HIGHLIGHTS

Trekking to Kheer Ganga is an exciting one. Kheer Ganga is a meadow nestled at an altitude of 2960m (9711 feet) in Kullu district of Himachal Pradesh. It is on the way to the famous Pin-Parvati Trek.

The panoramic skies and greenery are the delight to the eyes and the tired legs of adventure lovers. This one-sided 14 Km/ 5 Hour trek starts from Tosh (A Himalayan village, 20 km away from Kasol). The trek passes through Pulga which further climbs to reach Rudra-Nag waterfall.

The path then ascends to the sacred Kheer Ganga, it is believed that God Shiva has mediated here for 3000 years. It is a holy place with a small temple of Lord Shiva and Hot spring. It makes a rare combination for a trekker to take a bath in hot spring when every side is covered with snow.
