

Yechezkel Perek 15

Yisrael is compared to a “wild grape vine” that seemingly has no use other than to be burned.

Other vines and trees in the forest can be utilized for heat and furniture.

What should Hashem do with this particular vine that has no real use?

“The vine will be consumed as will be the residents of Yerushalayim. Then they will truly know that “I am God.”