When Covid hit the world, I was in my 3rd year of college at École Hôtelière de Lausanne, doing an internship in a Fashion Show production company. As I think many people, quarantine, made me question my future. Is this the right path for me? Am I going to be fulfilled? Watching movies and shows was a perfect way to escape during this long pause. But each time, a feeling of frustration was getting to me. I didn't want to be watching those movies; I wanted to be in them. I then signed up for "Masterclass" and took everything single lesson about acting, filmmaking, screenwriting...

When thinking about where I wanted to study, only one method and one city made sense. I enrolled and got accepted to the Lee Strasberg Film & Theatre Institute of Los Angeles. Two months after graduating college, on September 10, 2021, I was off to my new start. The method requires a commitment of your body and soul to allow yourself to explore what is hidden inside of you. Under great method actors such as Sharon Angela, MJ Karmi, and many others, I have learned to use my personal experience and emotion to create an authentic and genuine character.

As I always believe, the best way to learn is by practicing, and I feel ready to start my career as an actress. I am determined and willing to work.

I seek representation and hope to find an agent as committed as I am.

Kind Regards,
