Haftarah Helper 5781: Bo

Zachary Beer (Nachshon Project Fellow, The City College of New York) and Barry Kornblau (Rabbi, Young Israel of Hollis Hills-Windsor Park, Queens, NY) Dedicated by the Holzer family to celebrate the Bar Mitzvah of their son, Moshe.

Jeremiah 46:13-28

Jeremiah prophesied to Judah and its people in a period of tumultuous national and international upheaval before, during, and after God sent the Babylonian Empire under Nebuchadnezzar to destroy Judah and His Temple in 586 BCE. Jeremiah's prophecy which appears in his book just before the Haftarah (46:1-12) occurs decades before Judah's destruction. In it, Jeremiah declares that Egypt's northward imperial expansion will be turned back at the Euphrates River by Nebuchadnezzar and the Babylonians; so it was, in 605.

In his prophecy in the Haftarah, Jeremiah continues God's sanction of Babylon's destruction of Egypt. Speaking around the time of Judah's destruction, he asserts that Nebuchadnezzar's army, coming from the north, will destroy Egypt, its leaders, and gods; later, Egypt's exiled survivors will return home¹. The destruction is similar to God's destruction of Egypt in the Parashah. Jeremiah declares that God is punishing Egypt for its misdeeds; the Book of Kings² describes how Egypt mistreated Judah at that time. The prophet concludes by reassuring Judeans that despite the turmoil, God will ensure their survival, punish their oppressors, and return them to dwell peacefully in His land.

Haftarah Breakdown

Verses 13-19: God tells Jeremiah to declare in Egypt His firm plan to utterly destroy it and its king, whose time has passed in His eyes. Egypt's mighty men shall flee; its survivors shall be exiled abroad.

| Jeremiah 46:19 | ירמיהו מ״ו:י״ט |
|---|--|
| Pack your belongings for exile, you who live in Egypt - for Noph ³ will be laid waste, and lie in ruins without inhabitants. | כְּלֵי גוֹלָה ְעֲשַׂי לָֹךְ יוֹשֶׁבֶת בַּת־מִצְרָיִם כְּי־נֹף לְשַׁמַּה תְהְיֶה וְנִצְתָה מֵאֵין יוֹשֶׁב: (ס) |

Verses 20-24: Like a fattened cow ready for slaughter and a forest ready to be cut down, Egypt and its hired soldiers will be destroyed. More numerous than a locust cloud, its conqueror shall come from the north.

| Jeremiah 46:20 | ירמיהו מ״ו:כ׳ |
|---|---|
| Egypt is a very fair heifer— a destroyer from the north is surely coming! | ֶעָגְלָה יְפֶה־פִּיֻּה מִצְרָיִם קֶרֶץ מִצָּפָוֹן בָּא בָא: |

Verses 25-26: The God of Israel declares that He is punishing Egypt by sending the Babylonians, from its north, to destroy it - though its exilees will eventually return to its land.

| Jeremiah 46:26 | ירמיהו מ״ו:כ״ו |
|---|---|
| "And I will deliver them into the hand[s] of those who seek [to end] their lives and into the hand[s] of Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, and into the hand[s] of his servants. Afterward, [Egypt] shall be inhabited again as in the days of old," says the Lord. | וּנְתַתִּ־ים בְּיַד [`] מְבַקְשֵׁי נַפְשָּׂם וּבְיַד נְבְוּכַדְרֶאצָר מֶֶלֶרְ־בָּבֶל וּבְיַד־עֲבָדָיו וְאַחֲבִי־כֵן תִּשְׁכָּן כְּימֵי־קֶדֶם נְאֻם־ה': (o) |

¹ In last week's Haftarah, Jeremiah's contemporary, Ezekiel, prophesied similarly.

² See 2 Kings 23:29 -35.

³ Noph is the Hebrew name for the Egyptian city of Memphis.

Haftarah Breakdown (cont.)

