

Yechezkel Perek 33

God recharged Yechezkel with his mission to be the “watchman” of the nation.

Hashem held Yechezkel personally responsible and accountable for delivering His word.

Yechezkel urged the nation to do teshuvah and come close to God.

“God doesn’t desire to punish people. He prefers that people do teshuvah.

"God isn't petty or cruel. His Judgement is perfectly fair.

"God holds both the tzadik and the rasha equally accountable for their good and bad deeds."

A messenger came to tell Yechezkel about the destruction of the Yerushalayim.

Yechezkel was speechless until Hashem sent him a prophecy.

Yerushalayim was destroyed because of immorality, idol worship and bloodshed.

The navi relates how the nation didn't take Yechezkel's words seriously and would mock and ridicule him behind his back.
