My name is Christopher Lyles and I am a dedicated and fiercely motivated actor out of Statesboro, GA. I am currently a student at Georgia Southern University and am a Theatre major. The number one thing about me is I'm extremely passionate about my craft and what I do. And what I do is I act, I'm learning to dance and I do reenactments of scenes from any form of cinema, and not just the scenes but also change my voice to sound like the actor/actress speaking at the moment.
