

Yeshaya Perek 46

- This perek contrasts the vanity of idol worship with the greatness of Hashem.
- Yeshaya describes the vanity of two idols named Beil and Nevo.
- Hashem addressed the house of Yaakov. "I have carried you since birth. I will be with you forever, even when you are old and grey. I will carry you."
- How can any man-made idol compare to Hashem?
- Hashem is above time and at the same time knows the beginning and ending of all events.
- Hashem's redemption is not far off.
- Hashem glorifies himself through every single member of the Jewish people.
