An apparently simple question that many people seem to answer incorrectly is, "How many מָּצְיֹת, commandments, are there in the מָּצְיֹת, (lit: ten statements)? The correct answer is not ten; there are fourteen מָצְיֹת הַיְּדְּבֶּרוֹת in the מְצְיֶׁת הַיְּבְּרוֹת listed in מָצְיֹת הַעָּשְׁה listed in מָצְיֹת לָא תַּצְשָׁה (מִצְיֹת לָשְׁה נִמְיִשְׁה listed in מְצְיִת יִתְרוֹ there are fifteen מְצְיִת there are fifteen מְצְיִת there are fifteen מְצְיִת altogether, since the 14th מְצְיָּת וֹנְיִלְה וֹנִלְיִּת וֹנְיִלְיִת וֹנְלְיִת וֹנְלְיִת וֹנְעִיִּת listed in מִצְיָה מִצְיֹם מִצְיֹם מִצְיֹם וֹנִים מִצְיִם וֹנִים וֹנִים מִצְיִם וֹנִים מִצְיִם וֹנִים מִצְיִם וֹנִים מִצְיִם וֹנִים מִצְיִם מִצְיִם מִצְיִם וֹנִים מִצְיִם וֹנְיִים וֹנְיִים וֹנִים וֹנִים מִצְיִם וֹנִים מִצְיִם וֹנִים מִצְיִם וֹנִים מִצְיִם מִצְיִם מִצְיִם מִיבְּים וֹנִים מִצְיִם מִּצְיִם מִצְיִם וֹנְיִים מִיבְיִם וֹנִים מִיבְיִם וֹנִייִם וֹנִיבְיִם וֹנִים מִצְיִם מִּצְיִם מִצְיִם מִּיבְיִם וֹנִים מִיבְיִם וֹנִיבְיִם וֹנִים מִיבְים וֹנִים מִיבְּים וֹנִים מִיבְּים וֹנִים מִיבְּים וְנִים מִּצְיִם מִּצְיִם מִּיְים וֹנִים מִּיבְים מִּיבְּים מִּיבְּים בּיִּים וֹנְיִים מִּיבְים מִּיבְים מִּיבְּים מִּיבְים מִּיבְּים מִּיבְּים מִּיבְּים מִיבְּים מִּיבְּים מִּיבְּים מִּיבְּים מִּיִּים מִּיבְּים מִּיבְּים מִּיבְּים מִּים מִּיבְּים מִּיבְּיִים מִיבְּיִים מִּיבְּים מִיבְּים מִּיבְּים מִּיבְּים מִיבְּיִים מִּים מִבְּיִים מִּיבְיִּם מִּיבְיִּם מִּיבְּים מִּיִּים מִּיבְּים מִיבְּים מִּיבְּיִים מִיבְיִים מִּים מִיבְּים מִיבְּיִים מִּיבְּים מִיבְּים מִיבְּים מִּיִים מִיבְּים מִיבְּים מִּיִּים מִּים מִּים מִּיִּים מִיבְּיִים מִיבְּים מִּיִּים מִיבְּים מִּיְים מִּיְים מִּיִּים מִּיְים מִּים מִּים מִּיְים מִּיְים מִּיְים מִּיְים מְּיִים מִּיְים מִּיְים מִּיְים מִּיְים מִּיְים מִּיְים מִּיְים מִּים מְיִים מִיבְּים מִּיְים מִּיְיִים מִּיְיִים מִּיְיִים מְיִּי

מְצְוָה תט"ז - שֶׁלֹא לְהָתְאַוּוֹת מַה שֶׁבְּיֵד אַחֵינוּ בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל

It is forbidden to preoccupy your mind with a desire to have something that belongs to a fellow Jew. This negative thought is אָסוּר based on the לא תִּתְאֲנֶּה בֵּית רֵעֶדּ... פָּסוּק - you shall not desire your fellow's home...

משַׁרַשִּׁי הַמִּצְוָה

The רְמְבֵּ״ם explains that the לא תַּחְמֹד of לא תַּחְמֹד - do not be jealous — found in פָּרְשַׁת יִּתְּרוֹ prohibits an action: one must not pressure a fellow Jew to sell, or steal, because of jealousy. The אָסוּר of אַ תִּתְאָנָּה prohibits a negative thought (desiring that which does not belong to you), even if does not lead to an action.

The חָנוּך explains (based on the רַמְבַּ״ם) that preoccupying one's mind with a desire to have something that belongs to a fellow Jew, will eventually lead a person to try different methods of persuasion (or even stealing) to obtain the object of his desire.

Based on this explanation, the תְּנּוּדְ addresses an age-old question: Is it possible for the תּוֹרָה to demand of a person not to be jealous? Isn't this requiring something that is beyond human capability?

The חָּמּיּהְ answers that this question is really the thought of fools and wicked people, who just do not want to control themselves. Man was created to be above animals and is fully able to control his mind with positive thoughts. A person's heart is the seat of his emotion, and he can focus his heart to think pure and good thoughts.

