceed to the fan parking lot across the street from Saint Thomas Sports Park at 445 Great Circle Road. Cameras and other equipment will be allowed to be dropped off at the front of the practice facility before proceeding to the parking lot. Satellite TV trucks will be directed to park in front of the loading dock next to the practice bubble.

INTERVIEW POLICY AT SAINT THOMAS SPORTS PARK: During training camp, head coach Mike Vrabel and players are available to speak with the media following practice sessions. Players are available immediately coming off the practice field, after which time Vrabel will address the media. Post-practice open locker room sessions will commence following the team's second preseason game. Assistant coaches are available for interviews on days that are predetermined and announced by the media relations department.

LIVE UPDATES/SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY: During training camp sessions that are open to the general public, periodic live reports during practice are permitted. However, during any practice that is closed to the public, reporters are prohibited from distributing news gathered at practice until after practice. This policy includes, but is not limited to, internet posts, blogs, Twitter, Facebook, call-ins to radio stations, video reports and text messaging. Live broadcast apps such as Periscope and Facebook Live are prohibited, per NFL credential policy, including at all practices, press conferences and locker room availabilities.

PHOTOGRAPHY POLICY: During training camp, credentialed still photographers and videographers may shoot portions of practice as directed by the media relations staff. All media members are asked to stay within the boundaries on the practice field designated by the media relations staff. The media generally is allowed in the end zone area closest to the main building of the practice facility and along the outer sidelines of the field.

MEDIA DINING: Working members of the credentialed media will be provided one meal per day, depending upon the time of practice. Generally, lunch will be provided following morning practices. Food service during training camp is provided by McConnell's Catering.

TRAINING CAMP DAILY MEDIA SCHEDULE

Training camp practices at Saint Thomas Sports Park are open to the public, unless otherwise noted. There is no charge to attend practice, which generally lasts two hours. Because the schedule is subject to change, fans should check the team's website, TitansOnline.com, for the latest updates. If there is inclement weather in the area or extreme heat conditions, practice may be moved to the indoor practice bubble, which will be closed to the public due to space and safety concerns.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER JON ROBINSON

Jon Robinson was hired as Titans general manager on Jan. 14, 2016 after spending two years as director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Nearly one year later, on Jan. 5, 2017, he was promoted to executive vice president/general manager.

Robinson's work in his first two years helped the team go from three wins in the season prior to his arrival to consecutive 9-7 seasons and a Divisional Round playoff finish following the 2017 campaign. He became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Robinson turned over two-thirds of the Titans roster in his first two years on the job. At the end of the 2017 campaign, 35 players on the club's 53-man roster (66.0 percent) were added after Robinson arrived in Tennessee—16 free agents, three players acquired via trade, two waiver pickups and 14 draft picks. An additional three picks from the 2016 draft class ended 2017 on injured reserve.

"I think we've got a really good football team," Robinson said in January 2018. "I think we've got a good roster, and we've got a good makeup of players. The personalities in that locker room—they really love each other and they play hard for each other. They're tough and resilient, and I think—not to put a timetable on it—but I think that the pieces are in place for us to move forward."

Early in the 2018 unrestricted free agent signing period, Robinson targeted a pair of former New England Patriots: cornerback Malcolm Butler and running back Dion Lewis. Butler was named to the Pro Bowl in 2015 and earned second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors in 2016. Lewis led the Patriots with 896 rushing yards in 2017, and his 4.98-yard rushing average ranked second among all running backs.

Robinson's 2018 draft class was comprised of four players after he used multiple trades to go up and get his targets. It included first-round linebacker Rashaan Evans from Alabama (22nd overall pick) and second-round outside linebacker Harold Landry from Boston College (41st overall).

Robinson selected 23 total players in his first three drafts as general manager, and 20 of those picks remained with the club heading into 2018 training camp. During the same three years, he engineered 13 trades and made eight waiver claims (through June 2018).

During the 2017 offseason, Robinson used free agency to address needs on defense and special teams. Most notably, he spearheaded deals for cornerback Logan Ryan (New England), safety Johnathan Cyprien (Jacksonville) and special teams contributor and 2017 Pro Bowler Brynden Trawick (Oakland).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Robinson spent first-round picks on wide receiver Corey Davis (fifth overall) and cornerback Adoree' Jackson (18th overall). It marked the first time the franchise had a pair of first-round draft selections since 1987. Davis contributed 34 receptions for 375 yards during the regular season and added nine receptions for 98 yards and a team-high two touchdowns during the playoffs. Jackson started every game and ranked second in the NFL in total snaps in 2017 (1,260) while also handling the team's return responsibilities.

