

Contents

Preface Paul Thompson	6	270	Special Commissions
		276	Chalet in Megève, 1951
JAPAN 1940–42	13	280	The Unité d’habitation of Toulon, 1951
Advising the Production of Industrial Art in Japan, February, 1940	14	284	The End of the Perriand-Jeanneret Collaboration, 1951
Long before the Mission to Japan	18	288	The Milan Triennial, 1951
The Context of the Mission	20	292	The First Competition for the Cité universitaire de Antony, 1950–51
Arrival in Japan, August, 1940	22	302	The Maison de l’étudiant en médecine, 1949–51
The Diversity of Japanese Production: Mingei	24	310	The BCB
An Exhibition Project	28	312	Furnishings for Africa, 1950–53
The Discovery of Kyoto	29	314	The Unité d’habitation Air France in Brazzaville, 1950–52
Visits, Lectures, Advising	34	334	Building and Villa in Conakry, Banks in Douala and Fort-Lamy, 1952–54
Preparing the Exhibition	40	340	The Hôtel de France in Conakry, 1952–53
“Selection, Tradition, Creation”—Tokyo and Osaka, 1941	78	348	The Apartment on rue Las Cases 1951–52
The Exhibition Catalog: A Critique of the Authorities	100	352	Formes Utiles at the Salon des arts ménagers, 1952
The Apartment of Étienne Sicard, 1941	102
The End of the Mission in Japan	106	357	COLLABORATION WITH THE ATELIERS JEAN PROUVÉ
Waiting for a Ship to the United States or France	108	358	The Collaboration Agreement, 1952
		364	Aesthetic and Practical Improvement of Jean Prouvé’s Furniture
INDOCHINA 1942–46	119	366	Two Iconic Creations, 1952
First Trip for an Exhibition and a Lecture, 1942	120	368	The Maison de la Tunisie at the Cité universitaire, 1952
Advising Craftsmen and Small Industries in Indochina, 1943–44	122	388	The Maison du Mexique at the Cité universitaire, 1952
		396	The Furnishing of High Schools, Student Housing Projects, 1952–53
RECONSTRUCTION	141	402	Residential Housing for the Ateliers Jean Prouvé, 1952–53
Return to France, 1946	142	408	Issuing of Charlotte Perriand’s Furniture by the Ateliers Jean Prouvé, 1953–55
Méribel, 1946–48	148	424	The Antony Competition and the Perriand-Prouvé Team, 1954–55
Urgent Furniture for Reconstruction, L’Équipement de la Maison	166
Furniture for Knoll, 1946–48	180	433	TOKYO 1953–55
The Minimum Family Home, The Saint-Lô Hospital, 1947–49	200	434	Return to Japan, 1953
“When materials and techniques are freed, a whole world of creative possibilities will be revealed.”	206	446	Standardization and Nomenclature, the Lessons of Japan
The Unité d’habitation of Marseille, 1947–49	208	452	The Art of Dwelling and the Synthesis of the Arts, Avatars of the Exhibition
Val-d’Isère Sports, Valsport Robert Killy, 1948–49	224	462	“Proposal for a Synthesis of the Arts,” Tokyo, 1955
The CH Chalet, 1948–49	232	486	Collaboration with Kenzo Tange
Publications on Japan	236	490	Charlotte Perriand’s Influence on Japanese Design
The Beginnings of Hardware	240
Formes Utiles, 1949	244
The Art of Dwelling, 1950	252	494	Endnotes
A Kitchen for Élisabeth de Vilmorin, 1949–50	260	510	Biography
Coquatrix Apartment, 1950	262	518	Bibliography
Monnet Apartement, 1950	268	524	Index