

Portland Community Job Opportunities

Community Rabbi · Outreach Director · School Leadership

Portland OR Community

Your home in the Pacific Northwest!
move2pdx.com

School Leadership / Rebbe Position
Maayan Torah Day School

Maayan Torah Day School seeks a passionate educator to teach, lead, and grow with our school, with the opportunity to develop into Head of School.

Responsibilities:
- Teach Judaic studies, and develop curriculum.
- Engage with students, families, and the broader Jewish community.
- Support school growth through fundraising, recruitment, and strategic planning.

Ideal Candidate:
- Committed to Torah Day School education and student success.
- Strong communicator and community builder.
- Creative, positive, and eager to grow into a leadership role.

Benefits:
Competitive salary with full benefits, PTO, tuition remission, and professional development support.

To find out more about this position or any Portland related information please call Rabbi Daniel Borsuk at 414-232-8273

Community Rabbi
Congregation Kesser Israel

Congregation Kesser Israel, Portland's historic Orthodox synagogue, is a warm, diverse, and growing community welcoming Jews from all backgrounds. The congregation is seeking a Rabbi to guide and inspire its next stage of growth.

Responsibilities:

- Serve as the primary halachic authority (posek) for the congregation.
- Build warm, supportive relationships with individuals and families.
- Deliver Torah teachings, including Shabbos/Yom Tov drashos and weekly shiurim.
- Engage with the broader Portland community.
- Provide pastoral counseling and guidance.
- Officiate and support life-cycle events.
- Inspire and involve youth through programming.
- Collaborate with leadership to grow membership and fundraising.

Qualifications:

- Semicha from a recognized Orthodox institution
- Warm, outgoing, and inclusive personality.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills.
- Proven leadership within the shul and Jewish community.
- Passion for fostering community, learning, and spiritual connection.

Preferred:

- Musically knowledgeable, inspirational davening, and ability to enhance community ruach.
- Experience in engaging with diverse backgrounds and life stages.
- Enthusiasm for growing Jewish life in Portland.

To find out more about this position or any Portland related information please call Rabbi Dovid Gleizer at 503-421-7020

Jr. NCSY and Family Director

NCSY / Camp Kesher

POSITION SUMMARY: Serve as a role model for teens and a recruiter for Jewish programming and Camp Kesher. Provide informal Jewish education to teens that is designed to connect and inspire and ultimately empower them to become well-rounded Jewish adults. This is done through creating the culture of NCSY, which means upward movement and growth for teens and for the community. The Portland Jr. NCSY and Family Director will serve as the liaison for NCSY, building key relationships with community leaders and members. The Director will also be responsible for organizing smaller fundraising projects and assisting with larger ones.

WHAT WE ARE LOOKING FOR: Oregon NCSY is seeking a candidate who is first and foremost, a team player. Oregon NCSY staff work as one unit, and each individual person greatly contributes to the team effort. The candidate should be extremely reliable, charismatic, organized, and a go-getter. The candidate must be able to relate to teens and adults alike, and act in a professional manner.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

- Successfully recruit for and staff Camp Kesher
- Set and reach metrics and goals for the chapter (decided together with the
- Oregon Director)
- Create and implement a year-long calendar of activities, social events and
- Holiday programming. As part, you will:
  - Create, coordinate and run 5 JSU clubs at public and private schools
  - Create, coordinate and run 1 bimonthly event
  - Create, coordinate and run 2 Shabbos program a month for kids and/or families. One can be a bigger event (30-60 people) and one can be smaller (5-10 people)
  - Create, coordinate and run social events as needed
- Publicize all events through a variety of channels (social media, email, parent communication)
- Track all attendance accurately in the NCSY database
- Invite and host NCSY families for Shabbos
- Recruit for West Coast regional events
- Attend weekly meetings with the Oregon Director, Meira Spivak
- Attend 2-4 conferences and travel Shabbatons per year, as set by the regional and national directors

To find out more about this position or any Portland related information please contact Meira Spivak at
(503) 757-3037

Director of Outreach
Portland Kollel

Portland Kollel seeks an outreach couple to engage and grow the local Jewish community, reconnecting with young professionals and families, and creating meaningful learning and social opportunities.

Responsibilities:

- Lead outreach to former and new participants.
- Develop programs including events, classes, Israel trips, and individual learning.
- Collaborate with community partners and Kollel team on events, fundraisers, and community-building initiatives.

Compensation & Benefits:
Competitive salary, reimbursement for Shabbos hosting, and partial health insurance coverage.

Seize this opportunity to grow and make a real impact!

To find out more about this position or any Portland related information please call Rabbi Chanan Spivak at 503-757-3567

About Portland Oregon

Portland's vibrant Orthodox community is warm, welcoming, and close-knit, with every member playing a significant role in our kehilla. Our comprehensive infrastructure includes a child-centered school (infants–8th grade, with a high school in development), a thriving kollel with outreach division, daily learning opportunities, an award-winning NCSY chapter, kosher mikva'os, eruv, and caterers, all supported by the local vaad hakashrus. The city offers scenic beauty, mild weather, walkable parks and trails, nearby alpine skiing, the Pacific Ocean, and stunning waterfalls, making it a natural playground for all ages, alongside a robust economy with abundant job opportunities. Portland is an affordable, special place to grow yourself and your family while enjoying a full and vibrant Jewish life.