| 28 | 12/19/2021 | Radio clip from KIRO-AM (Radio) at 2021-12-19 17:21:19.000 | KIRO-AM        | Fire coffee can tire coffee a little edge of smoke that you get whiskey called high West campfire whiskey and it's it's the same idea that kind of PD Smoky Yeah quality about it stronger than this much stronger again nature O what else you got okay so these this is a company called walled in lane up North and Langley and this is a this one Here's a balsamic a Mandarin fig balsamic vinegar, then this is one of their olive oils it's garlic and scallion olive oil by 3 or 4 Beach on the ball something olive oil. They have as such but they've blended beautiful flavors in a really high quality all-natural product and you could see made it into this amazing notable package. I think you see it the bottles actually stack on top of each other in a nice gift pack so that makes a great food gift by two or 3 these they also come together to create so they've done they've brought great food, great are together in a way that's really kind of cool. Awesome. You have a bag, a pastor there and I'm your bag possibly been out there now for what like gifted Kyle bag pasta for maybe 40 years. What makes a good bag passed because it's sometimes they sit on the shelf. A longtime where they're not hype, you know, sealed properly I really get stale or so I think the thing you said, Tom, that probably the key here personal they're starting with great natural ingredients right is an orca. Org, a silent company local goods and but on top of that, since their small and were small, we're able to rip through the throwing much quicker. And so it's I serve that in my own home I absolutely love it. My wife loves it and they've got maybe 5 or 6 different varieties. So when it comes back to food gifting, something like that paired up with a beautiful sauce or, you know, sometimes people throw smoke Sam, it is you make up smoke 7 possible how did a really easy. I like this because it's tough enough to hold up to a bag you know sometimes use ends up in little pieces Yeah that's that's often the problem is is right boss ties by the time we get |

| 76 | 12/13/2021 | Atlanta Eats Daily Special | WPCH-TV | my most popular cocktail. For our smoked old fashioned, I start with a plank board. I prefer to use maple, I think it gives the best flavor to the glass. So we smoke the board, and turn the glass upside down and let that smoke infuse into the glass. It really adds to the flavor of the old fashioned. And while that's doing that, then I mix the cocktail. I make homemade bitters for it, house simple syrup and I use, typically, High West Double Rye, and then once I've stirred it, I use a king spear, pour it into the glass, and then I do a flamed orange and a black cherry. And this is our smoked old fashioned. - They're mixologists. It's not just like a bunch of people pouring stuff in a cup. So that makes it fun. (upbeat music) - Well it was my first time, and I absolutely loved it. I felt like I was at home here. - I think that's something that my brother and I have wanted to create from the beginning. We wanted to always have a warm feel to it, people can come and feel like they're not going out, it's not a sterile environment. We want them to have a very good experience across the board. Great food, great service. Most people are hiring a babysitter to come. They're spending money, they've taken their time out of their day. They've planned this. And they don't get many opportunities to do this. So what we try to do is, we want to make sure that everybody who leaves here is a satisfied customer. - I feel like it's a very cozy, inviting environment. The moment you walk in, just the ambience, it makes you feel really comfortable and glad you came. (upbeat music) - [Steak] Diners are going wild over this next spot, when we come back. Read my eyes. It is such a powerful insight and it's an insight, both about the brain as well as the way systemic biology works. We know that the regulation of our genes epigenetics the science of how our genes are regulated is very much influenced by many different factors including our social experiences our demeanor our emotions and all of that can be harnessed for the good and a lot of the time this plasticity is being hijacked, if you will, by forces around us over which we have very little control and often of which we are only dimly aware the kinds of actions that fee Vick was describing are intentional actions that we can be taking that can promote plasticity in a very positive way. And so I think that if we can take from this tragedy of the pandemic this insight about these significance of plasticity in harnessing it for our own well-being. I think that it will really have long-term beneficial consequences after a short break. You need to do more or on study and even do more clinical trial fluctuating demand is also a challenge for test makers a year ago. Abbott, one of the country's earliest makers of over-the-counter tests rush to set up to US factories in a fraction of the time it would normally take but by early this summer demand plummeted, an avid shutdown is Illinois factory only to reopen it again in the fall as a new COVID search fuel demand. Meanwhile, the lack of steady supply makes it hard to include testing in public policy. Elizabeth Stewart is a public health professor at Johns Hopkins with more tests. She says school children exposed to COVID could test daily instead of having to quarantine and I've been pushing in public schools on this and I will say it's been hard to push on it because of supply problems they sort of say, we just can't get enough tests to implement that Stewart says the highly anticipated anti-viral drugs from Pfizer and Merck will make rapid testing even more important, knowing that you're infected the COVID quickly can help make sure you get the right treatment. Some of the new therapies are really most effective taken early in the course of the disease experts say that may prove the most promising used for at home I'm testing in the US. They don't trust information coming from these sources, some of them think that the media is public information that is tainted about vaccines or that the Government is promoting shady interest that are Associated with vaccines is some of this disinformation is actually coming from Western Europe, you know, countries like Germany and Austria where there are influential anti-vaxxer movements and speaking of Austria. Earlier this month, the Government there said all adults must be vaccinated by February. Or they could face thousands of dollars and fines trying to what's the sense you get now as to whether the what I call the ultimatums on vaccines, seems to be working. Initial reports show that they probably are working that they seem to be working in Greece, the number of vaccination appointments is crippled in Austria, despite major protest vaccination covered to surged in the last month and even Germany is talking about a vaccine mandate. Now, I think what's happening is that European governments really want to get ahead of the Ami, Karen variant of COVID and, you know, they're saying, look, scientists a vaccination is still the best shield against serious illness. | 139 | 12/1/2021 | Radio clip from KUER 90.1, NPR Utah at 2021-12-01 05:40:05.000 | KUER-FM    | been as widely criticized as wrong and even egregiously wrong AS Roe versus Wade, Cooper says that Roe is as wrong as the court's decision and 18 96 allowing segregation of the races, a decision that took more than a half-century to reverse in my view league justices of the court taken oath to protect and defend the constitution not their presidents and he says the text history and tradition of the 14th Amendment does not support any right to abortion. How could it he asks when at the time the Amendment was ratified in 18 68 30 out of 37 States banned abortion Riggelman counters that the 14th Amendment is focused on life after birth and others have noted it guarantees rights to those quote born or naturalized in the United States. There is the explicit protection for liberty in section one of the 14th Amendment, the constitution also doesn't mention the words marriage or contraception or intimate relationships and all of those have been protected by the court under the liberty clause including the ability to make basic decisions about our bodies for over 100 years. What's critical to remember Riggelman argues is that the court has long said that a woman's liberty interests are unique when it comes to pregnancy her body and her health is deeply affected by pregnancy as is the course of her life as Cooper sees it, if the court overturns Roe even without explicitly saying so the country will return to the natural order of things as the founders intended Riggelman however says the result would be chaos with about half the States poised to either ban abortion entirely or ban it at extremely early points in pregnancy. Limited to 4 persons not one parent and he goes on to write that his family of 4 stay for free in an apartment listed at 2000 $ some month for two months while his daughter was treated, and it was staffed full-time by Saint Jude employees and groceries recovered to did you talk to any parents like this father who had a positive experience at St. Jude and how do you respond was message sure we did it. Not every family's experiences the same I think that's fair to say that fathers not quite correct the if you read St. Jude's guidelines for families. Housing is for one parent now you can House up to 4 additional people in housing. But for families who are not together or to force parents, which is a large percentage of this country That benefit does not extend to the second parent and so we talked to a lot of families who are in this position. So, you know, that's true, to an extent but but not true for every family that goes to Saint Jude well Here's part of the statement St Jude provided us to read on air today quote we have stay true to the promise we were founded on and no family ever receives a bill from Saint Jude for treatment, travel, housing or food. We continue to provide additional services to offset the financial pressures and burdens on patient families based on their ongoing feedback and we share that information, transparently with our patient families and on our website. So I'll use my own library as an example because it's fairly typical in the past, we would charge 10 cents a day which sounds reasonable, unless you have 20 picture books checked out and right there late by a week or two weeks what would happen is at the point where a patron owed 10 dollars or more they no longer have access to materials in the library. They're just blocked and so what we saw happening was people who had disposable income would come in and they would pay their 10 dollars are there 20 dollars are there 50 dollars or whatever it might be, and they would go on with their lives and those who don't have that money available to them would not come back. That's where you see it really add up and really impact people's lives. And especially the people we want to serve most Here's more from Don Wasik from the Ted stage in libraries across the country that charge fines the poorest neighborhoods have the most number of people blocked from use in fact the Colorado state library was so worried about this. They published a White paper and they stated unequivocally that it's the fear of fines keeps poor families out of libraries books, level the playing field by exposing children of every socio-economic background two words at the library. We are for programs for adults on computer classes and job skills training business start-ups we do all this great work for our community members and at the same time we counteract it by charging fines and fees of our patrons now why would we continue to operate under a model that hurts our most vulnerable patrons the most so what would you prefer to see I would prefer to see late fees go away entirely altogether altogether everywhere just no more what we've done here in lacrosse, and what a lot of these libraries that are eliminating finds now are doing is we've said we're not going to charge you any late |

Mentally, it's not good for you physically it's not good for you, socially. So I think that's the simplest thing to do is to get up and move regularly and there are simple tips you know when you're taking a phone call. Get up and move around when you're doing this, don't sit down you can take it standing I know it's unusual to take voice calls these days. But nonetheless, you could do this if it if at all possible, stop using your car for short trips your environment mice allow you to move around on forced to do that if you can, at all, but those are the kinds of things that you really need to to try and do become a little bit obsessive about step counting and try and engage in regular movement right throughout the day that Shane O'Meara, a professor of experimental brain research at Trinity college Dublin. I'm lewis Cavani President Biden has ordered the release of oil from the nation's strategic Petroleum Reserve. The goal is to help ease rising fuel prices. Npr's Jeff Brady tells us consumers have been waiting for relief on prices as the triple a estimates the price at the pump is twice what it was a year ago. The President is feeling pressure to do something because Democrats are worried, especially going into the midterm elections next year with these high gasoline prices. The administration says this is a short-term solution a bridge to get the country past this period of high prices now and to the future in a couple of months when supply will more closely match demand and prices should come back down. Npr's Jeff Brady the US is taking this step. At the same time, the UK, India, Japan and South Korea are taking parallel actions the Biden administration is monitoring events in Waukesha, Wisconsin, where a suspect is under arrest and authorities are preparing to charge him with 5 counts of homicide. Police say Darryl Brooks Jr had left a domestic disturbance when he drove his car into a Sunday Christmas parade vice President Kamala Harris told reporters. We do not yet have all the details, but we do know that there are 5 families who have lost loved ones. We know that at least 40 people have been injured and we know that entire community is grieving on wall Street the dow down 23 . this is NPR in Brunswick, georgia today. Do you know that part of the story Yeah Yeah so he said of his whole life in the military. That was his career and I just know what he did towards the last years of his life. He was the administrator at the military hospital in Bombay, now called Mumbai so he Retired as hospital administrator what my great-grandfather was really for me it was really impressive about him is this is the 19 twenty's he insisted that all his sons get educated at least he tried to get them all the way to be educated to a PhD level or medical doctor look so he had 5 sons and my grandfather was Alderson he paid for him and his wife to go to the UK in the 1980s, he could get his PhD given that these records led to your knowing of your great grandfathers role in World war one, given that they were in a basement in Pakistan gathering dust. I know the database just went live, but what is it doing to the understanding across the Indian diaspora of the role played by the country soldiers in World war one, it's surprising how few Indians of our generation are aware of what big part the Indian army played in or one I had some I there because we're interested in history but across the Indian task for you hear a lot of people saying they're very proud of the marshal tradition of job E soldiers and a lot of the Indian army was recruited from the paint job. The United for job and then he also here other people saying all these people to serve the predation they were used by the British but I always respond back saying these people they weren't use about British they use a British for their own advantage they use the opportunities |

And so particularly though M. What was your question particular particular I'm wondering what kind of experience. Judges have to have to sit on the bench sure so it's fairly minimal. They do have to have practice law in most States, there are some exceptions of look lower court judges who don't need to be license or it don't need to have been former attorneys but most do need to have practice law price offered period of years, typically at least 5 or more. We have a certain age but typically they all are. And indeed, judges judges I give the judges judge Cornell's point I mean did they work very hard and I've respect for most judges greatly but they do differ from the general public. They tend because of these requirements or whatnot, they tend to be a bit older they tend to be a bit richer. So there are some important distinctions there. But in terms of A sort of uniform level of experience across the country. There really isn't. Besides, typically you have to have a license to practice law just were dealt. How are you assigned cases so generally the system track or judge system is set up where you the judges select among their from their own a presiding judge and that judge than makes the assignments and there's a lot that goes into it. Some of its political and if you really bodies with the presiding judge. You get the assignment you want if you're a baby judge and as I was when I came on the Superior court but I was elected, then you get an assignment that most judges don't want in my instance it was family court which is in my view, probably the most important Simon a judge can have because you're deciding who gets the kids you decide in child support how people live |

It's really important to makes bourbon, Rye rise as you know, spicy on it awe says the sweetness. So that's really good. Are you a dash of Angus Torah and then I use a dash of something else orange bitters of actually tried chocolate bitters, which is great, cardamom, another flavor. The other thing is dashes depends on the bottle you know some dashes are not the same as others so you have to kind of figure that out on your own. I take a Boston Shaker I take the small Cupp I put one cube of pure cane sugar or Demmer sugar in it not White sugar. I put the dashes of the bidders in that I had a just a splash water like no more than a tablespoon and I model it right there in the big Shaker I used very large ice cubes because if used the ones that come out of your freezer drawer there they'll just melt too fast so that's important. Ok. Add the liquor then put the Bustan Shaker together. You don't want to shake a too much like he would with normal trying to shake. I'd say 10 to 15 shakes pop it open and strain it into a double fashion glass I like to use medium cubes. You know you know price iam. I like to use media I don't want to melt. I mean, I watch people drinking after half an hour's water I think a cocktail should be consumed fairly quickly. You know, no more than 10 minutes because after that, things start to go South. The last thing I mentioned is, I think it's important to slightly diluted because over 85% proof you only taste the alcohol you can taste the other flavors a |

| 270 | 11/2/2021 | Live PC Give PC continues to raise funds for local nonprofits                | Park Record, The     | For the past 11 years, nonprofits that serve the greater Park City area have felt nothing but love and support through the Park City Community Foundation's Live PC Give PC 24-hour fundraiser.[CR-LF][CR-LF]Last year, even during one of the most challenging periods of the COVID-19 pandemic, Live PC Give PC attracted 6,000 unique donors who gave $3.48 million to 113 local nonprofits, said Christine Coleman, vice president of communications and marketing for Park City Community Foundation.[CR-LF][CR-LF] "Last year, we grew by 1,000 donors and $1 million dollars, which, I believe, is the biggest jump we've had since we started," Coleman said. "I think it's a reflection of our community truly seeing the benefit they get from the nonprofits here, because the organizations touch so many people, whether they are biking, hiking, going to the museum or attending fine art performances, receiving health and mental health services or housing, food and other types of assistance."[CR-LF][CR-LF] The Park City Community Foundation's goal for this year's fundraiser, scheduled to kick off at 12 a.m. Friday, Nov. 5, and end 24 hours later, is 6,500 unique donors, according to Coleman.[CR-LF][CR-LF] "It's a jump from last year, but we are truly hoping the whole community â€” old, young, from any background or anywhere â€” will come together to participate," she said. "People can give online to the nonprofits that they feel passionate about. Gifts can be as small as $5, which are just as meaningful as a $500 or $5,000 gift, because it's all about participation."[CR-LF][CR-LF] The participation also boosts the day of giving's friendly competition in the form of leaderboards, according to Coleman.[CR-LF][CR-LF] These leaderboards are divided into seven categories:[CR-LF][CR-LF] All-Nonprofits[CR-LF][CR-LF] People & Advocacy[CR-LF][CR-LF] Arts & Culture[CR-LF][CR-LF] Education[CR-LF][CR-LF] Keep on Moving[CR-LF][CR-LF] Healthy |

Mike Kelly used political donations to pay for four visits to an exclusive resort known for its downhill events and picturesque views of the greater Rocky Mountains.[CR-LF][CR-LF]In all, the trips totaled nearly $52,000 at the St. Regis Deer Valley retreat, where balconies, sprawling sun decks and inground pools face snow-capped mountains and lush evergreens.[CR-LF][CR-LF]But Mr. Kelly did not limit his travel to just the five-star vacation spot during the 2020 election cycle. From the same pool of funds, he spent $19,000 at Georgia's Sea Island where 5 miles of private beach line the small isle of upscale cottages and golf greens.[CR-LF][CR-LF]The GOP House member from the working-class area of Western Pennsylvania dipped into his leadership PAC - a pot of money that's supposed to help political allies - and spent about $160,000 on airfare, trendy resorts and other expenses that are now the focus of an ethics complaint to a government panel that investigates lawmakers for misconduct.[CR-LF][CR-LF]Mr. Kelly is not alone in making controversial expenditures using the special pool of money that experts say has turned into a "slush fund" that allows candidates to spend without the traditional campaign limits.[CR-LF][CR-LF]The Campaign Legal Center, a Washington finance watchdog, filed complaints with the Office of Congressional Ethics against Mr. Kelly and two other representatives, Seth Moulton, D-Mass., and Gwen Moore, D-Wisc., raising critical questions about whether the lawmakers abused their positions and violated ethics rules.[CR-LF][CR-LF]In each case, the watchdog group highlighted expenses that appeared to veer beyond what the political action committee funds were designed to support - including expensive restaurants, StubHub tickets and travel across the country.[CR-LF][CR-LF]"The fact that voters can see large sums of money spent for lavish |

