

Yeshaya Perek 10

- Yeshaya expresses sorrow over the difficulty that many will have when Sancheriv, king of Ashur, devastates Yehudah.
- Grief is destined for those who write “evil” documents and exploit the poor in their times of need, for their own financial or emotional gain.
- To whom will they turn in their time of need?
- Hashem expresses grief over the fact that He’s only using Sancheriv as a rod to hit Yisrael. Sancheriv, however, is completely unaware of this. He is full of haughtiness and believes that he will defeat Yisrael through his own military prowess.
- After Hashem punishes Yisrael, He will then punish Sancheriv for actually devastating Yisrael on his own behalf.
- On that day, after the devastation, a small remnant of Jewish survivors will truly rely on Hashem.
- Hashem tells those people, “Do not fear, because I will take care of the impending battle.”
- The army of Ashur advanced towards Yerushalayim.
- Yeshaya prophesied that Hashem would cut down the forest, and expose the army of Ashur therein.
