INTRODUCTION

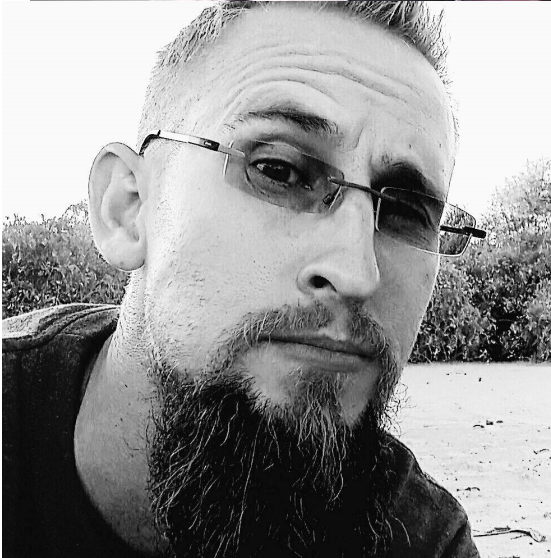

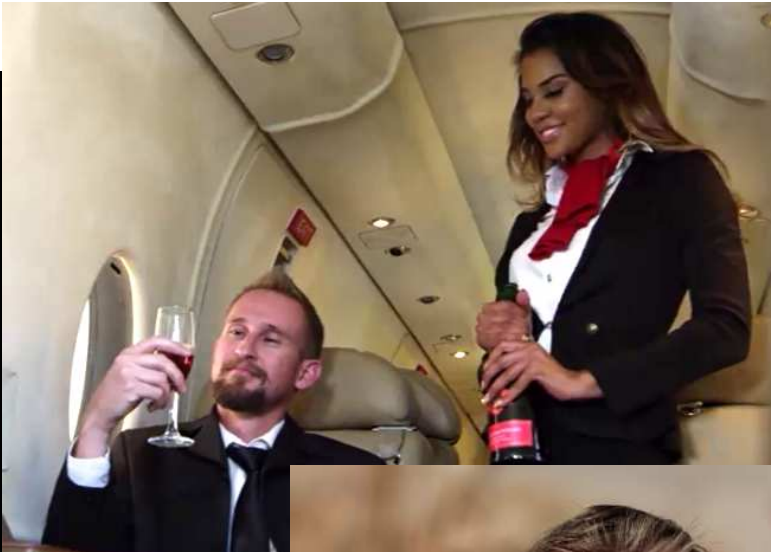

Pieter Greeff graduated with academic colours from the Tshwane University of Technology and has been plying his trade as a full time Engineer and Project Manager, running 2 companies in the Engineering and Property markets, for the last 21 years.

However, his ambition to expand his personal and professional horizons, coupled with a fear of settling for the mundane, has driven him to venture beyond the corporate environment and by doing so has achieved repeat podiums as a Namibian Championship Rally Driver, Amateur Photographer, Published Poet, Singer Songwriter, Advert Photographic Model, Advertising and Feature Film Actor and most recently a Cabaret Singer. He also has a passion for charity and thus founded his charity wecare, in 2020, concentrating mainly on assisting children and the elderly.

Juggling his personal and professional life to achieve these goals, his artistic soul enjoys the arts and always tries to find roles that expands his experience as a singer and actor. Having portrayed a serial killer, journalist, pastor, business men and a farmer in several past productions he is now moving on to an even more challenging role in film, with an international production team, slated to start shooting later this year.
