

Yeshaya Perek 51

Yeshaya speaks words of encouragement to the people who fear Hashem.

Yeshaya urges them to reflect on the fact that they have great ancestors, Avraham and Sorah.

Hashem will comfort Tzion and rebuild its ruins.

Yeshaya tells the members of the nation who recognize Hashem's truth not to be embarrassed by people who make fun of them.

It is not enough to keep the Torah. A person has to cultivate desire and passion for Hashem.

“Those redeemed by G-d will return to Tzion singing, with eternal joy upon them. Joy and happiness will be theirs while sadness and depression will flee.”

Hashem will personally comfort Yisrael.

Hashem is all-powerful.

Yeshaya urges the nation to awaken to the redemption and to awaken from the slumber of exile.

Hashem will use on the nations of the world the exact same means that the nations of the world tried to use to hurt Yisrael.
