

Hamish O'Brien

Hamish was introduced to acting through growing up with film nostalgia and became aware and first fell in love with the world of theatre through his high school VCE Drama by watching and writing about numerous plays at Melbourne's MTC and Lamama Courthouse and Malthouse Theatres. Hamish also performed several plays within his Drama education including Arthur Miller's The Crucible which grew Hamish's passion for acting as he grew an understanding of script and stagecraft. Hamish Began his formal Actor training at Federation University in 2018 with his Bachelor for stage and screen. Reviewing and writing about plays such as Sarah Kane's Blasted has Inspired Hamish's love of storytelling and awareness of the style of theatre which he desires to be part of later in his career. During his time in University he has also performed in many such shows as Grimm Tales, 12 Angry Jurors and Embers by Campion Decent. Hamish looks forward to pursuing more theatre roles in Melbourne and expanding into his dream field of working in films such as those he grew up watching which inspired his acting career.
