

HILLEL ACADEMY OF PITTSBURGH

EDUCATING & EMPOWERING THE WHOLE CHILD

Now Hiring: Teachers & Rebbeim

Grow Your Career. Inspire the Next Generation.

Hillel Academy is seeking passionate, dedicated teachers and rebbeim who are committed to excellence in Jewish education and professional growth.

Earn Your Master's While Teaching

In Partnership with Touro Graduate School of Jewish Studies

Enhance your teaching and deepen your learning through Touro's Master's Program in Jewish Studies, created for working educators at no cost to you.

Program Highlights

- Fully online (live, synchronous classes)
- Separate men's and women's cohorts
- Choice of thesis or comprehensive exam
- Personalized, one-on-one access to Rabbi Klammer, Head of Program and veteran educator
- Can typically be completed in 2 years (including summers)

Flexible & Manageable Workload

- Online class once per week (≈3 hours)
- 6 credits per semester
- 30–36 credits total (depending on thesis option)
- Weekly workload is relatively light
- Includes practicum twice per semester:
- Submit a lesson plan and recorded lesson
- Receive guided feedback from faculty and peers
- Includes 2 survey courses in Jewish History

Mentorship & Professional Support Programs

Participation in The Jewish New Teacher Project and/or
Lomdei Mentorship Program
Ongoing guidance, feedback, and classroom support

Competitive Benefits at Hillel Academy

Rental Subsidy
Health Insurance
4% Retirement Match
Supportive, mission-driven community
Opportunities for professional growth & leadership
Free tuition for your children

With Learning Reimagined in Our New State-of-the-Art Campus

Join a School Where Torah, Education, and Community Thrive

Make an impact. Build your future. Grow as an educator.

Apply today to join the Hillel Academy family!

CALL (412) 521-8131 WWW.HILLELPGH.ORG INFO@HILLELPGH.ORG