Davis and Jackson were the initial two players of a draft haul that also featured wide receiver Taywan Taylor and tight end Jonnu Smith in the third round. Eight players from the nine-member class remained with the club at the end of 2017, combining for 76 games and 42 starts as rookies.

In his first year as an NFL general manager, Robinson's leadership and decision-making helped the Titans triple their win total from the previous season, finishing 9-7 in 2016 after a 3-13 finish in 2015. The six-win improvement tied for the most in franchise history (1967 and 1974) and doubled the previous club benchmark for the most wins in the first year under a new general manager (three by Bum Phillips in 1975).

Within the first four months at his post, Robinson pulled the trigger on several key personnel decisions. On March 9, 2016, he made his first major acquisition, swapping fourth-round draft picks with the Philadelphia Eagles in exchange for running back DeMarco Murray. The trade provided major dividends in 2016, as Murray led the AFC and ranked third in the NFL with 1,287 rushing yards.

Around the same time, Robinson began to work the free agent market. Center Ben Jones and wide receiver Rishard Matthews highlighted the haul, and both were instrumental in helping to transform the Titans offense into the 11th-ranked unit in the NFL. Jones started all 16 games and keyed a rushing attack that ranked third in the league, while Matthews set career highs with 65 receptions (tied for the team lead), a team-high 945 receiving yards and a team-high nine touchdown receptions. The latter number tied for sixth in the NFL and tied for ninth in franchise history.

On April 14, 2016, two weeks before the NFL Draft, Robinson and the Titans dealt the first overall pick to the Los Angeles Rams in one of the biggest trades in recent NFL history. The Titans gave up the No. 1 pick and a fourth-rounder in order to receive the 15th overall pick, two second-rounders and a third-rounder in 2016, plus the Rams' first- and third-round picks in 2017. From 1990–2015, there were seven trades involving the No. 1 overall pick, but this was the first since 2004, when the San Diego Chargers selected Eli Manning with the first pick and dealt his rights to the New York Giants.

The Titans had their hands at one point or another on 17 selections in the 2016 draft due to five different trades (including one trade in 2015), and in the end, they ended up with a class of 10 players, including four of the top 45 picks. Robinson swung a draft-day trade with the Cleveland Browns to move back up to the eighth slot to choose Michigan State tackle Jack Conklin.

All 10 members of Robinson's first draft class played in at least one game in 2016. They accumulated a total of 110 games played and 38 starts, including 16 starts at right tackle by Conklin. The eighth-overall pick capped his successful rookie campaign by being named first-team All-Pro by Associated Press. Other rookies in 2016 who made significant contributions included second-round running back Derrick Henry, third-round safety Kevin Byard and fifth-round wide receiver Tajae Sharpe. Byard earned first-team All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl berth in his second season.

Robinson arrived in Tennessee with a wide range of experience from working his way up on the personnel side of the NFL. From 2014–2015, he served as director of player personnel for the Buccaneers and oversaw both college and pro departments as the team rebuilt its roster. The 2015 Buccaneers draft class made a significant impact, including four rookie starters: quarterback  Jameis Winston , tackle  Donovan Smith , guard  Ali Marpet  and linebacker  Kwon Alexander .

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Robinson spent 12 years with the New England Patriots, including his last five years (2009-13) as the director of college scouting. In the five years heading up their college scouting, the Patriots added a number of key components to their roster that won the Super Bowl in 2014, including wide receiver  Julian Edelman , defensive back  Devin McCourty , tight end  Rob Gronkowski , tackle  Nate Solder  and defensive end  Chandler Jones . He joined the Patriots as an area scout in 2002, a role he served for four seasons. Robinson then spent two years (2006-07) as a regional scout, before being promoted to assistant director of college scouting in 2008 and then director of college scouting in 2009. In his time scouting for the Patriots the team won 10 division titles, four conference titles and two Super Bowls (2003, 2004).

Robinson played three years at Southeast Missouri State as a defensive lineman after starting his college career at the Air Force Academy. Following his college career as a player, he spent one season (1998) coaching at his alma mater and three years (1999-2001) coaching at Nicholls State.

