HIGHLIGHTS

Bhangeli is a little hamlet in the Garhwal Himalayas, situated on a steep slope overlooking the Uttarkashi-Gangotri Highway. The village offers magnificent views of the Srikantha Peak and the Bhagirathi River. Most village homes are wooden alpine huts covered with slate roofs. Bhangeli also serves as the base camp for the 10 km Gidara Bugyal Trek. Gidara Bugyal trekking is Asia's biggest bugyal or pasture meadow. It is rich in biodiversity and affords spectacular views of the majestic Banderpunch Peak. Gidara truly transports one into another world of peace and tranquility, with a perfume of wildflowers wafting into the air. More than the destinations, walking the trail from Bhangeli to Gidara Trek package is a once in a lifetime experience with the landscape transforming with every twist and turn in the trail.
