

Yechezkel Perek 5

Hashem commands Yechezkel to shave his head and beard. Radak and others say that Yechezkel saw this in a vision and didn't actually shave off his beard and head, because Hashem wouldn't command a prophet to go against the Torah.

One third of the hair was to be burned in a fire in Yerushalayim when the siege had come to an end.

One third of the hair was to be hit in Yerushalayim with a sword.

One third of the hair was to be scattered around the world.

Note: Listen to NachDaily for further explanation of the symbolism of Yechezkel's hair.

Hashem relays a harsh prophecy about the destruction of Yerushalayim.

“Parents will eat their children and children will eat their parents.”

The Navi relates that further destruction will come upon the residents of Yerushalayim because “you have made the land impure.”