The חָמּהְ continues that there is nothing more beneficial for a person than thinking pure and positive thoughts in serving א. Living with a heart that is always focused on doing good is the "beginning and end" of all good deeds. If a person thinks good thoughts, he will come to do good deeds.

The תְּנֹּדְּ also offers a deeper meaning to the question of רי אָלְעָּלָר בָּן עַרְדּ and the answer of יְּתָנֶן בָּן זָּכָּאי in חִיי אָלְעָלֶר בָּן עַרְדּ asked his five תַּלְעִיּלְר בָּן עַרְדּ, what is the single most important רי יּוֹתְנֶן בָּן זַּכָּאי replied a אָלְעָלֶר בָּן עַרְדּ, a heart that is focused on being good and spiritually pure. With the focus of a "good" heart, a person will live a life of full of goodness.

בִּי אֵשְׁמָרָה שַׁבַּת קֵל יִשְׁמְרָנִי...

If I safeguard the יַשְׁבַּת will safeguard me... (שַׁבַּת וְמִירוֹת). said to מֹשֵׁה l have a beautiful present in בית גְּנָזִי, my treasure house, named שַׁבַּת and I wish to give it to וֹּכְלֵל יִשְׂרָאֵל!" R' Gedalya Schorr יַצִייל explains that this does not mean that די took שָבַּת took out of His שַׁבָּת but rather on שַׁבָּת He lift us up high and bring us inside His בית גניזָה (בֵּיצָה טז.) בֵּית גניזָה.

All week long we say, בָּרוּך ... שוֹמֵר עַמּוֹ יִשְׂרָאֵל לָעַד ... שוֹמֵר עַמּוֹ יִשְׂרָאֵל לָעַד ... who watches His nation Israel forever. On Friday night we substitute, ברוד יַשְרָאֵל וְעַל יִרוּשַׁלַיִם ... — ... who שַלוֹם עַלֵינוּ וְעַל כַּל עַמוֹ יִשְׂרָאֵל וְעַל יִרוּשַׁלַיִם ... — who spreads the shelter of peace upon us, on all of His people Israel and on שׁבָּת ..., because on יָרוּשֻׁלַיִם we get close to די in such a way that we do not need to ask for protection. We are so close that we are automatically being protected. It would be wrong for a person in the king's palace to ask him for personal protection. On שַׁבַּת we do not have to ask for protection. We are in His treasure house.

When World War II ended, R' Moshe Neuschloss זַצִּייל overcame his personal losses as he tried to help other survivors rebuild their lives upon the ashes of destruction. R' Neuschloss returned to the Slovakian town of Serdihely and started a ישיבה for teenage בְּחוּרִים who had been orphaned during the war. He put his vast knowledge of הַלֶּכָה to use in guiding survivors in matters of שַּבָּת observance, family life, the building of מָקוָאוֹת and other crucial

Two years after the end of the war, with the Communist presence in Serdihely becoming ever more pronounced, R' Neuschloss decided to emigrate, along with his יָשִׁיבַה, to America. He arranged for his students to make the journey by boat. However, this means of travel was not available to R' Neuschloss himself, for his wife was with child and therefore could not undertake the long sea journey. The two therefore made reservations on a flight departing from Prague to New York.

The plane took off on schedule, but some problems developed in mid-flight, forcing the pilot to make an emergency landing in Ireland. When the problems were corrected and the plane was ready for the next leg of the journey, the passengers were informed that the flight was due to arrive in New York on Saturday.

R' Neuschloss, who was known throughout his life for his great piety and awe of Heaven, informed the airline personnel that he was a Sabbath observer and would not embark on such a journey.

Air travel in those days was not what it is today. Reservations had to be booked well in advance. R' Neuschloss was informed that if he and his wife did not board that flight, then there was no telling how long it might be before they could make reservations on another one. R' Neuschloss was undaunted by this warning. He and his wife would not be on that flight.

The frustrated airline personnel booked a room in a hotel for the couple and provided them with ample food for the weekend. Rabbi and Mrs. Neuschloss returned all the non-kosher food and kept only the fruit. The language barrier made it difficult for them to explain why they would not eat the food. The airline personnel misinterpreted their strange behavior as some sort of hunger strike to protest what they considered to be mistreatment. Concerned that these war survivors should not create a scene, the airline management contacted the American consulate. It was decided that the couple would be sent to New York on the next available flight. And so, on מוֹצֵאֵי שָׁבַּת, R' and Mrs. Neuschloss were happily surprised when informed that they would be leaving for New York that very

The flight was uneventful. Upon their arrival in New York, R' and Mrs. Neuschloss contacted their hosts by phone. When R' Neuschloss identified himself, his host was incredulous. It was then that the Neuschlosses learned the shocking news: the plane which had departed before שַׁבַּת had crashed into the sea, leaving no survivors. The Neuschlosses had erroneously been listed among the passengers on board that flight.

