Summary

I am a Antiguan/African, Singer, Actor. I definitely love the performing arts field. In 2017 I was exposed to it at my primary schools singing competition where I came second place, it's honesty really hard for me to get into contact with these talent agents but I won't give up. I intend to bring my all to the table when dealing with the performing arts field because doing what I love best brings out the true me!