Hundreds of kids die often over nothing in particular it sees little turf wars and things like that. Hundreds of kids die to the pointed in that city. When you're reading the Sunday paper and you learned that 3 people were killed over the weekend in Chicago a little part of you think they were black kids and that little part of you is always correct those things did not happen in a White neighborhood, they may have happened the Latino neighborhood. But they did not happen in the White neighborhood. They did not happen in Asian neighborhood and not even a poor Asian neighborhood so that is a problem in the black community tracing why that is. There are all sorts things you can trace it to black pathology is not one of them. However, there is a disparity in Chicago every summer. Many, many, many more black kids die and all of them essentially at the hands of one another, then White kids now somebody like even Kennedy says when I see disparities. I see racism. Okay, what do you do with that. Now, you can talk about the racism that led in a kind of Rube Goldberg mousetrap fashion to what those kids are doing last summer and this summer coming as opposed to what the kids in the White neighborhoods, including the working class White neighborhoods sometimes are doing. You can use. You can say that alright but racism. Now is the way that you solve that problem to go looking for racism or is it an issue of gun control and community organizations that teach people to tamp it down and any number of other things when I see disparities. I see racism and everybody class OK now that kid who got shot last weekend and those two kids who are going to get shot over in the next neighborhood next weekend DC racism there. If you do you're using such an abstract vision |

| 296 | 10/26/2021 | From powder stashes to Alta Bombs, 5 of Utah's best skiers and riders share their faves | Salt Lake Tribune, The | Editor's note A: This story is available to Salt Lake Tribune subscribers only. Thank you for supporting local journalism.[CR-LF][CR-LF]When clocking in for work requires a liftie scanning your ski pass, you probably know what you're doing and where you're going. For professional skiers and snowboarders, exploring all the terrain at their local mountain is literally on their task list.[CR-LF][CR-LF]But few of us can keep up with the Ryan Hudsons, Devin Logans and Madison Blackleys of the world. And most of us probably can't follow in their tracks, which could very well lead off a cliff or through a halfpipe. So, we asked them, along with Tim Durtschi and Brita Sigourney, to lay out - in words - the routes they take to their best days at their Utah job sites. (Not surprisingly, they all preferred to wake up to a fresh layer of snow.)[CR-LF][CR-LF]Here's what else they had to say.[CR-LF][CR-LF]Tim Durtschi, skier[CR-LF][CR-LF]Tim Durtschi spends much of his winters in the backcountry. He cultivated a reputation for turning nature's bounty into his own personal terrain park while living in Salt Lake City from the mid-2000s, when he attended the University of Utah, until he moved to Wyoming in 2019. Throughout his career, he's appeared in close to 20 ski films, including Teton Gravity Research's latest flick, "Stoke the Fire."[CR-LF][CR-LF]But even backcountry specialists appreciate a lift to the top sometimes - especially on a powder day. So when the snow starts flying, he sets his alarm and sets out for a bell-to-bell session at Alta.[CR-LF][CR-LF]How it starts Durtschi puts a new spin on the backcountry phrase "earn your turns."[CR-LF][CR-LF]"I like to show up early and wait in the Wildcat chair (line), especially on a pow day," he said. It can be a long wait, even once he's loaded. The Wildcat, installed in 1959, is one of the oldest and slowest chairs in Utah.[CR-LF][CR-LF]"I love the old double chair. I hope they never get rid of it. | 324 | 10/20/2021 | Panel to update status of Kelly ethics probe as new complaint emerges                       | Record Herald, The                | The House Committee on Ethics has until Thursday to announce a course of action in its probe of U.S. Rep. Mike Kelly, the Butler Republican who represents a portion of northwestern Pennsylvania in Congress.[CR-LF][CR-LF]The committee is believed to be looking into whether Kelly's wife, Victoria Kelly, used insider information from the six-term congressman to buy between $15,000 and $50,000 of stock in a steel company days before the U.S. Department of Commerce announced an investigation into foreign imports of steel that adversely affected the business. Kelly had been advocating for the federal probe on behalf of the company.[CR-LF][CR-LF] The independent, nonpartisan Office of Congressional Ethics reviewed the stock purchase and referred the matter to the House ethics panel this summer for further consideration.[CR-LF][CR-LF] As one investigation comes into clearer focus this week, a second probe into Kelly's spending could soon be getting underway.[CR-LF][CR-LF] A nonpartisan, nonprofit watchdog group this month asked the Office of Congressional Ethics to investigate Kelly and two House Democrats, among others, for separate claims of misusing funds in their leadership PACs.[CR-LF][CR-LF] The Campaign Legal Center and the group Issue One, in a joint report that examined the spending of every leadership PAC affiliated with a member of Congress during the 2019-2020 election cycle, found that Kelly used only 22% percent of his PAC's $205,000 in expenditures toward political activity.[CR-LF][CR-LF] It found that two other House members, Democratic Reps. Gwen Moore, D-Wisconsin, and Seth Moulton, D-Massachusetts, spent just 12% and 8% respectively on political activity.[CR-LF][CR-LF] By contrast, Kelly's colleague, U.S. Rep. Glenn Thompson, R-15th Dist., whose district included Erie County from 2013 to 2018, spent $256,909 from his leadership PAC in 2019 and 2020, of |

| 354 | 10/12/2021 | Wild Ember BBQ pops up for curbside and catering services at Deer Valley | Park Record, The      | Chef Matthew Harris wants to share some of his favorite southern dishes he grew up eating, so he came up with the idea for the Wild Ember BBQ pop-up.[CR-LF][CR-LF]The new offering opened a few weeks ago for curbside and catering services at the Snow Park Residences at St. Regis Deer Valley, and although there is no dining room or seating available at this time, there are future plans for a brick-and-mortar location, according to Harris.[CR-LF][CR-LF] Wild Ember features a menu that includes pulled Berkshire pork, smoked chicken, beef shoulder, pimento cheddar mac and cheese, passion fruit baked beans, collard greens and Brussels sprout apple slaw.[CR-LF][CR-LF] Guests can choose from an array of options for individual meals, family picnics and catering, he said.[CR-LF][CR-LF] "I wanted to do something here in Park City that would bring in a lot of food and culture that I grew up with," said Harris, a long-time practitioner of slow food and farm-to-table cuisine. "Like everyone who grew up in the South, I ate a lot of barbecue, and I wanted to bring that out west and do my own interpretation of it." [CR-LF][CR-LF] The meats and sides are available by the portion, and paired with Harris' own signature sauces such as cherry ancho and whiskey peach, he said.[CR-LF][CR-LF] In addition, Wild Embers offers desserts "triple chocolate brownies, Rice Krispie cookies and Wasatch Creamery ice cream.[CR-LF][CR-LF] While Wild Ember is described as "upscale smokehouse," Harris wanted to keep things casual and approachable for everyone.[CR-LF][CR-LF] "It's priced accordingly, and the menu is full of things that people can just come and grab for dinner," he said.[CR-LF][CR-LF] Like Harris' other restaurants that include Tupelo Park City "which will reopen later this fall" RIME Raw Bar, and RIME Seafood &amp; Steak and The St. Regis Bar at The St. Regis Deer Valley, the restaurateur is working with as many local producers as he can for the vegetables and ...by Blue Diamond Resorts under the Autograph Collection name[CR-LF][CR-LF]The High West Distillery and The Lodge at Blue Sky in Park City, Utah, have teamed up... |

We have a good time offir clearing but we'll so you may hear great science, facts like that. If you have already made a mistake don't do it. And so, you know, go online give your support become sustained today offered just 6 $ among 10 $ bump you do what fits your budget. We have a great challenge grant state 35000 $ some of the Laureus echoes Foundation but we won't get there without you. So instead of thinking we need 7 to you by 7 we've seen a few here these next couple minutes we need 39 to be exact. And I know that feels like a lot, but not for one listeners on Friday. I can totally do off to our program there expensive I mean just morning edition. All things considered alone is upwards of 300000 dollars. Add one a day. And science Friday and you know it's a those programs cost a lot of money. We don't expect any one of us 30 carried out load Union expect 100 listeners to do that. We are just looking for 39 view this hour to help us meet that goal. And Yes, we're so grateful that George S and Laura story Eccles Foundation is offering 35000 $ to encourage this this goal today we'd like to have 700 listeners give in some amount by 7 o'clock we do it a little bit by a little bit my remedies to say many hands make like make light work and it is very true. We also the burdens of the clues the station's costs. That means thousands of people are standing behind us telling us they support and independent community based news source like KUER and we have so many ways to say thank you and Here's one great salt Lake meet great soft way make a donation to KBR right now just 10 Bucks a month. It's a special day fund drive because for 10 $ a month you will receive a key we are retro mug and a £ of coffee from Hugo coffee. It's a great great way to show support for the station and get caffeinated same time so please go to KBR dot org or call us at 8 one fighting won 5 3 7. I love this. Hugo Koffi donates a portion of their profits to help rescue animals. They have been responsible for finding forever homes for 500 animals. He goes, named after the founder Claudius rescue pop not for profit, but to make a difference make Utah a nice place to be. You can donate KUER dot org or speak to us at 8.1 5.1 5.3 7. Our our back on the takeaway, I'm Melissa Harris Perry had been talking to Dr. Monica Macklemore, associate professor of family health care nursing at the University of California San Francisco about women's health and reproductive Justice OK my to my next question is how does abortion and axes to safely terminate pregnancies fit into this broader understanding of maternal health care, we know from the national polling that Americans has been supportive of abortion rights you know and and our support of people being able to have timely and safe and community-based abortion care for the time ever in a Supreme court case that potentially could overturn Roe versus Wade has implications for KC and obvious felled the gay marriage decision. There is a black maternal health amicus brief that was led by the national birth would be collaborative and our good friend and colleague Dr. JoAnn Crupi arian hurt he was really happy to sign onto this to make the argument that that's grounded in reproductive Justice that the States right so this is specific to the taste in Mississippi. This is not fromhe human rights means were wildly autonomy of individuals. And so this issue around abortion is an issue of brown's field right this issue around viability is |

And as we said, we got plenty of ways to say thank you. We have social good partner with the International rescue Committee but today only I believe we have a mugging coffee packets for just 10 $ a month becoming sustained or you get a nice swanky KUER mug which some Hugo coffee the roll over breakfast when they get out of bed before you tune into Kate you are we're we should describe this Mike a little bit. So this was our retro labeled the logo that we did for last fund drive and we put that on our our Sweat shirt at the time but it's great it's red and the mug is why is this cool old kind of 70s style we did this in honor of our of our anniversary at that's on them. But on the backside it's the old NPR logo as so it's these are good-looking mugs you should go online. Take a look. See what they get. Sara, of course, how do you do that well you go online that website is KUER DOD or of course you can also give us a call at 8.5 1.8 3 7 again every donation counts, thank you so much for your support 2021 has been the worst year for abortion rights since Roe v. Wade, full stop. But even as state legislatures and limit and restrict access reproductive rights advocates are fighting back is such an important step to protect access to safe and legal abortion across the country. The majority of Americans actually occurred. Access to safe and legal abortion right there's no state or nation we're banning abortion is popular I'm Melissa Harris Perry and today on the takeaway for Tuesday, September 28. We'll speak with the President of planned Parenthood about strategy for meeting this critical moment. Also on the show. We look at the mom, the bus and the crisis black maternal health and we talk about the ways that next communities are organizing to meet the reproductive health needs of the community and the truth is, of course |

We just need to hear from 6 more people this hour 6 more people in the next 6 minutes I know two people particular listen right now. Austin in Atlanta and Carl Lane in Iowa if you're tuning and well by I donate going on cave where about board pledge your support not just for the work that I do, but for the work the station, guys, we have a great newsroom we have reporters like let Superior down missing George selling Hudson and we mean to cover politics John Reed covers education we cover statewide news and out for both view hasn't when they're listening. Carmelo Anthony will be in a segment coming up here shortly on one day so what better time is to pledge support to KUER even if you have a state even if you're in salt Lake city are awed innocence words no matter where you're listening. Give us a call or go online to donate you know your two friends they're not only to the need to donate ad that's one of the things I really love about this model is that it's not one person. It's not even 100 person people excuse me there we ask to bear this burden alone. In fact, we're glad that the book our budget comes from thousands and truly thousands of listeners of you who come through for us every year. So thank you so much. And that also means that thousands of people are standing behind us. They're telling us that they support an independent community based news source like KUER one listener Taylor this is why she supports the station my name's Taylor I'm age 27 year-old environmental engineer working in salt Lake city. I wasn't really in politics honestly before KD here you can get your media or your news from different sources. But I feel like Kate you are really helps to |

So that's kind of a two for one thank you gift, a great deal again. Only about a 100 of those packages and then the mugs gone 8.5 8.5 8 3 7. That's for sustaining membership of 10 $ a month Yeah and for you, animal dog lovers out there, Hugo's coffee has a great story behind it. The owner hehe named after his former has rescued pup and so they they do a lot for rescue animals across the state, helping people without so if that means something to you, you can help the amount by donating again the numbers 8.5 8.5 8.7 or you can go to KUER dot org and so just ahead, we're going into one day and you know how important that shows to dive into the national conversation, you know, some really important context about all the news of the day so it isn't you know, how important it is for NPR and key we are to continue doing this work. We can't do without you. So again, please call 8 one 5.1 5.3 7 or go online KUER dot org. This is one day I'm Jenn White in Washington. Let's start with a growing problem about something you can't see but we still rely on natural gas. More of us than ever rely on it to heat our homes and power our businesses but supplies are low around the World nations are trying to outbid each other for the dwindling resources and the crunch will get worse when temperatures drop my concern is that we will not be able to have enough gas to use proceeding not for power in parts of Europe and in a cold winter when after-action gas for heating. That is something it's not just about geopolitical games or markets its touches everybody's lives that Amos Hochstein, he's the US state Department senior adviser for energy security in Europe storage facilities are at historically low levels for this time of year. It's really remarkable during each fund drive when we select social good partnership that is always the most popular thank you gift by a landslide in this drive you can support but key we are in the International rescue Committee by selecting them as a thank you gift 8 one 5. They won 5.3 7 is our phone number or you can go online to KU E R died or 80% of our funding actually comes from the local community that means you are listeners from businesses from local foundations and organizations. We do have an incentive from one of those community members this morning. We had a really popular retro mud last spring and we only have about out 100 of those months laugh so we paired with Hugo's coffee Roasters in Park city to offer a special limited time package you get the retro mud and a bag of Hugo's coffee for sustaining membership of 10 dollars a month so 8.5 8.5 8.7 or KUER dot org if you want to take us up on that. We need 11 more callers by 10 o'clock to help us me this 3000 $ challenge grant from the KUER advisory board in memory of joy to live so please call us now Yeah we think we can get it if you're familiar with Hugo's coffee is named after the founders rescue dog Hugo in the coffee shop holds weekly fundraisers for animal rescues they donated thousands of dollars and helped thousands hundreds and thousands of dogs get adopted. So if that kind of sit if that kind of mission, you can get behind. You can help us do that by going to KUER dot org or by calling it a 1.8 1.8 3 7 and from American Jewish World service so |

| 478 | 8/24/2021 | Atlanta Eats Daily Special   | WPCH-TV            | the glass, it really adds to the flavor of the old fashioned and while that's doing that then I mix the cocktail. I make homemade bitters for it, house simple syrup and I use typically High West Double Rye. And then once I've stirred it and I use a kinosphere, pour it into the glass and then I do a flamed orange and a black cherry. And this is our smoked old fashioned. - They're mixologists, it's not just like a bunch of people pouring stuff in a cup. So that makes it fun. - Well it was my first time and I absolutely loved it. I felt like I was at home here. - I think that's something that my brother and I, you know, wanted to created from the beginning, is we wanted to always have a warm feel to it, where people can come and feel like they're not going out and it's not a sterile environment and they're having a good experience across the board, great food, great service. You know most people are hiring a babysitter to come, they're spending money, they're taking their time, out of their day, they planned this and they don't get many opportunities to do this so what we try to do is we want to make sure that everybody who leaves here is a satisfied customer. - I feel like it's a cozy, inviting environment, the moment you walk in, just the ambiance, it makes you feel really comfortable and glad you came. - [Narrator] More yumminess coming right up on the Atlanta Eats Daily Special. - [Narrator] Atlanta Eats is back. - The roars you're hearing behind me are from some of the finest automobiles in the world. Here at the North American headquarters of Porsche, you can have the ultimate driving experience or the ultimate dining experience. Restaurant 356 has an incredible seasonal menu but the views are like nothing you've ever seen before. This is a whole different kind of fast food. - It's got an upscale feel but it's really kind of casual. - It's very modern, very upscale but the views are fantastic. - They have a really great atmosphere here. - You are welcome here and I will welcome you. |

