

Shmuel 1 Perek 1

- Every year Elkana would bring sacrifices at the Mishkan in Shilo.
- Elkana had two wives Penina and Chana.
- Penina would taunt Chana for not having children.
- On a yearly basis Elkana would try to console Chana by giving her an extra portion from the sacrificed meat.
- Chana went to the Mishkan and made a vow that if she would have a child she would dedicate it for the service of Hashem at the Mishkan and the child would be a Nazir.
- Eli the Kohen mistakenly thought Chana to be drunk after seeing her lips move with no words coming out.
- Chana related to Eli the Kohen she was praying to Hashem for a child.
- Chana's prayers were answered.
- Chana named her child Shmuel.
- Chana dedicated Shmuel to work in the Mishkan as she promised.
