HIGHLIGHTS

Mistaken by many as an identical twin of the Pin Parvati Pass, the Pin Bhaba Pass trek is equally tranquil in terms of overall alluring appeal, but the differences are boundless. The trek to Pin Bhaba Pass can be termed as more compliant, attractive and slightly younger sister of the Pin Parvati Pass trek. The Pin Bhaba trek comes closest to what trekking in Kashmir is like. There are incredibly beautiful forests to trek on, vast open grasslands to camp at, a super thrilling pass crossing and the stunning desert landscape of Spiti to end the trek.

ITINERARY DETAILS

DAY 01 Drive from Shimla-Kafnu (208km/7-8 Hours)

Drive from Shimla-Kafnu (208km/7-8 Hours)

Meet us at the decided place in Shimla early in the morning and hop in to a vehicle for a drive to Kafnu. The long drive makes its way through Narkanda and Rampur and is scenic throughout. Kafnu is a charming hamlet in the Bhaba Valley, Kinnaur. Check in to the hotel there for an overnight stay and rest well because tomorrow your trekking in Bhaba Valley will commence.

Day 02 Trek form Kafnu-Mulling (3,100m)

Wake up and get ready for a hearty breakfast, after which you embark walking upon a stunning Bhaba Pass trail. The path passes through abundant apple orchards and an easy to follow forested part. With a trail that is easy to moderate in nature, it would take you around 6 hours to arrive at Mulling meadows. Once there, drown in the natural beauty that abounds. During the night, you will be staying in camps.

Day 03

Trek from Mulling (3,100m)-Kara (3,550m)

Today would be an exciting day of your Bhabha Pass Trek as you will have some crossing shallow rivers and streams where you will have to make way through natural bridges. Enjoy the sights of vibrant alpine blossoms. Along the way, local shepherds who adorn traditional outfits can be seen at work. Arrive at Kara meadow after a steady climb. The sights of stunning peaks that lie on the border of Kinnaur and Spiti are a treat to the eyes and immediately take away the tiredness. Pitch your tents for an overnight stay.

Day 04

Trek from Kara (3,550m)-Phustirang (4,000m)

Today you will enjoy trekking to Phustirang, our next destination. Expect breath-taking sights as you make your way along the river's left bank through meadows and forests to arrive at Phustirang. Witness the mighty Hansbeshan Peak that perches at 5,840m. Arrive at the campsite during the early hours of the evening and unwind. The camps will be your.

Day 05

Trek from Phustirang (4,000m)-Bhabha Pass (4,850m)-Baldar (3,900m)

After waking up and finishing morning chores, begin your trek by ascending along the path that takes you to the Bhabha Pass. The trail is steep and heavy snow can be expected. You would have to put in more strength and treading on the snowy area can take more time. Once at the top, you can feast your eyes on the great views that surrounds. Witness many mountain ranges and the famous Pin Parvati Pass.

After taking a short halt, start climbing down towards the part facing Spiti Valley. Post some hours; make way on the stunning landscape that is distinctive of Spiti. The terrain here is a mix of grasslands and mountains of various colors, especially of brown textures. You will stay in your camps overnight.

Day 06

Trek from Baldar (3,900m)-Mudh (3,740m), Drive from Mudh-Kaza (3,800m) (2hrs)

Wake up and get ready for a light trek to Mudh. The terrain that will surround you can't be explained in terms of beauty. Witness purple hued mountains, the meandering Pin River, endless open spaces and boundless charm of the hamlet of Mudh. After spending some time, you will be driven to Kaza and upon reaching, you will head to the hotel and get refreshed. Overnight stay in your hotel.

Day 07

Drive from Kaza (3,800m)-Kunzum La (4,550m) (75km/2 Hours), Trek from Kunzum La-Chandratal (4,270m)

Indulge in a breath taking drive to Kunzum La through a crimson atmosphere making way through different hamlets and witness their indigenous culture. Once at Kunzum La, trek for around 3 hours and arrive at the campsite near Chandratal Lake. Savor the enchanting sights of turquoise waters ringed by high mountains. Enjoy the evening unraveling the surroundings; overnight stay will be in tents at the campsite.