| 504 | 8/10/2021 | Atlanta Eats Daily Special   | WPCH-TV                | a number of times so we recognize a lot of the labels here and that's important. - I'm a huge craft beer person and they just traded out their Miller Lite for some Scofflaw Basement IPA and it's my favorite. - So Janice does an excellent job adjusting with the seasons like the menu does with her cocktails. - As far as cocktails, the old fashioned is probably my most popular cocktail. For a Smith Old Fashioned I start with a plank board, I prefer to use maple, I think gives the best flavor to the glass so we smoke the board and turn the glass upside down and let that smoke infuse into the glass, it really adds to the flavor of the old fashioned and while that's doing that then I mix the cocktail. I make homemade bitters for it, house simple syrup and I use typically High West Double Rye. And then once I've stirred it and I use a kinosphere, pour it into the glass and then I do a flamed orange and a black cherry. And this is our smoked old fashioned. - They're mixologists, it's not just like a bunch of people pouring stuff in a cup. So that makes it fun. - Well it was my first time and I absolutely loved it. I felt like I was at home here. - I think that's something that my brother and I, you know, wanted to create from the beginning, is we wanted to always have a warm feel to it, where people can come and feel like they're not going out and it's not a sterile environment and they're having a good experience across the board, great food, great service. You know most people are hiring a babysitter to come, they're spending money, they're taking their time, out of their day, they planned this and they don't get many opportunities to do this so what we try to do is we want to make sure that everybody who leaves here is a satisfied customer. - I feel like it's a cozy, inviting environment, the moment you walk in, just the ambiance, it makes you feel really comfortable and glad you came. - [Narrator] More yumminess coming right up on the Atlanta Eats Daily Special. - [Narrator] Atlanta Eats is ...worked for Epic Brewing; and Kirk Terashima, the executive chef at Park City's Yuki Yama Sushi.[CR-LF][CR-LF][Subscribe to our weekly Utah Eats... |

| 532 | 8/2/2021  | FOX 13's Good Day Utah  | KSTU-TV                     | the beehive state yesterday this is a live look at our old mill you're seeing a whole lot of clouds out there roads. Roads don't look too bad right now but we are seeing some light showers even in the salt lake valley this morning we're in the upper 60 so it's refreshing to start off our morning in salt lake and for many of us along the wasatch front mid to up or 60s that's the name of the game feeling better in park city the mid 50s as we zoom things out during the low 70s right now in st in st. George but we're not with the rain showers quite yet southern and central utah you've utah, you've dried out a bit but as I assume you mean you're going to see a lot of that rain is contained to the mountains but you're seeing that on the east side of the salt lake valley some light light rain showers a little bit of drizzle seeing some of that in your point of the mountain as you're traveling long 15 light rain showers in provo right now and also in areas of park city very light a lot of it is just drizzle but coming down a little bit more moderately in parts of the cottonwood. So prepared for that is you're getting out the door for some slick spots with the roads here's the thing high pressure big high pressure still off to the east the east of uhz and we still have that monsoonal moisture across the state but things are going to start drying out in southwestern utah today that trough of low pressure that slid by the great basin yesterday. That's what energize the storms that we saw rock parts of the wasatch front last night and so as we go into the afternoon I mentioned we're not done with the showers and the showers and storms. Another flash flood watches going in effect and you can see it for our central mountains, our wasatch mountains mainly south of 80 and so there are going to be big concerns with flash flooding even at some of our national parks. And the bigger concern today is going to be capital report is expected. Salt lake city is reaching the mid eighties today we're going to see scattered |

I mean look at that log it's a massive log just getting tumbled down so it's beautiful to see the force of mother nature mother nature as long as you're not in the way exactly. &gt;&gt; Oh, beautiful morning we've got a lot of rain out there. Feel so good and it is coming down &gt;&gt; Coming down its calling us down cooling us down a bit as well. So looks like a lot of folks along the wasatch front your lawn is getting right now but it's also going to make things a little bit more difficult as you're getting out there on the roads this morning because we have not driven in rain for our morning commute in quite some time so be prepared for some ponding some of those spots and you can see we have moderate have moderate to heavy rain all across the salt lake valley right now a couple of areas I want to take you to. You can see a yellow some of that heavier rain stretching from east mill creek e-mail creek excuse me to salt lake and also in cottonwood heights through sandy even pushing into midvale right now and then as I zoom things out you can see some of that heavier rain is picking up stretching from leighton down to bountiful all along 15 so we'll be watching the roads for you you're at sixty seven degrees in salt lake city right now. So it's actually feeling pretty refreshing out there all along the wasatch front. Fifty six in park city 70 and twilla we'll zoom things zoom things out. You're at seventy three degrees in st george and here's kind of the change today we've got high pressure that's pushing closer to the west over the last twenty four hours we're continuing to see that moist air mass. It's continuing nulling that monsoonal moisture so |

We're going to try to keep you prepared with some of that a live look from our old milk it doesn't look like anything happening but similar to yesterday you're going to start to see some those dark storm clouds moving through later this afternoon this afternoon and early this evening for right now though it's calm and it's dry out there on there on the roads. We're in the mid eighties and salt lake city that's feeling like eighty three degrees calm breeze from the west six miles per hour and all along the wasatch front a couple degrees cooler than it was yesterday at this time eighty one in provo you're in the upper 70s in park city seventy three in evanston and we'll zoom things out. You can foreign moab in ninety two degrees in st in st. George . Here's the thing we're seeing partly cloudy skies in the north and already seeing some of those showers thunderstorms blossoming down south I want to take you to a to a couple of different areas just near sadr city right now I'm brian had we have some heavy downpours with lightning a lot of these are starting in the mountains the higher elevation. But as we go to the afternoon that is going to start flowing out into the valleys, not coming down in sadr city quite yet and then and then also we're 15 ngiht I 70 you're seeing some of the heavy downpours also in the mountains right now so we'll be tracking those storms for you throughout the next forty five minutes but high pressure it's parked right where it was yesterday just east of the rockies and because of that high pressure continuing to see that southerly flow which is pulling in that monsoonal moisture and we have this moist air overall of utah that's going to going to bring showers and thunderstorms again this afternoon in just a couple of minutes ago national weather service updated the flash potential so this is going to look different than what I showed I showed about an hour |

| 557 | 7/28/2021 | FOX 13 News Live at Noon   | KSTU-TV        | degrees in park in park city. we'll zoom things out nearing 90 in st george and mid eighties in areas like low up internal and also in rock springs high pressure still pressure still the name of the came off to the east of us and because of that flow around that high pressure continues to pull up that monsoonal moisture and that's why we have that moisture all across the state right now and so the big concern is going to be showers and thunderstorms that could lead to heavy downpours which could create flash flooding so that very moist air masses in place and it's sticking with us through the weekend. Widespread showers and thunderstorms will arrive friday saturday and sunday bringing heavy rain and gusty winds so the big thing even today flash flooding as possible so. So staying out of the slot canyons and then we'll slowly begin to dry out starting next monday. So we have an active weather pattern over the next couple of days in salt lake city will be in the low 90s today so because of those showers and those clouds it's keep us on the cooler site for this time of the year the year. So not nearing the triple digits and this is well below average. Here's the thing not everybody is showers and thunderstorms today it's going to be more hit to be more hit and miss. They'll be scattered but there is a chance that it could be wet for that evening commute with some heavy downpours at times which could lead to flash flooding things are starting to dry out in far southwestern utah but we're still seeing that there's a chance for heavy downpours throughout the afternoon, early evening upper 80s and richfield low 80s in park city and as go into the next seven days southern utah we've got another surge of moisture and by friday those chances are really picking up and this is the name of game across the state will have a chance a chance for widespread rain with cooler temperatures are down to the low 90s this weekend in southern utah drying out by tuesday as you get back to the |

| 577 | 7/25/2021 | Taste Utah   | KTVX-TV               | we re at Deer Valley Resort, taking in the cool, crisp mountain air and scenery table-side. Oh, and mid-mountain. Rime boasts an exceptional wine vault, along with an adherence to highlighting intentional producers and featuring only the finest and consciously-sourced ingredients at the center of their sophisticated plates. And much to the delight of our pallets. Next, we visit Hub and Spoke in Salt Lake City, where it feels like brunch, oh, and the weekend, every single day. Hub offers a cozy and inviting vintage diner-ish vibe, but it's definitely not your grandma's diner. This ingredient-driven kitchen is crafting dishes with ingredients from local purveyors on their mind. So when you enjoy breakfast, lunch, or dinner, you are literally tasting Utah in every single mouthwatering bite. Taste Utah is more than your typical food show. It's about local flavor, from roots, through authentically Utah restaurants. It's the people and the places that make Utah a dining destination. There's so much soil and earth to uncover and still so many great Utah restaurants to savor. We bring you the stories and we spread the love. The best thing about Utah, the views along the way, they're not bad either. We're not afraid to get our hands just a little dirty. Food is a necessity, and it's how we create it and share it and experience it together that truly shapes our community. Whether you're choosing to dine in our dining room, order to go, or get delivery, you always have a seat at this table. Are you ready to taste Utah? (soft music) Well, the St. Regis exemplifies life elevated, but also cuisine elevated. We're heading up to Rime. We're taking the funicular, which is something that is a bit of an adventure. And we're going to go meet chef Matt Harris. His history of creating and crafting amazing cuisine for us in Park City is the stuff of legends. Can't wait to see what he's creating here at the St. Regis at Rime. Chef Matt, how are you? |

This is another part of that and you know what what Trump something like I was trying to do is show the premium at part of it because this is not even those not super expensive and easy to find chunks visit say kick should be considered a premium cocktail you know this isn't like just thrown together. This is this is a premium. And we're going to see more more these kind showing you could do a home experience you know at the bars and restaurants may not love that she may not be going to bar restaurant having a bartender make your drink but you can do it home and still have a great tasting cocktail and t's like, you know, whenever you Cook something make your House you gotta Everest well RYE and you got to buy all the ingredients, even though you're just trying to, you know what my God do with a whole batch whatever if I just making it for two people. This means you don't have to buy a bottle of Lou if you don't have to buy a bottle that you don't have measured L give lunch but my gut. Here's the thing. I sent to my guy friends who were on the group taxed and the sky often that it they're like no way I could before Monday's they don't know what's going on with all the ingredients in here and I'm going to ask really don't question do I have to shake this well you don't I mean, I would make, said you don't need to shake it you can't, you know, you want to have that you can certainly put it, that if you've got a Shaker put my scenario you don't do it that way. I don't think you're going heard it but you know it. | 620 | 7/18/2021 | Taste Utah   | KTVX-TV              | we're in Salt Lake City and exploring a craft casual style restaurant. Yes, that's right I said craft casual, which means you get your food fast, but the roots of Pretty Bird are all fine dine. Chef Viet Pham leans heavily on his vast knowledge of composition and ingredients to introduce our pallets to a chicken sandwich flavor bomb of epic proportions. Next, we head to the top of historic Main Street in Park City, and we visit Riverhorse Provisions, which has some pretty big shoes to fill considering it's the sister restaurant to the sophisticated fine dining experience, at Riverhorse on Main. At Riverhorse Provisions you can expect the same great quality, a chef driven kitchen and the care you'd get at any fine dine restaurant with a little more speed. You can always enjoy your meal there or get it to go and hit the slopes. Taste Uta is more than your typical food show. It's about local flavor from roots through authentically Utah restaurants. It's the people and the places that make Utah a dining destination. There's so much soil on earth to uncover and still so many great Utah restaurants to savor. We bring in the stories and we spread the love. The best thing about Utah, the views along the way. They're not bad either. We're not afraid to get our hands, just a little dirty. Food as a necessity. It's how we create it and share it and experience it together that truly shapes our community. Whether you're choosing to dine in our dining room, order to go or get delivery. You always have a seat at this table. Are you ready to Taste Utah? Well, we're on Regent Street in Salt Lake city, and we have arrived at Pretty Bird. It is the brain child of chef of Viet Pham, |

I think so. I hope so. I mean, 6 feet is really a proxy for us to get more airflow and without understanding we start to see at least I started to see buildings really as breathing machines as long as themselves if we acknowledge and accept the fact that if buildings are basically allowing us to breathe freely, then it really becomes a question of rights that we have the basic human right to breeze and we then can demand in our policy's our codes and demand that housing is better that was that demand, how can we allow all prisons to exist the way they do institutional buildings have to be radically re thought under this rubric of the rights clean-air their right to breathe freely and I think that's it while challenging and certainly going to be difficult to redesign spaces. | 646 | 7/11/2021 | Taste Utah | KTVX-TV | it's all about community. We're at Hearth and Hill in Park City. They recently just celebrated their three-year anniversary, and we can see why. From the beginning, they've offered a sophisticated menu full of unique and ingredient driven selections, and they've been doing everything they can think of to support their customers and their staff through a very tricky 2020. Hearth and Hill is definitely cementing their cornerstone in the foundation of our Utah restaurant community. Then we highlight a classic Utah restaurant, the Soup Kitchen. Now their original location has been an intricate part of the Sugar House community of restaurants and storefronts for years, but they actually have four locations, including their Salt Lake City location, which boasts a full commissary kitchen, complete with enormous double-barreled soup kettles, and even a bakery. We're taking you behind the scenes to show you how Stuart and his team are scratch making their noodles for their crowd pleasing chicken noodle soup, as well as stirring up flavors, simmering goodness, and serving up classic soups that warm our bodies and our hearts. (bright music) Taste Utah is more than your typical food show. It's about local flavor from roots through authentically Utah restaurants. It's the people and the places that make Utah a dining destination. There's so much soil on earth to uncover, and still so many great Utah restaurants to savor. We bring you the stories and we spread the love. The best thing about Utah, the views along the way, they're not bad either. We're not afraid to get our hands just a little dirty. Food is a necessity. It's how we create it and share it and experience it together that truly shapes our community. Whether you're choosing to dine in our dining room, order to go, or get delivery, you always have a seat at this table. Are you ready to Taste Utah? |

Hearth and Hill is a restaurant that is full of Americana. They're doing lunch, they're doing dinner, they're doing brunch, and they really have innovated and adapted during this very, very trying time of COVID. We're about to meet Brooks. We're going to talk all things Hearth and Hill. Are you ready? Hey, mask up. It's never going to get old. Stay safe. Brooks, how are you? I'm well, Katy. Welcome back to Hearth and Hill. Thank you! So glad to be back here. I'm so excited to talk to you about your menu, about what's new, what's going on. As are we! Yes, we're so excited to have you back. Come with me and let's go to a table. Lead the way. Brooks, it's so nice to be sitting here inside a restaurant where both are being safe. We're wearing our masks. Hearth and Hill is doing an impeccable job of social distancing. It looks like you even have QR codes. Talk to us a little bit about lengths that you're going to make sure that people stay safe. Saying all that, I'm going to take my mask off and eat, because that's what one must do. Absolutely. Yes, please dig in. Well, we're grateful to have you. Thank you for coming up here to Park City Kimball Junction. Here at Hearth and Hill, we've really striven to be the leader of Park City and the state in terms of how to best operate a restaurant during COVID. We have little signs on our tables to ask our guests to have their mask on when associates are at the table, so that our staff can continue to be as healthy and safe as possible during these times. We ensure that if they were to get sick, that they will get paid for the two weeks that they're off. And then with our guests as well, making sure that they're kept as safe as possible, social distancing throughout the restaurant, and making sure that we do everything by them as well to keep them healthy while they're here at the restaurant. And we've |

There is no one singles solution but we have to continue to work diligently on improving mental and behavioral health services and access so that people in crisis can get help it helps on the domestic violence front helps with suicidality it's not that we're more depressed here in Utah. There's a number of factors. one of them is we do have a high firearm ownership here and firearms are excessively lethal and so we need to help those who are in crisis who have access to guns so that when those moments of crisis happen and me cancer by age and get through its and and then be able to be responsible gun owners from Danon you know and so to me, it comes down to really helping people in the moment of crisis and leading up to the moment of crisis with significant services and we have so many great people working on that. In Utah, and across the country, but it is higher, then what we can provide. So we need to keep focusing on that good thoughts from my wonderful guests here on a woman's view we'll take another break and be back in just a moment. Stay with us. Ah Ah Ah Ah Jay carr here, CEO of rocket mortgage and rocket companies last year we saw historically low mortgage interest rates what you may not know is that interest rates are already starting to increase and it's likely that trend is only going to continue our team of experts standing by to help you save before rates go up. Don't look back and wished you had taken action call 8.3 8 rocket or visit rocket mortgage Dotcom over cost information conditions under license in all 50 States and it was so reckless that organ, 33. | 705 | 7/1/2021 | 13 News @ 5:30  | WVEC-TV       | towards sax's up towards signposted not quite over toward chincoteague island and some of the heaviest of the rain is actually just outside that warning down towards park city will zoom in, give you a little bit of a closer look right now just along the western edge there of highway 13 around rotten's in hollywood we have some of that heaviest of the rain and it extends off towards the south especially around parts just north of the town of accomack and it is moving >> To the east right now or northeast at around thirty 5 miles per hour. So that'll bring it over towards signposts around 553 franklin's city 6 o'clock and chincoteague island at around 6 oh 3. Of course the warning will have expired by then the national weather service might decide to extend it just for that extreme eastern part there of accomack county. But there are some other thunderstorms that will be moving in a little bit later on tonight this evening most of the thunderstorms will be off towards the north. Temperatures in the mid 80s although where it has rained we're now down into the 70s. There's a very, very slow moving cold front off towards the north and west. It'll slowly push through the area tomorrow, clear the region by early saturday. But as it moves through we will see some scattered showers and thunderstorms. So not the best day to head out towards the playground. We are looking at scattered showers and thunderstorms through the day mainly into the upper 70s or some low 80s in a few spots if we get a few breaks in the clouds giving us a little bit of sunshine to warm things up. Here's future cast this evening. Most of the activity will be off towards the north. Scattered showers and thunderstorms could be a few heavier downpours and that line will slowly work its way through hampton roads tomorrow we'll see numerous showers, a few thunderstorms. It's not going to rain everywhere all day. Not a total washout but again there will be |

