HIGHLIGHTS

If you are a travel buff and love to trek, but the constraint of time only gives you about a weekend to fulfill your dreams and you don't wanna go to the usual and ever crowded Triunds and Kheergangas, then a lesser known Chandrakhani Pass trek is all you need to unchain the traveler in you.

Nested in the Kullu Valley of central Himachal, Chandrakhani pass is an old trail for the locals that connects the villages of Ramsu and Malana. The path offers some pristine views of The Pir Pranjal and the Parvati ranges of the Himalayas and passes through beautiful pine forests, meadows and riversides. You gain a maximum altitude of 12.100 ft. and cover a total distance of around 22 km. Combine the trek with a night stay in Malana for a perfect weekend trip.
