

Yechezkel Perek 46

Listen to NachDaily Audio for a shiur on the topic of the relationship of the mitzva of sanctifying the new moon and the interplay between the light of the sun and the moon in the times of Mashiach, according to Chassidus.

This perek continues Yechezkel's vision of the third temple and its services.

Yechezkel was shown various courtyards and chambers where the new moon would be sanctified, where a host of various sacrifices of the prince would be brought, laws of inheritance regarding the prince's family, the kitchen quarters for the kohanim, and the kitchen quarters for the servants.
