

Contents

9	Preface
	Wolfdieter Dreibholz
13	Fragmentary Tracings of a Career
	Michael Zinganel
33	Twelve Years with Eilfried Huth: Between Brutalism, Structuralism, and Organic Plasticity
64	Participation as a Political Program or Liberation from the Norms of Late Modernism: The End of a Relationship
69	The Workshop and the Construction Site as the Architect's Places of Yearning
94	Günther Domenig's Professorship at the TU Graz as an Extended Laboratory
119	Architecture as an Art Object and a Sculptural Excess
147	Between Two Stools: Artistic Hyper-Aspirations and Pragmatic (Major) Commissions
168	MAK Museum Exhibition: Promotion of a Gesamtkunstwerk and the Making of a Star Architect
183	At the Height of Popularity: Discourse Densification, Workshops, Guest Professorships
198	Paradigm Shift and Günther Domenig's Professorship in Crisis
205	The Late Work Shaped by the Young Generation—and the Rediscovery of the Structuralism of the 1960s and 1970s
219	Interview with Volker Giencke
226	Interview with Eilfried Huth
	Dieter Fröhlich and Günter Koberg
236	References
237	Index of Names
239	Imprint