*It is important to clarify that all the הַלְכוֹת we have learned until now regarding the order of precedence apply not only in cases involving lending money or other items but are equally applicable to any type of or אַדָקה situation. In most cases, the order of precedence is as follows: parents, children, siblings, extended family, needy in the neighborhood, needy in the same city/town and עַניֵּי אֵרֶץ יִשְׂרָאֵל. We should keep this in mind when we are faced with a challenge in doing מסד and must balance our priorities in our daily lives.

*This is intended only as a guide. Please review any real-life situations with a competent Rov.

An example of the above הַלֶּכֶה is found in the בֵּרִשִּׁ בִּים's explanation ( בֵּרוֹשׁ הַמִּשְׁנֵיוֹת אֲבוֹת on the words וְיִהְיוּ עֲנִיִּים בְּנֵי בֵיתֶּך, and the poor should be members of your household, that one should hire poor people to work for you in the home rather that using other hired help. #### Focuson Middos

Dear תַּלְמִיד,

When anti-Semitism rose drastically in Europe and the clouds of war gathered ominously, R' Henoch Padwa צַּצִייל returned to Vienna. Following the Anschluss, when Austria was annexed to the Third Reich, he was arrested for being a foreigner. Although he was later released, Jews in Vienna were subject to harsh decrees. In 5698 (1938), R' Padwa decided to flee to אָרֶץ יִשְׂרָאֵל with his family. They boarded the very last ship that left the country, arriving in אֶרֶץ יִשְׂרָאֵל on יַשְׂרָאֵל 5700 (1940). He and his family were ferried on a small boat to the departing ship as it was leaving the harbor.

R' Padwa never stopped praising 'ד' for this miracle and was always grateful for being among the last survivors to escape with his entire family. Yet despite his own salvation, R' Henoch never stopped mourning the terrible tragedy that struck פָּלֵל יִשְׂרָאֵל.

In his introduction to מֵשֶׁב הָאֵפוֹד, he wrote the following:

on תּוֹסְפוֹת יוֹם טוֹב The מְגְלַּת אֵיכָה, quoting the סֶבֵּר יוֹסֶף מָקַח, asks why the חַשָּׁמוֹנַאָים did not establish days of celebration in honor of the salvation of עם ישָׁרָאֵל similar to פּוּרִים. The גס of the חשמונאים was openly greater than the miracle of פּוּרים. The נס of פּוּרָים was a more natural and hidden miracle. On מנכה, the obvious miracle was unnatural. The תוֹספוֹת יוֹם טוֹב answers that by the חשׁמוֹנאים, the שָׁמְחַה was not complete, because so many of בָּלֵל יִשִׂרָאֵל perished.

R' Padwa continues, "How much more so is the case here, when only a handful were saved...."

My תַּלְמִיד, although R' Padwa was forever thanking די for his personal יְשׁוּעָה, he felt the deep pain that בְּלֵל יִשְׂרָאֵל was going through at the same time. The greater a person is, the more that person understands that although every Jew is an individual, we are all connected and must all share in the "ups and downs" of יְּכָלֵל יִשְׂרָאֵל !

Sage Sayings

After losing his first wife, R' Padwa זַצִּייל asked the Belzer Rebbe, R' Aharon, if he should continue being a בָּב. As soon as he entered, the Rebbe related that the בְּנִי יִשְּׁשֶׁכָּר had a son who was offered רְּבָּנוּת and refused it. His father told him to accept the position and said that being a מִּנְרָה הוֹרָאָה is a סְּגֵלָה for long life. Looking at R' Padwa, the Belzer Rebbe repeated the words: רב To be a ביו זײַן אַ מוֹרֶה הוֹרָאָה אִיז אַ סְגֵלָה פּאַר אֲרִיכַת יָמִים! To be a בי (judge), is a merit for longevity!' R' Padwa had his answer.

Understanding ט"ו בָּאַב

The last מִשְׁנָה in מַשְּׁכָת תַּצְנִית (ד:ח) teaches: לא היו ימים טובים לישראל ...בְּחַמְשָּׁה עָשֶּׁר בְּאַב וּכִיוֹם הַכְּפּוּרִים... There were no greater פָלֵל for נְמִים טוֹבִים than the 15th of אָב אָב and יִשְׂרָאֵל. The פּעֵנִית ל:) relates why טײו בָּאָב is equated with the day of סְלִיחָה וּמְחִילָה and the day the 2nd לוּחוֹת were given. Three incidents involve the אַחָדוּת of ישראל after being split: marriages from one שבט בנימין to another; allowing שבט בנימין back to marry another שָׁבֶּט; removing the border guards thus allowing the 10 עוֹלֶה לְרֶגֶל to be עוֹלֶה לְרֶגֶל. Two demonstrate 'T's love even to the sinners in His people: the last 15,000 of the עולי מצרים did not die; the bodies of those killed in did not rot and were buried. One shows יִשׂרָאֵל's love to His תּוֹרָה: after 'stopping cutting wood for the מובח ceremony, we used our extra time for learning תּוֹרָה.
