The New York Philharmonic’s 2023–24 season is here!

We celebrate Music Director Jaap van Zweden in his final season and revel in the talents of our incredible musicians. This celebration will feature works by Sofia Gubaidulina, Brahms, and Shostakovich, as well as Mozart’s Requiem and Mahler’s Symphony No. 2, Resurrection.

Stellar guest artists include Mary and James G. Wallach Artist-in-Residence Hilary Hahn, Emanuel Ax, Yo-Yo Ma, Daniil Trifonov, Golda Schultz, Sheku Kanneh-Mason, Joshua Bell, and Beatrice Rana.

Thrilling debuts include Mirga Gražinytė-Tyla, Bruce Liu, Eun Sun Kim, Kwamé Ryan, and Alice Sara Ott.

14 World, US, and New York Premieres include Project 19 commissions by Olga Neuwirth, Mary Kouyoumdjian, and Melinda Wagner; new works by Kinan Azmeh and Layale Chaker, Katherine Balch, Bryce Dessner, Elena Firsova, Anders Hillborg, Jerod Impichchaaha'a' Tate, and Tan Dun; and a US Premiere of a collective work, conceived by and featuring Joshua Bell, composed by Jake Heggie, Jennifer Higdon, Edgar Meyer, Jessie Montgomery, and Kevin Puts.

This season also includes live-to-film performances of West Side Story (2021), Black Panther, and Vertigo, the centennial celebration of Young People’s Concerts, and more.
