

Shmuel 1 Perek 16

- Hashem told Shmuel to stop mourning over Shaul.
- Hashem told Shmuel to head to the house of Yishai in Bet-Lechem to anoint one of Yishai's children.
- Shmuel brought along a cow as peace offering. This was done in order for Shaul not to suspect Shmuel's reason to travel to Bet-Lechem was to anoint a new King.
- Yishai brought each one of his 7 children in front of Shmuel to be anointed as the new king of Yisrael.
- Shmuel denied each child and inquired if Yishai had more children.
- Dovid, Yishai's youngest child is brought from the field.
- Hashem told Shmuel to anoint Dovid as the new king of Yisrael.
- Dovid was anointed and a feast was eaten.
- The "spirit of Hashem" departed from Shaul.
- Shaul sought a musician to play music for him to make him feel happy again.
- Dovid was indentified as man of character and a fine musician to play the harp for Shaul.
- Shaul loved Dovid.
- Dovid became Shaul's armor bearer.
- Dovid remained with Shaul. Whenever Dovid played music Shaul felt happy again.
