I AM, BO PAYPERSHOW

Bernard "BO" Williams, also known as BO PAYPERSHOW, is an American entertainer, in every sense of the word. Bo is a city man of many talents, who loves the heat and lots of people. He pursued entertainment due to his desire to be a factor in this life and around the world. "I'm not out just to make a timeless music, I want to make a difference in how people treat one another."

"I have been known to motivate everyone I meet. I set out to be a superstar 12 years ago. I never once thought I couldn't do it. I have always excelled at my goals, with plenty of hard work and my God-given talent. As an actor and model, I have appeared in top movies, magazines, commercials, and brand placements."

HUSTLE WITHOUT A TIME FRAME

As you can tell, I am a sure thing. Unlike other up-and-coming "stars" with no proof, this is no mistake. I'm not just talking and waiting on a handout, I do and did most of the ground work. The foundation is laid.

No one really wants to work with a lazy person. This is what I do full-time. I didn't just wake up last night and say, "I want this." I've paid dues along the way. My resume speaks to that. Despite all of my slip-ups.
