

Melachim I Perek 10

- Queen of Sheba came to speak with Shlomo and brought a large quantity of gifts.
- Queen of Sheba “tested” Shlomo with riddles and shared her feelings with Shlomo.
- Queen of Sheba realized and confessed that Shlomo’s wisdom was far greater than she had imagined.
- Chiram’s fleet of ships brought gold and Almug trees (coral) as gifts for Shlomo.
- Shlomo used so much gold, that silver was considered worthless.
- Shlomo made golden shields, an elaborate throne, and drank from golden cups.
- The kings of Tarshish and Chiram would come every 3 years to Shlomo with gold, silver, ivory and peacocks as gifts.
- Shlomo would set fixed prices to buy chariots and riders.
- Shlomo had amassed so much wealth that he would export products from Eretz Yisroel to the other kings outside of Eretz Yisrael.