There's something about this time of year with the 4th of July and with the 24th of July. Just this summer heat we all like to have the perfect grilled steak and many of us are brazen enough to believe that Garza is pretty darn good. And I have been there but then I'm going to have a perfectly grilled state ever Ruth's Chris steak House and that humbles me immediately when you have that perfect cut that perfectly prepared stake at Ruth's Chris, well, it puts a little damper on the bragging in the backyard. Let's put it that way. This is the time get into Ruth's Chris steak House. We have two there's one up at hotel Park city that beautiful drive up there one right in the heart of downtown salt Lake city to 75 self West Temple this time of year. of all, you go and it's so beautiful. It's comfortable. It's cool. Somebody else is doing all the work at Ruth's Chris said of the new season of the cold podcast coal mine boy Yeah absolutely it is a woman seeking Justice she daish is silenced forever. You don't see was so Sir but there's much more to the story on follow cold season to Justice for Joyce on amazon music is on his time 6 59 Let's get another look at triple team traffic. We start with you, andy. Amanda, it's been nice drive to salt Lake County thus far volumes of increased a bit on brain bank or through West Valley especially 35th 27th and 21st South 56 West having some troubles but right after the two one freeway as you head down the Hill and up towards California Avenue no problems and too little but volumes increasing on Sr 36 Jason still glare in may grant Davis County this morning, a 30 minute travel times going to greet you as you head out the door for Monti to salt Lake city looking good both directions on 84 in and out of me. McCain inserting caning is clear as well. It's a role I love your regular speed on highways and side streets. Eric that couples slow moving vehicles looks like use valdes plus |

I love both versions of it actually. - I like the original one better, but they're both- - The series one. - Right, and the series two is very good. It's a dark wrapper on there. - It's Brazilian. - Yeah, Brazilian wrapper. It's very good. Your liquor? - My liquor is another strange version of 1792. This one's called 1792 Warehouse Collapse. And it is exactly what it sounds like for some reason about two years ago. They call it a Rickhouse, but the warehouse where they keep the barrels to age collapsed. The whole thing just fell over. - Wow. - And all the barrels fell down and went in the river and shattered and it was a mess. But they were able to keep some and they were the Warehouse Collapse version. It's a little bit sweet. It's fairly strong. It's 98 proof. - Mm hmm. - It's good stuff if you can find it. - What's it called again? - 1792 Warehouse Collapse. (Rob laughs) - Moose, your liquor, sir? - Hurry down to that and get it because it's not gonna be around anymore. Again I'm going with New Liberty. - Mm hmm. - And this one is called the Kinsey American Whiskey. And it's aged 10 years. It's a blended whiskey to give it a profile from the 1940s and 1950s. And it's 100 proof. - Very good. But it's not bottled in bottles? - No, it's not bottled in- - Just happens to be a- - Just happens to be, yes. - All right. Our second cigar in this pack is my favorite cigar in the pack. The San Matado Puro Especial Toro. - Do you think that cigar has gotten better over time? - I think it has. It's very good. - Do you think they fiddled the blend and made it better? - I don't know. - 'Cause when it first came out I wasn't a huge fan, but now I am. - Right. Yeah. It's really good. The wrapper and binder are both Nicaraguan Habano and the filler is just Nicaraguan Plain old Nicaraguan. - Plain old. - It's a medium-bodied cigar with tasting notes of spice, pepper, earth and nuts. Paul. - One of my personal favorite beers is an older craft beer that they've made a whole |

| 739 | 6/24/2021 | FOX 13 News Live at Noon | KSTU-TV | morning we saw hundreds of an inch at that point but this is the first the first the big thing with this it's the first measurable rainfall since may twenty third so it's been over a month this is a little june miracle for us we're in the we're in the low 70s right now in salt lake city and you can see those temperatures are feeling much more refreshing then they have we're looking at those low 70s along the wasatch front park city fifty five degrees as we zoom things out. Eighty seven in st. Georgia moab how wonderful that feels in the low 70s. So we still have that trough of low pressure that's off the coast. It's maintaining that southwesterly flow and it's these little disturbances that got caught up in this flow that's kind of amplifying those showers that we're seeing today so what can we expect this afternoon just make just make sure you're being careful on the rhoades it's going to be slick in some areas and we're also going to see some of those gusty winds ramping backup southern and eastern utahs where we're going to see that the best chance for some of that heavy rain and as we've been we've been talking about the flash flooding it's possible stay out of it can be . Be prepared for that this afternoon as those rain showers and thunderstorms ramp back up in salt city really we're reaching seventy seven this afternoon. The high today was actually eighty five but it looks like we hit that earlier on. So those temperatures are going to start cooling mid 90s in st george we'll see some mostly cloudy skies farther south partly cloudy or farther north excuse me and partly cloudy skies farther south in southern utah. We will see another round of showers tomorrow the best chance for that's going to be south eastern utah even a chance for that in st george but we start drying out into your weekend so if you're making we can plans it's going to be warm and sunny and we'll be back in the triple digits in northern you talk tomorrow we on the cooler side a little bit warmer than today will be in |

So a new study says the us saw its biggest drop in life expectancy since world war two according to the report in twenty eighteen the average life expectancy was seventy eight point seven years and just two years later it dropped to seventy six point nine years this nearly two year decrease was reported reportedly most visible in minority groups. Experts covid19 is a likely cause for the decline as well as the disruptions to people's general health care and new study from the university of south australia researchers say a hostile or toxic work environment can increase depression risks as much as 300 percent. Researchers looked workplace bullying and company commitments to employee mental health researchers found bullying could affect an entire work unit and of course the specific victims workplace bullying led to drop outs from the workforce costing companies money as well &gt;&gt; The &gt;&gt; Fda says it plans to add a warning to covid19 grenny vaccines about the risk myocarditis and pericarditis. Now those terms referred to inflammation of the heart muscle and tissue surrounding the heart. The pfizer and moderna vaccines are both mrsa vaccines. Now this comes after reports of inflammatory heart conditions among some recently vaccinated young adults and teens. The cases appeared to be rare and mild and they resolved quickly. Health experts emphasize the benefits of covid19 vaccines outweigh the risks so nationwide eviction protection is set to expire on june 30th with millions of americans still owing rent facing potential homelessness &gt;&gt; Foxes fox's &gt;&gt; Ashley strohmeier has more on the calls directed at the white house to once again intervene covid19 put thousands of americans out of work and with bill stacking up many were unable to keep up with their rent and mortgage payments causing the government to step in. | 762 | 6/22/2021 | FOX 13 News Live at Noon  | KSTU-TV                       | favor. I need you to end up you to end this with a nice tostay maybe here's the kangaroos whatever you want to do to kangaroo zoo kangaroo zoo right and then we're going to a to a new dance a new &gt;&gt; Just getting come out try, try them out and have some back to you guys in the studio chairs do. Cheers jwi dear. Yes. Go. Excellent. You're an excellent you're so much fun right. Thank you ok danny I turned away for a second then I looked back was was that a pitcher of orange soda &gt;&gt;. I think so. Wow what they are doing for a moment as well I was looking for the kangaroos yeah that would be cute although again wild animals not oh yeah not bad max thanks for thanks for reminding me because I probably want to take them home we had a kangaroo in studio here once so it goes that it was fun yeah &gt;&gt; I'll make you cute little fellow hop right by where you are now. Oh my gosh I would need to sneak in my in my purse and I say no no no there's no no danny it's &gt;&gt; For coyote yeah yeah that's the only the only thing &gt;&gt; They'll pass ok allergies are going to be kicking into gear today for many of you because we are now seeing extremely high &gt;&gt; Levels of mold moderate levels of grass weeds and low levels of trees right now so. So be prepared as you're sitting outside I know for many of us though maybe we don't even want to get outside. It's going to be so darn hot this afternoon we're in the low 90s nineties in salt lake city right out feeling like 80 degrees that breezes. That breeze is really kick into gear and that's going to make it feel like a furnace this afternoon it's not a nice refreshing breeze take a look at how our temperatures have been changing you've got you've got those low nineties all long the wasatch front eighty six in park city and as we zoom things ninety four still in st george seventy nine and bryce canyon. So a little bit more comfortable 90 and delta and the wind over your nearing 90 right now and look at how these winds are changing your anywhere from 10 to 15 miles per |

The sliding action will actually cut the dough as it goes in. A lot of people refer to spaetzel as pasta. It's actually more of a dumpling. Now, it needs to cook in here for just a couple minutes. And we just put it in an ice bath. And then we sauté it at the time of service. Got it. Fire up the pan. Little bit of oil. Then I got ahead and dump in my sliced, domestic mushrooms. So, the buttons? Yep. The oysters. Here's the shiitakes. Okay. A little salt and pepper. All right, then I just stir it. This will get cooked down for about 25 minutes or so. So, now we're gonna assemble the dishes. So, we're gonna get a little oil in the pan, little bit of red onion. Touch of garlic. Mushrooms. Little toss. Those cook just a moment or two. One of the keys to this is the roasted-vegetable stock. Add a little bit of sour cream right off the bat. Sort of swirl that in. That's where you kind of get that classic stroganoff flavor. Chives. Salt. Pepper. And now we're gonna go for the reduction. We're gonna be plating the spaetzel. Next is the mushrooms. Put just a touch more sour cream, then a little bit of chive. There you go. And that is the vegetarian mushroom stroganoff. Boom, boom, mushroom. Little mix. I can't say it's good. [ Fork clatters ] But I can say it's great, though. The type of mushrooms, the way you cook them down but leave them with integrity -- I think that the mushrooms are still tender enough. They brought out tons of flavor. I think that stock plays a huge role in it. It's hearty. It's comforting. Outrageous. You're a gangster. Thank you, sir. Tastes like you're in Germany somewhere, and it's perfect when you come right off the slopes. I was gonna leave, but between the slopes, the snow, and the dude that made the awesome mushroom stroganoff, I got to stick around. You got another dish? I have a crispy pork belly. When we come back, hanging out at the Silver Star Café in Park City, Utah. Love me some pork belly. Me, too. |

Oh my gosh. Let's we're going to show you a great view from aslive right me into it >> Looks so nice. It's so beautiful in park sitting right now this time of year it's a little cooler. It's green it's nice to be there than down here right now at least this afternoon guys. It will be another hot and air quality will continue to be a concern because >> Ozone levels have been on the rise on top of that of course also course, we've also had smoke from some of the fires and we've got moderate air quality across much of the salt lake right now and that's the case especially farther south into utahn county and this afternoon it'll become unhealthy at least four people with heart and lung problems most folks who are still want to limit your time outside if you can not is because of air quality but also the heat. This is a llook from the mountain camera northwest across the valley kind of a hazy you of and mobile in their otherwise we have some maybe cloud still left and the temperature that swarmed back up to seventy two in ogden to show that seventy one in provo at 70 still not too bad and aside from the heat it is going to beautiful day partly cloudy no weather. No weather related problems expected for the morning or evening commute the problem again we'll |

We'll zoom things out low 90s in st george it's been taking a little bit of time for folks in southern utah to warm up not as quickly as we suspected mainly because we've noticed more smoke from out of state wildfires but we do a fair skies for the most part a few high clouds that are popping up in eastern utah but northern new to a whole lot sunshine but it's tough even see because of that has high. High pressure continues to dominate. But here's a thing it's far enough s right now we're staying drain hot but we're going to start to see impacts of this trough of low pressure it's going to going to be driving by just to the north of us it's not going to do a whole lot it's not going to bring us bring us the rain we need we get shortchange by that but it is going to send a dry cold front into utah tonight and it's also influencing that southwesterly flow which is going to create high fire danger today it's going to be gustier than it was yesterday gusts up gusts up to about 40 miles per hour so we do have a red flag warning for much of the state in place because of those strong gusty winds that nasty combination of gusty winds low relative humidity it's dry and it's hot it's hot out there. So I want to make that we're all stay vigilant on a day like today and things to keep in mind when you want to stay safe in the heat and it's things we all know you know the name of the game but sometimes we need to be reminded of that never leaving kids are pets in the car drinking plenty of out of staying hydrated and if you can take breaks in the shade and so making sure you're wearing sunscreen when you're out especially in the heat of the day and if you can stay indoors that's the best choice today because we're reaching a hundred and five degrees |

And as we zoom things out can see we're in the mid 90s already in st george eighty seven and green river eighty five in excuse me and you can see we see we have fairly clear skies right a whole lot of sunshine you saw that from our webcam but here's the thing you're not thing you're not going to want to be that he too long indicated by the red we have a strong ridge of high pressure at centered over new mexico and as we go into the next couple of days you're going indicated by the blues in the greens we have a trough of low pressure that's off the coast of washington and oregon and once we get to tuesday night we're going blocked by all the rain in the cooler weather that they're getting in that neck of the woods the woods. But this is going sent a dry cold front in utah tuesday night into wednesday and I use that term loosely because it's not going to cool it down too much but it is going to get the triple digits at least in northern utah. So what we can expect today tomorrow our temperatures are going to be anywhere from 15 to 20 degrees above average these are a record high tents that we are challenging. This is a prolonged wave so the biggest concern when we're dealing with the consistency of these really temperatures this heat related illness so just make sure you're sure you're taking care of yourself and not underestimating the heat that we're dealing with and in addition to that we are dealing high fire danger again this week because it's dry with gusty winds possible this afternoon especially in western utah and eastern nevada where those gusts could reach about 40 miles per hour our average for this time the year. Normally 83 degrees wouldn't it be nice if we were there no we're going to be, we're going to be hitting one hundred three degrees today in salt lake city that will be breaking on a record of one hundred one degrees |

| 994 | 6/6/2021 | Taste Utah | KTVX-TV | we're stopping by two 'do not miss' dining destinations. First, we're visiting with Corinne Zinn, owner of Park City Creamery. She's creating cheeses, relying on her Belgian roots and utilizing the unique qualities only the Heber valley altitude can provide. Her Treasure Brie and Hidden Treasure Brie, customer favorites in the cheese section in markets like Caputo's, Harmon's, Liberty Heights Fresh, and they're already a staple on many Utah chef's menus and charcuterie board. Next we join chef de cuisine, Nick Zakko at Afterword by Tupelo Park City. Afterword is the continuation of executive chef and owner Matt Harrison's beloved Tupelo on main street in Park City. Every ingredient on your plate honors the special relationship between chef and the farmer, artisan, or craftsman that worked so diligently to bring it to your palette. Each dish is masterfully woven together with an underlying hint of Southern hospitality. Making you feel right at home with every mouthwatering bite. Taste Utah is more than your typical food show. It's about local flavor from roots to authentically Utah restaurants. It's the people and the places that make Utah a dining destination. There's so much soil on earth to uncover and still so many great Utah restaurants to savor. We bring you the stories and we spread the love. The best thing about Utah, the views along the way, they're not bad either. We're not afraid to get our hands just a little dirty. Food is a necessity. It's how we create it, and share it, and experience it together, that truly shapes our community. Whether you're choosing to dine in our dining room, order to go, or get delivery. You always have a seat at this table. Are you ready to taste Utah? Okay. We've got a specia |

| 995 | 6/6/2021 | Taste Utah   | KTVX-TV                      | Yeah. Oh my gosh. Corrine, I just, I just think you're amazing. Thank you. What you're doing here in this beautiful space is so magical. You are bringing tastes and flavors of a different place but you're using the Terroir and the experience of this place to tell that story. And it's what this whole series is about. Your passion for, for Utah is just so clear. And we love you right back. And I would say, come up here and buy cheese out of out of your case and, and say hello. Because just meeting you is such a, such a pleasurable experience. Yeah. Come see us and we'll be happy to give you a tour. Yay. Okay. Awesome. Well, cheese cheers. Cheers. We're When it comes to being on budget, I lead the charge. And for this multitasking number cruncher, time is money. So, no more chasing sales. Because at Floor and Decor, I get rock-bottom prices on top-quality products. And with free in-store Design Services, I score expert advice and project planning. Not like free with purchase either, like free-free. Mission accomplished. Now that's time well spent. Explore Floor and Decor in person or online at flooranddecor.com n Heber. We're right off of main street. And I'm taking you to Afterword by Tupelo. It's a beautiful restaurant that is celebrating Southern flavors in everything they do. They're open for dinner. They're open for brunch on the weekends. Let's go check them out. Chef. How are you? Hey Katy. How are you? I kind of have an idea of what the food experience is like, but I can't really wait to try it. It's okay. We have stuff for you, I have a whole bunch of stuff ready to go. Okay. You're gonna have a treat. Oh, I'm so excited. I mean, already, this patio is amazing. I can't wait to see the inside. All right, let's go on. Awesome. Lead the way chef Chef Nick Zacco. You are chef de cuisine for Afterword which is a concept by Tupelo Park City. Correct. Will you give us the insight, the skinny, if you will, in what we have in front of us I'm going to start eating cause why wouldn't |

| 1004 | 6/4/2021 | FOX 13 News Live at Eleven  | KSTU-TV             | right now, it's warm already it's not even knew and we're nearing nine days in salt lake city. Eighty eight is feeling more like eighty five degrees we have a breeze from the south is about five miles per hour temperatures along the wasatch front you see you see our valley locations and those upper 80s eighty eight into will in park city you're already at eighty one agrees let's zoom things out eighty four in four in st. George eighty four in green river and were climbing to those upper 80s in moab right now clear skies for the most part we had some isolated thunderstorm yesterday and we might see those popping back up mainly in western utah far south western utah later on this afternoon we'll talk a little bit more about that in just a moment but here's the big story. It's still the high pressure has been warming up and keeping us dry us dry all week long centered over utah today but that's going to start to push to the east of us and because of that we're going start to see some of those westerly winds picking up which is going to increase that chance some isolated thunderstorms but it's also it's also going to create high fire danger but the big story it's still going to be the temperatures today. Heat warnings in advisories in place not only for far southwestern utah the grand staircase area but that's also extending into northern utah along the wasatch and our western desert today and tomorrow so that means he is going to be an issue today and it's going to be dangerously for many of us so please keep that in mind if mind if you're spending any time outdoors might be a better day to just say hunkered inside with some of that cool air conditioning we're expecting to hear the triple digits in salt lake city today. So this is 20 degrees above average this is above our record so we will we will be breaking another record if we hit this even if we hit ninety nine and if we do hit one hundred this is going to be the earliest we've ever hit one hundred this early in the year so |

