Narrator / The Firebird & the Volcano / 2014 / N/A

I've always been very dramatic and creative. I have found memories of dressing up in various costumes throughout my childhood and reenacting plays I had seen. Throughout secondary school, I have played several lead roles in school plays, and have also been involved in plays at the Tobacco factory (Bristol) and have done voice-over work on an animation that was nominated for the Into Film Awards.

This past year, the arts had struggled & i've realised that it's now or never. I may regret not taking the first steps before it's too late. I hope that with the right boost & guidance, first hand, I can go far & I hope to make my name known in the "biz".

If it takes me 50 casting calls & auditions to get a role, then that's what i'm willing to do. This is my dream & I want to achieve it.