A native of Union City, Tenn., Robinson and his wife, Jaimie, have two daughters, Taylor and Bailey.

NEW GENERAL MANAGERS

Jon Robinson was the 13th general manager hired in franchise history. In his first season, he helped lead the Titans to a 9-7 record after inheriting a 3-13 squad from 2015. No new general manager for the club had ever before seen a win increase of more than three games in his first season.

Robinson's nine wins were one shy of the previous record for a first-year general manager, a mark shared by Mike Reinfeldt (10-6 in 2007) and Don Suman (10-3-1 in 1961).

2018 TITANS DRAFT REVIEW

LB RASHAAN EVANS | 6-2, 232, Alabama
1st round, 22nd overall

College: In four seasons at Alabama, Evans appeared in 53 games with 14 starts. He appeared in three National Championship contests, including two victories by the Crimson Tide. His career totals included 152 tackles, 15.0 sacks, 23.5 tackles for loss, five passes defended, 19 quarterback hurries, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. As a senior, he played and started 12 games and tied for the team lead with 74 tackles, while leading the team with 13 tackles for loss. He was named first-team All-American by the AFCA and Associated Press first-team All-SEC.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY | 6-2, 252, Boston College
2nd round, 41st overall

College: In 46 career games playing defensive end for Boston College, Landry totaled 160 tackles, 26 sacks, 47.5 tackles for loss, seven passes defended, 10 forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception. His 26 sacks were exceeded in school history by only Mathias Kiwanuka (37.5 from 2002-05). In 2016, he set a Boston College record and led the nation with 16.5 sacks, earning Associated Press second-team All-America honors. His seven forced fumbles also ranked first nationally. As a senior in 2017, he played and started eight games before a season-ending ankle injury ended his year. Despite the injury, he finished second on the team with five sacks and added 8.5 tackles for loss.

2018 TITANS DRAFT PICKS

Rd.	Pick	Player	Pos.	College

2a	41	Harold Landry	OLB	Boston College
5a	152	Dane Cruikshank	DB	Arizona
6a	199	Luke Falk	QB	Washington State

DB DANE CRUIKSHANK | 6-1, 209, Arizona
5th round, 152nd overall

College: In two seasons at Arizona, Cruikshank played safety, inside cornerback and outside cornerback. He started all 25 games during those two seasons and recorded 135 tackles, five interceptions, 1.5 sacks, seven tackles for loss, 17 passes defended and one forced fumble. As a senior in 2017, he was elected a team captain by his teammates and started all 13 games after switching to spur safety from cornerback. He ranked fifth on the team with 75 tackles and added 1.5 sacks, 5.5 tackles for loss, eight passes defended, one forced fumble and three interceptions for 65 yards. He attended Citrus College before transferring to Arizona.

QB LUKE FALK | 6-4, 215, Washington State
6th round, 199th overall

College: During Falk's career at Washington State, he set Pac-12 and school records with 14,486 passing yards, 119 passing touchdowns and 1,404 pass completions and 2,055 pass attempts. The former walk-on appeared in 43 games, including 40 starts, and reached the 300-yard passing mark 30 times. The three-time All-Pac-12 selection collected a school record 27 wins and a school-best seven fourth-quarter comeback victories. As a senior, Falk led the Pac-12 in touchdown passes (30), finished second in passing yards per game (299.4), and finished third in passing yards (3,593). As a junior, he was named second-team All-Pac-12 after completing 443 of 633 passes for 4,468 passing yards (third-most in the country and third-most in team history). As a sophomore, he passed for a career-high 4,566 yards with 38 touchdown and eight interceptions.

HEAD COACH MIKE VRABEL

Click For Complete Online Bio

Mike Vrabel was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 20, 2018. He became the 19th head coach in franchise history.

"I am excited to have Mike joining our organization as our new head coach," Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk said upon announcing the hire. "In the interaction between Mike and (general manager) Jon (Robinson) during the interview, you could see their connection right away from the history they have with one another – seeing the game in a similar way and talking the same language. Mike has a commanding presence and a deep understanding for how he will attack this head coaching opportunity. Throughout his football career, he has played for, been mentored by and coached with successful teams and organizations. He knows what it takes to reach that level of sustained success – he has seen it first-hand. We have a chance to build on the solid foundation that we established over the past couple of years and I believe Mike is the right person to continue that progress."

