

Table of Contents

Introduction
Architecture as Built Criticism: Introduction	Li Xiangning and Wilfried Wang	10	The Embassy of Estonia in Vilnius as a Sign of Change in Architectural Ideals and the Development of Criticism in Lithuania	Algimantas Grigas	136
Architecture as Built Criticism: A Planetary Perspective	Yasmin Shariff	16	The First and Last Tower: Raimund Abraham's Austrian Cultural Forum New York	Eliyahu Keller	148
Local versus Global: A Critique of Modernity	Tosin Oshinowo	24	Going the Opposite Way: Georgio Grassi and The Anxiety of Influence	Ricardo Leitão	160
Early Critiques			Contemporary Paradigms
Architecture in Opposition: Carl Westman's Critical Attitude	Rasmus Wærn	38	Building Breaches in Medellín	Luiz Recamán and Mariana Wilderom	174
Unbuilt Architectural Criticism: Revaluing Kunio Maekawa's 1931 Museum Proposal	Mengfei Pan	50	Inventing the Present: The Case of Tainan Spring between Criticism of the Recent Past and Environmental Urgencies	Patrizia Mello	182
Two Houses and Their Ineluctable Criticisms of Modernity: On the Introduction of a New Style in Turkey	Büşra Köroğlu	60	Discursive Ecology: The Inujima Seirenscho Art Museum and the Means of Modernization	Trenton Sexton	194
The Ethical Dimension: Inner Criticality in Architecture	Juhani Pallasmaa	72	The Brochstein Pavilion and the Pragmatics of Critique	Yifei Zhang	208
Early Paradigms			Tactical Reflections between Architecture, Criticism, and Politics: Towards a Comprehensive and Alternative Thinking of Architectural Practice
Transportation Architecture as Public Symbols: São Bento Subway Station in São Paulo, Brazil	Luísa Augusta Gabriela Teixeira Gonçalves	86		Maria Valeria Bernabei	218
Housing the Gauche Divine: Tales of Franco, Family, and Walden 7	Jaime Silva	96	You Make Me Worry . . . And That Is Good: Building Criticism	Al Borge—David Barragán, Pascual Gangotena, Maríaluisa Borja, and Esteban Benavides	230
The Built Heritage of Peter Blundell Jones: The Architectural Critic's Own Houses as Built Criticism	Xiang Ren	106	Sound of Silence: Chinese Architects Rediscovering Classical Gardens	Jin Qiuye and Chang Tao	240
Architecture beyond Form	Naomi Mehta and Priyanka Salunkhe	118	Construction as a Critique	Wang Shu	252