

Shmuel 1 Perek 23

- Dovid saved the town of Ke'ilah from the Plishtim.
- Ke'ilah was a walled and gated city located in the territory of Yehudah and Dovid was compelled to save members of his fellow tribe.
- Dovid has asked the Urim V'Tumim before fighting against the Plishtim and saving the town of Ke'ilah.
- King Shaul had understood Dovid being in the walled city of Ke'ilah would be his opportunity to finally kill Dovid.
- Dovid had Avyasar the Kohen ask Hashem whether it was better stay in Ke'ilah or to flee in fear the residents may hand him over to King Shaul.
- Dovid and 600 men escaped Ke'ilah before Shaul had shown up and was able to attack them.
- Dovid fled to the mountains of Ziph.
- Yonasan secretly visited Dovid in the nighttime and encouraged Dovid to stay strong in the light of King Shaul chasing Dovid.
- The people of Ziph tried to hand Dovid over to King Shaul for a second time.
- King Shaul had the people of Ziph scout out exactly where Dovid would be located (Dovid was a master of deception and had many hiding spots making him difficult to be located.)
- King Shaul had finally locate Dovid and was about to attack Dovid.
- As King Shaul approached Dovid King Shaul was notified the Plishtim were attacking the rest of Eretz Yisroel.
- King Shaul chose to return home instead and protect the national security of Yisroel instead of killing Dovid.
- Once again Dovid had escaped King Shaul.