It's kind of inconceivable to me to do anything different. Y'know, to a certain extent I think this is true for dairy farmers everywhere. You know to get up in the morning as the sun comes up and somehow keep going until you feel like you're going to drop at night. You just get up and do it again the next day and we very much view ourselves as custodians for a time of something that will continue after us. &gt;&gt;Goat's milk is the beverage of choice in many countries around the world. And goat's milk is used for drinking, cooking and baking. You've probably had cheese made from goat's milk, but if you want to sample something different, there are products using goat's milk for butter, ice cream, yogurt, even candy. &gt;&gt;Like any other business, agriculture demands that you adapt if you want to stay profitable and stay in business. Having their land do double duty was not something that one Utah family had in mind. But being successful meant they had to look at their natural resources in quite a different way. Our John Lobertini says the solution was a combination of ranching, and recreation. &gt;&gt;The stunning views across Park City, Utah speak for themselves. The mountains... the blue skies... the red rock cliffs. &gt;&gt;Hey you, how you doing? &gt;&gt;But rancher Steve Osguthorpe is changing the dialogue about working the land in this outdoor paradise. &gt;&gt;We saw what was happening in the Park City area. We were either gonna have to get out of agriculture or sell our property and leave. But there was no other place we wanted to go and we didn't want to be driven out. [sound of bus passing] &gt;&gt;Driven out by tourism. By the early 1990s this old mining town was becoming a playground for the rich and famous. And you can see all along the wasatch just hovering in those upper fifties fifty in park city near 60 and twilla and as we zoom out sixty six in st. George and on top of that in central and southern utah we have those strong gusty winds that are starting to ramp up from cedar city up to richfield all along 15 and it's because of that southerly flow that has increased that storm that we're talking about still just stalled out over nevada so we were just maintaining that southwesterly flow which is ramping those winds as we jump into the second half of that day and we have some moisture got caught up in this bad boy and that's why we're seeing some of those showers pick up earlier today we have wind advisories that are in place for that southern two thirds of our state so you see that all shaded in this beige where we could see gus between 50 and 60 miles per hour. So please be prepared today we could again see patchy areas of blowing dust we're dealing with high fire danger rough waters on waters on our lakes and power outages are possible so you so you can see today is a little cooler than yesterday and we're several degrees below average now. So a big change from earlier this week temperatures will be hovering near those 70s along the wasatch front 70 in st george where it's going to be windy, isolated thunderstorms up north and as we go into tonight the winds die down and we're going to stay mostly clearer much cooler tomorrow morning and those mid 40s southern utah you're going to drop or stay in the low 70s tomorrow and then climb quickly with lots of sunshine back to the 90s on tuesday in northern utah tomorrow we're clear we get a break from the rain and then by sunday we haven't even better chance for ...affordable housing, leaned on by communities from Jackson to Aspen to Park City.[CR-LF][CR-LF] But now the Zoom Boom-fueled market fire is spreading beyond... ...four new trails, designed and built by Hailey-based Titus Trails and Apex Trail Construction from Park City, Utah, with help from the Southwest... ...enclosed rinse/fill/cork solution with a 'de-dusting' component, High West Distillery is making its mark in the whisky category.Pat ReynoldsMar... |

| 1126 | 5/16/2021 | Taste Utah  | KTVX-TV             | but also cuisine elevated. we're heading up to Rime, we're taking the Funicular which is something that is a bit of an adventure. And we're going to go meet chef Matt Harris, his history of creating and crafting amazing cuisine for us in Park City is the stuff of legends. Can't wait to see what he's creating here at the St. Regis at Rime. Chef Matt, how are you? Hey, how are you, good to see you. Give you a little high five. Welcome to the St. Regis. Oh, it's beautiful. Yeah, it's a fine time of year to be up here. Absolutely and it's like life elevated but everything is elevated in Park City, and especially at Deer Valley at the St Regis. Absolutely. I would love to just sit down with you, talk food, talk wine, talk everything about Rime. No, absolutely. I'd love to love to show you through everything. Well, lead the way, my friend. Absolutely. Chef Matt, I mean, you're not kidding when you say this is an experience. This is beautiful. From the time you come up off the Funicular to you walk into the dining room, I mean, you see this, we're right on the slopes here. KATY: You can't beat it. MATT: Yeah, I mean, it's, it's fantastic. It's amazing, so I love skiing at Deer Valley. It's like one of my favorite mountains. And I know that when I spend a day up here, I can hit up the oyster shack at the top of the Jordanelle gondola. You can, yeah. And that I come here for my Apres ski. And just, this is like the, you know you've made it when you can actually get a table outside on the deck of the St. Regis, because it's just where everyone was. No, absolutely, we pack it in here. And, and it has a little bit of everything for everybody. And this is fantastic. Yeah, we want to mention COVID right away. Both of us are wearing masks. So there's a lot of things that you're doing up here at Rime to keep people safe. Talk to us a little bit about that. So we've actually expanded our patios, expanded our terrace area with heaters and our table settings to be more conducive for people to sit |

These people have to work together to answer some of your questions. they work as a team do it right with somebody and they have to Now a lot of folks may recall this was a show back. A while back with Groucho Marx and really enjoy what's going to work great is is having the opportunity to to poke fun but in a fun way and Kevin, I know with your guys chemistry you're going to be able to tee it up pretty good, I'm betting. I that that's yeah it felt so weak and its fall I Yeah with them. What is right and things I'm going to use it a lot of people know Kevin is probably one of the world's greatest deposition that's what you know I really believe opposites attract and one cat was in the BAM, how this all started was killed was in the bat and I was sort of model on one day every day. They that it's not funny haha and people like I would call that the show really that's that funny and let's keep this going. So I kept it open up the walk itself, but with it and it's turned out to be a great thing. I can still do that. Yeah going on right now. Now also we've got to get folks felt the area because you want to be watched game show they all say if you're in the Los Angeles area but we can get. Well we like be of much as what we like folks all across the country. Well if you're in Tulsa if you go to you bet your life dot com. It will tell you how to be a kit that will fly to Los Angeles with Tell and I want to show you want some money. It go to Web site every is explained there are maybe have a funny headline, it's something we'd like to see on the show let us know we love to see that take it from there so real quick I've got to wrap, but I want to know what advice do you give the contestants when they're making that audition video. Well I'd love to hear rapp's that's going to wrap It just felt like what you do for a living. You know we're not looking for people who say no way he was just looking for a regular folks. I think |

A lot of us will never forget the day last year when our nation ground to a whole from COVID-19 but today could be another memorable day it's the first day since the CDC ended mask mandates for fully vaccinated people Chris pollone is in Washington with more. &gt;&gt; A turning point in the COVID-19 pandemic we have all long for this moment, the CDC setting new rules for 117 million vaccinated Americans anyone who is fully vaccinated can participate in indoor and outdoor activities large or small without wearing masks or physical distancing president Biden called it a great day and urged the 130 million people not yet vaccinated to do so rule is very simple. &gt;&gt; Yet vaccinated or wear a mask on till you do. &gt;&gt; The CDC says masks will still be required in Healthcare settings on planes and public transportation and in businesses which mandate them I think it's a way that really I think everyone's excited to get back to l'm Allie the CDC had been under increasing pressure to ease confusing covid restrictions as the number of inoculated people continues to grow the American people just lost just lost patience with us now health experts say the science is compelling. There have been a number of papers that have come out that show the extraordinary real world efficacy of the vaccine at every level at every age and every circumstance some states immediately ended their mask and social distancing rules after the CDC announcement others are expected to follow suit in the coming days, Chris pollone NBC News Washington. &gt;&gt; The Fresno Grizzlies are hosting a vaccine clinic at the park with a special on Senate for fans to get the shot. County health officials are offering the Johnson and Johnson shot from 05:00PM to 09:00PM tonight and tomorrow, the shots are available to people 18 years and older anyone who gets the shot can get a free hot dog chips and drink. &gt;&gt; And developing now some city officials want to take over |

We have a crabs benedict, we do a regular eggs benedict, breakfast burritos, we also have a bloody Mary bar that we offer on Saturdays and Sundays and then we do have bottomless mimosas on Sundays as well. - Well my husband and I have been to Napa a number of times so we recognize a lot of the labels here and that's important. - I'm a huge craft beer person and they just traded out their Miller Lite for some Scofflaw Basement IPA and it's my favorite. - So Janice does an excellent job adjusting with the seasons like the menu does with her cocktails. - As far as cocktails, the old fashioned is probably my most popular cocktail. For a Smith Old Fashioned I start with a plank board, I prefer to use maple, I think gives the best flavor to the glass so we smoke the board and turn the glass upside down and let that smoke infuse into the glass, it really adds to the flavor of the old fashioned and while that's doing that then I mix the cocktail. I make homemade bitters for it, house simple syrup and I use typically High West Double Rye. And then once I've stirred it and I use a kinosphere, pour it into the glass and then I do a flamed orange and a black cherry. And this is our smoked old fashioned. - They're mixologists, it's not just like a bunch of people pouring stuff in a cup. So that makes it fun. - Well it was my first time and I absolutely loved it. | 1194 | 5/9/2021 | Taste Utah   | KTVX-TV            | it's all about community. We're at Hearth and Hill in Park City. They recently just celebrated their three-year anniversary, and we can see why. From the beginning, they've offered a sophisticated menu full of unique and ingredient-driven selections. And they've been doing everything they can think of to support their customers and their staff through a very tricky 2020. Hearth and Hill is definitely cementing their cornerstone in the foundation of our Utah restaurant community. Then we highlight a classic Utah restaurant, The Soup Kitchen. Now their original location has been an intricate part of the Sugar House community of restaurants and storefronts for years, but they actually have four locations including their Salt Lake City location, which boasts a full commissary kitchen complete with enormous double barrel soup kettles and even a bakery. We're taking you behind the scenes to show you how Stuart and his team are scratch-making their noodles for their crowd-pleasing chicken noodle soup, as well as stirring up flavors, simmering goodness, and serving up classic soups that warm our bodies and our hearts. (cheerful guitar music) "Taste Utah" is more than your typical food show. It's about local flavor from roots through authentically Utah restaurants. It's the people and the places that make Utah a dining destination. There's so much soil and earth to uncover and still so many great Utah restaurants to savor. We bring you the stories and we spread the love. The best thing about Utah, the views along the way, they're not bad, either. We're not afraid to get our hands just a little dirty. Food is a necessity, and it's how we create it and share it and experience it together that truly shapes our community. Whether you're choosing to dine in our dining rooms, order to go, or get delivery, you always have a seat at this table. Are you ready to taste Utah? We're in're in Park City. |

| 1195 | 5/9/2021 | Taste Utah | KTVX-TV | We're in the Kimball Junction area, the Redstone complex, to be more accurate, sort of on the east side, and we're at Hearth and Hill. Hearth and Hill is a restaurant that is full of Americana. They're doing lunch, they're doing dinner, they're doing brunch, and they really have innovated and adapted during this very, very trying time of COVID. We're about to meet Brooks. We're gonna talk all things Hearth and Hill. Are you ready? Hey, mask up, it's never gonna get old. Stay safe. (upbeat western music) Brooks, how are you? BROOKS: I'm well, Katie, welcome back to Hearth and Hill. KATIE: Oh, thank you, so excited to be back here. I'm so excited to talk to you about your menu, about what's new, what's going on. BROOKS: As are we, yes. We're so excited to have you back. Come with me, and let's go to a table. KATIE: Lead the way. Brooks, it's so nice to be sitting here inside a restaurant. We're both being safe, we're wearing our masks. Hearth and Hill is doing an impeccable job of social distancing. It looks like you even have QR codes. Talk to us a little bit about lengths that you're going to make sure that people stay safe. Saying all that, I am gonna take my mask off and eat, because that's what one must do. BROOKS: Absolutely, yes, please dig in. We're grateful to have you. Thank you for coming up here to Park City, Kimball Junction. Here at Hearth and Hill, we've really striven to be the leader of Park City and the state in terms of how to best operate a restaurant during COVID. We have little signs on our tables that ask our guests to have their masks on when associates are at the table so that our staff can continue to be as healthy and safe as possible during these times. We ensure that if they were to get sick, that they will get paid for the two weeks that they're off. And then, with our guests, as well, making sure that they're kept as safe as possible, social distancing throughout the restaurant, and making sure that we do everything by them, as well, to keep them healthy while |

| 1196 | 5/8/2021 | At Your Leisure  | KTVX-TV         | Hey, welcome back to at your leisure, everybody. I'm Scott Huntsman at my tunex shop in South Jordan. This is our what's new segment this week, my good friend Amy. Hey, you remember these guys w three winches with Winches. She's one of their members and we went wheeling with them some time ago. We're gonna go again. Now it's a pump. But I happened to run into she and her husband while we were at Jeep Safari at the vendor show, and we came across this very cool product made by Apex Apex is a company out of Park City, Utah, they make a set of quick deflator valve stems. We're going to install them on Amy's Jeep today and we're going to try them out. We're gonna see what they're all about. Alright guys, so here's the brass tacks of this. This is the valve that we're going to install, we're going to be replacing the original valve stem, we're going to attach it to the backside of this new valve stem here with this little t 10 torques. Now these nice fancy green little caps are going to be gone now, in place of that is the cap that comes with the A types valve. These have their own caps that keep you from airing down, which opens up the ports for quick deflation. These are very well built. I like them, we're gonna try them out. I'm just undoing the screw that retains the sensor then the sensor slips right off with it. Now I can put this on the new stem, slip seal onto the back side. Okay, so I've got the stem mounted into place. It's torqued down. We've got the oil on the seals, so they're sealed up Loctite on the retaining nuts, we're complete with the install of this air down valve stem. We're gonna give it a little trial. Amy's gonna be my official timekeeper. She's gonna tell us how long it takes to air this down. Right now I'm going to put my gauge on. We've ended up we should be reading about 33 shown about 32 eight. Are you ready? Amy? Okay, here we go. One, two. Three! And there's 10 pounds. How long was that? 14.7 seconds now. Yeah >>, they're you know you can't get a gun for that yeah it does look kind of create two it's a too. It's a beaut. This the beautiful half moon out there >> Oh >> Yeah. We got some we have a nice you that this morning certainly beautiful certainly a beautiful start to the day. This is a live look from the intermountain camera toward downtown salt lake city although it's colder than it was twenty four hours ago. So yeah, you might need a better jackie when you head out its forty eight right now in ogden. Forty seven starting out >> Forty three but otherwise pretty quiet so we've got green light for the morning and evening drive weather related problems expected today and no and no problem warming up in fact temperature will climb a little higher than it did yesterday not big jump but that'll make it beautiful early may will be >> Covering the upper 40s in salt lake salt lake for another couple hours then toward the tail end of the morning commute would will make it into the upper 50s and we'll talk about this afternoon and a big warming trend expected for later in the week coming up in just a little bit but of course we also want check out traffic and danny hasluck in early this morning >> Hey, good morning inroads looking just as good as the weather this morning. Everything is clear out there a whole lot of green on our map which means we're not running we're not running into any problems. They're slowing us down early this morning and as we zoom into that drive through parley's in park city to the airport is going to take your normal thirty four minutes right now she have a couple of minutes off of that if you're heading into downtown no problems in that neck of the woods woods cross looks cross looks good i1p northbound 15 s everybody's moving freely on both sides of the interstate and and also a live look at pleasant grove it's been a nice drive through utah county |

