Our West Hartford

Where rich Jewish life, affordable living, a robust job market and a warm and welcoming community all come together!

Located in the scenic suburb of CT's capital, West Hartford offers the best of both worlds: warm and inviting small-town feel, coupled with all the amenities of a big city and Jewish community.

3 BR homes within the eruv (with spacious backyards) start at $350K, with apartments and rentals also available near our shuls. Our cost of living is low, while salaries remain comparative with major metropolitan centers. Job opportunities are abundant. Average commute time? 7 minutes; 12 minutes with traffic. Not too bad, right?

Our community boasts a rich and diverse Jewish life with vibrant shuls, strong adult educational opportunities, a wealth of social programs and a robust Jewish communal infrastructure: JCC, Jewish Federation, mikveh, eruv and so much more. Let's not forget plenty of Kosher food: bakeries, deli, takeout, pizza, sushi, catering, and much more!

Our stellar New England Jewish Academy (N-12th grade) boasts the most competitive tuition initiative in the country.

The metro-Hartford region hosts the nation's oldest art museum, over a dozen regional theaters, a cutting-edge children's science museum, and wonderful hiking and biking trails minutes from town. With lots of parks and activities for families, fun and lifelong memories during all four seasons!

Young Israel of West Hartford

More than just a shul, the Young Israel of West Hartford is a vibrant, warm and dynamic Orthodox community serving the spiritual, educational, and social needs of our members and the Greater Hartford community. Committed to strengthening our connection to Torah, tradition, and the State of Israel, Young Israel inspires personal growth and social responsibility while cultivating a community of warmth, kindness, prayer and vibrant Jewish living.
