

HEAR AND OBEY

INCLINE

INTRODUCTION

Dear Camper,

Welcome to Pine Cove Silverado's Bible Study for 2020!

This year's study will provide you with a set of stories about 5 different characters that help you to dig into the Christian story of the fall, redemption, and restoration of mankind. We will be learning about how each character listens to God by inclining their ear to Him. We will also learn that inclining our ear doesn't mean just hearing God but it is a hearing that leads to obedience. Our hope would be that as you work and read through this study, God will give you a heart of humility so that you would not want to incline your heart to this world but would hear and obey the voice of God. Each Bible study day will be divided into six parts, including a Pack up your Gear, Look at the Map, Hit the Trail, Unpack your Gear, Hang up your Boots. Here's how it breaks down:

PACK UP YOUR GEAR

Each Bible study you will open in prayer and do a quick review of the character from the day before. This will help you see the connections more clearly. Like packing up everything you need before the hike, this will set the tone for learning about God.

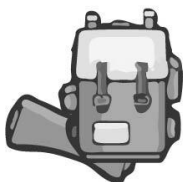

LOOK AT THE MAP

Next, you will read a Bible passage and get to observe the different events and lives of the characters. As a map, this will be the details that help bring to life the trail ahead for the day.

HIT THE TRAIL

Following that, you will also have a chance to think about the scripture passage and dig deeper using both reason and imagination. Much like a real hike, this will lead to working hard, step by step to dig the truth out of the passage.

UNPACK YOUR GEAR

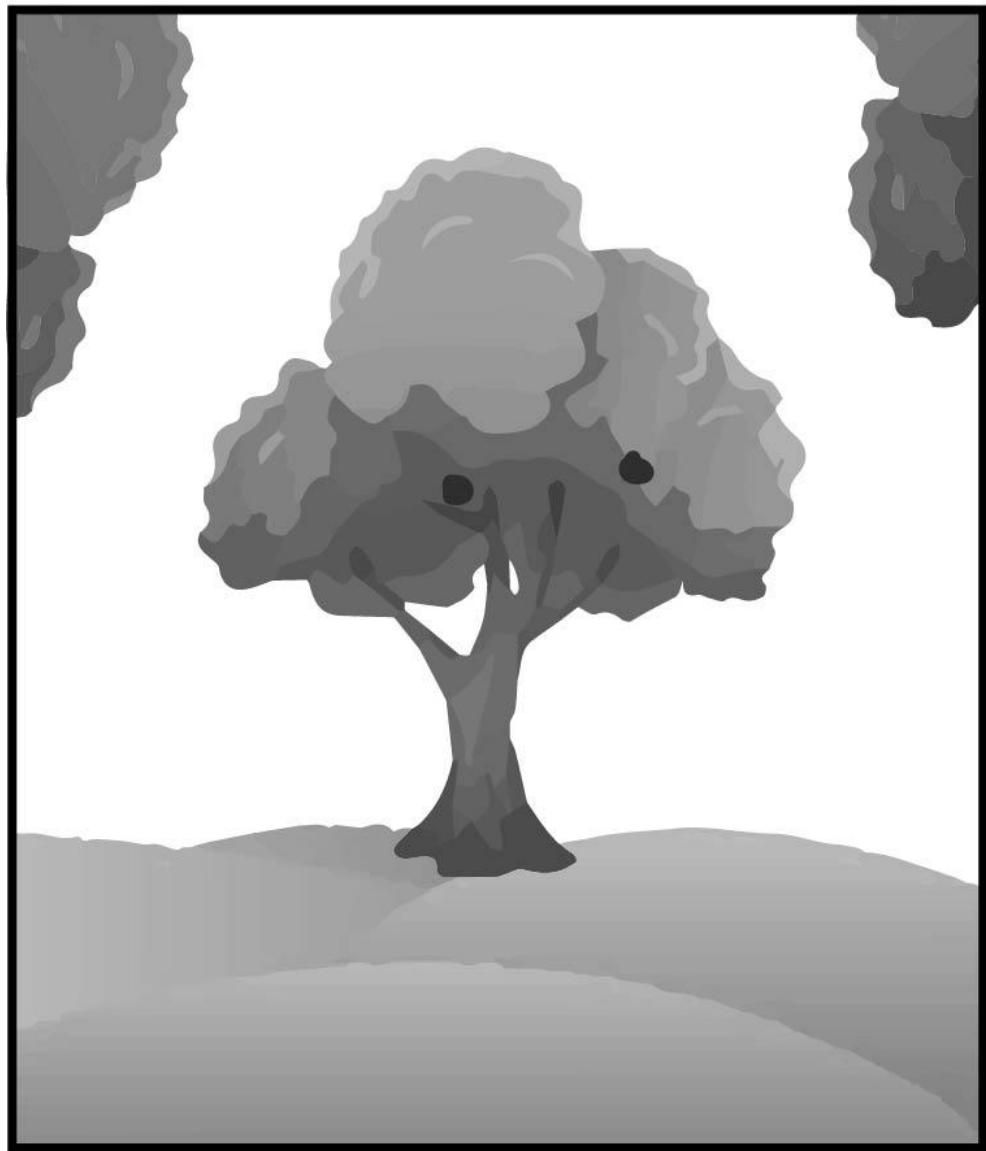

In the Unpack your Gear section, you will take the lessons found in the story and see how to apply them in your life by unpacking the gap between the character's life and your own. Like after a hike, you will use this moment to pause and reflect. Think on the rest of the lesson and prepare for the climax of the lesson which is applying what is in your head to your actions in life. This process allows for heart transformation.

HANG UP YOUR BOOTS

You will also get a chance to memorize scripture every day so that it becomes the overflow of their hearts. You will try to memorize the verse as a group and work on hanging up the truth of God inside their hearts. Before heading out for their next adventure at camp, campers will conclude the Bible study with a short prayer that thanks God for what they have learned and ask Him to help them grow and apply that day's lesson to their life.
