

Pivigo is seeking an

Internal Recruiter

with immediate start date.

Introduction

At Pivigo we are building the leading global marketplace for data science. With our five years of experience running Europe's first, largest and most successful data science bootcamp, Science to Data Science (S2DS), and our current web portal, we are deeply involved with the data science community. We are now looking for an internal recruiter to help us grow the amazing Pivigo team and develop our global community of Freelance Data Scientists.

We are a small, ambitious and dynamic team that offers our clients exclusive access to the best and brightest data science talent on a project-by-project basis. Initially the role will have two key aspects:

1. Sourcing and attracting high calibre individuals across our internal teams including sales, tech and operations
2. Developing the pool of Pivigo freelance data science talent to resource new projects, both from within the existing Pivigo network and beyond

What we are looking for

We are looking for a motivated, organised, articulate, personable, professional and tech-savvy individual to join us in our central London office. You will interact with highly interesting and intelligent people, by email, phone and in person, connecting them with exciting opportunities and supporting their data science career development. This role will suit graduates and those with at least a high-level understanding of the way data is and will continue to shape the way we live our lives for the better. Significant experience within a team environment, as well as experience in a recruitment role, will be advantageous.

What you get

We offer a competitive salary, but more importantly you will be part of a small team working towards delivering a truly global solution. Your contribution will matter. You will matter and you will get the respect of a global community of data scientists, as well as be part of a dynamic and fast growing team. Other benefits include a weekly professional massage, an unlimited supply of cookies and many vouchers and deals via Perkbox. We often organise Pivigo team days to enjoy each other's company and our successes.

Applicants must have their own right to work in the UK as Pivigo is not able to support visa applicants.

Apply by sending a CV and cover letter, referencing "Internal Recruiter" in the email subject, to jobs@pivigo.com