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

"I've watched Mike Vrabel first-hand as a player," said Robinson, who was in New England's front office during Vrabel's time with the Patriots. "He's one of the toughest players, one of the smartest players on those New England teams. He was a demanding teammate. He was a selfless teammate and above all for him it was always about doing what is best for the team and winning. He quickly transitioned into the coaching ranks and rose through those ranks. Mike has a great presence, excellent leadership skills, excellent knowledge of the game and I am extremely proud to be partnered with him as we, everyone in this organization, works together as a team toward our ultimate goal of bringing a championship to this great city, this great state and our outstanding fanbase."

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack last year and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

"This is an incredible opportunity and one I have been preparing for my entire football life," said Vrabel. "I want to thank Amy, Jon and the entire Titans organization for putting their faith in me. I am excited to get to work and that work starts now. We want to build a culture around winning, competitiveness and toughness. Everything we do is going to be geared towards winning and being physical. We want to prepare our players so they know what to do, which will allow them to play fast and aggressive."

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadaveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (second-team All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans defense had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012-2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

Vrabel was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft, after his playing career at Ohio State, where he earned All-America honors and Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons: Tyler and Carter.

BELICHICK ON VRABEL

Bill Belichick on Mike Vrabel, 2/28/09:

"When Mike arrived in 2001, we knew we were adding a solid outside linebacker. But where Mike took it from there exceeded our highest hopes. Mike Vrabel epitomizes everything a coach could seek in a professional football player: toughness, intelligence, playmaking, leadership, versatility and consistency at the highest level. Behind the scenes, Mike's wit and personality is one of the things we have all enjoyed about coming to work every day. The toughest aspect of my job is the day I stop coaching people like Mike, who did everything in his power to contribute to team success. Of all the players I have coached in my career, there is nobody I enjoyed working with more than Mike."

- During Williams' tenure with the Dolphins, Cameron Wake tallied 29 sacks, the eighth-highest total by a player, and Ndamukong Suh posted 15.5 sacks, the eighth-highest number of sacks among defensive tackles.
- Williams also spent three seasons coaching the defensive line with the Oakland Raiders (2012-14).
- Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Williams spent time at Texas A&M (2010-11), Purdue (2006-09), Akron (2004-05), Youngstown State (2002-03), North Carolina A&T (1999-2001) and Fort Scott Community College (1998).
- A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Williams played collegiately at East Carolina as a nose tackle.

KEY NUMBERS

AFC South wins by the Titans in 2017 (5-1), the highest total for the team since winning all six divisional games in 2002.

8

Interceptions by safety Kevin Byard in 2017. In his second NFL season, Byard tied Detroit cornerback Darius Slay for the highest total in the NFL.

9

Career game-winning drives by Marcus Mariota, including four game-winning drives during the 2017 regular season and one in the playoffs.

10

Wins by the Titans in their last 12 home games, dating back to 2016.

18

Point deficit in the Jan. 6, 2018 Wild Card game at Kansas City before the Titans came back to win. It tied for the second-largest playoff comeback by a road team in NFL history.

18

Years of previous NFL experience by new Titans head coach Mike Vrabel, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. He played in 206 NFL games in the regular season and 20 games in the postseason.

27

Rookies on the roster entering training camp (as of July 20). The number includes 23 undrafted rookies and four draft picks.

39

Career touchdown passes in the red zone by Marcus Mariota without throwing an interception.

45

Days from the Titans' first practice of training camp (July 26) to the first regular season game of the season at Miami (Sept. 9).

49.7

Gross punting average in 2017 by Brett Kern, who led the NFL. He also led the NFL with a 44.6-yard net average. Both numbers set new franchise records.

88.8

Opponent rushing yards per game allowed by the Titans defense in 2017. The Titans ranked fourth in the NFL and first in the AFC in rushing defense.

136

Total points in the 2017 regular season by Ryan Succop, which established a career high and tied for the highest single-season total in franchise history (Al Del Greco, 1998).

156

Rushing yards by Derrick Henry in the Wild Card win at Kansas City. The single-game total ranked second in franchise postseason history.

172

Tackles in 2017 by linebacker Wesley Woodyard. The total was the highest by a Titans defender since Keith Bulluck's 180 tackles in 2010.

356

Receptions by tight end Delanie Walker since joining the Titans as a free agent in 2013. He leads all NFL tight ends in receptions in that time period.

