ARTIST BIO

Henri Trinh is a Vietnamese fashion and commercial photographer with over 3 years of experience. He specializes in working with film productions, editorials, print work and modeling and advertising agencies. Born and raised in Saint Louis, he wants his creativity to resonate a larger impact and message. He believes that your creative freedom, process, and life experiences represent the beauty of an idea in one of the purest forms of art. The purpose of his work is to give back to the community by bridging the gap between the discrepancies of his culture and misrepresentation of others and foster the narrative for BIPOC's presence in the creative industry through conversation, employment, and opportunities.

His clientele includes Art Van Furniture, Chicago Bulls, Cintas, Claires, Coleman, Hubbard Street Dance Chicago, Hue Tights, Kohls, JCPenney, Jetson's, Kohls, Midwest Dairy, Nike, Royal Robbins, Sears, Stella Artois and Woke Nation Entertainment.