| 1284 | 4/24/2021 | Diners, Drive-Ins and Dives | Food Network | I have a crispy pork belly. When we come back, hanging out at the Silver Star Café in Park City, Utah. Love me some pork belly. Me, too. Uh, welcome back. It's the "Diners, Drive-Ins, and Dives," not "Diners, Drive-Ins, and ski slopes." I'm hanging out at the Silver Star Café, and you have promised me if I would come back and not go out there, you said we could have... Crispy pork belly. Mmm! All right, bring it. First thing I'm gonna do is I'm gonna score the meat. The next thing I'm gonna do is smear molasses on it. Black-tar Texas tea. Next, I'm gonna season it. And just one side? Just the fat side? Yeah. Just salt and pepper. Real liberal on this one. Just throw it on the pan. We're gonna toss it in the pizza oven for about seven or eight minutes. Just put a little roast on it? Little bit of crunch on it, and now we're gonna braise it. Right. So, I start off with maple syrup in the pan. I'll just place this right on top of that syrup. Now, you take the cinnamon-amon-amon-amon. Just throw it on top. And your water, doctor. Yep. Three hours. Plastic and foil. Plastic really locks down, and you actually build steam in this, and if you poked it, it would pssssh! A sheet of foil. And then after this is all covered and sealed up, it'll go in the oven right around 560 degrees or so for about three hours. After that, we actually let it cool in its braising jus overnight. Then we'll cut it. Then it'll get skewered. And then what? Fried? Fried. So, this is the crispy pork belly appetizer. So, you start off with your cooked beans and apple. Look at that! Okay, you think that's enough pork belly? You gave me half a pig. And then the last thing that we're gonna do, it's my own interpretation of a Carolina-style barbecue sauce, and then finish off with a touch of green. That is the crispy pork belly. Listen, you say "pork belly," I say "thank you." Look at that pork just falling apart. You get that molasses right off the bat. Carolina-style sauce... with that vinegar is right there. You got sweet and heat on meat you can't beat. [Laughter] Crispy |

When we come back, hanging out at the Silver Star Café in Park City, Utah. Love me some pork belly.Me, too. Uh, welcome back. It's the "Diners, Drive-Ins, and Dives," not "Diners, Drive-Ins, and ski slopes." I'm hanging out at the Silver Star Café, and you have promised me if I would come backand not go out there, you said we could have... Crispy pork belly. Mmm! All right, bring it. First thing I'm gonna do is I'm gonna score the meat. The next thing I'm gonna do is smear molasses on it. Black-tar Texas tea. Next, I'm gonna season it. And just one side? Just the fat side? Yeah. Just salt and pepper. Real liberal on this one. Just throw it on the pan. We're gonna toss it in the pizza oven for about seven or eight minutes. Just put a little roast on it? Little bit of crunch on it, and now we're gonna braise it. Right. So, I start off with maple syrup in the pan. I'll just place this right on top of that syrup. We obviously because of coronavirus last year we did not. Yeah but we're excited to be able to host it again and people are excited people want to be out there people want to be doing things how things for you guys. For you guys? This has been a little over here with the pandemic and everything going on you guys are afloat, you're staying alive yeah &gt;&gt; It's been people have people have been very supportive started out when the virus first came first few months were pretty ugly. Yeah, but we've in blast as far as our store have been very, very blessed and a big supporter of communities coming out supporting out supporting you guys. Yeah &gt;&gt;. People people are just tired of being cooped up they want to go out go out. They want to go and as far as this two day event is their life to schedule an appointment or because we're starting to loosen up restrictions first come first serve and you're just distancing by time how does that happen where we're where we're spread out enough that we feel like when people get outdoors like this and they get away they can spread out will try and limit the number once we feel like it's getting &gt;&gt; Too much right. But but nobody's going be on top of each other because you have a lot of activ8 &gt;&gt; Now if they choose ought to animals are spread out through the field they'll have a chance move around we have, move around. We have several different pans of for example will have three or four pounds pens of pigs. We'll have a baby chicks and we'll have two or three stations a baby chicks. All these things are trying to do multiple so that those people come they could spread out a a bit and not have noticed that but I also saw that you guys have if you wanted to take spirits up a couple of not just you have a win |

Take a listen. &gt;&gt; Nine one what it's like to labor and you know here right now you said the water broke. Yes, oh, within about three minutes heather robinson managed to guide a woman and labor and soon to be father through the birth of their child robinson says she's handled many stressful situations as a dispatcher she's glad this one had a happy ending here in that baby cry I got a little bit teary I was like her. It was so is just so good to know that everything went ok. You like me I had my babies at home at home on purpose. I had people that we're going to help me I knew that it was going to go fine and for her that was probably really scary for her to just all of a sudden have a baby there &gt;&gt; Mom and baby are safe but robinson doesn't know much about them together so she's very happy for the new family but there really as much time to celebrate as she was on to other emergency calls right after everything was ok &gt;&gt;. So the university of utah football team unveiled their new helmets and they're a tribute to their late running back tie jordan who passed away in december. The helmet you see here feature his jersey number twenty two and the abbreviation tj which stands for long live ty jordan jordan was the first true freshman to rush to rush for over one hundred yards back-to-back game since nineteen ninety five the five. The new helmets will be worn tomorrow for the university's red white spring game at rice stadium probably want to wear a hats, bring the umbrella along this morning there keep the rain jacket handy this morning and you're not going to need a much longer spring is going to be making a comeback. I know it felt scene out of winter earlier this week and we've and we've had the whole range of weather and those showers are going to continue today but what a beautiful view yesterday the sunset after that storm yesterday. | 1316 | 4/15/2021 | 2 News at 10:00pm   | KUTV-TV        | storm two moving in. I'll let you know when I expect more rain and snow coming up. &gt;&gt;&gt; How many utahans can say they have their own holiday. Why one vet got a proclamation from the governor. Why that wasn't his only surprise today. 2 news at 10:00 starts now. I can confirm that a body as been discovered. &gt;&gt; Thanks for being with us tonight. We're following breaking news, one person behind bars tonight after the body of one of three missing children has been found in em mitt idaho. That recovered body is that of an eight-year-old girl believed to be taryn sumners. The jim county sheriff in idaho held a news conference, he says the two other children. 17 and 14, have reportedly been in contact with officials. They are not believed to be in any danger. &gt;&gt;&gt; The older children were reported as run aways last fall. So we do not believe that they were recently with taryn. &gt;&gt; O so a complicated story for sure tonight, we'll have a full update for you, the latest information and relevant locations on kutv.com. &gt;&gt;&gt; Be sure to tune in in the morning, our morning team will have a special live report coming from idaho to get the latest on the developments in this case. &gt;&gt;&gt; New tonight, one utah sheriff will enforce mask wearing. Now that the statewide mask mandate is gone, it's up to individual businesses to decide mask or no mask. &gt;&gt;&gt; Jim in summit county, jim, masks are still pretty much a hot button issue there. &gt;&gt; Yeah, they most certainly are. We're here in summit county in the middle of a plaza where there's shops and restaurant where is people want to go. We talked with some business owners who say it's not their place to tell people to wear masks , other business owners told us they'll continue to require them until cases go down. Inside red rock brewing in park city, don't ask, just wear a mask. &gt;&gt; It's going to get harder. Because everyone has a -- their own opinion, which they're entitled to. &gt;&gt; General manager nam says for the most part, customers are wearing a mask, no problem |

Always be more good morning everyone. Happy monday to you what a. What a pretty end to our weekend. This is a look at the sunset in magnier yesterday. Thank chris williams for sending this in clear skies out there you see the beautiful color in the sky and we're starting off your morning pretty clear but it's also really cold as well mid 30s but feeling more like the upper 20s because that wind coming from the north six miles per hour but ten mile visibility you should be looking good as you're getting out on the roads this morning we were looking at those mid thirties along the wasatch front but again for every one of these temperatures feeling more like the upper 20s mid 20s in twila 22. Twenty two degrees in park city as we zoom things out you can see it's chilly across it's chilly across the state right now. Upper in st george low 30s and delta hovering in the low 30s vernal only 19 degrees right now in rock springs. So get big jacket as you get out the door you're not going to need all day though we day though we have a pleasant day in store for you with lots of sunshine since we do have a few high clouds out there those going to kind of just taper off and it's going to give way to clear skies especially this afternoon when we have just a few passing clouds. But here's the thing it's quiet right now but that's going to change pretty quickly that cold front has passed through now it's moving into the great plains but we have another system that's going to be dropping from canada and it's actually going to hover just to the west of us. So by tuesday night into thursday we're going to be seeing some active whether. We're talking about spring showers valley rain showers and melting snow mountains, snow showers. So what can we expect with this next system what we're going to start off, sunny, today temperatures fairly close to normal but that cold front that next front hits tuesday and |

| 1358 | 4/7/2021 | FOX 13's Good Day Utah  | KSTU-TV            | afternoon. That's nice recovery after storm low 50s in park city &gt;&gt; Later on today it'll ever near 70 in a lot of the central valleys and in st. George you'll make it all the way up to 80 one so it is going to be a beautiful april day pretty nice this evening as well. Clear skies and tomorrow morning it won't get is called will drop down to forty three degrees in salt lake city close that along the rest of the wasatch front lyt30 in logan harvest park city you'll drop into 43 and can have and the low temperature of fifty in st george and the next several days are looking good in s which of course is great news for anybody still in spring break it's going to be sunny warmer tomorrow dropped slightly on friday but by the weekend you make it all the way back into the low to mid &gt;&gt; 80s and we'll see about that warm into the first half of next &gt;&gt; Week and for northern utah we hang onto the sunshine will be the mid 60s again tomorrow &gt;&gt;. But behind that front &gt;&gt; Several degrees cooler on friday will make it back 70 on saturday drop back into the mid 50s by the end the weekend and then start to warm up again early next week. So danny, that roller coaster ride we've been on &gt;&gt; We're on &gt;&gt; It. We're still on it. So strap ourselves in at least we have some really nice comfortable days ahead us over the next seven days. Good morning everyone and a really nice start I guess and to our morning commute right now we do have one crash. I do want to take to in ogden that crash in salt lake city lake city is now cleared up this along washington boulevard at 12th street that left lane that left lane is blocked. Should be cleared up by about 10 o'clock so in the next or so . But that starting we're starting to see some build up right there because that lane is completely blocked your drive times no longer major commuter roots they've been looking been looking good all morning long vote in south taking twenty six minutes ninety eight south to salt 10 minutes and you've got 20 minutes for folks traveling from |

Political leaders toss the political hot potato around. That's what we're talking about now on "kansas week." [ ] &gt;&gt; Pilar: welcome to "kansas week," I'm your host pilar pedraza. &gt;&gt;&gt; We begin with a story that has dominated all week long with new laws in place, changing who can do what in a statewide medical emergency. Many are wondering where do we go from here? Under that new law, the governor's renewed mask mandate had been overturned by republican leaders in topeka. That leads counties facing possible legal problems. &gt;&gt; Reporter: people in wichita are concerned about the changes made to senate bill 40 regarding citizens and legal opportunities. &gt;&gt; I just think being, you know, being business owners and actually working here in the community. We have got to find a way on how to work together. &gt;&gt; Reporter: the county health officer says dropping county orders like the mask mandate is now more of a judicial issue than a medical issue. &gt;&gt; It just said to me that now the decisions are being made primarily due to fear or constant litigation, instead of the health policy for our community. &gt;&gt; Reporter: there are no public health orders at this time in the county, so no one can file any of these lawsuits. If this changes, anyone who is upset about masking up or social distancing can sue. They are worried that the guidelines will make it hard for the county to defend itself. &gt;&gt; It could potentially make them hesitant to put any local health officer order in effect, whether covid or some other condition. &gt;&gt; Reporter: people that we talked to are worried about the financial hardship this could have on the county. &gt;&gt; It worries me because being a taxnaver, at the end of the day if there are lawsuits, all of us will be |

| 1366 | 4/4/2021 | Diners, Drive-Ins and Dives | Food Network | salt... pepper. We'll cook these for about 20 minutes. All the vegetables are cooked. Add chicken stock. It's a roasted chicken stock, and I used tomato paste. You kind of get like a brown -- I got you. Then just Burr mix it. The tomatillo salsa's done now. Now we're gonna start our pork shanks. First thing I'm gonna do is season them. Lots of salt and pepper. That's pretty important. Little bit of oil in the pan. Throw a little vegetable on here so these will roast at the same time as the pork browns. And then I place the pork. And we're gonna roast these off in the oven at what temp? Right about 560 degrees. About seven or eight minutes. So, we're done being roasted? Yes, sir. So, I'm gonna place them into the pan. Put the veg in the pan. Homemade chicken stock? Yep. Foil this back up. Put it back in the pizza oven? Yes, sir, for three hours. It's like Christmas morning. I'm gonna go ahead and plate it. So, I've got these chipotle grits -- yellow grits spiked with chipotle. My middle name's chipotle grit. Very nice. Gorgeous. Load one of the shanks on there. Got the tomatillo salsa. Already hot. Ready to roll. Just a little garnish of queso fresco, just a little bit of chopped cilantro. And there we are -- That's the pork osso bucco with roasted-tomatillo salsa. Outrageous. Nice acidity in the tomatillo salsa. Pork's fall-apart tender. Love the poblano note. The grits... pull you into it. Good Mexican, Texan, Southern combo with a twist -- elevated. Really easy to explain. Chef, great energy. Great food. Nice job. Appreciate that. Thank you very much. Wow! At a ski resort. Pork osso bucco. WOMAN: It absolutely melts in your mouth. It's really, really good. And it's a cozy, wonderful atmosphere in here. FIERI: Which fits right in with the food. MAN: I like the mushroom stroganoff if I'm really hungry after a day of skiing. Bunch of different mushrooms. It's delicious. Okay, so, we're gonna be making the spaetzel for the vegetarian mushroom stroganoff. Love me some |

Just speaking of pudding, chocolate, something you guys ever want - That showed the food that made America. Yes. They were talking about chocolate and they were talking about Reese, who was in the shadow of Hershey. He used to work for him, but he is the first person anywhere to combine peanut butter and chocolate. No one ever did that for him. And he invented peanut butter that comes out of the Hershey - Factory. - Well, it might now, but it came out of his kitchen each day. Used to come in his house. - They, you want this job, obviously everything starts in somebody's kitchen everything in somebody's kitchen. The craft came up with a craft cheese, spider, this kitchen the Hershey, everything came out of the kitchen, man. That's awesome, that's a great show. Yeah, I like where she used against you. It makes me want to eat though. What's your liquor. - This is a very small new distillery. It's called old 55. This is their bottle than bond. Which means there are all kinds of rules. That has to be one season's worth of grain. It can't be from two different years. It's gotta be one distillery. It's gotta be one batch. It's gotta be exactly 100 proof. There are all kinds of rules to be bottled in bond. This particular one is 112 and a half. So it's downright luck and it's a two grain whiskey. It's corn and wheat. Okay. - Okay, very nice. | 1405 | 3/28/2021 | America's Heartland | KTEJ-TV | Narr: Goat's milk is the beverage of choice in many countries around the world. And goat's milk is used for drinking, cooking and baking. You've probably had cheese made from goat's milk, but if you want to sample something different, there are products using goat's milk for butter, ice cream, yogurt, even candy. Sarah: Like any other business, agriculture demands that you adapt if you want to stay profitable and stay in business. Having their land do double duty was not something that one Utah family had in mind. But being successful meant they had to look at their natural resources in quite a different way. Our John Lobertini says the solution was a combination of ranching, and recreation. John: The stunning views across Park City, Utah speak for themselves. The mountains... the blue skies... the red rock cliffs. Steve: Hey you, how you doing? John: But rancher Steve Osguthorpe is changing the dialogue about working the land in this outdoor paradise. Steve: We saw what was happening in the Park City area. We were either gonna have to get out of agriculture or sell our property and leave. But there was no other place we wanted to go and we didn't want to be driven out. [sound of bus passing] John: Driven out by tourism. By the early 1990s this old mining town was becoming a playground for the rich and famous. The Osguthorpe's didn't know much about outdoor recreation, but they did own tens of thousands of acres here. Horseback riding seemed like a natural pursuit, and word spread. Actors Jim Carey and Jenny McCarthy came. As did pro-basketball star Karl Malone, and TV news anchors Matt Lauer and Katie Couric during the 2002 Winter Olympics. Mike: Left leg in the stirrup there, grab that horn, up and over! Patty: The Genco family came west from Baltimore. I was perfectly content juststayin' on the East Coast, until I took a trip out here and I was just-it's breath taking. I had to get my family out here to come out and see it. John: But Park City is one |

