Biography

I am from Murfreesboro, Tennessee where I started dancing at the age of eight. At the age of 15 is when dance became a significant part in my life, so I expanded my learning into tumbling and competition. I competed for eight years & have gained a love for more than just movement, which lead me to research choreographers like Ysabelle Capitule & Jazlyn Caing. I chose to study at Hussian College In studio as a Commercial Dance major.

At Hussian, I've gotten to learn from Joe Brown, Ann Noble, Kara Mack, Ambrosio the 3rd, Matthew Shaffer, Leslie Stevens, Rosanna Tavaréz, Christine (Negherborn) Abraham, Gilyon aka Mr. Guillotine, Bryn Cohn, William Linn, Kristin Deiss, Jenny Stulberg, & Melissa Rad. On top of dance training, I have taken acting fundamentals & partnership study classes that have not only connected me with different people but I've been able to portray concepts more when I'm dancing. I'm encouraged to use my imagination & bring it to life that it is authentically my creation.
