

Yehoshua Perek 23

- Yehoshua gathers the entire Klal Yisroel together in order to prepare them for his death.
- Yehoshua tells them that there are still unconquered nations living in Eretz Yisroel.
- Yehoshua encourages Klal Yisroel to remain strong and not be enticed by the unconquered nations in Eretz Yisroel after his passing.
- They should not assimilate with the nations of the world.
- Yehoshua impresses upon Klal Yisroel to serve Hashem with sincerity and wholeheartedness.
- Just as Hashem has done so much good for Klal Yisroel, so, too, is He capable of doing the opposite.
