

Zechariah Perek 10

This perek is a prophecy about the final redemption.

Zechariah urges Yisrael to test God by praying for rain, to demonstrate to them that God listens to their prayers. (Metsudos)

The nation was swayed by false beliefs and idolaters, which resulted in a lack of prayer to Hashem.

God will bring back the houses of Yosef and Yehudah.

Yisrael will be militarily strong.

God will take pity on His nation and heal them as if they had never suffered.

There will be an ingathering of the exiles.

People in distant places will want to come close to God.

God will once again make His nation strong.