It's not out yet but just wanting that is available at the big >> Thing >> He wants to highlight here is that he believes that he's proving it by getting a shot in the arm >> That the >> Vaccine is safe and so he and his family are going to be getting this and he said that he wanted to wait though a lot of people may have been kind of scrutinizing his decision to wait. He said he wanted wait because he had opportunities previously to do this but he wanted wait until it was his turn basically for his age and his vulnerability group really quickly want to let you know also that four counties are now in low transmission and most are in moderate so things are looking really good here and just the number of doses continues to skyrocket that have been administered here. But we just heard the seven day rolling average it down to 490 from four hundred and eighty eighty nine so the cases are going down one thing that we've all noticed is that is that the rate the decreasing rate at this point so the positivity is dropping the positivity is dropping but you know the day over day cases they're staying about the same which is kind of interesting so we're going >> To continue to follow this. We're going to get video him getting a shot in the arm when he and his wife abby do this. So we have fundraisers twice a month weeklong fundraisers online whereby I give money to specific animal sanctuaries. Twice a month I write a check to animal sanctuary in right now we're in the middle of Nestle's and We're in another fundraiser online for nestles in company because they have a new farm animal rescue program that we're supporting. So that is what this brand does its great coffee to help save animals. We love it OK so you're making something really different mixing a little bit of this and a little bit of that I am today I'm making to fund spring. &gt;&gt; Cold brew drinks and the first one I'm going to make is called it's a road. It's a rose Cartman. Cold brew drink. &gt;&gt; And it is made with the fluffy cow. the Q so how do you cold brew by the way. &gt;&gt; Is if you want to buy this you would want it to be ground coarsely and then it's like 4 ounces of coarsely ground beans in a quarter water you soak it overnight 12 to 24 hours depending on your taste. The new strain it and then you have cold brew |

The winter adventure made possible by other kids making a difference in their community. >> I caught up with one 16-year-old who raised money for the trip in the sweetest way possible. >> It's kind of a lengthy process, I have to admit. It takes a lot of planning in advance. >> During quarantine ellie and her sister started two sisters macaroons. >> We can add this slowly, as I whisk in. >> Cc for c helps kids in central texas facing rare or undiagnosed disorders, like nick nicolette. >> The kids I have worked with so closely over the years. >> Sales from the sweet treats raised over $1,700 for the nonprofit. >> I donated 100 hers of the proceeds to cc4c which they then use that money for their ski trip with all the kids. >> 9-year-old irene took part in the winter adventure to the national ability adventure in park city, utah. >> Zoom zoom. >> On the sled. >> Mom mindy says irene had the time of her life. >> It was amazing there. >> As a family, we don't get to go skiing or do something like that. Normally we wouldn't be able to do something like that. >> Mindy says cc4c has done so much for her daughter. >> We couldn't have done a lot of the procedures we needed then had we not gotten help. >> This organization warms ellie's heart so much, she plans to keep baking a difference for these kids. >> I feel like I'm on top of the world. Undescribable feeling. Awesome to know the things I'm doing, hard work is all paying off. >> Those macaroons look so good. >> I haven't even tried them yet. I'm so excited. She is an amazing young lady. >> 16 years old. >> She could take that money and spring it for spring break. I love it. If you want to support cc4c, you can take part in their virtual rare wine and chocolate gala on april 17th. That will include ellie's macaroons. | 1553 | 3/21/2021 | America's Heartland   | KUFM-TV           | You've probably had cheese made from goat's milk, but if you want to sample something different, there are products using goat's milk for butter, ice cream, yogurt, even candy. Sarah: Like any other business, agriculture demands that you adapt if you want to stay profitable and stay in business. Having their land do double duty was not something that one Utah family had in mind. But being successful meant they had to look at their natural resources in quite a different way. Our John Lobertini says the solution was a combination of ranching, and recreation. John: The stunning views across Park City, Utah speak for themselves. The mountains... the blue skies... the red rock cliffs. Steve: Hey you, how you doing? John: But rancher Steve Osguthorpe is changing the dialogue about working the land in this outdoor paradise. Steve: We saw what was happening in the Park City area. We were either gonna have to get out of agriculture or sell our property and leave. But there was no other place we wanted to go and we didn't want to be driven out. [sound of bus passing] John: Driven out by tourism. By the early 1990s this old mining town was becoming a playground for the rich and famous. The Osguthorpe's didn't know much about outdoor recreation, but they did own tens of thousands of acres here. Horseback riding seemed like a natural pursuit, and word spread. Actors Jim Carey and Jenny McCarthy came. As did pro-basketball star Karl Malone, and TV news anchors Matt Lauer and Katie Couric during the 2002 Winter Olympics. Mike: Left leg in the stirrup there, grab that horn, up and over! Patty: The Genco family came west from Baltimore. I was perfectly content just stayin' on the East Coast, until I took a trip out here and I was just-it's breath taking. I had to get my family out here to come out and see it. John: But Park City is one of those rare places that offers something year around. &gt;&gt;Everybody's first time? No, you've all been |

And enjoy time with friends and do it from the comfort of their own home this year. So that's tomorrow and then Friday evening we're doing a number of in their dinners. Some of them virtual some of them in person deer Valley resort is hosting a venue to interrupt that the empire lives fireside dining has is to hosting an in person dinner and of course following CDC guidelines and social distancing insights. So lots of events on Friday as well and then our final evening we are hosting a gala kind of like Golden Globes where you know build show with. Features from our NBC participants and from our wine makers and from our and icy founder and staff. So a plethora of activity this year. Even though it's a little bit different than we normally do it. &gt;&gt; And Mack was it mean to you to be here in Utah in 4 parallel Napa Valley to be involved in this event well I've been living in Park City 1978 in the wine business since 1999 1 of the things is that the Napa Valley has been involved in for about 15 years. And that come from California and all over to support this. Get asked a lot for to support charitable events all over the country but living in Park City we found out about the National ability. Everything they do is just top notch. And of all the events we another one reached a this is one of the most premier in their country. One because of the program into because all the money they raise goes to the programs and we're just honored to be part of it we just played a small part with our wind rain there's about is this say about 30 other wineries that come out each year for this and a little different this year with virtual however we're kind of used to that because the Napa Valley were shut down this year because of the fires in covid and we've had to do virtual case teams and change the whole way we do business and this was a challenge for us but we're going make it work and for a great cause as you mentioned Kerry tell us a little bit |

| 1664 | 2/24/2021 | ABC 4 Utah News at 6pm  | KTVX-TV                 | being down is remarkably similar to the days passed and that's that's tough to find these days. >> So there's some optimism he says vaccines are being distributed. We have snow falling as we speak it was a good February. And so there's a lot of optimism into March and then of course we have spring break with a lot of skiers likely they hit the slopes by the park City Mountain resort on Nick mcgurk, ABC 4 And now time for a first look at the wather forecast snow and colder temperatures coming into the state and yes that's a pretty picture behind Nick today right on definitely so as those snow showers impact summit County at this hour. We saw them as the cold front moved through this was along the benches just light snow us get the snow. >> In most Valley locations are mountains picking up light snow from this but still we have some activity out there satellite radar shows the clouds sinking into central Utah in a few isolated pockets of snowfall. What happens to be right there and summit Park and near Park City look activity on the backside the Wasatch right now we zoom in and this the swath of moisture over 80 near summit Park also seeing some light showers are headed for and Morgan at this hour. So we know that we're not completely done with those snow showers and we've got cold air in place with a below average air mass sinking into the state behind that cold front temperatures right now in the 30's along the Wasatch front you can see the areas impacted by the cold front 38 in Cedar city 47 in Moab low 60 still in Saint George. Gusty winds will be an issue into tonight we're going to see those 20's about cold temperatures on deck with clear skies and colder air surging into the state that will impact us so expect teens now most of the snow activity will stay to the north of us into our Thursday but that pattern doesn't hold on I'll show you why coming up in my full forecast in just a few moments. Glenn Emily over to you. >> Thank you a lot of students |

Good morning, thanks for waking up there on the rise and shine k you are women all weather version of rise and shine to keep your forewarned with the latest on this winter weather. We've got a tough road conditions out there for anyone he needs to get out in it if you're an essential worker. >> There are some roads are passable getting out of your neighborhood is going to be a serious if you don't have to get out if you can put off that trip for any reason. You should do that and stay inside we're getting heavy snow right now on the roads are continuing to deteriorate all depends on where you live depending on how much snow. You know that's the way these winter weather storms kind of working really. >> Yeah that's right and we are tracking some of the light to moderate snow now moving in and then some flurries throughout the rest of the day today. But the good news is this is the last of it ok so we can get through this. But boy you want to stay off the roads. We have our trackers out they've been working so hard you're seeing ski island right here is kind of weird to see a boat in I can't imagine that's a good idea to have it by the water right now as things are freezing up. But let's take a look at are stormtracker stream from kevin joseph e joseph e you were out yesterday in the main band that brought us 4 to 5 inches of snow around the metro and now we're tracking this new band of snow moving in. >> That's right and that light to moderate snow northwest >> And I 44 that's a lot of readings snowpack residential streets and I know making second his way on up so you got it. The way those went on the highways there are other them to throw a bunch of much of snow caused me to lose visibility so get on base hitting in the car in front of me, but people have a lot of time trying to get out of their neighborhoods all this any low profile car you can makes no direction where clouds of pollen snow in lee back to you. >> |

[atmospheric music] Hi. I am Jacqi Livingston, and welcome to the Stein Eriksen Residences in beautiful Park City, Utah. This new property is located on the slopes of Deer Valley Resort, offering a collection of 15 private homes and 39 opulent condominium units located just minutes from Stein Eriksen Lodge, one of Park City's most luxurious hotels. This expansive six-bedroom home offers over 6,200 square feet of luxurious home space and is the crown jewel of the Stein Eriksen Residences property. This home is all about entertaining, and the Great Room does that with style. These awe-inspiring mountain views are framed by these double-height windows. It is the epitome of mountain town chic where no detail has been left to chance. The large wood-burning fireplace is encased in veined marble, and is the perfect place to curl up with hot toddies after a great day on the slopes with friends. High ceilings give a sense of grandeur, highlighting the lofty peaks surrounding us, while the cascading chandelier bathes the room in romantic light. Imagine yourself reclining on this lush sofa with your friends and family. What could be better? The design of this home is made for seamless enjoyment. From relaxing in the living room to whipping up a fancy feast in the adjoining chef's kitchen and being open to the rest of the home, you can cook and still be part of the fun. This counter is a great place for a quick breakfast before hitting the slopes. Or choose the more formal dining room with these incredible mountain views. And to round off this space are the custom wood cabinets and pendant icicle lights that add that rustic mountain charm. Because after all, this is a ski chalet. And speaking of skiing, you can access the slopes from the entire footprint of the Stein Eriksen Residences, which features the Silver Aspen Spa, 7880 Club |

She argues is good for rural utah, good for low income areas and it's necessary now that more utahns are forced to work from home. The &gt;&gt; Biden administration and many teachers' unions are now at odds with the centers for disease control over reopening schools and his parents are caught in the middle. Congress is still trying to pass a big covid relief package . Douglas later has more from washington this morning. Hi, doug. Good morning. Many &gt;&gt; Parents are of course anxious to get their kids back to school. Many teacher trepidations about the prospect of going back and all of this is playing into the covid relief debate here on capitol hill. Welcome home. This is our new &gt;&gt; Home. President biden welcomed a group of senate democrats to the oval office stressing unity but the real divide now may be with the centers for disease control safe &gt;&gt; Reopening does not suggest teachers need to be vaccinated in order to reopen safely &gt;&gt;. The cdc director said evidence clearly supports reopening schools. It's an issue that biden once championed but some of the teachers unions that back him are adamant that it's still not safe and the white house tried to temper the cdc's message &gt;&gt;. They have not released their official guidance yet from the cdc on the vaccination of teachers and what would be needed to ensure the safe reopening of schools &gt;&gt;. Educators have a right to express their fears. Teachers &gt;&gt; Unions are at the center of school battles playing out around the country over reopening this &gt;&gt; Rescue package will include resources for schools to make that happen quicker. Democrats and teachers unions say schools need more money to make facilities safer. Part of the nearly two trillion relief package they're fighting for. Republicans say k through 12 |

| 1927 | 1/31/2021 | Murdoch Mysteries | WNBC2-TV | Stroll through historic Main Street full of galleries, boutique shops, restaurants, and bars, or try something outdoors, like dog sledding, snowmobiling, tubing-- which I love, it's so much fun-- and hot air balloon rides. You can even go bobsledding at Utah Olympic Park. But visiting is one thing. Should you want more permanent digs, we have an inside look at a new take on alpine living at the Stein Residences. We join Jacqi Livingston for a tour of one such home that perfectly captures what makes living in Park City so enchanting. [atmospheric music] Hi. I am Jacqi Livingston, and welcome to the Stein Eriksen Residences in beautiful Park City, Utah. This new property is located on the slopes of Deer Valley Resort, offering a collection of 15 private homes and 39 opulent condominium units located just minutes from Stein Eriksen Lodge, one of Park City's most luxurious hotels. This expansive six-bedroom home offers over 6,200 square feet of luxurious home space and is the crown jewel of the Stein Eriksen Residences property. This home is all about entertaining, and the Great Room does that with style. These awe-inspiring mountain views are framed by these double-height windows. It is the epitome of mountain town chic where no detail has been left to chance. The large wood-burning fireplace is encased in veined marble, and is the perfect place to curl up with hot toddies after a great day on the slopes with friends. High ceilings give a sense of grandeur, highlighting the lofty peaks surrounding us, while the cascading chandelier bathes the room in romantic light. Imagine yourself reclining on this lush sofa with your friends and family. What could be better? The design of this home is made for seamless enjoyment. From relaxing in the living room to whipping up a fancy feast in the adjoining chef's kitchen and being open to the rest of the home, you can cook and still be part of the fun. This counter is a great place for a quick breakfast |

Or choose the more formal dining room with these incredible mountain views. And to round off this space are the custom wood cabinets and pendant icicle lights that add that rustic mountain charm. Because after all, this is a ski chalet. And speaking of skiing, you can access the slopes from the entire footprint of the Stein Eriksen Residences, which features the Silver Aspen Spa, 7880 Club restaurant, and indoor and outdoor pools. But if you want to stay closer to home, you can just go downstairs to your additional living room or ski locker room and access your own private hot tub. The bedrooms of the home are each unique and configured for staying with friends, family, or more intimate getaways. And the master bedroom is designed with that in mind. With a wall of windows and a private deck, this is the perfect place to wake up with these awe-inspiring mountain views. And with its own fireplace, it is also the perfect place to end your night. The on-suite bath gives you every opportunity to pamper yourself in the steam shower or the freestanding tub. And why bathe inside when you can take a bath practically on the slopes? I hope that you can see why Park City is winter's favorite town, and a ski chalet at the Stein Eriksen Residences is the best place to enjoy it. See you on the slopes! Don't go anywhere. Coming up after the break, we head back east to check out a massive triplex penthouse in the Flatiron District. Stick around, we'll be right back. Park City is home to the nation's largest ski resort, Park City Mountain, and one of the top-rated resorts in the country, Deer Valley. And this charming town offers as much fun off the slopes as it does on them. Stroll through historic Main Street full of galleries, boutique shops, restaurants, and bars, or try something outdoors, like dog sledding, snowmobiling, tubing-- which I love, it's so much fun-- and hot air balloon rides. You can even go bobsledding at Utah Olympic Park. But visiting is one thing. Should you want more permanent digs, we have an inside look at a new take on alpine living at the Stein Residences. We |

| 1937 | 1/29/2021 | KSL 5 News at 10   | KSL-TV              | farmers to help those in announce only--no music Good evening. We are in a weather alert right now as snow and rain is coming down along the This is a live picture from Layton where you can see just there. and check out this video just in from North Salt Lake... the storm hitting hard there... you can see the snow plows are already busy at work. Udot says the snow is making for -treacherous conditions on some roads, especially through the canyons... They are seeing low visibility and -slippery streets. And there have already been several -slide offs in the canyons.. delays. And all of this snow is making for dangerous conditions in our mountains. Right now the avalanche danger is high in Ogden, Salt Lake and Provo. And more snow is coming over night. Let's get to Kristen who's tracking where the storm is right now and what we can expect in the coming hours. Rain and snow will increase across Utah tonight and into early tomorrow. The valleys probably won't see too much snow accumulation, but the benches will have a little more. This will be a good wet snow event for the mountains. We'll have a look ahead at the weekend weather and talk about the storm arriving next week. A winter storm plus the Sundance -Film Festival usually equals a huge City. This year...like so much else, the equation looks a lot different. News Specialist Andrew Adams has the story. 38-:44andrew adams, ksl 5 news: "it has been snowing and snowing and snowing...and it's going to continue snowing. Usually that's a fantastic setup for the opening weekend of sundance...but unfortunately this year...not exactly shaping up that way." In Park City... ...winter is seldom upstaged."...AND of course...with behind us here...absolutely amazing. It's been beautiful." This weekend was supposed to be the exception..."...STREETS are usually full, lot of celebrities obviously..." ...but with the Sundance Film Festival moving online this year due to the pandemic Robbie cort: " it's just |