On April 4 in downtown Nashville, the Titans unveiled new uniforms in front of an estimated audience of 15,000-20,000 fans. The event marked the first significant uniform alterations for the club since 1999.

Controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk, general manager Jon Robinson and head coach Mike Vrabel were on hand for the event, while quarterback Marcus Mariota, tackle Taylor Lewan, tight end Delanie Walker, defensive tackle Jurrell Casey, outside linebacker Brian Orakpo and safety Kevin Byard walked on stage modeling different combinations of the new jerseys and pants.

Titans legends Eddie George, Blaine Bishop, Frank Wycheck and

Craig Hentrich also participated. The foursome made up the "original Titans" who donned the first Titans uniforms in a similar—only smaller—event 19 years earlier.

The Titans' new helmet is navy, a dramatic shift from their traditional white headgear. While the "fireball logo" still adorns the sides of the helmet, it is now outlined in metallic silver. The facemasks are silver as well (formerly navy).

The center stripe of the helmet as well as the shoulders of the jerseys borrow from the sword motif of the Titans' secondary logo. The pants also include a two-toned silver stripe inspired by the look of a sword and its sheath.

The primary jersey colors remain navy (home), white (away) and light blue (alternate) with pants in all three colors as well. The numbers on the jerseys now are depicted in a new custom that draws from Greek and Roman lettering. The upper right corner of each number is shaped in the same angle as the northeast corner of Tennessee.

The jerseys and pants are accented by red Nike swooshes. Additionally, three red stars are sewn into the inside back collar of the jerseys, reminiscent of the three stars on the Tennessee state flag, which symbolize West Tennessee, Middle Tennessee and East Tennessee.

While the Titans' color scheme kept the same navy, light blue, red, white and metallic silver that have been used since 1999, the new jerseys and pants also incorporate "steel grey" and "wolf grey" into the sword elements.

Earlier in the offseason, the team unveiled a new logo to commemorate its 20th season as the Titans. It features a silver number 20 in front of the team's "sword logo" and a circle of Greek key.

The 20th-season logo will be worn as a decal on the players' helmets during the 2018 campaign.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products has held the naming rights to the stadium since 2006 and that exclusivity now shifts to Nissan.

NISSAN STADIUM BAG POLICY

To provide a safer environment for the public and significantly expedite fan entry into Nissan Stadium, the Tennessee Titans enacted a league-wide NFL policy that limits the size and type of bags that may be brought into the stadium, regardless of the type of event.

This policy includes all Titans games, college football games, concerts and additional sporting events at Nissan Stadium.

The team strongly encourages fans to not bring any type of bags, but outlined what is permissible. Fans will be able to carry the following style and size bag, package, or container at stadium plaza areas, stadium gates, or when approaching queue lines of fans awaiting entry into the stadium:

- Bags that are clear plastic, vinyl or PVC and do not exceed 12" x 6" x 12". (Official Titans logo clear plastic tote bags are available online at www.TitansLockerRoom.com or at Titans Locker Room locations at Nissan Stadium.)
- One-gallon clear plastic freezer bag (Ziploc bag or similar)
- Small clutch bags, approximately the size of a hand, with or without a handle or strap, may be carried into the stadium along with one of the clear bag options
- An exception will be made for medically necessary items after proper inspection. Guests with medical items must enter through designated entry points at Gate 1, Gate 5 or Gate 7.

Prohibited items include, but are not limited to: purses larger than a clutch bag, coolers, briefcases, backpacks, fanny packs, cinch bags, luggage of any kind, seat cushions, computer bags and camera bags or any bag larger than the permissible size.

For additional information, including visuals of allowed and prohibited items, visit www.NFL.com/allclear.

TITANS RADIO AFFILIATES

Titans Radio brings football to fans across the Mid-South in one of the NFL's largest radio networks, including Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone.

Play-by-play announcer Mike Keith connection with pro football across the Mid-South dates back to 1996, a year before the Oilers arrived in Tennessee, and he became the "Voice of the Titans" in 1999. Former Titans assistant coach and NFL head coach Dave McGinnis began serving as Titans Radio's color analyst in 2017, while Titans Radio gameday host Rhett Bryan's involvement with the broadcast dates back to 1997. Jonathan Hutton has served as Titans Radio sideline reporter since 2014.
