

Yeshaya Perek 14

- When Mashiach comes, Hashem will again select Yisrael, and return Yisrael to Eretz Yisrael. Many converts will join the Jewish nation. Yisrael's true stature will be elevated for the entire world to see.
- The Navi related the song that Yisrael will sing when they are saved from Nevuchadnetzar, king of Bavel.
- The gist of the prophecy is that all will wonder how Nevechadnetzar, who was the strongest ruler on earth, thought that he would take down Hashem, but Hashem took him down instead.
- Hashem describes the destruction of Ashur. No one will be able to prevent it. When Hashem has stretched out His hand, who can withdraw it?
- A prophecy to the Plishtim: Do not be happy, because Hashem will strike you down! If the famine doesn't kill you, the viper will finish the job. What will there be to say? Hashem chose Tzion, and Yisrael will find shelter there.