The shop where budha is called oliver and princess natasha. Let's check it out for we're open in utah. Hey guys. Welcome back for we're open in utah. We went all the way over to the other side of the building . Thank you so much for being here with us. You know the whole purpose of doing we're open in utah is the highlight business is small business such as yours that you're safe, you're falling all the cdc guidelines and that you're open. Tell me tell me about the openness. What should I know about >> You ? So the simple message is we're best I like to bring nature into the home to decorate to make a cozy filling and it just I just bring business bird's nest type stuff into the home to make cozier >>. So it's like come to your store and I'm here shopping and take something with me. I'm adding to the love comfort what do you say what am I >> Coming here to take at >> The cozy feeling and just and just somewhere where something that you can take home to your safe place my my folks as we look back we spent a lot time in our house. We should make it look nice. We should make it feel homely. That's exactly I listen to her more >>. Yeah. May not be anybody >> Happy now this table right here you wanted to show off because this is typical of what >> You're about. Exactly. So >> I've got a small business that brings the house plants house can't seem to make everyone happier especially in the winter and especially through all this covid she does amazing work. She does all out of her home and then also anything with blanket and all that and if everybody's looking at it like I I'm like oh there's no way I could make that you don't worry just coming by it. That's right. Yes. Are >> You open seven days a week. How do I get online >>. I'm online and I'm open wednesday through sunday ten to four. Ok, one last question that we'd like to it's just a fun question who's open in utah |

And we're gonna go meet chef Matt Harris. His history of creating and crafting amazing cuisine for us in Park City is the stuff of legends. Can't wait to see what he's creating here at the St. Regis at Rime. Chef Matt, how are you? Hey, how are you? Good to see you. Welcome to the St. Regis. Oh, it's beautiful. Yeah. It's a fine time of the year to be up here. Absolutely. And it's like life elevated, but everything is elevated in Park City and especially at Deer Valley at the St. Regis. Absolutely. I would love to just sit down with you talk food, talk wine, talk everything Rime. No, absolutely. I'd love to show you through everything. Lead the way my friend. Absolutely. Chef Matt. I mean, you're not kidding when you say this is an experience. This is beautiful. From the time you come up the funicular 'til you walk into the dining room, I mean, you see this, ride on the slopes here. Yeah. I mean, it's fantastic. It's amazing. I love skiing at Deer Valley. It's like one of my favorite mountains. And I know that when I spend a day up here, I can hit up the oyster shack at the top of the Jordanelle gondola, and that I come here for my apres ski, and just, this is like... you know you've made it when you can actually get a table, outside, on the deck of the St. Regis because it's just where everyone wants to be. No, absolutely. We pack it in here it has a little bit of everything for everybody and it's fantastic. You know, we wanna mention COVID right away. Both of us are wearing masks. So there's a lot of things that you're doing up here at Rime to keep people safe. Talk to us a little bit about that. So we've actually expanded our patios, expanded our terrace area with heaters and our table settings to be more conducive to people to sit outside. When you're skiing, you're dressed to be outside. There's a basketball court, a trampoline, to say nothing of the two cabanas, fully-equipped kitchen, and dining area. And a spot for the little ones, if you have a little one named Spot. And take a look at these views! As you can see, this penthouse is like no other. Although just steps from Central Park and minutes away from midtown Manhattan, you'll still feel like you're a world away. I hope you enjoyed the tour. Has anything so far on today's show inspired you to make some changes in your own home? Well, check out our Amazon page at amazon.com/shop/openhousetv. Stick around. Coming up after the break, we head to Park City, Utah. You are not going to want to miss this. Welcome back. Winter doldrums got you down? Well, why not head to what's known as winter's favorite town, Park City, Utah? Park City is home to the nation's largest ski resort, Park City Mountain, and one of the top-rated resorts in the country, Deer Valley. And this charming town offers as much fun off the slopes as it does on them. Stroll through historic Main Street full of galleries, boutique shops, restaurants, and bars, or try something outdoors, like dog sledding, snowmobiling, tubing-- which I love, it's so much fun-- and hot air balloon rides. You can even go bobsledding at Utah Olympic Park. But visiting is one thing. Should you want more permanent digs, we have an inside look at a new take on alpine living at the Stein Residences. We join Jacqi Livingston for a tour of one such home that perfectly captures what makes living in Park City so enchanting. [atmospheric music] Hi. I am Jacqi Livingston, and welcome to the Stein Eriksen Residences in beautiful Park City, Utah. This new property is located on the slopes of Deer Valley Resort, offering a collection of 15 private homes and 39 opulent condominium units located just minutes from Stein Eriksen |

High ceilings give a sense of grandeur, highlighting the lofty peaks surrounding us, while the cascading chandelier bathes the room in romantic light. Imagine yourself reclining on this lush sofa with your friends and family. What could be better? The design of this home is made for seamless enjoyment. From relaxing in the living room to whipping up a fancy feast in the adjoining chef's kitchen and being open to the rest of the home, you can cook and still be part of the fun. This counter is a great place for a quick breakfast before hitting the slopes. Or choose the more formal dining room with these incredible mountain views. And to round off this space are the custom wood cabinets and pendant icicle lights that add that rustic mountain charm. Because after all, this is a ski chalet. And speaking of skiing, you can access the slopes from the entire footprint of the Stein Eriksen Residences, which features the Silver Aspen Spa, 7880 Club restaurant, and indoor and outdoor pools. But if you want to stay closer to home, you can just go downstairs to your additional living room or ski locker room and access your own private hot tub. The bedrooms of the home are each unique and configured for staying with friends, family, or more intimate getaways. And the master bedroom is designed with that in mind. With a wall of windows and a private deck, this is the perfect place to wake up with these awe-inspiring mountain views. And with its own fireplace, it is also the perfect place to end your night. The on-suite bath gives you every opportunity to pamper yourself in the steam shower or the freestanding tub. And why bathe inside when you can take a bath practically on the slopes? I hope that you can see why Park City is winter's favorite town, and a ski chalet at the Stein Eriksen Residences is the best place to enjoy it. See you on the slopes! Don't go anywhere |

There's a basketball court, a trampoline, to say nothing of the two cabanas, fully-equipped kitchen, and dining area. And a spot for the little ones, if you have a little one named Spot. And take a look at these views! As you can see, this penthouse is like no other. Although just steps from Central Park and minutes away from midtown Manhattan, you'll still feel like you're a world away. I hope you enjoyed the tour. Has anything so far on today's show inspired you to make some changes in your own home? Well, check out our Amazon page at amazon.com/shop/openhousetv. Stick around. Coming up after the break, we head to Park City, Utah. You are not going to want to miss this. Welcome back. Winter doldrums got you down? Well, why not head to what's known as winter's favorite town, Park City, Utah? Park City is home to the nation's largest ski resort, Park City Mountain, and one of the top-rated resorts in the country, Deer Valley. And this charming town offers as much fun off the slopes as it does on them. Stroll through historic Main Street full of galleries, boutique shops, restaurants, and bars, or try something outdoors, like dog sledding, snowmobiling, tubing-- which I love, it's so much fun-- and hot air balloon rides. You can even go bobsledding at Utah Olympic Park. But visiting is one thing. Should you want more permanent digs, we have an inside look at a new take on alpine living at the Stein Residences. We join Jacqi Livingston for a tour of one such home that perfectly captures what makes living in Park City so enchanting. [atmospheric music] Hi. I am Jacqi Livingston, and welcome to the Stein Eriksen Residences in beautiful Park City, Utah. This new property is located on the slopes of Deer Valley Resort, offering a collection of 15 private homes and 39 opulent condominium units located just minutes from Stein Eriksen |

| 2049 | 1/17/2021 | Open House NYC   | WNBC-TV         | and is the perfect place to curl up with hot toddies after a great day on the slopes with friends. High ceilings give a sense of grandeur, highlighting the lofty peaks surrounding us, while the cascading chandelier bathes the room in romantic light. Imagine yourself reclining on this lush sofa with your friends and family. What could be better? The design of this home is made for seamless enjoyment. From relaxing in the living room to whipping up a fancy feast in the adjoining chef's kitchen and being open to the rest of the home, you can cook and still be part of the fun. This counter is a great place for a quick breakfast before hitting the slopes. Or choose the more formal dining room with these incredible mountain views. And to round off this space are the custom wood cabinets and pendant icicle lights that add that rustic mountain charm. Because after all, this is a ski chalet. And speaking of skiing, you can access the slopes from the entire footprint of the Stein Eriksen Residences, which features the Silver Aspen Spa, 7880 Club restaurant, and indoor and outdoor pools. But if you want to stay closer to home, you can just go downstairs to your additional living room or ski locker room and access your own private hot tub. The bedrooms of the home are each unique and configured for staying with friends, family, or more intimate getaways. And the master bedroom is designed with that in mind. With a wall of windows and a private deck, this is the perfect place to wake up with these awe-inspiring mountain views. And with its own fireplace, it is also the perfect place to end your night. The on-suite bath gives you every opportunity to pamper yourself in the steam shower or the freestanding tub. And why bathe inside when you can take a bath practically on the slopes? I hope that you can see why Park City is winter's favorite town, and a ski chalet at the Stein Eriksen Residences is the best place to enjoy it. See you on the slopes! Don't go anywhere |

It's an expansion of the company's covid-19 section on profile pages where reviewers can mark whether staff are wearing masks and social distancing and forced. Yelp says it's move they hope will make consumers more confident in supporting local businesses, adding there must be several complaints submitted for users are warned about how your business is handling the pandemic. Try paddleford is the fear of needles and the cdc estimates that seven percent of adults avoid immunizations because of it, which could be an issue for some trying to get the covid night trying to get the cold vaccine. However, doctors say there are a few ways to beat that fear for those with a mild version they suggest practicing relaxation techniques beforehand distracting yourself during the shot by doing something like playing a game on your phone &gt;&gt; For more for those with more severe cases, doctors suggest behavioral therapy which could take between four in ten sessions to treat needle phobia so real fear out there for some if I have to people in my family that go that way, you know. So &gt;&gt; That's how I do actually . Yeah, but I kind of just what do you do normally it helps you have a really good doctor who will just start talking to you sometimes it'll just happen so quick. He's just talking to me he or she and I don't even realize the shot just happen. I know that's a good thing. It's like it's not even a big deal. It's not. And I'm just like why need him ? You &gt;&gt; I don't know. I don't know. But sometimes you just got to face your fears and no you know you're doing what's right. So I'm grateful for the doctors have helped me through that. | 2207 | 1/10/2021 | Taste Utah   | KTVX-TV                 | we're in Salt Lake City, and exploring a craft casual style restaurant. Yes, that's right, I said craft casual, which means you get your food fast, but the roots of Pretty Bird are all fine dine. Chef Viet Pham leans heavily on his vast knowledge of composition and ingredients to introduce our palates to a chicken sandwich flavor bomb of epic proportions. Next, we head to the top of historic Main Street in Park City, and we visit Riverhorse Provisions, which has some pretty big shoes to fill, considering it's the sister restaurant to the sophisticated fine dining experience of Riverhorse on Main. At Riverhorse Provisions, you can expect the same great quality, a chef-driven kitchen, and the care you'd get at any fine dine restaurant, with a little more speed. You can always enjoy your meal there or get it to go and hit the slopes. "Taste Utah" is more than your typical food show. It's about local flavor, from roots through authentically Utah restaurants. It's the people and the places that make Utah a dining destination. There's so much soil and earth to uncover, and still so many great Utah restaurants to savor. We bring you the stories and we spread the love. The best thing about Utah, the views along the way, they're not bad either. We're not afraid to get our hands just a little dirty. Food is a necessity, and it's how we create it and share it and experience it together that truly shapes our community. Whether you're choosing to dine in our dining room, order to go, or get delivery, you always have a seat at this table. Are you ready to taste Utah? (upbeat music) We're on Regent Street in Salt Lake City, and we have arrived at Pretty Bird. It is the brain child of Chef Viet Pham |

| 2327 | 1/4/2021 | FOX 13 News Live at Noon  | KSTU-TV                    | so right now we are in the upper 30s, 40s along the wasatch front. Thirty one in park city, forty one will as we zoom things out still colder in eastern utah. Sixteen green river still at eleven degrees in vernal. But st. George you're up to the mid 40s right now. So here's the name of the game right now we've got a few clouds that are moving in to northwestern utah. For the most part though, you're seeing a whole lot of sunshine. We've had some showers and storms in central nevada and we have a weak disturbance that might bring a few light showers mainly to our far northern mountains this afternoon. But as we zoom things out, we have a bigger storm that's on the way that's going to be dropping from the pacific northwest high pressure pushes out this storm is going to be bringing valley rain mountain snow and also as a cold front pushes through, it's going to bring a drop in our temperatures. So what can we expect our northern mountains seeing anywhere from five to 10 inches of snow light valley snow mainly north by 80 not much accumulation down to a valley floor. But even if we see a little bit of accumulation that is going to impact your drive tomorrow, it's going to make for slick commute winter weather advisories in place until noon tomorrow. That's for our wasatch mountains, our western yentas. But as we get back to today, you can see we're several degrees above average will be in the low 40s along the wasatch front 50 seven in st. George and tonight as those temperatures drop after midnight, we are expecting those rain showers to change over to snow completely. But it's going to start off a showers because of how mild our temperatures are going into the southern time. Not too shabby. Lots of sunshine staying in the mid 50s until midweek and northern utah once this storm passes through tomorrow it's a quick mover. We get a break wednesday another week storm passes by on thursday and then a stronger storm that's going to be |

| 2336 | 1/3/2021 | Taste Utah | KTVX-TV | it's all about community. We're at Hearth and Hill in Park City. They recently just celebrated their three-year anniversary, and we can see why. From the beginning, they've offered a sophisticated menu full of unique and ingredient-driven selections, and they've been doing everything they can think of to support their customers and their staff through a very tricky 2020. Hearth and Hill is definitely cementing their cornerstone in the foundation of our Utah restaurant community. Then, we highlight a classic Utah restaurant, The Soup Kitchen. Now, their original location has been an intricate part of the Sugar House community of restaurants and storefronts for years, but they actually have four locations, including their Salt Lake City location, which boasts a full commissary kitchen complete with enormous double-barreled soup kettles and even a bakery. We're taking you behind the scenes to show you how Stewart and his team are scratch making their noodles for their crowd pleasing chicken noodle soup, as well as stirring up flavors, simmering goodness, and serving up classic soups that warm our bodies and our hearts. (upbeat music) "Taste Utah" is more than your typical food show. It's about local flavor, from roots through authentically Utah restaurants. It's the people and the places that make Utah a dining destination. There's so much soil and earth to uncover, and still so many great Utah restaurants to savor. We bring you the stories and we spread the love. The best thing about Utah, the views along the way, they're not bad either. We're not afraid to get our hands just a little dirty. Food is a necessity. It's how we create it and share it and experience it together that truly shapes our community. Whether you're choosing to dine in our dining room, order to go, or get delivery, you always have a seat at this table. Are you ready to taste Utah? |

| 2337 | 1/3/2021 | Taste Utah   | KTVX-TV                | Park City. We're in the Kimball Junction area, the Redstone complex to be more accurate, sort of on the east side. And we're at Hearth and Hill. Hearth and Hill is a restaurant that is full of Americana. They're doing lunch, they're doing dinner, they're doing brunch, and they really have innovated and adapted during this very, very trying time of COVID. We're about to meet Brooks. We're gonna talk all things Hearth and Hill. Are you ready? Hey, mask up, it's never gonna get old. Stay safe. (upbeat music) Brooks, how are you? BROOKS: I'm well, Katy, welcome back to Hearth and Hill. KATY: Oh, thank you. So good to be back here. I'm so excited to talk to you about your menu, about what's new, what's going on. BROOKS: As are we! Yes, we're so excited to have you back. Come with me and let's go to a table. KATY: Lead the way! Brooks, it's so nice to be sitting here inside a restaurant. We're both being safe, we're wearing our masks. Hearth and Hill is doing an impeccable job of social distancing. It looks like you even have QR codes. Talk to us a little bit about lengths that you're going to make sure that people stay safe. Saying all that, I am gonna take my mask off and eat, 'cause that's what one must do. BROOKS: Absolutely, yes. Please, dig in. But we're grateful to have you. Thank you for coming up here to Park City Kimball Junction. Here at Hearth and Hill, we've really striven to be the leader of Park City, in the state, in terms of how to best operate a restaurant during COVID. We have little signs on our tables that ask our guests to have their masks on when the associates are at the table, so that our staff can continue to be as healthy and safe as possible during these times. We assure that if they were to get sick that they will get paid for the two weeks that they're off. And then with our guests as well, making sure that they're kept as safe as possible, social distancing throughout the restaurant, and making sure that we do everything by them as well to keep them healthy while |
