

The Charters Towers Region

The town lies at the crossroads of the Overlander's Way (Flinders Highway) and the Great Inland Way (Gregory Development Road) and just a short 90 minute drive inland from Townsville. Driving through the streets of Charters Towers is like viewing a living montage of Australian history and heritage. It was once the second largest city in Queensland and today it is as rich in history as it is in traditional outback friendliness and warm hospitality. It is a scenic gold mining city where you can enjoy an authentic experience reliving the heady gold mining boom-time era while also discovering a plethora of amazing stories of action and activity that abounded in the region including our region's rich WWI and WWII history. Charters Towers delivers all your expectations for a professional event and more. Whatever you're looking for, from an outdoor natural amphitheater to external yet under-cover venues for hundreds of delegates or traditional internal venues, Charters Towers, the outback in the Tropics, will provide you with a truly unique and authentic experience that will impress.

The World Theatre

For larger events, The World Theatre in the heart of Charters Towers' business district provides a unique venue with the latest in production capabilities. The Auditorium offers tiered theatre-style seating for 660 people while two separate cinemas offer 150 and 125 seats respectively. The complex boasts its own full bar facilities as well as fully licensed restaurant and a snack bar. The grand entrance introduces you to the elegance that lies within and the theatre foyer area which plays host to a gallery display that presents pieces from the coveted collection of historically significant pieces to valuable contemporary works. This venue caters for conferences, meetings, seminars, cocktail functions and special events.

Arthur Titley Centre

Directly opposite The World Theatre, is the Arthur Titley Centre. This venue offers an insight into the style and class of events gone by. Commercial catering facilities and a separate bar area serve the two separate function rooms with a stage equipped with disabled access. Officially opened in 1933, this venue presents as an ideal choice for banquets, cocktail or dinner-dance events, conference meetings or trade shows. With several seating variations available, the Function Room set cabaret style, has a capacity for 100 guests with the Hall catering for up to 300.

Beef and Gold Rooms

The Charters Towers Beef and Gold Rooms are conveniently located within the Charters Towers Regional Council's Administration Complex. The Gold and Beef Rooms can be hired as one complete room or two separate rooms. The combined rooms offer full catering facilities and optional break out spaces to cater for events up to 50 people. A television/video and an overhead projector and whiteboards are available for use.
