ABOUT ME:

I've always taken interest in music, acting and modeling. It is something I wouldn't missed out for anything. I know chances and opportunities are hard to come by but I wanted to give it a try anyway because I know the worth to passionately express myself in our own ways is enough to make me feel innovated to be creative. I love anything that has to do with art as any other artist would and the possibilities to be inspired and imaginative is great.
