The goals of this session are to foster a sense of community among PCF Young Investigators that will lead to the formation of new collaborations, friendships and networks of colleagues to help you throughout your career.

PCF YIs will be assigned go on five 20 minute-long "speed dates" in groups of 6 individuals based on shared research and personal interests. On each date, YIs will introduce themselves, discuss the questions posed by the moderators, share ideas and outline paths of research synergy. Following the dates, YIs will reconvene in an open forum to share their experiences with the entire YI Community.