Verses 27-28: Amidst the upheavals, God will protect his exiled people, Israel, and return them to dwell peaceably in His Land.

| Jeremiah 46:27 | ירמיהו מ״ו:כ״ז |
|---|--|
| And You, O My servant, Jacob, fear not; be not dismayed, O Israel! For | ؙؚؠؚؚאַתָּה אַל־תִּיָרָא עַבְדָּי יְיֲעֵקֹב ׁ וְאַל־תֵּחַת יִשְׂרָאֵׁל |
| behold, I will save you from afar, and [redeem] your seed from the land of | פִּי הִנְנַי מוֹשְׁעַרָ`מֶָרָחוֹק וְאֶת־זַרְעֲךָ מֵאָָרָץ |
| their captivity. Jacob shall return, and be quiet and at ease; there shall be | שִׁבְיֵם וְשָׁב יַעֲקוֹב וְשָׁקַט וְשַׁאֲנֻן וְאֵין מַחֲרְיד: |
| none to make him tremble. | (o) |

Connections

The poetic description of Egypt in the poem Maoz Tzur is derived from verse 46:20 (above).

| Maoz Tzur | מעוז צור |
|---|--|
| My soul was sated with woes; my strength had ended with sorrow. My life was embittered by hardship when subjected to the Heifer Kingdom (Egypt). With His great power, He brought forth the treasured one. The host of Pharaoh and all his seed descended like a stone in the watery deep. | ָּרָעוֹת שָׂבְעָה נַפְשִׁי בְּיָגוֹן כּׂחִי כָּלָה. חַיַּי מָרְרוּ בְּקוֹשִׁי בְּשִׁעְבּוּד מַלְכוּת עֶגְלָה. וּבְיָדוֹ הַגְּדוֹלָה הוֹצִיא אֶת הַסְגֵלָה. חֵיל פַּרְעֹה וְכָל זַרְעוֹ יָרְדוּ כְאֶבֶן בִּמְצוּלָה |

Rabbi Moses Cordovero, one of the earliest Tzfat Kabbalists⁴, derives a practice that is part of a mystical practice of connecting to God's Kingship from the Haftarah.

| Sefer Tomer Devorah 9 | ספר תומר דבורה ט |
|---|---|
| To go into exile:He [should] exile himself from place to place for the sake of Heaven. Through this, he becomes a "chariot" for the exiled Shechinah [Divine Presence], and liken himself [to the Shechinah , as follows]: "Behold, I have exiled myself. Behold, all my [needed] items are with me. What does the honor of the Higher Realm do? The Shechinah was exiled, but her items are not with Her, as they were removed on account of exile!" Therefore, let him minimize his vessels with all of his ability, as Scripture (Jeremiah 46:19) states, "Pack your belongings for exile." Let him subdue his heart in this exile and connect himself to Torah - then the Shechinah will be with him. He [should also] banish himself by always removing himself from his residence, in the way that Rabbi Shimon and his colleagues would banish themselves, and occupy themselves with Torah. | לצאת לגלות: יִגְלֶה מִמָּקוֹם לְמָקוֹם לְשֵׁם שָׁמַיִם, וּבָזֶה יֵעָשָׂה מֶרְכָּבָה אֶל הַשְׁכִינָה הַגּוֹלָה. וִידַמֶּה עַצְמוֹ הֲרֵי אֲנִי גָלִיתִי וַהֲרֵי פְּלֵי תַשְׁמִישִׁי עִמִי, מַה יַעֲשָׁה פְּבוּד גָּבוֹהַ שֶׁגָּלְתָה שְׁכִינָה וְבָלֶיהָ אֵינָם עִמָּה, שֶׁחָסְרוּ בִּסִבַּת הַגָּלוּת. וְלָזֶה יְמַעֵט בְּכַלָיו בְּכָל יְכָלְתּוֹ פְדָכְתִיב (יִרְמִיָּה מו, יט): "פְּלֵי גוֹלָה עֲשָׁי לָךְ" וְיַכְנִיעַ לְבָבוֹ בַּגּוֹלָה וְיִתְקַשֵׁר בַּתּוֹרָה, וְאָז שְׁכִינָה עְמוֹ, וַיַּעֲשָׁה לְעַצְמוֹ גַּרוּשִׁר וְיִתְגָרָשׁ מְבֵית מְנֵחָתוֹ תָּמִיד פְּדֶרֶךְ שֶׁהֶיוּ מִתְגָרְשִׁים רַבִּי שְׁמִוּן וַחֲבַרָיו וְעוֹסְקִים בַּתּוֹרָה. |

With emendations, biblical translations are by Rabbi A. J. Rosenberg and other translations are from Sefaria.org. To dedicate, comment, or subscribe, email zbeer570@gmail.com.

⁴ In the mid-1500s, a group of Kabbalisitc thinkers lived in Tzfat. Among them were Rabbi Isaac Luria, known as the "Holy Ari"; Rabbi Joseph Caro, author of the Shulchan Aruch; Rabbi Shlomo Alkabetz, composer of Lecha Dodi; as well as Alkabetz's brother-in-law, Cordovero, mentioned above.