Biography

Sergio is a qualified actor who studied for five years at the University UNIACC in Santiago, Chile. Since graduating he has participated in a variety of theatre productions and in some television (for example, a show called "Roommates" on HBO).

Throughout the years his professional acumen has grown in leaps and bounds, and is capable of playing many different roles, he listens and communicates well and has received many glowing reports from both directors and photographers alike. Since moving to Brisbane, Australia in April 2018 Sergio has participated in the web series 'El Australian Trip', various television commercials, film and modeling shoots, and campaigns as a brand ambassador. He is a hard worker, has a passion for the arts, is always punctual, and acts in a professional manner at all times.

Sergio speaks fluent Spanish and speaks a proficient level of English. He has taken various speech therapy courses with the intent on making his English as clear as precise as possible. Along with his Latin roots, this without a doubt, makes Sergio a unique asset amongst Australian actors.

Outside of acting, Sergio has a passion for fitness and is a qualified yoga instructor and doctor of Chinese medicine.
