

Hoshea Perek 2

This perek is a prophecy of redemption.

“Am Yisrael will be as many as the sands of the sea”

Klal Yisrael’s name will be changed to “Bnei-El-Chai”, meaning children of the living God.

The ultimate redeemer will reveal himself as the Mashiach.

The perek relates a parable about how Yisrael’s worship of idols is akin to them being with a prostitute.

“The nation is no longer faithful to Me”, says God”

The navi relates how the Jewish people’s relationship with God will change from one of fear to one of love.

“You will be My bride forever.”

Word will spread throughout the entire world that the Jewish people are God's nation.
