Make Dayton, OH your new home!

- Warm, welcoming Jewish community
- Convenient location
- Low cost of living

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

1. Where is Dayton located?
   Dayton is conveniently located in southwest Ohio. We are located approximately one hour from Columbus and Cincinnati, two hours from Indianapolis, Lexington, and Louisville, four hours from Cleveland and Pittsburgh, and five hours from Chicago.

2. What is the weather like in Dayton?
   Dayton is a four-season city. The average temperatures in July are 87° / 67° and average temperatures in January are 36° / 21°.

3. What is the Jewish population in Dayton?
   The greater Dayton area, which is known as the Miami Valley, is home to 4,000 Jews.

4. What percentage of the Jewish population are seniors?
   Those age 60 and up make up 47.7% of the known Jewish population in Dayton.*

5. What kind of activities are available to seniors in Dayton?
   There are many opportunities for seniors to participate in a variety of activities, including programming through the Jewish Community Center of Greater Dayton, senior learning through the University of Dayton, Kettering Rec Center, Vandalia Rec Center, Silver Sneakers, Lathrem Senior Center, and more.

6. What is the average home cost in Dayton?
   Average home price will vary depending on the suburb. The average home price in Harrison Township, where Beth Jacob Congregation is located, is $215,950. The average home price in Oakwood, where Chabad of Greater Dayton is located, is $272,293. If you need assisted living and skilled care, there are several facilities located close to Beth Jacob and Chabad, including Carlyle House, Brookdale Oakwood, Spring Hills Singing Woods, and Siena Woods.

7. Is there Kosher food in Dayton?
   Many basic Kosher food items can be found at local grocery and warehouse stores, including Aldi, Costco, Kroger, Meijer, and Trader Joe's. We also have a Kosher Co-op available. Additionally, wholesale Kosher meat can be ordered on demand.

8. Does Dayton have any Kosher restaurants?
   While we don't have any Kosher restaurants, we do have Kosher caterers.

9. Does Dayton have a Mikvah?
   Yes! Dayton has a beautiful Mikvah, centrally located in the suburb of Oakwood.

 Source: The Dayton Jewish Observer*
Source: zillow.com*