Hello, I'm Taylor from Albuquerque, New Mexico, I am a 17 yr old senior in high school, looking for acting jobs. As a hardworking student, I'm aiming for a spot in the film industry. My goal in life is to be a happy, healthy, and successful actor and/or cinematographer. My love for film started when I was a little girl. I enjoyed musicals at the time, but as I've gotten older, I love film and all things about filmmaking. I am looking to further my skills in acting and would like to pursue such a career and hope to gain more experience. Thank you for taking your time to read this and I hope you could consider me for any roles at the time. Any inquiries please email me at, taylor.weare09@gmail.com.
