HIGHLIGHTS

Mussoorie set up by winded British officers to escape the heat of the plains. From the long time Mussorie was the favorite holiday destination of white sahibs, rajas and nawabs. She still sits smug on the title 'Queen of the Hills', but mainly in off season autumn and spring. Her autumnal confection of mist, hill views and ghostly pine branches is delicious and the crisp air in February- March as you listen for morning birds in Landour is divine.
